Michael M. (Alexander) Anderson md 2nd Whiton Spivey, after Riley's death.

In ca. 1860 "Mica" now 18 yrs old was living with her sister Martha and her husband, Robert Simpson Alcorn Sr., who lived near "Mica's" future husband, Riley W. Anderson, s/o Garland "Gallant" & Sarah (Jones) Anderson. "Mica" (Alexander) Anderson lived with Elizabeth "Libby" Anderson & Margaret (Maddux) & James Wade Anderson – out on the Everett Prichard Ridge, the house later burned. Howard Neal Anderson, Libby's brother built a smaller one and lived there a while. It was probably when his daughter Matilda (Sparks) Anderson went to Baxter Seminary with Miriam (Shanks) Gwaltney.

James 1st wife, Sarah "Sallie" (Goodwin) Anderson died, and he took his children to Texas to visit Joe Alexander and family. James mother and Mica also went to look after the children. Mica had re-married after her husband Riley W. Anderson died. Mica left the new husband, his name was Whiton Spivey. "Mica" was a sister of Louisa (Alexander) Anderson. One time Mica said to Elizabeth, "Make haste and bring some chips." (wood chips to burn). Elizabeth said she'd always remember Mica saying these words to her. Elizabeth "Libby" was a beautiful person, very pretty, I thought.

In the fall of 1885 there was a flux epidemic in Mine Lick Creek area of Putnam Co., TN. Riley, his daughters; Judian "Tiny" & Mary Jane became ill and died. At that time a number of charlatans roamed the countryside, and they claimed extraordinary powers. In her grief, Michael "Mica" hired one against her son's protestations, to bring her husband back to life. After the coffin was lowered the charlatan jumped into the grave waving and chanting, but lo and behold Riley did not rise.

Micheal (Alexander) Anderson, daughter of Reuben Alexander and Elizabeth (Johnson) Alexander and her husband Riley W. Anderson who was the son of Garland "Gallant" Anderson and Sarah (Jones) Anderson. Picture above was two separate photos made into one. When old photos were made the person had to sit real still with a brace behind their head so they would not move, this action sometimes caused a grim expression on the subject's face.

Naomi Florilla's half brother was, Pvt. Byrum Frank Huddleston. He was the s/o Isaac & Judith Wallace Huddleston, Isaac's 2nd wife.

Capt. William Asbury Ensor fought for the Confederate States of America Co. G. 84th Infantry (became 28th Infantry E company). The William Asbury Ensor, TN, 84th Infantry, Co. G, Captain was William Asbury. Ensor. William organized a company of 35 men, friends and neighbors, and served as Captain under Colonel G.S. Stanton. It is interesting to know that William was not a slave owner.

The 84th was at the Battle of Shiloh – General Donelson, in his report of the battle, stated: The 84th, being a new and very small regiment, was assigned to my command December 29, 1862, only two days before the battle. "I deemed it best to leave it in the rear in support of Carnes' Battery. Colonel Stanton's Regiment was not seriously engaged, though I do not doubt, if an opportunity had presented itself, that both he and his men would of fought most gallantly." Wm. A. Ensor is living in the 18th Dist. of Jackson Co., TN, shown in the 1850 US census with his wife, Naomi & Jonathan; Isaac; Emiline Tate & America Thompson Ensor His mother Ruth (Jared) Ensor is living with them and she is 50 yrs. old.

Was called "Hog Joe" because he had so many hogs.
Joseph owned and operated the Allison Stand Inn, later called Isbell Hotel on the courthouse square. Operated later by his widowed wife, Angeline and her new *husband James "Jim" Livingston Isbell. See Brassell Hanging Story.
Located at the corner of the Nashville Road, now Highway 70, and the old Sparta road, the Inn stood about two to three miles from Jim Brassell's home near what is now the Double Springs community, and it provided food and shelter for travelers passing through the area.

death: Deed Bk. F, pg. 228, Putnam Co., TN, Thomas Shirley Anderson, father of Garland Anderson. Garland Anderson born at Blackburns Fork on Roaring River, a tributary of the Cumberland River, near Gainesboro in Jackson Co., TN.

He and his brothers Thomas Jr. and Edward and their sister Annie Bartlett and their families came to Buffalo Valley, TN about 1838. They had enough gold to buy land. I was told that Garland and Thomas Jr. built their houses within sight of each other. I believe that Thomas's house later became known as the Doc.
Scott Farmer House. Garland's house was destroyed by fire about 1950. It was

Edith Maddux Neal
d/o Charlie B. & Martha D. Maddux

a large two story house. The heat from the fire defaced the names on the tombstones of the Anderson family cemetery that was located near the house.

The 1854-5 poll taxes shows that he owned 300 acres and no slaves. June 1st, 1858 he sold 164 acres and 27 poles to Yancy Malone, in Buffalo Valley. Garland liked to hunt and camp out on a hill-top behind his home, beneath two large Chestnut trees where he asked to be buried. He said that this was as close to heaven as he would ever get. He is buried there. Story by Louis Huston Gill, s/o Addie (Anderson) & Preston Gill.

buried: at the edge of the road in front of their house, no markers.

Thomas A. Anderson was listed in the 1860 census. It shows him living with his father and sister, Rebecca; his mother is apparently dead. I was told that during the Civil War, Thomas would hide beneath the floor via a trap door and his mother would put a rug down and sit in a rocking chair on top. She was supposed to be an invalid. Be so doing he avoided military service until near the end of the war when he joined the Union Army. Because of this, his brother, Riley W. , a Confederate veteran would hardly speak to him, but the families would mingle and Thomas didn't let this bother him.

After the Civil War, Thomas built a house just to the east and within sight of Silver Point, on a winter day when the trees were bare. This is on Anderson Road near I-40, Interstate Highway. He married Mary A. Polly (Dump) Carr and they had a large family. The oldest son, Riley was killed in a run-away wagon accident, as a youth. Thomas died in the west front room of this house. A few hundred feet east of this house and across the road from an old barn, Thomas, his wife Polly and their son, Riley are buried next to the road in unmarked graves in 1931. About 1919 Louis Anderson, a nephew, the son of his brother, Riley purchased this farm and lived there till he died in 1935. The farm and house were sold after the death of Louis's wife, Matilda Isabelle Wallace in 1957. The house burned down. Story by Louis Huston Gill, s/o Addie (Anderson)

Story of James Anderson

by Janet Anderson - 1984

James brought 400 acres of land from Anne Mayo in Cumberland Co., VA. Anne was the very land wealthy widow of Joseph Mayo, and these 400 acres were part of a 4,740 acre patent that Joseph Mayo had received in August of 1740. James paid Anne twenty-four pounds for the land. The land had a small creek running through it known as Soke Arse Creek or Run. One can only imagine how the creek received it's name but sometime in the early part of the 1800's the creek was renamed Bonbrooke as it remains today. It is impossible to know how James' land looked in 1750 as today it is included in state forest land and is used for planting and cutting of pulp. Some of the types of trees listed in the Mayo-Andersons deed include gum, pine, white oak and Spanish oak.

Records on James and Margaret after 1750 are sparse. Records have been found that does show that James and Margaret were still in Cumberland, VA in 1761-62. At that time the couple were suing Moses Smith for talking indecently to Margaret. A suit was filed in Cumberland, VA for a "plea of trespass case ... damage one hundred pounds," and continued until May of 1762 when the case was dismissed, James and Margaret failing to prosecute. Then in 1766, from the records, it would appear that James was in debt to George Kippen and James Lyle for fifteen pounds, two shillings and six pence. According to the records James absconded from Cumberland, VA and an inventory was made of all the items he had left behind in order to satisfy his debt. Where he and Margaret and their young family went has not been discovered.

s/o Judith (Southall) & Edward Robinson Sr.).

Richard seems to purchase his first land from Andrew Edwards in 1793, and his last from his father-in-law in 1794. Maybe because he died early, but he seemed to be the poorest of the brothers. He probably lived on the 400 acres until his own marriage but never owned any of it, although his own land was very close to his older brothers.
