Dr. Kenneth L. Haile, 52, one of Cookeville's most outstanding physicians, died around 8 p.m. Sunday of a heart attack while vacationing at the Cumberland State Park in Crossville.

Funeral services for Dr. Haile were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Phillip Ritter, pastor of the church, and Dr. Bruce Strother, pastor of the McKendree Methodist Church in Nashville officiating. Burial was in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, four sons, William Henry Haile of Washington D. C.; Kenneth L. Haile Jr., a student at Vanderbilt; John G. Haile, a student at Tennessee Tech; James J. Haile, of the home; daughter, Sara Sherwood Haile, of the home; sister, Mrs. Leonard Brandrup of Charles City, Iowa; two brothers, James Haile of Cookeville and Paul Haile, Kingston, Tennessee; two uncles, Tom and Fred Haile of Gainesboro; one granddaughter, Elia Marie Haile of Washington D. C.

Dr. Haile had suffered two previous heart attacks, the first in August of 1966 and the second in February of 1967, relatives said. He had seemed much improved, however, and attended church services Sunday at the First Methodist Church where he had always been an active member and had served as chairman of the board of trustees.

Dr. and Mrs. Haile, along with Rev. and Mrs. McMillian, of Greeneville, TN, former pastor of St. Michael's Episcopal Church here, were enjoying a two-day vacation at the state park when he was stricken.

A relative said the doctor had had a good day and he was sitting before the fire in his cabin when he got up and fell to the floor. He succumbed in the cabin, the relative said.

Dr. Haile loved the out-of-doors and had taken his fishing equipment with him on the vacation, the relative said.

An Eagle Scout himself, Dr. Haile was very active with the Boy Scouts and had been cited for his work. He was also very active in church work at the First Methodist Church.

Dr. Haile attended Tennessee Tech for two years, but received his medical degree from the University of Tennessee School of Medicine. He served his internship at Gallinger Memorial Hospital in Washington D. C., and served one year as resident in surgery at General Hospital in Nashville, before starting practice in Cookeville, a practice he maintained for some 20 years.

In 1947 he began his practice in Cookeville. He is past president of the Putnam County Medical Society and a member of the American Academy of General Practitioners.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Mary Josephine "Jo" Haile, 90, of Cookeville, will be held at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, June 2, at Cookeville First United Methodist Church. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 11 a.m. until time of services on Wednesday at the church.

Mrs. Haile died Sunday morning, May 30, 2010, at her home surrounded by her family.

She was born Dec. 26, 1919, in Nashville to the late John Owen and Jimmie Lee Smotherman Griffin.

Mrs. Haile was orphaned at age 7, and lived with a 21-year-old uncle and then her siblings, each putting the other through school, one at a time. Growing up at the height of the Depression, she utilized libraries and became a lifelong avid reader, developing a gift for storytelling. She attended MTSU and graduated from the Nashville School of Nursing as a Registered Nurse.

While working at Nashville General Hospital, she met and fell in love with a young resident doctor from Cookeville, Kenneth Haile, and her destiny was transformed. In the world of the Greatest Generation, everything changed again on December 7, 1941, and they married on December 23rd, as he planned to enter service, eventually serving in the Navy in the Atlantic and Pacific. She worked at the Vultee Aircraft Plant as a nurse.

After the war, though he had a promising career set in Nashville, Dr. Haile felt a calling to bring the couple and their children home to Cookeville in 1947. He began general practice and she enthusiastically balanced raising the family and a long career of volunteer positions.

She was very active in community service. She staffed the Red Cross Bloodmobile for many years, served the American Cancer Society and American Heart Association chapters, the Cookeville Study Club, numerous groups and positions with First United Methodist Church, and many organizations involving her five children.

Mrs. Haile received the Longrifle Award from the Boy Scouts of America, and a Lifetime Membership Award from the Capshaw PTA. She worked in numerous other activities associated with her children's schools, clubs and sports.

After Dr. Haile died in 1968, she worked at Tennessee Tech University's Student Health Clinic. She also continued her active interests in her church, bridge and reading as long as her health allowed.

Like the classic plots of novels by authors such as Charles Dickens, her life had many dramatic turns. But she saw her life as that of a character where, despite the tragic moments, happiness genuinely prevails with the help of family, friends and faith.

Her family includes a daughter and son-in-law, Sara and John Deppen of Augusta, Ga.; four sons and three daughters-in-law, Henry and Bette Haile of Nashville, Dr. Kenneth and Jyotsna Haile of Marietta, Ga., John and Emma Jane Haile of Cleveland and Jim Haile of Washington, D.C.; 10 grandchildren, Ella Marie and husband Jeff Dunn, Porter and wife Christie Haile, Perry B. Haile, Jayson Haile, Sally Haile, Morgan and wife Jennifer Haile, Laura Haile, Lucy Deppen, Jennifer Deppen and Mary Rebecca Deppen; four great-grandchildren, Karley Dunn and Eden, Griffin and Elijah Haile; and a sister-in-law, Virginia Haile of Lenoir City.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Kenneth Lee Haile; a brother, John Owen Griffin Jr.; and three sisters, Lucy Griffin Polansky, Sara Griffin and Orra Griffin.

Pallbearers will be family and friends.

Memorial donations may be made to one of the organizations central to her life, including the Putnam County Library, Cookeville First United Methodist Church, the American Heart Association or the American Cancer Society.

Revs. Max Mayo and Drew Shelly will officiate at the services.

SMITH COUNTY – Cookeville man killed in I-40 accident.

A Cookeville man driving a motorcycle was killed in a traffic crash in Smith County on Friday night, according to the Tennessee Highway Patrol.

Kenneth Wayne Hall, 55, died in the three-vehicle accident, which happened just after 10 p.m. June 1 in the eastbound lanes of Interstate 40, says a report by State Trooper Keith Maddox.

Hall was driving a 2000 Harley Davison motorcycle east on I-40 at the 253 mile marker when a vehicle traveling behind him "appeared to strike the motorcycle," the report says.

A truck driver, Fred Anthony Brewer, 48, of North Carolina, was traveling behind the vehicle which appeared to hit the cycle, and when the vehicle in front of him "went to the shoulder" of the highway, the trucker swerved into the left lane to avoid the crash, but struck the motorcycle driver, the report says.

The vehicle which first hit the motorcycle fled the scene, and law officers are still trying to locate that driver.

Before the accident, Hall was diving his motorcycle in the right lane, the second vehicle was behind him, and the truck, a 2003 Freightliner tractor trailer, was about 500 feet behind the second vehicle, according to the trooper's report.

After the crash, the motorcycle came to rest in the median, and the trucker stopped in the fast lane of traffic, the report says. The trucker was not injured. Kenneth Wayne Hall worked at KNC Transmission Parts and Dacco Inc. for many years.

The crash is still under investigation.

TRUCK FALL KILLS MAN

A Pumam County man was killed late Saturday afternoon when the front of an 18-wheeler truck fell on him as he was attempting to change a tire.

James B. Hamilton, 48, of Rt. 2, Cookeville, was dead on arrival at Cookeville General Hospital around 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

The accident occurred at a residence on Locust Grove Road, off Highway 70 west of Cookeville near Odie's Drive-In.

Hamilton, his brother and a nephew were jacking the 18-wheeler truck up with a hydraulic jack in order to change a left front tire, according to Chief Deputy Donnie Duncan of the sheriff's department.

"James (Hamilton) crawled under the truck to jack it up more, and the axle of the truck slipped off the jack, causing the bumper to hit his head," Duncan said.

"After the truck fell, it sprung back to its normal position, because the jack was under the springs of the truck," he said.

SIMCOX CHARGED IN MINISTER'S MURDER

Source: Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN
Monday, 22 May 1978

Secretary To Be Chief Witness
By Bronwyn Turner

REV. JAMES C. HAMMONS
His 'Counsel' Sought

ORVILLE B. SIMCOX
'Pray For Me'

A Cookeville secretary will apparently be the state's chief witness against her lover who is charged with murdering her minister when finding them together in a secluded area of a cemetery west of Cookeville about noon Friday.

Mrs. Constance (Polly) Nichols of Monterey, has told close friends of the family that she had gone to Judd Cemetery in the Holladay community near Cookeville with Rev. James C. Hammons, minister of Mill Creek Baptist Church to talk with him about her wishes to end her relationship with Orville B. Simcox, 55, also of Monterey.

But Simcox, a Putnam County political figure and retired Tennessee Central Railroad conductor, had allegedly followed them and there near the Judd Cemetery church he shot Hammons twice in the head as he sat in Mrs. Nichols' car, and he died immediately.

District Attorney General John Roberts confirmed today that a preliminary hearing in the case may be waived by agreement between prosecutors and defense attorney Donald Dickerson and an indictment sought directly from the grand jury.

A June 2 date has been tentatively set for a preliminary hearing Roberts said. In the meantime, the case will go before the grand jury, he indicated.

Hammons, 40, was shot twice in the head, once in the forehead and once in the right temple, according to reports.

His body was found near the church, in a puddle of blood, by ambulance attendants answering an anonymous phone call received at 11:48 a.m. Hammons was declared dead on arrival at Cookeville General Hospital shortly before noon, after a second anonymous phone call was made to the Putnam Ambulance Service.

Authorities investigating the shooting have been reluctant to release details of the events leading to Hammons' death. But sources indicate that Mrs. Nichols was being "counseled" by Rev. Hammons when Simcox allegedly surprised them and shot Hammons to death.

According to one report, Simcox forced Mrs. Nichols to assist in moving Hammons body by car the 150 yards from the cemetery to the church then leaving the body there and attempting to clean up the car.

Simcox was arrested by officers Friday night outside Cookeville General Hospital where he was visiting his wife, a patient there.

Simcox was leader of the 5th Sunday Gospel Singing and had performed with Hammons in a revival in a Cookeville church two weeks ago.

Hammons, a resident of Quinland Lake Road, was a member of the Hammons Trio, a popular gospel singing group, and minister of the Mill Creek Baptist, near Cookeville. He also worked as a salesman for Foam and Wood Industries, 621 Maxwell.

Apparently Hammons was contacted by Mrs. Nichols, a member of his church, Friday morning. Mrs. Nichols, about 30, told one source that she was trying to break up a relationship with Simcox, was afraid of him and was seeking counseling from her minister about the situation.

Hammons and Mrs. Nichols reportedly first met at a Cookeville shopping center, then drove in separate cars to the church after having encountered Simcox in the shopping center parking lot.

At the church, Hammons reportedly got in Mrs. Nichols' car and drove with her to the rear of the cemetery to talk with her. Simcox allegedly followed them and at once shot Hammons at close range with a 25-caliber pistol.

Simcox is being held without bond at Putnam jail. He told a newsman at the jail Saturday. "Pray for me."

Ms. Hanna passed away Monday, May 11, 2020, at Heritage Pointe Assisted Living after an extended illness. She was born Shirley Faye Cravens to the late Boyd and Sadie Cravens in Jamestown, Tennessee.

Ms. Hanna graduated from York High School and from Tennessee Technological University with a degree in education. She was a kindergarten teacher at Jere Whitson Elementary School for 26 years. She loved the hundreds of children that began their education in her classroom over those years.

Shirley, or "Mema" as she was lovingly known by her grandchildren, was a loving, devoted mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She enjoyed working tirelessly in her yard and growing beautiful flowers. She was an awesome cook, and shared her delicious food with her family and friends. Shirley loved reading and would collect children's books to donate to local schools.

Shirley accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior on Easter Sunday morning in 1998 at Stevens Street Baptist Church (SSBC), where she was baptized and became a member. She worked for many years with the sweet and caring ladies sorting donated clothing on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the SSBC Care Center. These ladies and the time she spent serving there were so special to her. She was an active member of Joyce Gentry's Ladies Friendship Sunday School Class family and friends with Mary Tollett's Class. She served in numerous annual mission trips to Montana, participated in Keenagers, and was a greeter at SSBC.

She is survived by her three children, Kyle (Kim) Hanna of Cookeville, Michael (Kim) Hanna of Cookeville, and Kathy Hanna of Cincinnati, Ohio. Her grandchildren include Kourtney Hanna Smith (Dustin) and great-grandson, Caleb Smith of LaVergne, Tennessee, Kandace Hanna Matheney (Justin) and great-granddaughter, Maci Rae Matheney of Cookeville, Emily Hanna (Alex Ristau) of St. Louis, Missouri, and Scott Hanna (Elizabeth Grim) of Knoxville, Tennessee. Other family members include sisters-in-law, Yvonne Meadows, Bonnie Hanna, Ruth Cravens and Connie Cravens, as well as many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, Harris and Larry Cravens.

A special thanks to those who helped care for her in the last years: Melissa Holder, Yvette Intermill, Miranda Cook, Kris Diaz and several others. The hours spent with her caregivers brought her joy and the family great peace.

Mom/"Mema", we look forward to the day we will see you again and worship Jesus together for eternity.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to be made to "The WOW Bus." Checks should be made payable to Putnam County Board of Education with "The WOW Bus" written on the memo line, 1400 East Spring Street, Cookeville, TN 38501 or to the Care Center at Stevens Street Baptist Church, 327 West Stevens Street, Cookeville, TN 38501.

Joyce Harris, 60 of Putnam County, Tennessee passed away on Thursday, May 26, 2022, at Ft. Sanders Regional Medical Center in Knoxville, Tennessee, surrounded by loved ones.

Born Friday, April 27, 1962, she was the daughter of the late Edward Capps and the late Thelma Hale Porterfield. Her son lovingly describes Joyce as a free spirit and a spunky hot mess. She was often loved for her lack of filter and "tellin' it like it is." Joyce loved all things country, from camping and fishing, to traveling around the South, such as Jekyll Island, GA. While on the road, Joyce tried to hit all the flea markets for undiscovered treasures. One of her many talents was cooking, with her most memorable recipes including macaroni and cheese, fried green tomatoes, and fried potatoes; she was armed in the kitchen with a trusty cast iron skillet. She loved to garden with her late husband Larry, growing everything from green beans, tomatoes, potatoes, okra, yellow squash, corn, cantaloupe, watermelon, and more.

Walnut, Cookeville, TN. Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Helena Hollett, mother, Ontario, Canada).

Ella Mae Hollett Bullock Haynes passed from this life on August 18, 2023.

The daughter of a fisherman and a seamstress, she was the oldest of five siblings, and was born at home in Lewin's Cove, Newfoundland on December 29, 1936.

Ella is survived by her husband of fifty-eight years, retired Tennessee National Guard Major Donald E. Haynes; three children, Barbara Bullock Greeson (Jim); Marvin Bullock; and Eddy Haynes (Diane); one grandson, Stephen Lee (Cynthia) one step-granddaughter, Claire Wyche (Jon); and three great-grandchildren; Caroline Lee, Andrew Lee, and Emma Wyche. She is predeceased by her mother and father, George and Helena Hollett of Newfoundland.

Graduating from high school at age fifteen, Ella Mae moved to St. Lawrence, Newfoundland to work, and at seventeen married U.S. Navy Sea Bee Marvin Fred Bullock, who was from Algood, Tennessee. Widowed at age 24, with two young children, Ella, determined to raise her children in the USA, went to work at Powers TV & Appliance Mart in Cookeville and from there to a career in banking, beginning at the First National Bank on the square in Cookeville and ending at American Bank and Trust.

Ella married Donald Haynes on July 3, 1965, and their son, Eddy was born in 1967. Together, Ella and Don owned and operated Haynes Office Supply & Printing Company in Cookeville for many years before retiring early and spending more than thirty years traveling, sometimes by air to places that included Hawaii, Greece, and Italy, but most often in their motorhome, as far north as Newfoundland and as far south as Mexico, as well as countless adventures east and west, and every winter in Florida.

Ella loved to dance, and a typical week included three nights of dancing. Weekends meant circling the garage sale ads in the Herald Citizen and striking out on Saturday mornings for treasures, bumping into old friends and enjoying encounters with new acquaintances. She maintained her Canadian citizenship and love for Newfoundland, but would often campaign for candidates in her adopted country, where she was so proud to have made a life for herself and family. Ella was a member of First Cumberland Presbyterian Church where she helped tend the flowers and loved gathering items for the annual Ladies' yard sale. She and Donald also volunteered for Cookeville Regional Medical Center for several years, delivering and setting up Life Lines in people's homes.

She loved her children, and raised them to have an appreciation for life and family, and love and laughter. She loved her grandson, teaching him her childhood sport of ice skating, and taking him for long stretches of his young summers traveling, enjoying camping life.

Ella loved her friends, too many to name or count. Her home was always open, and unplanned gatherings for dinners or visits with lots of laughter and appetizers on the deck were the norm. During the past several months, her circle of friends grew to include many dedicated caregivers whose hearts she touched with her sweet spirit and gracious manner, and whose visits brightened her days. Her family will always be grateful for those relationships that grew from our support from Gentiva Hospice and Bailey Manor. Diana Nevins and Cindy West were very special friends that made it possible for Ella to remain at home for as long as possible.

Services for Ella will be Tuesday, August 22, 2023 from the chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home in Cookeville, Tennessee, with visitation from 10:00 until the time of the service at 1:00, with Rev. Christian Smith officiating. Entombment will follow at Crest Lawn Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made to the Parkinson's Foundation at parkinson.org; to First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, 565 E. Tenth St., Cookeville, TN 38501; or to a charity of your choice.

Hooper Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

COOKEVILLE-Aline Francis Herron, a generous woman of faith, love, and devotion, passed away peacefully on February 18, 2024, in her hometown of Cookeville, TN. Born on November 21, 1925, to the late Robert Taylor Parrott, Sr. and Delma Adams Parrott, Aline was a cherished member of the Cookeville community and to her church throughout her 98 years of life.

Aline's journey began as one of the Parrott siblings, and though she was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband Walter Lex Herron, her son and daughter-in-law Glynon and Debbie Herron, her grandson Spencer Amonette, and her siblings Robert Taylor Parrott, Jr., her infant twin sister Pauline Isabel Parrott, Roy Parrott, Ruth White, Blanch West, Ray Parrott, Lucille Lofty, and John Ralph Parrott, her legacy is carried on by her loving family. She leaves behind her children Walter (Margaret) Herron, Robert (Diane) Herron, Marcia Curtis, Ann (Donald) Goldman, and Phillip Herron. Aline was a proud grandmother to Inge (Ed) Conway, Melissa (Brennan) Baird, Katherine (Justin) Lindsey, Hannah (Andy) Weber, Silas (Krista) Goldman, Shane Petit, Teresa Petit, and Titus Simmons. She was also a great-grandmother to Matthew (Kristin) McWilliams, Wyatt Baird, Christine and Catelyn Baird, Catherine Conway, Edison and Ethan Collins, Dylan Weber, Sophis Weber, Lucas Weber, Bowen Weber, Misha Goldman, Leo Goldman and Isaac Goldman and great-great-grandmother to Taylor, Jayda, and Kayliegh.

Aline's unwavering faith was the cornerstone of her life. She was one of the 17 charter members of Stevens Street Baptist Church, a testament to her enduring devotion to her community and to God. The church, a mission of Cookeville First Baptist Church, was formed by her parents, with her father constructing the first building. Aline's spirit and dedication to her faith in Jesus Christ were evident to all who knew her.

Widowed at any early age, Aline faced the world with determination and grace, raising six children on her own. Her children fondly remember her as a saint, a testament to her nurturing and selfless nature. Aline's love for life was undeniable, and she remained active in her passions well into her later years. She cultivated a vegetable garden every year and preserved the bounty of her harvest through canning until the age of 97, ensuring her family always had a taste of home.

Aline's hands were rarely still, as she found joy in gardening, fishing, embroidering, and quilting. She was known for her culinary skills, especially her cornbread and the homemade fudge she lovingly prepared each Christmas. Her sense of humor was as delightful as her cooking, bringing laughter and lightness to those around her.

Generosity and love were words that embodied Aline's essence. Her kindness touched the lives of many, and her legacy of love is woven into the fabric of her family and community. Aline lived a happy life, one that was full of love and cherished moments. Her memory will be held in the hearts of those who knew her as a symbol of generosity and unwavering love.

Aline Herron's life was a journey of faith, family, and joy. As we bid farewell to this extraordinary woman, we celebrate the legacy she leaves behind. Her spirit, characterized by her generosity and loving nature, will continue to inspire and guide us. Aline's life was a testament to the beauty of a life well-lived, and she will be profoundly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Melin Jackson Horne Sr. Obt.

Melin Jackson Horne Sr., s/o Roy Neal Horne (1922-1970) & Viola Elizabeth Reddick (1925-2019), both born in Calvary Cemetery, Lawrenceburg, Lawrence Co., TN.

(Source: Tennessee State Marriage record, Lawrence Co., TN, pg. 15, #29 – Merlin Jackson Horne married 27 November 1975, Lawrence Co., TN, age 22 to Susan Ann McConnell, age 19)

Merlin Jackson Horne Sr., 70, of Cookeville, Tennessee, passed away Friday, Dec. 1, 2023.

Known affectionately as Merlin to his friends and family, he was born March 23, 1953, in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, to the late Roy Neal Horne and Viola Elizabeth Reddick Horne.

His warm presence and jovial spirit left an indelible mark on all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Merlin was a proud graduate of Lawrence County High School, class of 1971. His thirst for knowledge and love for his community led him to further his education at Tennessee Tech University. His commitment to serving others was evident through his honorable service in the United States Navy, where he dedicated two years to his country with great patriotism and valor.

Following his military service, Merlin began a long and respected career at Office Mart in Cookeville. He joined the company in 1985 and quickly became a beloved member of the team. His colleagues appreciated his handy skills and friendly demeanor. Merlin retired in 2015 after 30 years of dedicated service, leaving behind a legacy of loyalty and countless fond memories among his coworkers and customers.

Outside of work, Merlin was a man of simple yet passionate interests. He had a deep appreciation for music, a hobby that provided him with both solace and joy. Merlin could often be found playing a game of solitaire, where he exhibited the same patience and strategy that he applied to various aspects of his life. His love for treasure hunting at Goodwill was well-known; he delighted in finding hidden gems and sharing them with those he loved.

Merlin's big personality was as expansive as his heart. He was renowned for his punctuality — or rather, his consistent lack thereof — but his friends and family knew that waiting for Merlin meant receiving the gift of his company, which was always worth the extra time.

Those who knew Merlin will remember him as a funny, handy and friendly man. He approached life with a sense of humor that was as natural to him as breathing. His hands were rarely still, always fixing, building or improving something around him. And above all, he was a friend to all, generous with his time, his talents and his attention. Merlin's family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to the staff of AHC Bethesda who lovingly cared for him for almost two years.

He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Susan; daughter, Stephanie (Daniel) Alfaro, of Cookeville; sons, Jackie Horne, of Cookeville and Tim (Jonissa) Horne, of Sparta; four brothers, Dorsey and Jim Horne, of both of Murfreesboro, Joe Horne, of Franklin, Tennessee, and John Horne, of Lawrenceburg; sister, Beverly Lindsey, of Killen, Alabama; three grandchildren, Aurora Horne, Henry Alfaro and Benjamin Alfaro; and a granddaughter-to-be, Elizabeth Horne.

A graveside service and interment with military honors will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, Dec. 4, 2023 at Crest Lawn Cemetery. Brother Steve Thornton will officiate. His family will receive friends 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

COOKEVILLE TEEN DIES IN PLUNGE FROM FALLS

Mary Jo Denton
Herald-Citizen Staff, Cookeville, TN
Friday, Sep 11, 2009

JACKSON COUNTY -- A Cookeville teenager died after falling 30 to 40 feet at Cummins Falls in Jackson County on Wednesday afternoon. Bryan Hudelston, 18, and friends of his had been exploring the rugged terrain at the popular hiking and swimming spot which is located on private property in a rural area on the edge of Jackson County, officials said.

It happened about 3:25 p.m. on Sept. 9. The boy's uncle, Jesse Hudelston Jr., said he was told that Bryan and his friends were climbing back up the steep bluff when Bryan turned "to blow a kiss to a girl" and lost his footing. Jeff Allen, director of the Jackson County Ambulance Service and a member of the Jackson County Rescue Squad, told the Herald-Citizen that the boy "was out on an upper ledge and just lost his footing and fell down some 30 to 40 feet and hit a rock at the bottom of the falls, then went into the water."

"One of his friends said he saw him fall, heard the rustle of the brush as he went down, and saw him hit on a rock down there," Allen said. "That little swimming hole at the bottom is supposed to be about 10 to 12 feet deep, and some of his friends went down there and waded in, trying to find him, but they couldn't." Someone called for help, and 12 members of the Jackson County Rescue Squad responded, along with 10 volunteers from the Dodson Branch Fire Department, and deputies from the Jackson County Sheriff's Department, Allen said. "Our dive team went down to him and located him under the water within about 15 minutes," he said.

But getting the dive team and their equipment safely down to the area took some time, and the body was located and brought back up at about 5:30 p.m., he said. Uncertain whether it was injuries in the fall or drowning which caused the death, the authorities sent the body to Nashville for an autopsy, and the investigation was still underway on Thursday, Allen said. Allen said it was the sixth time this year that rescuers have been called to Cummins Falls to help victims of falls and other type accidents. All five of the victims in the other cases survived, he said.

Hudelston graduated from Cookeville High School earlier this year. He was the son of Carol and Anthony Tays of Swafford Road, Cookeville. His uncle, Jesse Hudelston Jr., described Bryan as "a typical teenager" who was enjoying summer activities before settling down to look for a job. Funeral services will be held on Monday at Crest Lawn Funeral Home.

Dr. Gordon Eugene Hunter, age 89, passed away at his home on Saturday, July 4, 2020.

Gordon was born July 17, 1930 at Sharon, PA to Gordon Leroy and Dorothy Melissa (nee Smith) Hunter.

He graduated from James Ford Rhodes HS, Cleveland, OH, June 11, 1948 where he was an All-State wrestler, ran cross-country, and participated in gymnastics. After serving in the Air Force, he attended Mississippi College, where he met Gene Anne Morris, the love of his life and wife of 61 wonderful years. He wrote in a letter to her, "You were 20 when we met. I think I'll never forget that snaggle-toothed smile that sent my heart reeling and deep inside I had the feeling you were the one for me." Gordon and Gene Anne were married on December 20, 1955 at Gene Anne's home church, First Baptist Church, Sparta, IL. They both graduated college with honors in 1956.

After graduation, they spent 2 years teaching English and Biology on Guam where Morris was born, spent 1 year teaching general science in Hoopeston, IL where Mark was born, and was accepted for a National Science Foundation program to work on a master's degree in science at Washington University in St. Louis, MO, where Steven was born. Gordon completed a Ph.D at Washington University then taught 4 years at Murray State University. In 1967 Tennessee Tech hired Gordon as the Biology Department Chairman, where he taught until retirement in 1995. A beloved teacher, in 1990 Dr. Hunter was awarded "Tennessee Professor of the Year."

Most certainly, Gordon loved to learn, loved to teach, loved his students, loved science, and loved life; however, none of these came near to the passion he had for his family. Talk about an adventure! He, Gene Anne, and their 3 boys were very often hiking, hunting, fishing, white-water canoeing, competitive swimming, repelling, black-berry picking, house-building, farming cows and tobacco, camping out while traveling the states, boogey-boarding at the beach, water skiing at the lake, singing together at church, or laughing until they cried at the supper table. Often Gene Anne's sister Janis and her daughters Paige and Lisa joined them in their adventures. Gordon, Gene Anne, and family knew how to do life together.

Gordon was predeceased by his wife Gene Anne, his parents, brother Howard Hunter, sister Kathy Hoppers, sister-in-law Janis Swim, niece Lisa Royse, and nephew Joey Hunter.

He is survived by his three sons: Morris (Laurel) Hunter, Mark (Karen) Hunter, and Steve (Tracey) Hunter, seven grandchildren: Emilee (Darren) Rogers, Aimee Hunter, Amanda (Casey) Prater, Erica Hunter, Garrett (Emmy) Hunter, Blake (Carmen) Hunter, Haylee (Joseph) Walker, 13 great-grandchildren, special niece and daughter by heart Paige (Ralph) Mills, grand-nieces Katie (Chip Saltsman) Mills, and Lacey (Patrick) Simcox, brother-in-law Bill Swim, niece Karen (Greg) Werbianskyj, nephews David Hunter and Mike (Anna) Hunter.

When we were all gathered at Gordon's mom's funeral, the pastor asked, "What was the most important thing you learned from her?" Gordon replied, "She taught us how to love." Well, Gordon learned how to love very well and passed that lesson on to his boys. He also taug ht his boys many years ago that … "while many spend too much time worrying about how they can secure their legacy, mine will be lived out in you." We hope we have made and will continue to make you proud, Dad, and we will pass your legacy, now ours, on to our own.

Oliver K. Hunter, age 70 of Cookeville, Tennessee passed from this life Saturday, May 29, 2021, at Standing Stone Care & Rehabilitation Center in Monterey, Tennessee.

Born Wednesday, April 18, 1951 in Cookeville, Tennessee, he was the son of the late Oliver K. Hunter, Sr. and Billie (Wright) Hunter.

Have you ever met someone that you felt was born in the wrong era? Well, that was Oliver K. Hunter, Jr (Kenny Hunter). He lived life by his own code which closely resembled a cowboy in the wild west with an infectious sense of humor and sense of adventure. If there was an adventure to be had, he was there! If you ever spent time with him, we know you have a "story", and we would love to hear them. He can't get in the doghouse now. You never saw him without his Levi jeans, snap western shirt, boots, his dog, pocket-knife, gun and a big smile.

Born and raised on a small farm with his sister, he spent his childhood playing with all the animals, covered in mud and working hard. On a farm is where he raised his three girls like they were boys. Thank you, dad for teaching me to be a man even though I'm your daughter. He believed in a hard day's work, always doing the right thing, keep your promises and tell the truth even if it hurts. If someone is paying you to do a job, you give them their money's worth and then some.

In his day when you graduated high school, you went to technical school and that is where he met a beautiful Marilyn Monroe look alike who tamed his adventurous wild soul. He became a housebroken cowboy who had adventures only on the weekends. Kenny and Sandra spent 49 amazing years as husband and wife raising a family and living on love. At family dinners, we would constantly remind them that there are children present and to behave.

He loved Jesus, his wife, his momma, his family and friends with everything in him. His loyalty knew no limits. A friend was synonymous with family and they never suffered alone or got into trouble alone. He was your modern-day Huckleberry. Like his momma, he also never met a stranger or a dessert that he didn't like… unless it was lemon cake with chocolate icing. Sandra's mother would trick him every time. It was a running family joke.

Kenny packed a ton of living into his "dash" between his birth and death dates. We're convinced that he must have been part cat because he did at least nine lives worth… That's how we all need to live life like we're sliding in on two wheels and a banana peel because in the end 70 years' worth of living feels like the blink of an eye. This man will be missed beyond belief on this earth. However, to quote a very wise child "he is in a better place and God doesn't make mistakes."

Kenny is survived by his loving wife of 49 years: Sandra (Jones) Hunter of Cookeville; daughters: Sharon (Jimmy) Pippin, Crystal Hunter (Josh Sykes), Fonna (Tim) Geesling; a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren; sister: Gail Hunter (BR Smith); brother: Bobby Sherfield.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

The family will have a private family gathering.

Perle Noma Saucy Irvine was born in Salem, OR on July 18,1925, to David and Noma Webb Saucy. She passed away on Saturday, September 3, 2022 in Centerville, TN.

Verle s father s family was originally from Moutier, Switzerland, and in 1910, they settled in the Willamette Valley in Salem and Dundee, OR, where Verle was born and raised. She was the second child of five, with an olde r brother, David Saucy Jr., younger brothers Howard and Thomas, and sister Charlotte. Her father was true to his Swiss heritage, serving as a board member of the Dairy Co-op in Portland, OR from 1928 to 1941, and managing farms for the Ladd & Bush Bank. Verle s family owned a large dairy farm in Dundee, OR where they tended to livestock, gardens, orchards, hay fields, and food processing. Her father often spoke French in their home, while the children mostly spoke English.

Verle met the love of her life, Robert Porter Irvine Jr., in fifth grade in Salem, OR. They kept in touch long distance, even while Bob was in KY with his family and while he served in WWII. Verle earned a B.S. degree in Home Economics from Oregon State University, where she was also a competitive dancer. She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority where she met many lifelong friends, and she taught Home Economics before marrying.

She and Bob married on August 12, 1951 in Salem, OR, and moved to Celina, TN, where they owned and operated the Celina Boat Dock, in partnership with Louis Wells, on Dale Hollow Lake. Their first daughter, Noma Marietta, was born during that time, in 1952. They lived in Nashville, TN for a short time before moving to Fontana Lake in NC to manage the Fontana Resort Boat Dock. While at Fontana Lake, Susan (Sue) Verlaine was born. In 1956, they purchased the Cookeville Boat Dock in Cookeville, TN, where their third daughter, Mary Katherine, was born. Verle was a superb cook and was instrumental in the success of the floating restaurant during their years there. Many wonderful memories were made during the years at the Cookeville Boat Dock.

Verle received her Reading Specialist and Kindergarten Endorsement from Tennessee Technological University. She taught reading for 10 years in many of the Putnam County Schools. She was one of the first Kindergarten teachers in Putnam County, teaching at Baxter Elementary where she was a Teacher of the Year. She always said that she had some of the most wonderful students and exceptional teacher friends. She remained in touch with many of them her whole life.

In 1967, Bob and Verle moved from the Cookeville Boat Dock into Cookeville where she continued to teach kindergarten. She was like a second mother to her daughters friends. She often came home to a house full of friends and could put together a meal in short order.

Later, they also had a farm in Algood, TN where their daughter, Noma, and husband, Vic, had their first child, and Verle s first grandchild, Emily Elizabeth. After Noma and Vic moved to Chattanooga, their second child, Robert Victor, was born. Verle s Cookeville home was the meeting place for the family. Sue Warren, and Clayton O Neal Lovlace III, enjoyed their visits to Cookeville at Nanny and PopPop s home. Mary and Van Miller, and their daughters, Rebecca Marie, Laura Abigail, Julie Cassandra, and son, William Van, visited throughout the years from their homes in Chattanooga, TN and Athens, AL. Bob worked at Fleetguard, and Verle taught kindergarten until they both retired in 1987.

They retired to live on Tim s Ford Lake in Winchester, TN, where they had a beautiful lake home with a dock. Many great memories were made with their children and grandchildren at the lake. The whole family fished, water skied, swam and enjoyed family time. Their home was once again, the gathering place for family visits. This is where Verle came to fully realize her role as matriarch of the family.

In 1998, they moved back to Cookeville where Verle enjoyed rekindling friendships and many hours quilting with the Algood Quilters as a dedicated quilter and a master seamstress. As she and Bob aged, it became evident that they should move close to one of their daughters. After living in Cookeville for ten years, they moved to Athens, AL in 2008 to live near their youngest daughter, Mary, in order to be close to their youngest grandson, William Van Miller. Sadly, Bob passed away in 2015. Verle remained in Athens with Mary s family. Spreading the love to her middle daughter, Verle moved to Centerville, TN in the spring of 2019, to live with her daughter, Sue, where she spent her remaining time.

Verle was a life-long member of the Methodist Church and served as teacher for the two year old Sunday School Class at Cookeville First United Methodist Church for 20 years. She radiated the love that Christ has for his children.

Verle is preceded in death by her husband, Bob Irvine (Robert Porter Irvine Jr.), her parents David and Noma Webb Saucy, her brother s David, Howard, Thomas, their spouses, and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

She is survived by her daughter, Noma Marietta (Donald Victor) Goodin of Cookeville, Tennessee, their daughter, Emily Elizabeth Goodin (Larry Martin) of Bellevue, TN, their son Robert Victor (Anna Catherine Swain) Goodin (children Catherine Wright and Elizabeth Beatrice) of Durango, CO. She is survived by her second daughter, Susan Verlaine (Terry) Warren of Centerville, TN, grandson Clayton O Neal Lovlace III, step-children, step-grandchildren and step-great grandchildren. She is survived by her third daughter, Mary Katherine (Van) Miller of Athens, AL, their children, Rebecca Marie (Wade) Cherry of Birmingham, AL (children James, Marigail, and Timothy), Laura Abigail of Athens, AL (children Kayhaysin & Nicholas, grandchild Raylin Postoak), Julie Cassandra (Jared) Wallin of Florence, AL (child Riley Porter), and William Van Miller of Florence, AL. She is also survived by her sister, Charlotte Altman (Joel) of Foxboro, MA as well as many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Along with family, whom she loved, she added incredible friends who she adopted as family. Verle enjoyed writing and receiving letters to keep in touch and enjoyed and loved them all. She loved teasing her family and friends and always had a list of things to do and places to go. Verle s constant words of encouragement were to continue to learn and set goals, which will be what many will remember.

Interment will follow at Crest Lawn Cemetery in Cookeville. Visitation will be held at the Hooper-Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home Friday, Nov. 28, from 5-7 p.m. and again Saturday from noon until time of service time at the church.

Sally was born to Mabel Lucile Rodgers Bonham and George Raymond Bonham on Oct. 7, 1938, in Enid, Okla., and passed away Saturday morning, Nov. 22, 2014, at her residence. She attended elementary and secondary schools in Enid, Okla., and graduated in 1956 from Enid High School, where she was active in band and orchestra as a flutist.

Her interest in fine arts resulted in her pursuit of painting, and she received her Bachelor's in Fine Art Degree from Phillips University in 1960. She was married to Robert Crain in 1960, then moved to Bloomington, Indiana, where she worked for two years as a commercial artist. After moving to Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1962, she began her career as an art teacher, continuing her activities as a painter. She taught at Brainerd High School, Cadek Conservatory, and Lookout Mountain Elementary School, then became the first educational television teacher to teach art throughout Hamilton County schools, as well as serving as coordinator of the art programs in the elementary schools there. When she and her family moved to Cookeville, Tenn., in 1967, she became an active part of the art community and a member of the art faculty of Tennessee Tech University.

During the years at Tennessee Tech, she was a devoted contributor to the development of the art programs at the university, and was active in supporting and developing the arts in Cookeville, among which was the leadership as president of the Cookeville Arts Council, participation in Cookeville Summer Theater as set designer, and as a contributor to the Clara Cox Epperson Library. During her career as an artist/teacher at Tennessee Tech from 1967–2001, she was instrumental in developing the first Art Education degree, and produced 30 educational television programs for children in middle schools, which was sponsored by a national distribution agency and carried throughout the United States in as many as 25 states.

She was also instrumental in developing the first Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Painting. She served on many committees through the years, was chair of the University Art Committee for a number of terms, and was actively involved in the development of programs at the Appalachian Center for Crafts as Interim Director and Academic Advisor.

She was responsible for the dedication of the university art gallery as the Joan Derryberry Art Gallery and the development of the gallery's programs for the university and the Cookeville community. She was the major advisor and Program Coordinator to both Art Education and Painting majors, and was instrumental in the development of the art curriculum and the addition of her teaching positions as these programs grew. Throughout her teaching career she was a prolific painter, exhibiting locally, regionally and nationally. After retiring, she and her husband Robert Jager moved to the Southwest, living in Santa Fe, New Mexico, for several years. Returning to Cookeville in 2011, Sally taught at Nashville State Community College, was instrumental in the beginning of the "Art for Healing" collection of art works in the Cookeville Regional Medical Center and, as a result, was awarded the first "Cookeville Regional Charitable Foundation Outstanding Partner" award.

She also served as President of the Friends of the Appalachian Center for Crafts. Sally was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She often said she was blessed by having wonderful children and amazing grandchildren, referring to them as "genetic miracles"! She and her husband, composer Robert Jager, shared a special relationship as a devoted couple with common interests in their creative careers. Sally is survived by her husband, Robert Jager, whom she married in 1992; her son, Barry Dewynne Crain and daughter-in-law Holly Blessen; grandsons Harrison and Donovan; granddaughter Veronica of Chicago, Ill.; daughter, Brooke Crain Martin and son-in-law Chris Martin; grandsons Christopher and Matthew of Humble, Texas; and a sister Janice Bonham Munkres and brother-in-law Verle Munkres. Pictured: Source – Tennessee Technological University, by Mancil Johnson & W. Calvin Dickinson, pg. 50: Louis Johnson joined the Department of Business in 1936, becoming chair during World War II. He was highly respected and admired for his work and public service and was loved for his wit and charm.

He had served as dean of the TTU College of Business Administration for many years, had served on the Cookeville City Commission in the late 40's and early 50's, and chaired the charter commission which drafted Cookeville's present city charter, moving the city from the commission form of government to the city manager/council form.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Dean Louis and Virginia Johnson Fund for Excellence, which the couple established to provide scholarships and other help to the TTU College of Business Administration. Those wishing to make contributions may do so by contacting the funeral home.

Dr. Johnson's life was memorialized in the following tribute from the university he served for many years:

The bricks and mortar of Tennessee Tech University's Johnson Hall stand solid in honor of Louis Johnson Jr.'s long-term commitments to his work, his relationships and his community.

Johnson, regarded as "Mr. Business Administration" by several generations of students, served from 1942 until 1975 as dean of Tennessee Tech University's College of Business Administration. He continued to teach as a faculty member until 1978.

"Dean Johnson was the foundation stone of the college," said TTU President Bob Bell. "Beyond this, he was the most beloved representative the College of Business ever had."

Johnson's credentials included a bachelor's degree from Bowling Green College of Commerce (now Western Kentucky University), a master's degree from Northwestern University and a law degree from Samford University. But his value to Tennessee Tech and the community could not be measured only in terms of academic credentials.

He is credited with upgrading the curricula, laying the foundation of the master's of business administration program, teaching with dedication and expertise, and building relationships between the university and the business, industrial and civic sectors of the community.

Committed to public service as well as academia, he used his expertise and knowledge to shape local government and to support it with his participation.

He served as Cookeville's Commissioner of Finance and Taxation from 1947-1953. Johnson also served as chairperson of the charter commission that drafted the Cookeville charter establishing the current city manager and council form of government.

Still, Tennessee Tech faculty, staff and alumni remember Johnson for a spirit and attitude rarely found in an individual with so much influence, responsibility and education.

"Dr. Johnson would tell us stories and jokes," said Candy Norris of the college's Division of External Relations. "He talked about dollar dates when he and his wife, Virginia, could each have a hamburger and a coke, go to the Princess Theater to watch a picture show and still have a nickel left over to buy popcorn."

TTU economics professor Whewon Cho, a longtime friend of Johnson's, says that kind of story is what made the dean different. He valued chit chat, a good joke, and a personal story.

"He was the best I've ever seen at remembering names of students," said Cho.. "At homecomings, he could remember a graduate's name from 30 years ago as well as one from five years ago. That motivation came from the compassion he had for everyone."

President Bell agrees, saying "his daily interactions with people gave me an example of what a good dean does. Actually, it was more than interaction, it's what I'd call 'loving on people,' a genuine concern and fondness for everyone around him."

Johnson Hall was named and dedicated for him in 1971 because of the mark he left on the university in his 35 years there. When he met the current College of Business Administration Dean Bob Niebuhr, he gave him a charge to "take care of my building."

But Johnson's real legacy is only represented by the building. The life of his work was about people. The Dean Louis and Virginia Johnson Fund for Excellence was established to take care of students and faculty who will use the building in years to come. It honors Johnson and wife Virginia, who earned a bachelor's degree in English from TTU and taught business communications there for 23 years. The fund will support student scholarships and graduate assistantships, faculty travel to professional meetings, publication expenses, summer research grants for faculty and graduate students, and seed money to begin new programs.

Christine Jones, TTU's regional history librarian in special collections, wrote a description of Johnson that reflects Johnson's ultimate accomplishments.

"He realized and appreciated the value of sincerity of conviction, honor of conduct, integrity of purpose, and fulfillment of promise," she said.

"He had the friendship of men, the respect of women, and the tender love of children. And he believed in getting things done."

Christine was born in Gallatin, Sumner County, Tennessee July 23, 1924 and lived in Akron, Ohio and Nashville, Tennessee before the family settled in Cookeville in 1932 when she entered the third grade. She graduated from Central High School in 1941 and entered Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, later named Tennessee Technological University. Christine received her B. S. degree in business in 1947. That year, the student body elected her Tech's Sweetheart. She next entered George Peabody College from which she received her Library Science degree in June 1948. Two weeks after graduation, she was named Circulation Librarian at T.P.I. She was later named Tennessee Reference Librarian and Special Collections Librarian. She retired January 5, 2008, after serving 59 ½ years, thereby ending the longest faculty tenure in the history of Tennessee Technological University.

In her work as Special Collections Librarian, she provided reference assistance in history and genealogy. In connection with this, she helped many individuals from various places who were tracing their families or doing historical research in the Upper Cumberland. By providing this help, she became widely known for her expertise.

She and three close friends, Dr. Eleanor D. Mitchell, Mrs. Mildred Draper Summers and Mrs. Willie Howard Huddleston started combining their research on the Draper family with Mrs. Ethel Nichols Anderson of Lexington, Kentucky and eventually wrote an exhaustive genealogy, Draper Families in America, containing 514 pages, which was published in 1964 by Parthenon Press, Nashville, Tennessee.

Christine's long standing fascination with American history was manifested by her entertaining narrative of little known facts about American presidents which she enjoyed sharing with various civic organizations. She married Roger Gaw Jones, December 23, 1950, in the Willow Avenue Church of Christ. Theirs was the first church wedding to take place at this location with Brother Carl Gossett officiating.

In her declining years, she was assisted by a dedicated caregiver, Mrs. Ruby Howell, who provided loving and personal comfort.

Mrs. Jones was preceded in death by her husband of almost sixty years, Roger Jones; four sisters, Willa Deanne Spivey and Milbra Lee Spivey Chaffin (Mrs. Cecil Chaffin) of Chattanooga; Dorothy May Spivey Brown (Mrs. Earl Glendon Brown) of Topeka, Kansas; and Marguerite Spivey Loftis (Mrs. Ernest Loftis) of Cookeville, Tennessee and by one brother, James Travis Spivey, Jr. of Caracas, Venezuela.

Farmer found dead after falling off plow

PUTNAM COUNTY -- A Cookeville man died this weekend after falling from the seat of a mule-pulled disc plow.

Hubert Leroy Jones, 68, was found Saturday morning in his field. Emergency medical personnel determined he had died before his family found him.

According to the report by Cpl. Jerry Dale Abston, emergency personnel were called to the farm at 4395 Shady Lane Saturday morning. Helen Jones, Hubert Jones' wife, told investigators her husband had gotten up early that morning to disc the field. When she finished cooking breakfast, she tried to call her husband but there was no answer on the cell phone.

She walked to the back of the field and saw the disc plow on top of Hubert Jones and he would not respond. She returned to the house to call for help and to find her son, Jeff Jones.

Jeff Jones was able to unhook the mules and tie them to trees before emergency medical assistance arrived.

Abston wrote in the report County Coroner Tommy Copeland determined Jones died before the family found him that morning. It is believed Jones fell off the seat and landed under the plow. The disc plow was in use prior to the invention of the tractor. It had a seat with no sides.

Jones was owner of Jones Trucking and Excavating and deacon of Rocky Point Baptist Church.

Funeral services for Jones have been set for Tuesday at Eastwood Baptist Church in Cookeville. A full obituary is published on page A-6 of this edition of the Herald-Citizen.

Mabel Esther Kornblum, 98, of Nashville, Tennessee, and formerly of Cookeville, Tennessee, passed from this life on Thursday, August 25, 2022, at Harmony of Bellevue in Nashville, Tennessee.

Mabel was born in Lovejoy, in Overton County, Tennessee, Sunday, June 29, 1924, to the loving parents of Grady and Alice Bowman. As a result of her Mother taking ill when she was three years old, she went to stay with her Great Aunt, Edna (Norrod) Johnson and her husband, Bill Johnson in Cookeville, TN, where she remained until marriage. She often visited home with her parents and her seven brothers and sisters in Detroit, Michigan where Grady and Alice had relocated to during the Great Depression.

Mabel lived in Cookeville, Nashville, Birmingham and the Detroit area near family, and then moved back to Nashville after the birth of her Granddaughter Rachael. Mabel adored her trips to Michigan, spending time with family. She had such great times with her sisters and her niece Karen who was like a sister to her, and they all have incredibly fun stories to tell.

She was an incredible cook and she lovingly created holiday and birthday meals, with the table perfectly set with lovely dishes, cloth napkins and candlelight. She would even light the candles on the table if someone came over for a simple breakfast or lunch, because she said that it was always a special meal if a family member or friend was there with her. She made the very best Fried Chicken!

When living in Cookeville in the 60's, she baked cakes and pies for the drugstore in the town square to help supplement income. She was known for her delightful baked goods and especially her Carrot Cakes and Coconut Cakes, which became a special request for family Birthdays. She baked several Carrot Cakes for her Granddaughter Rachael's wedding and she would also bake one each year for Bob and Rachael's Anniversaries.

Mabel loved to dance, and for many years she took Ballroom Dancing lessons and won many awards. She was a fun lady to hang out with and so full of life and laughter. She loved to sew and made custom drapes and clothes. She enjoyed needle crafting and left several framed pieces that she created in Needlepoint. She loved Big Band music and Laurel and Hardy! She collected Primitive Antiques and her home was so inviting to visit and often included a nice nap because it was so comfortable. She loved visits and phone calls, roses, Margaritas, beautiful shoes, Chocolate Ice Cream, anything fabric and the soothing color of light blue.

Mabel is preceded in death by her parents Grady and Alice Bowman, her Great Aunt Edna Johnson (Bill), husband, Govy Whitteaker, second husband, Charles Kornblum, son Kenneth Joel Whitteaker, and brothers, Jess Bowman (Mary), Chester Bowman (Betty), John Bowman (Mary) and William Bowman.

She is survived by daughter Sharon Ingram (Randy), Granddaughter Rachael Knoph (Bob), Sisters Gladys Sibilsky, Delores Lindroth and Lita Osterhaut (Rich), nieces, nephews and family member Mitch Shelton.

After graduating in 1942 at age 16 from Neville High School in Monroe, she attended Randolph-Macon Women's College, Lynchburg, Va., where she received a bachelor of science degree in history and political science in 1945. She married Walter Elmo Lamb on June 29, 1946, in a garden wedding at the family home in Monroe. She and Walter then began their life together in Chattanooga, later moving to Nashville. There she served as bookkeeper and secretary.

An avid gardener, she enjoyed many years with the Cookeville Garden Club, and was a particular fan of rhododendron and lilies. As lighting director, she worked closely with Margery Hargrove on dozens of local theatrical productions, sharing her expertise and joy in the theater. Her love of adventure and discovery led her to travel widely in the U.S., as well as to Europe and Africa. She once celebrated a birthday in Nairobi with a birthday dance around the tent and bonfire with Carnivore restaurant kitchen staff singing "Mama Safari." Trips to Utah with cousins, Nelson and Bennie Abell led to a high point: shaking hands with Robert Redford at the dedication of Sundance.

Friends and family will remember her warmth, compassion, humor and enthusiasm for life. She was an inspiration to all who knew her.

Susan Elizabeth (Heffelfinger) Lavallee passed away peacefully Friday, April 21, 2023, following an extended battle with cancer.

Susan was born in Indiana PA, March 21 ,1943 to Delbert W and Sara Elizabeth Heffelfinger. The family moved to Fairfax Co. VA, in her earlier years.

Sue, as she wanted to be known, graduated from Annadale High School. She began her first employment with Julius Garfinkel and Son in Washington DC. She started as a department head and later became a buyer for the bridal department. Her clients were often the families of senators and other government personnel.

Following her retail career, she moved to Hollywood, Florida to raise her family and briefly worked in the school system as a Teacher's Aid and School Crossing Guard. and she then retired to Cookeville TN in 1993.

Susan's talents were many, sewing, painting in oils and water, fine ink illustration, and both designing and creating fine glasswork by hand. She was the queen of banners and posters. They could be seen at her church, family reunions, and party celebrations. Possibly her best talent was cooking; she could make the occasion so much better with her contributions. Susan loved her garden, flowers, and herbs and often canned a seasonal supply for her meals.

Susan was completely dedicated to her church, Heavenly Host Lutheran Cookeville Tn. She was a loyal servant to her Lord and generously utilized her talents to serve in his house. Her most dedicated service was to the Altar Guild, for which she served for 30 some years. Here she handmade beautiful banners to represent the church seasons and tended to the linens and communion provisions. She compromised many a holiday to attend and assure the Alter was properly prepared.

Susan will be remembered for creating and supervising the Annual Oktoberfest Fund Raising event for church school for many years. An authentic gala German afternoon with polka dancing, food, beer, games, and as always, a fun afternoon!!

EULENE LOCKE DIES: SERVICES TUESDAY

Northeast Elementary School Principal Eulene Locke, a former Putnam school superintendent, died Saturday, Feb. 12, 2005, at her home. The longtime educator was 66.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, Feb. 15, at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of Avery Trace Middle School with Rev. C. Vance Johnson officiating. Burial will be in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the Cookeville chapel of Hooper Huddleston Horner Funeral Home tomorrow from 4 to 8 p.m. and after 12 noon Tuesday.

The daughter of the late Boyd and Bonnie Benson Qualls, Mrs. Locke was born June 19, 1938, in Putnam County.

She was the widow of the late George Edward Locke Sr. and was also preceded in death by sisters Camella Livingston and Mary Dean Davis and brothers Elwin Qualls and Lynon Qualls.

Her family includes her son and daughter-in-law, Eddy and Kim Locke of Cookeville; her grandson, Ethan Locke of Cookeville; her sister and brother-in-law, Linda and Jimmy Whiteaker of Algood; her brother and sister-in-law, Sam and Earlene Qualls of Algood; her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Bob and Dorothy West of Orlando, Fla.; her grand nephew, Cory Moody; an aunt, Edith Benson of Algood; and special caregiver Jeanette Smith.

Mrs. Locke was a member of Algood United Methodist Church.

She was a graduate of Tennessee Tech. From the days when she was a basketball star at Algood High, Doris Eulene Qualls Locke loved school, and with the exception of only a few years working in other fields -- social work and state probation work -- she devoted the major part of her life to education, serving in many roles, including teacher, coach, school board member, principal and superintendent of schools.

She was elected to the Putnam school board three times and served from 1971 to 1986. The first woman ever elected chairman of that board, she served in that position three times.

She taught school at Cookeville Junior High for many years and, after leaving the school board, served as principal of Northeast Elementary until 1996 when she was elected to the superintendency for a four-year term.

She was the first woman elected to the superintendency here and was the last elected superintendent to serve before the state began requiring board-appointed directors of schools.

After serving that term as superintendent, she was appointed principal of Cane Creek Elementary and later returned to the principalship at Northeast. Last year, she became ill and took sick leave for a time, then returned to school after her health improved. In recent months, she had been on sick leave once again.

But she never lost her interest in public education, and she remained mentally alert and unfailingly polite and kind throughout her illness, always taking time to thank her caregivers for their work, friends said.

"Every time I have been in other jobs, I always came back to education," she said in an interview back in 2000. "I don't know of a job anywhere that I would enjoy more than school."

Active pallbearers will be Wayne Stephens, Mark Rodgers, Pat Haller, Scott Kirkham, Jason Smith, Jeanette Smith, Jackie Borden and James Swack. Honorary pallbearers will be the faculty and staff of Northeast Elementary School.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Algood United Methodist Church building fund.

The Cookeville chapel of Hooper Huddleston Horner Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Funeral services were held today for Jared Maddux, 59, a prominent Cookeville attorney and four-time Democratic lieutenant governor of Tennessee.

Services were held at 4 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church, where he was a member of the official board. The Rev. Ben Alexander officiate and burial was in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

Maddux, who twice turned down chances to seek the governorship of Tennessee, died Saturday at his home on Clark Ave. He was found by his wife shortly before noon in the hallway after he returned from a walk in his yard.

He suffered a heart attack April 19, 1966, while trying a case in Putnam County General Sessions Court and underwent surgery to replace a valve in his heart in September 1967 at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester, MN.

A native of Buffalo Valley, he began his political career in 1943 when he was appointed assistant clerk of the Tennessee House of Representatives, four years after receiving his law degree from the East Tennessee Law School at Johnson City.

In 1945, at the age of 33, Maddux was elected state comptroller, a post, he resigned a short time later to enter the U. S. Navy during World War II. He returned to the post following the end of the war and served as comptroller until 1949 when he opened a law office in Cookeville.

From June 1950 until June 1965 Maddux served as Cookeville city judge.

He had strongly considered making the race for Democratic nomination for governor in 1958 and 1962, but never offered himself as an active candidate.

His legislative career began in 1952 when he was elected to the state Senate. He subsequently served as lieutenant governor and speaker of the Senate in 1953, 1955, and 1957.

In July 1958, Maddux was elected state commander of the American Legion and resigned from the Senate terming his resignation "a sacrifice but one that is worth taking."

It was while he was commander of the Legion that Maddux first publicly acknowledged that he might run for governor. Although he did not make the race in 1958, he again considered the office in 1962 saying: "I am now 50 years of age and I have concluded that if I ever expect to make the race, it should be this year or never."

However, he deferred again from making the race and supported Gov. Frank G. Clement, who was re-elected.

Maddux then successfully ran again for the Senate and served as floor leader for Clement in 1963, following his fifth election to the Senate, Maddux again was named lieutenant governor and speaker of the Senate.

"I want to make it plain that I was working under the provisions of the law," he recalled of his childhood, and not working out a jail sentence."

The Senate voted 32 to 0 for repeal of the bill, one of several out of date laws repealed that year.

Maddux had a background in banking which began in 1936 when he was employed by the Citizens Bank in Elizabethon while attending law school. At the time of his death he was a member of the Board of Directors of First National Bank of Cookeville.

He was a past president of the Tennessee Junior Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Cookeville Jaycees, Putnam County Chamber of Commerce, a past president of the Cookeville Lions Club and a member of the American, Tennessee and Putnam County Bar Associations. He currently served as a member of the National Legislative Committee of the American Legion.

He was a 32rd degree Mason, a member of Al Menah Shrine Temple and a member of the official board of Cookeville First United Methodist Church.

On July 6, 1935 he married the former Virginia Lane, who survives.

Ursula (Gresser) Magura, d/o Eugen & Mathilde Gresser.

It is with deep sorrow we announce the death of Ursula Gresser Magura, who passed away on September 19, 2023 just shy of her 99th birthday. Ursula was born on October 26, 1924 in Weinfelden, Switzerland to Eugen and Mathilde Gresser. She grew up alongside her sister Rosemary, and also had two other siblings, Heinz and Ruth. They lived in the beautiful Canton of Thurgau near Lake Constance which borders southern Germany. Living there, she experienced the joys of childhood, as well as the deep sadness and destruction of World War II.

Following primary education in her village, she expanded her knowledge in other regions of Switzerland.

While attending Finishing School, Ursula learned the art of running a household which included basic skills such as knitting, cooking and secretarial training. Furthermore, she became proficient in multiple languages in addition to her first language, Swiss German. It was while she was active in the war effort in Switzerland she met her future husband, Stefan Magura.

After marrying Stefan, in 1949, Ursula immigrated to the United States alongside her husband. They began their young lives together in Pennsylvania and raised seven children in their devout Catholic home. Life led them to Kentucky and eventually to Tennessee where they settled and became empty nesters. Although the seven children left home, maintaining a very close family was very important to her entire family. Holidays, especially Thanksgiving and Christmas, drew everyone home to roost. Seemingly, every year there were more people as they added sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren and great grandchildren. They were all very precious to her. A faith-filled woman, Ursula was heavily involved in her Church with Altar Guild, Bereavement Ministry, Meals-on-Wheels and always shared her delicious kitchen creations at bake sales and breads for the Priests. Her tender heart went beyond the human species as Ursula was the Pied Piper of dogs; there was always one sitting at her feet waiting for the treats. She truly exemplified what it means to possess a loving heart.

Ursula lost her husband in 1994, however, she continued to have great zest for life. She became active in water aerobics, took up weightlifting, the rowing machine and chair aerobics in her 70s. On her 80th birthday she soared the skies of Switzerland in a hot air balloon with her dear friends, Walter and Susan. Ursula loved to travel and took regular visits to her home country of Switzerland well into her 90s, where she could be found on many of the hiking trails. She was an avid dancer and continued to to shake her tail feather at any opportunity. Even at 98, neighbors would see a petite, white-haired woman walking her street with her walker in hand and one of her precious Caregivers by her side. She did all of this to remain healthy and young. Ursula always said "I have to walk today as you have to keep moving!' She was such an inspiration to many and we are so blessed to call her "Mama."

Ursula's Earthly journey has ended, yet she has entered into a glorious new life filled with incomprehensible love in the presence of our loving Father and His Son Jesus Christ. While our hearts mourn her passing, we also rejoice that she is now free of pain, anxiety and confusion. We have faith that she now has the peace beyond all understanding. God surely has her everlasting soul firmly in His hands as He will undoubtedly say to her "Well done, My good and faithful servant.

Ursula was predeceased by her parents Eugen and Mathilde Gresser, and her husband, Stefan Magura. She is survived by her children: four sons, Stefan Magura and wife, Madge Parker Magura; Christian Magura and wife, Amy Blaisdel Magura; Peter Magura and wife, Michelle Blomker Magura; John Magura and wife, Darla Pyle Magura; three daughters, Elisabeth Magura Green and husband, Richard Green; Ann Magura Wolverton and husband, Jay Wolverton; Barbara Magura Aparicio and husband, Jose Aparicio, her 11 grandchildren; Elisabeth Toms (Joel), Chris Magura, Jr. (Heidi), Christina Wolverton, Max Magura, Ursula Magura, Ashley Ross (John), Stefanie Magura, Andrew Wolverton (Emilie), Isabel Davis (Drew), Gabriela Aparicio, Quinten Green and her 11 great grandchildren; Cam, Sagan, Oliver, Elisabeth, Georgina, Henry, Sloan, Palmer, Ellie, Mathilda (Tilly), and Biggs, and the furry friends she loved so well; Gracie, Shotzie, Tyson, Chet, Hampton, Teddy Biscuit, Rooney and Hubbard.

COOKEVILLE — Rose Elizabeth "Betty" Doeker Massa , 92, of Cookeville, was welcomed to her heavenly home Friday, May 4, 2018, from her home in Cookeville.

A memorial gathering for Mrs. Massa will be held Friday, May 11, at 4 p.m. at First Baptist Church of Cookeville. The family will receive friends at the church from 2-4 p.m. prior to the service.

She was born Sept. 8, 1925, in Covington, Kentucky, to the late Albert Doeker and Rose (Longstreet) Doeker. Her family moved to Louisville, Kentucky, where she completed her education and graduated from the University of Louisville with a B.A. in foreign languages.

At the U. of L. she met James "Jimmy" Dillard Massa, a Cookeville native. He was attending the V-12 program for sailors preparing to fight in WWII. They fell in love and married in August, 1947. They moved to Cookevi lle after living in Kansas City, Missouri, for two years.

Betty had been a faithful servant, "living for Jesus" throughout her life as a daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Besides loving her family, she was a friend to many, a teacher to young women, a help to her neighbors and to those she met in everyday life. She was pleased to invite friends and those who needed a friend to share time together in her home, always quick to think of others and what she could do for them. She has written thousands of notes and letters to speak love and encouragement into many people's lives. Throughout her life she had been active at First Baptist Church, where she also served as church secretary for a couple of decades. Late in life she enjoyed singing with her friends in the Happy Tones. During this last year, she was grateful for her personal caregiver and all those who served her from Kindred Hospice.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jimmy, and survived by their children, Sarah and Ronnie Key, Mark and Sharon Massa, Michael and Nancy Massa, and Rachel Cunningham; 14 grandchildren; 8 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers - love God and love one another.

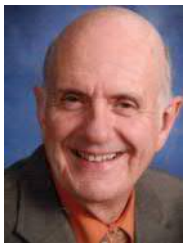
Jerry's dedication to education led him to a long and distinguished career in teaching and school administration.

Jerry began his career as an elementary teacher in Taylor, Michigan in 1965. He then moved on to work as an elementary teacher in Metro Nashville Schools before relocating to Cookeville, where he became a part of the Putnam County School System. In 1973, Jerry was appointed the principal of Sycamore Elementary School, a position he held with great pride until his retirement in 2006. Jerry's commitment to education extended beyond the classroom, as he also served on the Putnam County School Board from 2006 to 2022.



In addition to his work in education, Jerry was an active member of the Putnam County community. He served on the Putnam County Commission from 1994 to 2006 and was a member of both the Cookeville Civitan Club and the Cookeville Noonday Lions Club. Jerry's dedication to his community was evident in his involvement with these organizations and in his daily interactions with those around him.

Jerry's faith was an essential part of his life, and he was a devoted member of the Sycamore Church of Christ for 50 years. His strong faith guided him throughout his life, providing him with a solid foundation for his personal and professional endeavors.

Outside of his professional and community roles, Jerry was a big fan of the Detroit Tigers baseball team. He enjoyed watching games and cheering on his favorite team whenever he had the opportunity. Jerry's love for baseball was just one of the many interests that made him a well-rounded and interesting individual.

Those who knew Jerry will remember him as a hard worker, a fair and honest man, and someone who always put others before himself. His dedication to his family, career, and community left a lasting impact on those who had the pleasure of knowing him. Jerry's legacy will live on through the countless lives he touched as an educator, community leader, and loving family man.

BABY DROWNS IN BACKYARD SWIMMING POOL

Mary Jo Denton
Herald-Citizen Staff , Cookeville, TN
Wednesday, Jun 03, 2009

BAXTER -- A 17-month old baby girl drowned in a backyard swimming pool at her home on Hillrose Road last night.

Katie Beth Maynard, the daughter of Brian and Charlotte Blaylock Maynard, apparently wandered out the back door and climbed into an above-ground swimming pool, according to Putnam Sheriff's Chief Deputy Jackie Farley.

It happened about 8:15 p.m.

"The mother, the little girl, and her other child, a 6-year-old boy, were in the house and the mother was doing her hair," Farley said.

"The mother did not realize the younger child had gone out the door."

She went to check on her daughter and found that she had somehow got outside, he said.

"The mother found the child in the pool and grabbed her," he said. "She called 911 and was so hysterical the dispatchers had a hard time understanding her at first."

The mother, a neighbor who rushed to help, and the first deputy to arrive, Jason Phy, all tried to revive the child, Farley said.

Putnam Ambulance medics also worked to save her life as they rushed her to the hospital emergency room, where doctors and nurses "did everything they could trying to revive her," Sheriff David Andrews said.

"They all did an unbelievable job trying to save this child, everybody did.

"This is just a terrible tragedy," the sheriff said this morning, his voice full of sadness.

"This is the kind of tragedy nobody wants to even imagine," he said.

"It's just incomprehensible what this family is going through."

He said a large number of family members, friends, and neighbors of the family gathered at the hospital emergency room last night and stayed there for many hours trying to comfort the family.

Katie Beth Maynard is the granddaughter of Putnam County Executive Kim Blaylock and the great-granddaughter of Senator Charlotte Burks.

Funeral arrangements for her were incomplete as of press time today, according to officials at Hooper Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home.

Sylvia Lorene Lewis McCann passed away peacefully on September 7, 2023 at McKendree Village in Hermitage, Tennessee. She was 100 years old.

Sylvia was born on October 29, 1922 on a farm in Mercer County, Missouri. Her parents were Palestine Douglas (Pat) Lewis and Nettie Josephine (Babe) Cox Lewis. Sylvia was the eldest of 6 children, which included 4 brothers and a sister who died in childhood. When Sylvia was 14, the family moved to Indianola, Iowa, where her father purchased and operated a Sinclair gas station. After graduating from high school, Sylvia attended a community college in Des Moines, Iowa, learning secretarial skills. It was there that she met Robert Harold (Brick) McCann. Shortly after finishing his training, Brick joined the US Coast Guard during World War II. Brick and Sylvia were married on July 17, 1943, at his duty station, the Fire Island Lighthouse, on Long Island, New York. A son was born prematurely, and died shortly after birth.

After the war ended, they moved back to Des Moines, Iowa, where they both worked, were active in the First United Methodist Church, joined the choir, and had many friends. Their daughter, Doreen Dae McCann Neal was born there in April, 1947.

In 1956, the manufacturing company Brick worked for relocated to Cookeville, TN. The family joined Cookeville United Methodist Church, and again became active in the choir and the Friendship Sunday School class. Sylvia joined the United Methodist Women and was a devoted member, serving in many offices and roles.

Sylvia and Brick were active in the community as well. Sylvia was a volunteer at the Cookeville hospital, delivered Meals on Wheels, and was a Girl Scout leader, among other community activities. She and Brick regularly hosted students from abroad studying at TTU, serving as a family to students far from home.

In 1959, Sylvia and Brick adopted their son, Timothy Robert McCann. He added many joys to the family until his passing away in 1998.

Sylvia was a role model for her daughter, Doreen. She was known for her fantastic yeast breads and cinnamon or orange rolls. She was a great cook, who loved to entertain. She was also a gifted seamstress, quilter, and needle worker, winning several blue ribbons at the Putnam County Fair.

She is survived by her daughter, Doreen Neal (Richard), 3 grandchildren, Mollie McCarthy, Jill Olney (Ian) and Todd Neal (Crystal) and 7 great grandchildren: Matthew Gmitter, Caroline and Elizabeth McCarthy, Ethan and Emma Olney, and Sophia and Charlotte Neal. Art is survived by his loving wife, Diana; three stepchildren, Jeremy (Christie) Eckstrom and Jamie Eckstrom, both of Cookeville, and Jessica (Corey) Mosher of Fridley, Minn.; his mother, Jeanette Reece of Independence, Mo.; two brothers, William Jr. (Deb) McCormick of Stewart, Minn., Timothy (Sheila) McCormick of Plaquemine, La.; five sisters, Anne (Ronald) Martak of Friendville, Lucinda (Wally) Anderson of Verndale, Minn., Juanita McCormick (Paul Lutz) of Breezy Point, Minn., Dorothy (Scott) Kingsly of Sebewaing, Mich., and Kathi (Dave) Edgell of Morgantown, W.Va.; and uncles, aunts, nephews and nieces.

McCormick was born in Wadena, Minn., on Jan. 26, 1954. He attended school in Aldridge, Minn. He later moved to Staples, Minn., where he attended Staples Vo-Tech and studied auto mechanics. But he had a love for the outdoors. He liked the open air and did not like the feeling of being so closed in. So he would look for jobs where he could work outside. He worked on farms and in the fields. He loved working with horses and cattle. He also worked construction, where he could be outside, of course. If he could have gotten away with it, his bed would have been outside. Art was a very hard-working man. He would stick with his projects until he was satisfied with them, no matter how long it took him.

He also loved gardening, especially flower gardens. Art also loved music — all kinds of music. He could name hundreds of songs, the artist who wrote them, and knew all the lyrics. He also liked Western movies. He had every movie John Wayne ever made. He would call his friends and family into the living room to watch a movie with him and then tell them what was going on and what was going to happen next. His family is sure he had seen every Western that was ever made.

Art's greatest love of all was his passion for classic cars. He would buy one, fix it up and then buy another one. He loved going to car shows with his friends. He won many trophies and a lot of bragging rights with his cars. His 1958 Ford Edsel was his pride and joy.

Art and his wife, Diana, moved from Minnesota to Baxter in 2005. Art started working in Cookeville for Carwile Mechanical in 2006. He always talked about his job. He looked forward to getting up every day and going to work. Not too many people will say that about their jobs. Art liked his co-workers, and he felt he was treated with respect and fairness. He especially had a fondness for his boss, Gary Carwile. Art always said Gary was the best boss anyone could ever have to work for. The family would like to thank the crew and the Carwile family.

Art became ill with cancer in January 2008. Knowing he had cancer did not affect him as much as not being able to return to work with the guys.

Art wanted to thank Gary for all he has done for him; Charlie for being there for him, taking him fishing, and being a good friend; and Stacy for being there for Diana and himself as a very special person and friend.

Art was a very loving, caring person. There wasn't anything he wouldn't do for someone who needed help. He had a great outlook on life and was fun to be around. He will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

Mrs. McReynolds passed away Monday evening February 12, 2018 at NHC of Cookeville.

She was born April 29, 1927 in Baxter, TN to the late Samuel Ethel Brown and Avo Boyd Brown.

Eva dearly loved her family, was a devoted wife, and she was the consummate homemaker. With four young ones to feed three meals every day, washing to do and pin it out on the clothesline, bring it in, and iron it, i t was a wonder that she found time for anything else in her life; though she did find time to grow African Violets (every table in the house had at least one pot of those beauties) and she kept them blooming all year long. The porches of the house on Dixie always had pots full of plants during the warm months. She did embroidery, stitching beautiful flowers, birds, and geometric shapes on cotton pillow case hems, napkins, and table runners.

Eva loved to sing: If she had a passion for anything it was for music and singing. From singing with her parents and brother at Bethany Methodist Church as a young lady to singing along with the current country and pop melodies broadcast every day on WHUB, Eva sang. She had a beautiful voice and a natural ability to sing the harmony line on just about any song. It was a wonderful experience to hear her back up Eddie Arnold, Ray Price, Patsy Cline, or Marty Robbins on their big hit songs as they played over the radio. One of her favorite songs was Wildwood Flower. Any time her sons were together in her presence with their guitars, she had to have them play that ballad while she sang the words with a smile on her face and hands clapping in time.

The one thing Eva never did was learn to drive. She said she was just too nervous to drive. That was the one regret she ever expressed, having to depend on others to get her where she needed to go. Everyone who knew Eva received her warm spirit, gentle nature, and good humor. She was beloved by her children, extended family members, and friends.

She is survived by daughters, Judy Medley and Connie Susan McReynolds both of Cookeville; sons, Stanley McReynolds and Richard (Jan) McReynolds all of Cookeville; brother, Earl (Nancy) Brown of Baxter; sisters, Fay Boles of Baxter and Patricia Clark of Nashville; grandchildren, Alicia (Tim) Matheney, Rhyan McReynolds, Jason (Christa) Gooch, Richard (Regina) Medley, Catherine Medley, and Zachary T. McReynolds; and great-grandchildren, Evann & Grayson Bryant, Levie Kate McReynolds, Mack McReynolds, Ryan Emerson McReynolds, Grant Gooch, Matthew Hunter & Miles Hunter.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Walter Winfred McReynolds; brothers, Junior Brown, Arnold Brown, Freeman Brown, Lehman Brown; and son-in-Law, Don Medley. Grandchildren will serve as pallbearers.

Memorial contributions may be made to Alzheimer's Tennessee, 1459 Interstate Drive, Cookeville, TN 38501.

A Baxter man and his wife became the city's first traffic fatalities of 1975 when they were both killed in a grinding head-on collision Sunday evening on Sparta Highway, just south of the I-40 exit ramp.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Cookeville General Hospital were Thelma Louise Julian Meadows, 40 and her husband, Cecil Meadows, 69, of Rt 1, Baxter. The crash occurred at 5:53 p.m.

Wheeler was traveling south on Sparta Highway when the 2 cars collided.

The city police and the ambulance service arrived minutes after the impact and Bilyeu said the cars were found apart about 15' from the exit ramp near the center of the southbound lane. It appeared the coupled died instantly.

A Baxter man and his wife became the city's first traffic fatalities of 1975 when they were both killed in a grinding head-on collision Sunday evening on Sparta Highway, just south of the I-40 exit ramp.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Cookeville General Hospital were Thelma Louise Julian Meadows, 40 and her husband, Cecil Meadows, 69, of Rt 1, Baxter. The crash occurred at 5:53 p.m.

The driver of the other car, Herbie Wheeler, 21, Bloomington Springs, and his passenger, Theresa Diane Gentry, 21, of Rt 1, Gainesboro, were transported to Cookeville General by the Putnam Ambulance Service. They were treated and later released.

According to Cookeville Police Chief Bill Bilyeu, the Meadows vehicle, a compact 1968 Datsun, appeared to have been traveling in the wrong lane and was headed north in the southbound lane when it smashed head-on into the Wheeler car, a late-model Plymouth Twister. Wheeler was traveling south on Sparta Highway when the 2 cars collided.

The city police and the ambulance service arrived minutes after the impact and Bilyeu said the cars were found apart about 15' from the exit ramp near the center of the southbound lane. It appeared the coupled died instantly.

Double funeral services for the Meadows will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Hooper & Huddleston with burial in Crest Lawn cemetery.

Frank Medley

BY JIM HERRIN

A longtime educator and coach in Putnam County died Friday night after being hit by a truck while standing near a mailbox at his home on Buffalo Valley Road.

According to the report of Tennessee Highway Patrol Trooper Matilda Mahaney, Frank Medley, 84, of Baxter, was in the roadway of the eastbound lanes of Buffalo Valley Road near the intersection of Deer Creek Road at about 6:40 p.m. when he was struck by a Chevy S-10 pickup being driven eastbound by Ricky Lewis, 53, of Cookeville. The speed limit on that section of the road is 45 mph.

The THP said Lewis was not injured, but Medley was seriously hurt. He was transported by air ambulance to Vanderbilt University Medical Center where he died a short time later.

Lt. Jimmy Neal, THP public information officer, said because one headlight on his vehicle was inoperable, Lewis was cited for violation of the light law.

As news of Medley's death spread through the community, hundreds offered their tributes and prayers on social media.

"Frank Medley was a great man and true education leader consistently demonstrating Truth, Honor, Loyalty, and Service," the Baxter Seminary-Upperman High School Alumni Association posted on its Facebook page.

Linda Moss Mines added, "He was a special man, a selfless mentor and a wonderful friend to my father. Coach always cared."

"His friendly smile, kind heart for all people, and his strong presence of love, character and purpose throughout the Baxter and Putnam County community will be missed," said Director of Schools Jerry Boyd.

Former school board member Eric Brown echoed those comments.

"God places some lighthouses in our lives to provide direction and support," he said. "Frank Medley provided that guidance and accountability for me, especially during my school board years, through his giant heart and teaching stories. He will always be a huge part of the Upperman Legacy."

Medley was a 1953 graduate of Baxter Seminary who later worked in the White County school system and at Monterey High School before becoming the basketball coach at Upperman High School in 1962.

Michael Andrew Messina Obt.
b. 27 June 1958, Roseville, Macomb Co., MI – d. 16 February 2021, Smithville, DeKalb Co., TN, s/o Dominick Joseph Messina (1921-2018) & Reba Doris Fisher (1922-2005).

Michael Messina passed away peacefully in his sleep on February 16, 2021, at his new forever home in Smithville, Tennessee. Mike was born on June 27, 1958 in Roseville, Michigan. He grew up in Utica and Romeo, Michigan and spent most of his adult life in Santa Cruz and Aptos, California. In 1982, Mike's free spirit led hi m to pack up all that would fit into his Triumph TR-7 and move to Santa Cruz, away from the cold Michigan winters. Mike was a self-made man, following in his father Dominick's footsteps as a tool-and-die maker, becoming a respected and sought-after mold-maker and tool designer. In 1988 he opened his own business, Design Matrix, in Watsonville, California, which he ran successfully until he retired in 2019. He enjoyed the casual lifestyle of the California coast, spending as much time as possible at the beaches, and made many friends and many memories over the years.

In August 2020, Mike fulfilled his dream of moving to Tennessee to live near family, spend time on the water, and enjoy his retirement years. Though his time there was short, he spent a great deal of time with uncles, aunts, and cousins, purchased a lovely home, made friends, and adopted a Labrador puppy.

Mike's talents extended into the kitchen where he was always eager to share his latest creations. Not content to limit his skills to Italian cuisine - barbecue, sous vide, and smoking were all part of his repertoire. The cookbooks lining his shelves reflected his eclectic interests in creating delicious food from all over the world, down-home southern cooking, and perfecting the perfect barbeque. No dish was too complicated or time consuming, no ingredient too uncommon or costly, because the entire experience of creating and sharing delicious food was worth it all. He often recreated or reinterpreted a dish without a recipe. Over the years, his family and friends looked forward to being the lucky benefactors of Mike's epicurean adventures. By sharing his passion with his family on numerous visits he inspired and nurtured a similar love of creating and enjoying wonderful food in his sister Debbie, nephew Matthew and niece Sarah. Over the years Mike filled their kitchens with the best knives, cookware, and other tools and gadgets he considered essential to cooking success.

Mike loved fast cars and motorcycles. Starting with a 1972 Mach I Mustang and the TR-7, over the years he owned a 1966 Corvette, 2001 Porsche 911 Carrera, Harley Davidson, Indian, and BMW motorcycles. His taste in music was eclectic, ranging from classical to hard rock, jazz to Motown, 1940's big band to country. He was well-read. His large library of books covered fiction, classics, poetry, biographies of those he admired, politics, business, satire, and more. Mike was a true patriot, loved our country and the stars and stripes. He admired and respected the military, especially his father, brother Russ, Uncle Charles and Uncle

Bud who served; and nephew Ross, and cousin, Connor, who are currently in service.

Mike's love of music, reading, and cooking was eclipsed only by his love of family and friends. Through the years he maintained a close relationship with his parents and siblings in Michigan and Arizona. Uncle Mike's visits were always eagerly anticipated by his niece and nephew, Sarah and Matthew. He was a great uncle to Benjamin, Levi, and Grace, completely sure they were the most special and beautiful children in the world. Sadly, his untimely passing came a few months before little Adam was born. Mike was blessed with close friends in California, especially Elena and Anthony Smolke - Tony and Dolly - best friends for 40 years, who welcomed him into their family as a brother.

Mike was preceded in death by his parents, Dominick and Reba. He is survived, dearly loved, and deeply missed by all his family especially his siblings Russ Messina (Paula), Debbie Messina (Dan) Raubinger, and Mark Messina (John White); his nephew Matthew (Sandra) Raubinger, and niece Sarah (Ross) Pursifull; his great nephews, Benjamin, Levi, and Adam Raubinger, and great niece Grace Pursifull. Likewise, aunts, uncles, and many cousins in Tennessee and Arizona. Mike is also survived and dearly missed by his adopted Santa Cruz family, Tony and Dolly Smolke, Jamie and Douglas Brooks, Andrew and Tristan Brooks, Sonia and Chris Mesa, and Derek Delong.

Michael was a kind and gentle man, slow to anger and quick to laugh. His rapier wit and sardonic observations of the world and life in general, were well known and a source of laughter and enjoyment to us all. His passing leaves an enormous void in the lives of all who knew and loved him.

A celebration of his life was held Saturday, July 10, 2021 at the Crest Lawn Funeral Home in Cookeville. A graveside service followed with inurnment of his cremains with his dear mother Reba (Fisher) Messina in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. Later, part of his ashes will join those of his father, Dominick Messina, in Deer Lake, near Boyne City, Michigan.

Mrs. Morehead was always happy to learn new things and even learning to duck hunt with Dr. Morehead. The Moreheads spent many cold, happy wet days on Reelfoot Lake. She was also her husband's dental assistant at various times throughout their marriage.

Both ladies spent many happy years in the development of Girl Scouting in the region and one of their many projects was the establishment of Girl Scout Day Camp at Waterloo in Overton County.

Mrs. Morehead and her children were among the first members of Collegeside Church of Christ. She spent many happy years designing and creating the bulletin boards there, often enlisting the help of her grandchildren as models for her designs.

She was a wonderful bridge player, always in demand for her skills at the game and she continued to play until this past summer. Mrs. Morehead happily spent her last years at Morning of Cookeville. Her family wishes to thank the wonderful staff for their loving care in her final years, as well as the staff of Lazarus House Hospice.

FAMILY NEEDS AID!
The stricken family of Jim Moss is suffering from acute want. They have barely enough to eat, hardly enough clothes to cover their backs, and not enough fuel to provide comfort during cold weather.

Their needs are real, and it is a worthy case. Imagine your own plight had you lost four children, three of them by a terrible illness caused by poisoning.

If you can spare any food – and it is plentiful –; if you can spare any clothes – and they, too, are plentiful; if you can help gather fuel for the family, communicate with the Herald, Sheriff Hubert Crawford, or Dr. Harry L. Upperman, at Baxter.

'FIDDLING FRAZIER MOSS DIES'

Dyana Bagby
Herald-Citizen Staff

Frazier Moss of Cookeville, a national fiddling champion who played on the Grand Ole Opry with stars such as Roy Acuff, died early this morning at Bordeaux Hospital in Nashville where he had made his home in recent years. He was 88.

Final funeral arrangements were not available this morning. Hooper & Huddleston is in charge.

Moss, who was born in Jackson County but lived all his life in Cookeville, was in the mid-1970s named the National Fiddle Champion, considered by some as one of the highest honors for any amateur fiddle player.

Although Moss never played much professionally, he earned the respect of some of the best musicians in country music, including Roy Acuff.

"He was capable of playing as well as Roy Acuff if he had pursued a professional career," said Dale Ballinger of Cookeville, who once played in the Frazier Moss String Band before becoming part of the Cluster Pluckers, a bluegrass band that has also achieved national and international recognition.

"I can remember we would go with Frazier to the Grand Ole Opry and Roy and his band would be in their dressing room waiting to go on and Roy would call Frazier into the room and would have him sit down and play the fiddle," Ballinger said.

"Roy wouldn't even play with Frazier, though, because Frazier was just that good. There was huge respect for his playing."

Moss was named Tennessee Valley Fiddle King champion twice as well as winning other fiddle championships throughout the US.

Known for his old-time fiddling, Moss "put Cookeville on the map," Ballinger added.

"He made a lot of people aware of this area because of his fiddle playing. He was really up there in the upper echelon for us," he said.

As a full-time job, Moss worked construction and was a carpenter. His fiddling was mostly a hobby and a sideline job, he told the Herald-Citizen in a 1982 interview.

"I've played on the Opry and I've played with a lot of the stars: Roy Acuff, Sam and Kirk McGee, Sid Harkreader, Arthur Smith," Moss said. "I've been on shows with Billy Grammer. Bill Monroe I've played with him. I've been on shows all around the country with just about all of the stars. I've never played regular with any of them, but I've been booked on shows with them, played and gone back to my business, and they go their way."

Moss, sometimes called "Fiddlin' Frazier," quit playing fiddle at one time for a period of five years before Dottie West persuaded him to start playing again, he told the H-C.

"If it hadn't been for Dottie West, the Grand Ole Opry star who came to (Tennessee) Tech with he husband, persuading me to go back to playing the fiddle, I don't guess I would have ever played anymore. She was the one that got me back to playing the fiddle after I hadn't played for five years," he told the H-C in 1982.

Kris Ballinger met her husband, Dale, through Moss, and said the Cluster Pluckers were essentially formed by Moss's influence.

"He liked to say, 'Yeah, I'm the man who put the band together,'" she remembered. "He's the reason why we got into old-time fiddle music."

Preserving old-time fiddle music was a mission of Moss's, the Ballingers both said. He played at the Washington, D.C., bicentennial celebration, representing Tennessee, and also played at a summer folk life festival sponsored each year by the Smithsonian Institution.

Kris Ballinger said it was Moss's love of the music that made him so special to this community and to all musicians.

"His life was like a history book and this is a tremendous loss. It's like the end of an era," she said. "The spirit he played his music with was so contagious."

Jack Sallee, a teacher at Cookeville High School who has his own bluegrass band, also played with Moss many times over the years.

"He was the most remarkable and colorful characters I ever knew," he said.

Playing the fiddle was what Moss was born to do, Dale Ballinger added.

"He wanted to play for fun. He just enjoyed music. He was able to influence many young fiddlers I can remember kids coming up to him at the Smithville Jamboree," he said.

"He was our mentor and was a huge influence on music he taught us to enjoy and appreciate the old-time music."

She had a passion for the elderly and our veterans, spending hours crocheting lap blankets and providing comfort items.

Mrs. Moss is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Tony and Linda Moss Mines; her grand-children, Jessica Eras Mines Dumitru and husband, Michael James Dumitru, and Jason Anthony Mines and four great-grandchildren, Sarah Claire Mines, Jason Anthony Mines, Jr, Noah James Amos Dumitru and Lorelei Eras Dumitru, all of Chattanooga. In addition, she is survived by her brother, Leonard Apple of Mt. Juliet; and one sister-in-law and her husband, Gerldine and Zina Joe Hedgecough of Baxter.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband; her father and mother, Samuel Clifton and Leatha Ann Brown Apple; her husband's parents, E. J. [Jack] and Dollie Ann York Moss; and her sister, Mildred Presley Creech.

Despite limitations life gave him, at the height of his life, Uncle Jimmy achieved independence for himself by working many jobs that he enjoyed. Employed at a hotel restaurant, his boss, Chef Michael, remarked of Jimmy that he was the hardest working employee he'd ever had.

One of his favorite pastimes was going to church and making new friends. As a result, Jimmy had friends from Jamestown to Maryville and all throughout the state of Tennessee.

Three things Uncle Jimmy loved were the University of Tennessee, Christmas, and family. He was at his happiest when he was spending time with his family during the holidays, and could oftentimes be seen sporting a Santa hat with his UT apparel.

He is preceded in death by his parents and his sister: Linda (Murphy) Williams. He is survived by his brother: Michael Murphy and nephews: Todd Murphy and Jason Murphy, as well as great nieces & nephews, and great-great nieces & nephews.

While the family and friends he leaves behind will miss him in their lives, they rejoice in knowing his body and mind are perfectly restored, and that they will be reunited with him in Heaven.
