Your website is fantastic! I can only imagine the thousands of hours you have put into your research. I'm sure we must be cousins. I am the great granddaughter of Tennessee Melinda Maddux McKinley, granddaughter of Craven Maddux, daughter of Thomas Jefferson Maddux and Elizabeth James Garrett, sister of Hugh Bradley and Robert Fain Maddux.

Tennessee Melinda Maddux married Thomas Calhoun, son of Matthew Cowan McKinley, grandson of Robert McKinley and Salley Cowan, who was born in North Carolina and fought in the Revolutionary war. Tennessee Melinda Maddux's sister Sara Francis was also married to Thomas Calhoun's McKinley's half-brother James Donald McKinley. I have been trying to find all the descendants of Robert McKinley's four children: Elizabeth who married Richard Moore, James F. who married Eliza Bates, Matthew Cowan who was married to (1) Jane Newton Saddler, (2) Martha Woodrum (mother to my great grandfather) (3) Darthula McDonald, and Josiah Alexander who moved to Missouri and then to California in 1853 (I live in Northern California near Sacramento).

In the latter part of the 1800's Thomas Calhoun moved his family to Texas and then to Oklahoma. My father Joe Bailey McKinley, son of Benton McMullen McKinley was born in Oklahoma. He met my mother Ruth Ida Loder while stationed in Boston in the Navy. I was born in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

I have been through Cookeville once about 4 years ago and it was raining heavily and since I was moving cross county I could only spend about a day there. I wish it could have been longer because the county was just beautiful. I did get to visit the Cookeville library and visit the small cemetery where the memorial to Craven Maddux with the lineage on it is. I just love libraries and research and could have spent so much more time in the area!

Thank you so much for sharing your information. I would be more than happy to share what I have too.

Warm Regards,

Dawn M. McKinley
