He was a native of Putnam county, being born near Buffalo Valley, December 1, 1854, the son of Jonathan and Agnes Winfree Denny. He was educated in the public schools of the county, and early in life became a carpenter by trade. He moved to Cookeville about 40 years ago, and by his woodwork became known as one of the best carpenters and cabinet makers in the state.

DENNY, AGNES: We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. Agnes Denny, which occurred at her home near Buffalo Valley, in this county on last Monday. Mrs. Denny was the wife of John Denny and mother of the Judge T. L. Denny and Silas Denny of Cookeville. She had been in feeble health for some time past, being well advanced in years, but her death came unexpected to her family and friends. Mrs. Denny was a noble hearted, Christian woman, having been a consistent and devoted member of the Baptist church all her life. She lived to raise to man and womanhood a large and respectable family of children and drew around her a large and devoted circle of friends who will sadly miss and mourn her loss. To the stricken family and children we extend deepest sympathy and sincerest regrets in this hour of their sore afflictions. [Date 6/21/1894, Vol. VII, No. 34, Page 5]

Notes for JAMES ELBERT DENNEY:

James Elbert Denney, Violin Maker

CARTHAGE COURIER - JUNE 2, 1932

Yes sir, Smith County has a fiddle maker of her own. However, the scribes of the Carthage Courier did not know that we had a second Anotonin Stradivari within our midst until last Friday when we were over at Hickman with our friend, Fred Ashley, and he brought us in contact with one J.E. (Elbert) Denney of that city.

Upon request Mr. Denney gladly brought forth the second violin he has recently made with his hands. The instrument had just been finished and for this reason its maker did not play it for us, he preferring to wait until the varnish had thoroughly set. But a pick on the strings revealed that this new fiddle is going to give forth most excellent and pleasing tones.

Upon questioning Mr. Denney stated that some time ago he made his first violin, which he is now using, and he says its tones are so pleasing to his ear that he does not want to give it up at all, not even at a price of six hundred dollars. He also stated that he had been offered $35.00 for the second or new violin he has just completed, but has not yet agreed to accept that price for it.

When asked if he could build a fiddle as good as "Old Strad", Mr. Denney very promptly replied, "no", and stated that no other living man could build a violin that would sound as good as those made by the famous Stradivari. When asked why this was, Mr. Denney replied, "I don't know why but just seems like it is impossible for any one to make a violin that will compete with the old master fiddle maker in tone."

Mr. Denney is the efficient and accomodating manager of the Hickman telephone exchange, he being assisted in this work by members of his family. He builds these violins in spare time, just because he likes to do that kind of work and because he enjoys noting just how pleasing are the tones from the instruments made by his own hands. It requires the most technical skill and workmanship to construct a violin, and Mr. Denney does the carving with a poscket knife. The pieces of work must fit perfectly, all the seams air-tight and the construction such as there will be no rattle or anything to mar the natural tones.

When asked if he was a violinist, Mr. Denney replied, "no, I play a fiddle a little using some of the old-time familiar tunes, such as Turkey in the Straw, Jennie Put the Kettle On, Leather Britches, Shake That Wooden Leg Sally Ann, and Pritty Little Gal with a Red Dress On."

It is indeed a fine accomplishment for Mr. Denney that he is able to do so fine and technical piece of work as to make violins, and the Carthage Courier joins numerous others in extending him congratulations.

James Elbert Denney was quite an accomplished mechanic as well as instrument maker. As the manager of the local Home Telephone exchange for his community of Hickman he was responsible for the installation and maintenance of all the telephone lines and equipment. With his excellent craftsmanship, he made several telephones as well as fiddles. Though the whereabouts of his violins are unkown, several of his phones are still in existance.

My grandfather made several fiddles over his lifetime. His second son, Dalton Denney of McMinnville said there were at least six that he can remember. At least a second generation musician (Elbert's father James Thomas Denney was also a fiddler), he was very modest when he told Sam Neal that he "play[s] a little." He was an accomplished musician counting any stringed instrument, although especially the fiddle, banjo, and guitar as his domain. He was talented enough to be sought by Uncle Dave Macon (one of the first famous country musicians) to join his band in the 1920's. For some reason, he declined.

Among the most vivid memories his children have, are seeing their father with the switchboard headset on playing the banjo or fiddle with his brother Tom Denney who ran the telephone exchange at Brush Creek and was also sitting at a switchboard. It seems that no phone call was too important to interrupt their music. Although the whereabouts of none of the violins that James Elbert Denney built are known today, the violin that Ellen Denney purchased for 75 cents from Sears and Roebuck for her husband after the devastating flood of 1928 ravaged their home in Hickman and took his instruments remains in the possession of his youngest son Donald Denney.

James Elbert Denney was born on July 14, 1894, and died on August 7, 1947. He was the son of James Thomas and Sarah Ann Agee Denney. Over the years, James Elbert Denney and his wife, Nannie Ellen Paris Denney, managed the telephone exchanges at Hickman, Liberty, and New Middleton. After Elbert's death in 1947, Ellen moved to Gordonsville where she managed and ran the switchboard for many years.

Silas Denny Obituary

Prominent Carpenter, Cabinet Maker, Succumbs to Heart Attack. Was Buried Here
Odd Fellow Member - 34 Years

Funeral services for Silas Dean Denny, 80 who died at his home on Oak Street, Sunday night after a short illness, were conducted at the home Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Dow A. Ensor. Burial took place in the Cookeville City Cemetery, Cookeville, TN.

Mr. Denny's death was a shock to his hundreds of friends in Cookeville and Putnam county, where he was well known. He had been in town Sunday afternoon and had started to his home after the Tennessee Central passenger train No. 1 had pulled out. Mr. Denny had met passenger trains almost daily for many years, and had appeared to be in excellent health Sunday afternoon when talking with friends at the depot. He was stricken when near his home, became worse later in the night, and died toward midnight.

He was a native of Putnam county, being born near Buffalo Valley, December 1, 1854, the son of Jonathan and Agnes Winfree Denny. He was educated in the public schools of the county, and early in life became a carpenter by trade. He moved to Cookeville about 40 years ago, and by his woodwork became known as one of the best carpenters and cabinet makers in the state.

He was married in 1879 to Miss Molly Essex, who died seventeen years ago. To this union three children were born, Walter Denny, Mrs. Gertrude Dillard, of Cookeville, Ed C. Denny, of Fort Worth, Texas. Walter Denny died here several years ago.

Mr. Denny became a member of the Methodist church when a young man, and had been a steadfast member until his death. He had been a member of the Cookeville, Lodge, I.O.O.F., for 34 years, joining in 1900 shortly after his removal to Cookeville.

Active pallbearers were Judge Oscar King Holladay, Hubert Clark, Linnaeus Milan Bullington, Leslie Marvin Bullington, Virgil Timothy Denny, Dr. E.A. Conger, and Clifford Massa.

Honorary pallbearers were W. A. Holladay, Hiram Knight, U. T. Brown, Beeman Graves, Comer Cannon, Jim Haynes, Bill Hughes, Jim Viteto, Theodore Essex, Hugh Hargis, Walter Carlen, Dillard Hix, P.Y. Jared, D.W. Dow, Bonnell Appel, and Perry Wassom.

Certificate of Death: #26657. Dr. J. Fred Terry.

Notes for PAULINE ANNETTE LAFON:

Mrs. Gore played central role in campaigns:

Herald Citizen Newspaper, 16 December 2004, front page:

Nashville, TN (AP) - Pauline Gore, whose son Al became Vice President and nearly captured the presidency and whose husband had a long and distinguished career in Congress, died Wednesday. She was 92. She had been weakened in recent years by strokes and a heart attack, and died in at her home in Carthage.

Trained as a lawyer, Pauline Gore was a familiar figure on the campaign trails of her husband, Albert Gore Sr. and her son, former Vice President Al Gore.

She played a central role in shaping her husband's campaign strategy. Gore Sr. was a liberal Democrat who served in the House from 1939 to 1953 and in the Senate from 1953 to 1970 and aspired to the presidency himself. He died in 1998.

"She was my father's closest adviser," the then Vice President said in 1999. "Together, they strengthened the future of this great country.

Pauline Gore campaigned for her son when he ran unsuccessfully for the Democratic nomination for president in 1988.

During the 1992 campaign, she and her husband campaigned for the Clinton-Gore ticket. They made a seven-week bus tour with many stops at senior citizens' gatherings.

She never complained publicly about the demands public life made on her family, though she joked in a 1993 interview that she had "swapped a son for a Vice President."

He was a divinity student who worked as a journalist before making his first run for Congress in 1976.

Pauline Gore was born Pauline LaFon in Palmersville, TN, grew up in Jackson, TN, and attended Vanderbilt University in Nashville. She worked her way through Vanderbilt's law school as a waitress, meeting her future husband at the coffee shop where she worked.

In 1936, she became one of the law school's first female graduates.

Pauline Gore practiced law briefly in Arkansas before returning to Tennessee and marrying her husband in 1937.

The former Vice President once said his parents studied for the bar exam together and passed it on the same day. "I've heard them joke about who got the highest grade," he said. "If I interpreted the jokes correctly, she did."

Her husband was one of the few senators from the South to refuse to sign the segregationist Southern Manifesto in 1956. His opposition to the Vietnam War ended his 32 years in Congress.

The senior Gore was briefly a Vice Presidential candidate himself during the 1956 Democratic national convention. He withdrew in favor of fellow Tennessee Sen. Estes Kefauver, who won the nomination and lost as running mate to Adlai Stevenson.

Mrs. Gore was known as "Mrs. Pauline" during her frequent visits to her son's presidential campaign headquarters in Nashville in 2000.

"She was always full of advice. She was an optimist and one of the smartest women I've ever met in politics," said Donna Brazile, Al Gore's campaign manager.

Al Gore Jr. is the Gores' only living child. Their daughter, Nancy died of cancer in 1984. Other survivors include a brother, Whit LaFon of Jackson, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be Saturday in Carthage.

Associated Press Writer, Joe Edwards contributed to this report.

Served in WWI, was wounded. After his return from the war he drank heavily to over come the pain from thw war. When drinking he would sing the same song over and over again, "ten thousand Swedes went running through the weeds chasing one Norwegina."

The only time Martha Naoma Denny can remember her Great Uncle speaking of his mother, Frances "Fannie" Ford Denny was when he told the story of going to a neighbors house for supper, the neighbor had made a cake, and Larry kept picking off the icing and eating it. his mother said nothing. However, when they departed the neighbor's home Fannie dragged him by the back of the neck through a plowed field rather than taking the road. When they got home Fannie fired up the stove and baked a cake, she sat Larry down and made him eat cake until he was sick. Larry said from that day forward he never did like chocolate cake.

Notes for MARY JANE STAMPS:
MRS. MOLLIE STAMPS DIETZ OBT.

The death of Mrs. Mollie Stamps Dietz, wife of Carl Dietz, occurred at her home, Anderson Springs, on February 8 at 8 a.m., has brought sadness to her many friends thru this section.

Mrs. Dietz was 29 years of age and at an early age joined the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Mt. Herman.

She had been in ill health for a year or more. All that loving hands and medical aid could do could not heal her here. Through her long illness she was patient, always thoughtful of others and was ready for the summons of the heavenly father. She often expressed herself as wanting to live and help raise her children, but realizing her stay here was brief, she called her husband to her bedside and with a smile said, "I am going."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. S. Clouse at New Salem Church with interment at Salem Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband and children Jewel Dimple, Mary Carlen, John Denny, & William James Dietz, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stamps, 1 sister, 6 brothers and a number of relatives.

Notes for WILLIAM CLAUDE GARRISON:

Willaim Claud was born in 1899 to Robert Mansfield Garrison and Ruth Angeline Maynard. He was raised on a farm and learned to work hard.

My mother, Dorsa Garrison Law, dearly loved her brother Claud. When he went away to WWI and left a shoe print in the snow, she covered it with a box and went to see it every day until the snow melted.

William Claud Garrison married Beatrice Fairfax Hart 14 Dec 1919 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was an accomplished and educated woman and set a good example for my mother, who loved her very much. She was, in fact, beloved by my mother and it saddened the whole family when she died at 29 years of age (January 1925) leaving a grieving husband and a little son, William Hart Garrison.

Claud remarried 18 Sept 1925 to Dimple Serene Denny and one year later they had a daughter, Ada Ruth.

Claud died of a heart attack while tending to his farm duties in 1969.

He was and is a sweet, kind soul!
