Notes for William "Robert" Neily Denney from the book: History Deaf Smith County, Texas; Pioneers: Bob Denney – 1905.

The Bob Denney family came to Deaf Smith County by train on Dec. 5, 1905 from Smith County, Tenn. They made the move for Mrs. Denney's health, and their first home was on the Walcott Ranch. Robert (Bob) Denney was born in Tennessee on May 16, 1874. He was a farmer and member of the Methodist Church.

Moving with the Denney's to Hereford were their children, Bill, Bessie, Nannie, Avie, and Violet (Toad). The following April 6 Maude was born during a snow storm. Bill's ambition was to be a cowboy, and when he was 12, he went to work on the Bob Mountz Ranch at $25 per month. He was married to Elizabeth Lenoir in the fall of 1919, and after this marriage, he worked as a carpenter and a butcher. Their children are Mrs. Floyd Lowe, Memphis, Tex. Mrs Jack Porter, Floydada; Cliff Deney, New York City and Clay Denney. Bill Denney died in 1962 at Memphis Tex.

Mrs. Bill Denney, Floydada states her husband often talked of a Halloween prank he and Jake Williams pulled. They put a steer on top of the First State Bank building and were paid to get it down and back to the stock yard the next day. Bessie Denney married Carl Jennings, who died several years ago. She lives in Hereford and operates a beauty salon in her home. She remembers vividly the prairie fire of 1906 when the cattle burned to death and men rode their horses to death fighting the blaze. She declares there was not a broom in Hereford after that fire as they were used in fighting the fires.

Other members of the Denney family are: Nannie (Mrs. Steven Dickson "Dixon" Durham). Moab, UT; Ava (Mrs. George Chess Gollihar), Cave, OR; Violet (Mrs. Charles Homer Durham), Elmo, UT; Authur, Hereford, TX; Maude (Mrs. Curtis Caraway), died December 17, 1931 & Toney Denny the youngest died in 1958.
