A wedding of no little interest to Cookevillians was that last Wednesday of Miss Clara Denny and Dr. Elisha Conger, which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Holladay, in the presence of a large crowd of friends, Elder W. B. Boyd performing the ceremony.

The porch, where the ceremony took place, was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. Two songs, "Dear Heart" and "Mine," were sung by Mr. Joel Barnes, with violin accompaniment by Miss Ruth Ensor. Miss Elise Epperson presided at the piano.

Miss Denny is the popular and youngest daughter of the late Judge T. L. Denny, of this city, and has a large number of friends.

We wish the young couple a long life of happiness and joy.
