(Chapter VII: The "Progressive Period," Progress, and Two Wars: Political Development: 1890-1920)

Pg. 167: Through many community leaders now urged women to exercise the franchise, there was considerable apprehension over women holding political offices. The Herald carried letters, reprints from other newspapers, and editorials reflecting this fear. Mary F. Denny was the first woman to run for elective office in Putnam County. In May of 1921 she announced as candidate for the Democratic nomination for Putnam County trustee. Mrs. Denny had held clerical and secretarial positions in the postal service, Cookeville town government, and at TPI; but in her campaign she found it necessary to explain that she needed the public office because she was the sole support of her invalid husband and son and to deny a rumor that her husband received a pension. She asked, "Is there any reason why I should be defeated just because I am a woman? I am asking for this office in order that I can better care for a man who cannot care for himself." Mrs. Denny won the nomination and the election and served two terms as trustee²⁶. Pg. 167. ²⁶Printed in the Herald – 25 August 1921, pg. 1.
