Charles and John Wade were brothers. Allin Wade, a son of John Wade, died in 1835. His wife Mary, died in 1839. There were minor Wade children left in the care of Thomas Denny. This was in Person county, North Carolina. I have not been able to find the names of these Wade children. They were in the Denny home from 1839 to 1841. Does anyone have any information on them?

I did find a little on Zachariah Denny. It is printed in "Person county North Carolina Deed Books 1792 - 1825" by Katharine Kerr Kendall. It says:

"Deed Book C. Page 265---Zachariah Denny to John Harris Sen. of Granville co., for 100 lbs, 200 A. in Person & Granville on Aron's Cr. adj. said Harris, Daniel. Wit: 14 May 1799. Wit. John P. Smith, Starling Harris, Charles Smith."
...Thanks...Betty in Texas.

I would appreciate the location, i.e. TSLA, of where you found the tax list source compiled by Pryor. I would like to see the data. Perhaps we can secure a copy of the original tax list.

Thanks

The tax list was on the web at <http://www.mindspring.com/~baumbach/1767tax01.htm>.

Phillip Pryor was the county tax official who compiled the list in 1767 and is himself listed on the list. The site says that the original can be found in the following file - Granville County, North Carolina, Tax Lists, CR044.701,

State of North Carolina Library and Archives, Raleigh, NC

If someone is close enough to check out the original then we would benefit from this.

Notice that John Harris is a known neighbor of Zachariah in Granville County, and I have little doubt that this is our man.

Let me know if someone finds this original. I am probably going to the archives in NC in the fall and if no one sees it before the fact I will check it out then.

If any one needs anything checked out on this particular Denney line (meaning John, John, Jr, Zachariah, Benjamin Sr, Claiborne, John, and Benjamin Denney in Granville, Person, Caswell, and Orange Cos, NC or Pittsylvania, Campbell, Lunenburg, Halifax, Bedford, Brunswick, Hanover, Goochland, and New Kent Counties VA let me know before then and I will put it on my list.

Steven
