Francis Mayberry (Maberry) (Maby) came from North Carolina, was in Grainger County, Tennessee by 1792 then moved to the 10th District of Jackson County, first appearing on the 1801 tax list. His property included Zion Church of Christ. His son, Seth born about 1784, is the only descendant of record. He married Rebecca and reared ten children. Jefferson born 1812, married Nancy Lee; Jesse born 1813, married Matilda McClellan born 1815, daughter of Josiah McClellan; William born 1815, married Elvira; Joseph born 1820, married Nancy Jane Fox; Seth Jr. born 1821, married Rebecca Allen; Solomon born 1824, married Nancy Chaffin; Irene born 1829; Mary Polly born 1831 married William Riley Gentry, son of Jesse and Elizabeth Gentry; Francis (Frank) born 1833, married Barbara Gentry; sister of William Riley Gentry; Margaret born 1835.

Almost all Mayberrys in the Upper Cumberland, are descendants of this family which acquired much land in the 9th and 10th Districts. They supplied land for Mabry school, which occupied three different buildings, before being consolidated with Dodson Branch.

Jesse and Matilda Mayberry's farm bordered Zion Church of Christ where they reared twelve children: George born 1836, married Nancy Loftis; Rhoda born 1838, married Thomas Gentry born 1817; Joshua M. born 1839, married Martha Anderson born 1840; John P. born 1842, married Margaret Matheney; Josiah born 1844; Elizabeth born 1846, married Sampson Bartlett; William Jefferson born 1847, married (1) Sarah Bean (2) Elizabeth Dowell; Andrew Davis Bailey born 1855, married May Smith; Asberry Stanton born 1857, married Amanda Allen; Margaret Ellen born 1860, married Lafayette (Fate) Bartlett.

This family supported the Confederacy and sent their four oldest sons into military service. George and Josiah did in battle.

Joshua M. "Josh" and Martha Anderson Mayberry lived in the 15th Dist. of Putnam Co., TN. He was listed as a director of the 15th Dist. school on a deed for the school property in 1887. This school was located on the old Livingston to Gainesboro road. This school was later named Whitehall and was closed when the old Bangham consolidated school was built in ____ we now know this location as Whitehall Road running between the Hilham and Dodson Branch roads.

Josh later bought the Hatfield property which surrounded the school property on 3 sides as well as other property across the road from the school.

Their eight children were Sarah Fatima Mayberry who married Nathan Judd; Mary Martha who married William Campbell Gentry; Grieselda who died at age eleven; William Wesley who married (1) Loretta Phillips (2) Maynard; Delavine Mayberry who married (1) Norah Lou Pointer (2) Vallie Bartlett; Sabrina

Mayberry who married Joe Bartlett (Joseph Perry Bartlett); and Henry Davis Mayberry who married Daisy Clouse. (*See obt. of Robert J. Mayberry).

Their son Wesley Mayberry bought the farm after their death. He then sold part of it to his brother Davis Mayberry and this tract is now part of the "Pepsi Cola" farm operated by Tennessee Tech. The portion which Wesley kept was later owned by his son Jim Mayberry and is still owned by Jim's sons and James L. Mayberry, Howard Mayberry and H. C. Mayberry who have an excellent cattle operation.

Joshua Mayberry's daughter, Sarah Fatima born 1859. She married Nathan Judd in 1876 and Nathan Judd bought the farm after Matilda died and his son Perry Judd, lived on this farm most of his life, therefore, this author grew up and lived here until entering the Navy during World War II.

The Hickory tree in the picture was located at a fork in the road near the homestead and was a widely known landmark.
