

BAXTER FLAG TO BE UNVEILED APRIL 7, 2011

by Amye Wright

BAXTER -- The Baxter Beautification Committee will be having a special ceremony Thursday, April 7, to unveil the official city flag to the public.

Baxter is only the third city in the state to have adopted an official city flag. The design represents the rich history of the town, which is located in western Putnam County.

"We would like to invite the city and county officials and sister communities to be present and celebrate this momentous occasion for the Baxter community," Jeanie Lee, Beautification Committee president, said.

Students and faculty members are also invited to attend.

Carolyn Whitson, the designer of the flag, will also be in attendance at the event and will share the story of the flag. Flags will be presented to Mayor Jeff Wilhite, the City of Baxter, Upperman High School, Cornerstone Middle School and Baxter Elementary School.

The presentation will take place at 6:45 p.m. at Baxter City Hall prior to the meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen.

The public is invited to attend the ceremony.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 27 March 2011

*See more about Baxter, TN at: <http://www.ajlambert.com>