

PICTURE FROM THE PAST

Photo provided by Davis Watts

Clarence Wilson, left, and James Buck fill up a customer's car and wash the windshield at the East Side Service Station in Cookeville in 1950, a time when most service station attendants wore uniforms, gave full service and when most stylish roadsters like the one seen here had white-wall tires.

Herald Citizen Newspaper, Cookeville, TN: Way Back When: Sunday, 30 April 2006, Page B-3.

<http://www.ajlambert.com>