Cornerstone Middle School presented a Veterans Day program Nov. 8. Students participated in the tribute to veterans. The band and chorus performed, and art classes painted banners which decorated the school. Upperman High School JROTC students posted the colors. The student council president, Molly Daniel, led the Pledge of Allegiance. Danny Holmes, veteran and police chief of Baxter, and Bobby Winningham, veteran and principal of park View Elementary, were the keynote speakers. The faculty and PTO sponsored a reception for the veterans and their families which was hosted by the CMS student council. Pictured are attending veterans, in back, Scott Davison, James Flickinger, Bobby Winningham, Randle Smallwood, Bruce Harrison, Fred Garrison, Kenneth Maxwell, Brian Jackson, Jimmy Neal, Thomas Kelley, Mckenzie Guffey, Frank Medley, former Upperman High School Principal, and Michael Bratcher and, in front, Billy Stepp, Veteran and CMS Principal, Frank Favia, Teresa Waller, Danny Holmes, Glenn Leddy, World War II Veteran, J.
