Pg. 237 – Glenn Taylor Bradford was born March 19, 1948 to Clifford and Della Dunn Bradford and delivered by the community mid-wife, Mrs. Annie Clouse. He was named for his grandfather, Thomas Taylor Bradford. He has three older siblings: C. D., Ann, and Cleamon. His education was at Nash's Chapel School and Upperman High School. After school, Glenn worked at various jobs, but he trained in the furniture and upholstery industry. He married Helen Ingram and had twins, Randy Taylor and Brandy Nicole, born July 14, 1984. Glenn and Helen divorced in 1992. Glenn married Carol Littrell Hall on September 2, 2002 in Baxter, TN. They went to Upperman High School together in the early '60's. Carol taught school for 31 ½ years. 30 ½ of them at Baxter Elementary School. She retired in January 2003 and completed her Boyd Family Book, a genealogy of her Boyd ancestors, a book she had been working on for 15 years. Carol and Glenn now have a thrift store at Double Springs Crossroads. They are always looking for bargains, new or used, and do some traveling looking for goodies. They are avid genealogists and will talk about family history with anyone anytime.
