JAMES BARTLETT DIES AT DRY VALLEY HOME:

Funeral services for James Bartlett, 82, prominent citizen of the Dry Valley section, and one of Putnam County's most highly respected men, were conducted at the Dry Valley church Sunday afternoon by the Rev. G. W. Pennington, the Rev. J. H. Roberson, and the Rev. J. W. Stone. Burial took place in the family cemetery.

Mr. Bartlett died in the City Hospital Saturday after a long illness. His wife, Fannie Bohannon Bartlett, died three months ago.

Mr. Bartlett, a native of Putnam County, had been active in the up building of his section of the county, and was known as a Christian man. He became a member of the Brown's Mill Baptist Church at an early age, and remained an active member until overtaken by illness.

One son, Lawrence, died in the service of his country during the World War. Mr. Bartlett is survived by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nancy Lou Bartlett, two grandsons, Lawrence and Clarence; and the following sisters: Mrs. Newton Clouse, Mrs. Elijah Wilhite, Mrs. Stanton Bohannon, and Mrs. Sara Robinson.
