

NOTIE MAE (HERRON) PASCOE OBT.

MICHIGAN -- Notie Mae Herron Pascoe, 81, of Warren, Mich., died at St. Anthony's Nursing Home in Warren, Mich., of congestive heart failure.

Burial was in Oak View Cemetery in Royal Oak, Mich.

She was born in 1926 in Baxter to the late Bruce and Beller Mae Herron of Putnam County, where she lived on a farm.

When she was 16, her father and other relatives, with thousands of others at the time, went to Oak Ridge and worked where scientists were building the atomic bomb. She came to Detroit during the war and worked in factories. She was working behind the soda fountain at Cunningham's Drugstore on Woodward Ave. in Detroit at the time she met her husband, Harry, who had recently been discharged from the Navy. She spent the remainder of her years in Warren raising her family. She will be missed dearly.

Her family includes her husband of 61 years, Harry Pascoe; three daughters, Shirley Golden of Clio, Mich., Jane Pascoe of Warren, Mich., and Virginia Hall of Clinton Township, Mich.; two sons-in-law, Curt Golden of Clio, Mich., and Tracy Hall of Clinton Township, Mich.; two sisters, Linda Mayberry of Livingston and Darla Farmer of Sparta; four brothers and a sister-in-law, Thomas, Oscar and John Herron, all of Sparta, and Leon and Lois Herron of Madison Heights, Mich.; five grandchildren; and nine great-grandsons.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Pascoe was preceded in death by her stepmother, Margie LaFever Herron; four sisters, Rhoda Lee Herron Silcox, Ruth Herron Sherrell, Phyllis Harness and Betty Lou Herron Morgan; and a brother, James E. Herron.

Wysocki Funeral Home in Warren was in charge of arrangements.
