“The Palms” in West Cookeville has been in existence about two years and is certainly a swell place of its kind. Here is served all the prevailing soft drinks of the season, ice cream and ices, cigars, tobaccos, pipes, fruits, fancy candies, etc. A specialty is made of Belle Camp’s celebrated chocolates, especially suitable for the aesthetic taste of the ladies. “The Palms” is owned by Messrs. J. P. Hamilton and C. C. Russell. Mr. Russell in active charge of the business, is a native of Putnam county, and his father was at one time in the wholesale grocery business in Nashville. He is well known in athletic circles, being coach for local foot, basket and baseball, and athletic instructor and a teacher in Dixie College. Mr. Hamilton was born in Lincoln county, and has been in railroad service twenty-seven years, eleven years of which time has been with the Tennessee Central in capacity of agent at Lebanon and Cookeville district agent at Monterey, chief clerk in superintendent at Nashville and at present time is the very popular agent at this place.

“The Palms” is headquarters for good people and is the place to go when you want to work off a first class case of the blues. Cookeville is up-to-date.
