

VETERANS DAY PROGRAM AT
HERITAGE POINTE LIVING CENTER
Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: Sunday, 16 November 2008, pg. C-1

VETERANS DAY PROGRAM

Intrepid USA Home Health sponsored a special Veterans Day program for veterans as well as residents of Heritage Pointe Living Center. A Veterans Day poem was read aloud by guest speaker Sgt. Terrance Piercy of the U. S. Marine Corps. Following the reading, Sgt. Piercy personally thanked each veteran as well as their spouses for their contribution and service to their country by presenting to each a copy of the poem read. Veterans Day ribbons were also pinned on each veteran and resident. Seated from left are Roy Luna, World War II Army veteran; Anne Anderson, World War II Navy veteran; Walter Anderson, Korean War Marine Corps veteran; and Bob Maddux, World War II Army veteran; and standing from left are Susan Dalton, director; Bonnie Smith, staff members and Desert Storm Army veteran; Terry Snyder, staff member and Desert Storm Navy veteran; Sheriff David Andrews, Vietnam Air Force veteran and guest; Robert Keen of Intrepid Home Health Services, who served in the Air Force; and Sgt. Terrance Piercy, guest speaker who serves in the Marine Corps. Not pictured are A. P. McClain, Albert Kaiser, O. C. Stewart and Don Cook, Heritage Pointe residents.
