Name: Edward Jackson
Sex: M
Birth: ABT 1742 in Rowan County, NC
Death: BET 1820 AND 1822 in Burke County, NC
Burial: BET 1820 AND 1822
Note:

Edward Jackson was born circa 1750, possibly in Rowan, NC. He married Susannah (possibly Susannah Chaffin, sister of Amos). In 1790 he lived about four miles south of Davidson's Old Fort, in the Crooked Creek Community of Burke Co., NC. He appeared on the Burke census of 1800 living adjacent to his sons Joseph, John, and Amos. Other neighbors were Captain Thomas and Mary Lytle, both famous for their Revolutionary War bravery. Edward appeared in the census of 1810 living adjacent his son Amos and near John Petillo, Hodges, Hopkins, and Lytle. He appeared on the 1820 census between Amos and Eli and near Middleton (or Littleton?) Petillo. Edward may have migrated to North Georgia with family members. He may have remained in Burke County. We only know that he died sometime in the 1820's.

"Edward Jackson was born circa 1750-55 but it is not known for certain who his parents were. It is thought that he is the same listed as son of Nathan Jackson on the Rowan Co Tax List of 1768 and the same Edward who was entered on the tax list of Windsor Pearce, Southeast Randolph Co, NC in 1779. No record of his service in the Revolutionary War, participation in the Regulators, Tory activity, nor affiliation with the Quakers has been located, though he was of the right age and in the right location to be involved. He witnessed a deed in Randolph Co on 17 Dec, 1782 but had moved to SW Burke Co. NC before 1790. He settled on a branch of Crooked Creek on the South side of the Catawba River. The branch was later known as Jackson Creek. His neighbors were John Petillo, Amos Chaffin, John Noblet, Robert Hodge and Michael Souther. His descendants intermarried with the descendants of these neighbors. The writer of these notes has made a thorough search of available records and can find nothing indicating that Edward was related to the other Jackson's of Burke or to any of the several Jackson tribes in Rutherford Co".

Note:

"Elias Jackson and family, William Billingsley and family all came from North Carolina in 1760. They settled on "Rush Fork" of Flynn's Creek in the territory, which is known as Jackson County, Tennessee."

- Source: E.W. Jackson, Bible, c.1948 in Cookeville, TN. Current location of the bible is unknown.

Elias Jackson was born circa 1776. He and Edith Stanley (born circa 1775) were married in about 1795 in Guilford County, NC. The 1800 census for Burke County, NC shows Elias with a wife and daughter under 10 years old. He owned land on a branch of Crooked Creek as revealed in NC Land Grants #3445 and #3446. As recorded in Rutherford County records, he paid $75 for 50 acres of land on both sides of the Main Broad River. This deed was executed on March 7, 1809 and recorded in Book 24-26 on March 14, 1811. The transaction was witnessed by Joseph Jackson and Nancy Stanley. He sold, on 12 Oct 1810, the same 50 acre tract,, which was described "where Jackson now lives" and soon thereafter moved to Jackson County, TN (before 1815). The family settled in the southeast corner of present day Jackson County only a few miles east (and over a ridge) from Abner Chaffin, who lived on Flynn's Creek. On November 7, 1815 Elias purchased 10 acres, including a house on Rush Fork of Flynn's Creek. The following year he purchased two additional acres which included a sugar orchard on top of a ridge. The 1840 census finds Elias and his brother Azaria(h)s living in the 11th Civil District of Jackson County. He died before 1850 in Jackson County, TN. A lawsuit (Alice Phippen Clemens vs the Estate of Elias Jackson) names Elias' children. Edith died in 1876, living with her son Joseph at the time of her death, revealed by court documentation of "Estate vs Inventory of Edith Jackson". Source - Rod Medders, 01/10/00.

Bobby Fox shows only 4 children. 03/01/00.

Note:

Burke County, NC now is in McDowell County, NC. Edward lived in Jackson Co TN as shown by the 1850 census. The family still living in Jackson Co, TN, in 1870, in District 11. Source - Rod Medders, 01/10/00.

Amos G.4 Jackson was born circa 1847. Amos served in the Union Army during the Civil War. Another individual has Amos G. as a son of Edward Silas instead of Charles Jackson. Also, the book Stray Leaves from Putnam County has Amos G. as the son of Edward and Elizabeth Jackson.

My files stay the same until proof is obtained.

Note: family records furnished by Susan give eleven children born to Edward Silas by his first marriage as follows: 9th born h) Anne born 1848, twin of Amos, AND 10th i) Virginia born 1852 who married a Birdwell. Shown also is a son 11th j) Bud Jackson.

It appears that Elizabeth Howell may have died after 1852, as Edward Silas remarried, on 4 April 1856(?), to Sally Billingsley (born 1810 in TN; died 1860?). Three children were born to Edward and Sally: k) Doc, l) Earl and m) Bracken.

Bobby Fox has Edward born in 1806 TN.

Rod Medders has John Stanley married to Emaline ? as son of Edward Silas. My records show Joseph Stanley as son of Amos Jackson. Another puzzle to figure out.

Rod Medders also has Mary Jackson born 1862 in TN and Edward S. Jackson born 1869. His latest wife died in about 1860???
