

Wanda Polson Maxwell Obt.

COOKEVILLE -- Wanda Polson Maxwell, 61, of Cookeville died on Thursday, Feb. 6, 2003, at her residence.

No services are scheduled; the family has chosen cremation.

There will be no visitation at the funeral home.

She was born on May 22, 1941, in Pickett County to Edith Pearl Garrett Polson of Cookeville and the late Louis Polson.

Mrs. Maxwell was owner/operator of Warehouse Carpets. She was a member of Stevens Street Baptist Church.

In addition to her mother, her family includes two daughters and sons-in-law, Angie and Teddy Johnson and Donna and Art Rowland, all of Cookeville; two sisters, Pam Ford of Cookeville and Barbara Bilbrey of Baxter; four grandchildren, Brandi and Morgan Lane, Chasity Maxwell and Destiny Johnson; and a great-grandchild, Kaiden Maxwell.

Donations may be made to the American Cancer Society of Lazarus House Hospice.

Dyer Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Published February 07, 2003 12:23 PM CST- Herald Citizen Newspaper, Cookeville, TN

*See Descendants of Samuel Maxwell at: <http://www.ajlambert.com>