There is a G. M. Moore that makes statements confirming information on several Civil War Pension Applications.

Research continues - lost track after 1900 Census in Putnam County. Tennessee Deaths and Burials, 1874 - 1955 has a Geo Monchester Moore, male, burial date 02 Feb 1927 death date 1 Feb 1927, Cookeville, Putnam, Tennessee, age 82 b Tennessee, farmer, white, single, Certificate 3753.

If this is the correct George M Moore - husband of Elizabeth "Bettie" Frances Moore then George should be on the 1910 and 1920 census somewhere. I have yet to locate him.

Elizabeth "Bettie" Frances Moore is the daughter of George D. Moore and Priscilla "Twin" Hearne [6]. She was born on 16 Oct 1836 in Tennessee [6]. Census on 14 Oct 1850 in Wilson County, Tennessee (Dist 7 dw1232 f1232 at home w parents age 14 b Tenn) [2]. and Margaret Permilia Huddleston. Marriage took place abt 1870 based on 1900 census which states George and Elizabeth have been married 30 years. She was enumerated as Bettie on 1850 census when she was living at home with her parents; on 1860 census she was enumerated as Elizabeth when she was living at home with her widowed father; she was enumerated as Betty on 1870 census where she was living with husband George next door to brother David Moore and wife Elizabeth in Arkansas; she was enumerated as Bettie on 1880 census where she was living with husband George Moore and daughter Eva Moore; she was enumerated as Elizabeth F. on 1900 census where she is living with husband George and sister Louisa Jane "Jeannie" Moore. Her age fluctuates on census records but on 1900 census it states she was born in October as was her sister Louisa and Louisa was 10 years older which matches with Rufus Denny Moore information. To date, I have not found any indication that these 2 Moore lines are related.
