

Mrs. Bullington Dies Friday In Hospital
Daisy Bullington's Obituary
b. 11 February 1881 – d. 26 February 1965
md John Wesley Bullington
b. 21 July 1859 – d. 26 November 1944

Funeral services for Mrs. John Wesley Bullington, 84, were held Monday morning at First Methodist Church with the Rev. Robert Spain officiating. Interment was in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Lebanon, TN.

Mrs. Bullington died Friday in a local hospital. Ligon & Bobo Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements, 241 W. Main St. Lebanon, TN

She was a baker of cakes, pies & pastries and had been in the business at her home on North Cumberland St. in Lebanon, TN for about 25 years. She was a member of the First Methodist Church. Her husband died about 27 years ago.

Survivors include, two daughters. Mrs. R.W. Roseborough, DeLand, FL, and Mrs. Rose Cremer, Huntington, WV; four sons: George Otto Bullington, Madison, TN; Paul Bullington, Old Hickory, TN; Charles Bullington, Nashville, TN;; Ress Bullington, Baxter, TN. Three step-sons : L.M. Bullington, Cookeville, TN; Marvin Bullington, Tampa, FL; and Lilbern Sidney Bullington, Sarasota, FL; 16 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

THE NASHVILLE BANNER was right on top when Mrs. J.W. Bullington opened old cornerstone box from building of Lebanon First Methodist Church. Watching were Walter Prichard (left) and Mrs. Adelaide Atchley who were present with Mrs. Bullington when the box was sealed in 1913. Lebanon church is planning move to new location, so cornerstone of present building was chiseled out. The contents, including full history of congregation from 1803, membership lists, and a horseshoe, will be resealed in cornerstone of proposed new building, fourth for congregation. Others present for the opening who had attended the 1913 ceremony were Mrs. Douglas McClain, Frank Corner, Mrs. Zella Prichard, Mrs. Guy Thaeton, Mrs. Tex Maddox, Mrs. Comer Donnell and Mrs. Dick Lawler.