Richard Anderson

s/o James & Margaret (Troys) Anderson
b. 1760/4, Cumberland, VA
d. August 1813, Cumberland,VA md ca. 1784, Cumberland, VA, Martha "Patty" Meador *sister of Annah Meador who married Edward Robinson –

Richard Anderson was a Revolutionary Solider.

Richard seems to purchase his first land from Andrew Edwards in 1793, and his last from his father-in-law in 1794. Maybe because he died early, but he seemed to be the poorest of the brothers. He probably lived on the 400 acres until his own marriage but never owned any of it, although his own land was very close to his older brothers.

See Story Gentry Family in America for additional Gentry names that fought in the American Revolution. Additional information can be found in this story.

"North Carolina Guilford County. On the 21st day of May AD 1833 personally appeared in open court before the worshipful the judges of the Court of Pleas and

Quarters Session for Guilford County now setting, Daniel Apple, resident of said County of Guilford aged seventy two years who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Acts of Congress passed on the 7th of June 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following officers and served as herein stated. That in August 1780 in the County of Guilford N Carolina he volunteered as a private militiaman was under Capt Jacob Clapp of the regiment commanded by Col John Paisley. That immediately thereafter he was marched under the said Captain to the South passing through Salisbury to Charlotte in Mecklenburg County: a few miles beyond which these troops were met by the British under Cornwallis when we retreated repassing Salisbury and the Yadkin River being pursued by the enemy, where our troops were encamped for something like a week, where upon the British returning South our forces were again marched after them and the main army went as far as what was called the Six Mile Creek where it encamped and this applicant was detached page 3: as one of a scout or reconnoitering party that they pursued the enemy as far as the Catawba River upon the border of So Carolina upon reaching the main army we remained there encamped until he was discharged by direction of his Col the said John Paisley? His discharge was given him in writing but it has long since become lost, and that during this expedition he was in actual service at least four months. That the expedition was conducted and commanded by the said Col John Paisley who marched into the service (near Captains Company) from said County of Guilford commanded by the said Capt Clapp, Capt Wilson, Capt Pearce & Capt Ray(?) who was of Rockingham County & perhaps some others whom the applicant cannot recollect the name of his Major, he cannot recollect the name of his Lieutenant he cannot now remember - that upon marching as herein afore stated a few miles south of Charlotte their regiment joined the army under General Davidson of the infantry & Col Day of the light Horse under whose command they continued to the conclusion of the expedition as before stated that during this service a portion of our troops was engaged with these Tories at the Shallowford on the Yadkin in Surry County on which occasion some ten or twelve persons per day were killed upon both sides that before the above mentioned tour and during the same year he was called into actual service and volunteered under Capt Whitsell and Capt Forbis in order to suppress the occupation of the Tories in the said County of Guilford in the service he was from time to time engaged during the said year 1780 for at least two months in addition thereto he was employed in guarding different parties of Tories taken prisoner in said County Guilford and was in the service at least eight days - in these occasions of military duty he was not called {page 4} out for any particular length of time & when the occasion had ceased which gave rise to him being discharged given by verbal direction of the officers - he states he was born in the State of Pennsylvania - about fifty miles North of Philadelphia, the county he cannot recollect and that he has no record of his birth and is unable to state precisely his age but from the tradition and understanding of his family he thinks that he was born in the year 1761. That he lived in the County of Guilford N Carolina when he was called into service where he has ever since and where he still continues to live. He states that he has no documentary written evidence of his service nor does he know of any witnesses by which he could prove the service or any part thereof except those officers James Findlay, Wm Albright & Wm Maxwell all of whom could testify his first mentioned tour of duty & to prove the same he offers this affidavit of the said Thos Greer it not being convenient to procure the affidavits and proof of either of the others - he states that he is well know to David Thomas and L.W. Summers his neighbors who will testify to his character for veracity and their belief in his being a soldier in the revolution that there is no clergy man residing in his neighborhood he is therefore unable to procure the certificate of one - He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name {page 5} is not on the pension roll of the aging of any state whatever. Sworn to and subscribed in open court the day and year above written. Daniel {X} Apple.
