

CAROLYN YOUNG MORRISON OBT.

COOKEVILLE -- A memorial service for Carolyn Young Morrison will be held Thursday, July 9, at 6 p.m. at the Cookeville-Putnam County Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Morrison died from cancer, peacefully June 22, 2009, after a happy and productive life.

A graduate of Tennessee Technological University, she pursued active and successful careers as a highly regarded teacher at Upperman High School in the 1970s and later as a State Farm Insurance agent. Mrs. Morrison's intelligence and enthusiastic spirit made her a force to be reckoned with. Always elegant and with boundless energy, she spoke with honesty and directness, softened by a deep concern for others. To the many people she inspired, she will long be remembered for her zest for new ideas and the pleasure with which she shared her passions. Mrs. Morrison's life was characterized by her devotion to family and her commitment to education and social justice.

Her family includes her beloved husband, Rick Bowman; four children, Kelly Morrison Zumwalt, Jack and John Morrison and Marlo Bowman Smith; and five grandchildren, Harry, Truman, Bess, Sam and Lucia.

Memorial donations may be made to the Carolyn Morrison Scholarship Fund at the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee, P.O. Box 440225, Nashville, TN 37244.

Crawford Mortuary & Crematory (615-254-8200) is in charge of arrangements.

A guestbook can be signed at www.crawfordservices.com.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN, Saturday, Jun 27, 2009

<http://www.ajlambert.com>