

GIRLS AT COOKEVILLE CITY SCHOOL: 1918

This picture of the 7th and 8th grade girls at Cookeville City School was made in Feb. 1918. They are, first row from left, Rose Dow (married Curtin T. DuBois); Mary McDonald (married Elbert Walker Baker); Wilsie McGee (married James William Bockman); Irma Kinnard (married M. W. Wood); Vallie Carr (married Luther C. McCormick); Mable Holladay (married Jimmy Carr); Grace Little; Hallie Ray (married Angus Campbell); second row, from left, Avannah Breeding (married Oscar Griggs); Lorene Mayberry (married William Tarwater Bowling); Jessie Bland; Hazel Wall; Edna Dowell (married Franklin Holmes Hill); Ada McDonald (married Fowler Lee Judd); Mary Cox (married Wendell Robinson); Eleanor Guthrie; Bessie Countiss (married Edward E. Pate); Nannie Myrtle Maxwell (married Henry Grady Hilton); third row, from left, Carson Moody; Lexie Webb (married Rev. John Lewis Barnes); unidentified; Effie Minerva Watson (married Carman Watson); Lillian Morgan Young (married Ray H. Brown); Lora Juanita Billingsley (married Claude Simon Huddleston); Grace Joyce Jared; Sallie Marjorie Whitson; Emma Doyne Jenkins (married John Crutcher Martin); Grace Borden (married L. Edgar Chaffin); fourth row, from left, Alta Carr (married James Champion); Annetta Draper; Clemma Masters (married Dick Darwin); Mattie Rash (married Frank Shirley); Ruby Greenwood (married Leon Reeves); principal D. W. Moody; Maude Dow (married Hubert Crawford); Nannie Morgan (married A. L. Stone); teacher, Mary Leigh Adcock; Lillie Hurley; Ura Scott (married Harvey Brett Johnson); Sydney Beatrice McBroom (married Sidney Bryan Jenkins).