Past students of Bangham School gathered Sept. 11 for a school reunion. The first building was a one-room log cabin believed to have been built in the early 1870s. The present building was built by the Works Progress Administration (WPA) in 1936. The school taught grades prime through eighth until June 1967 when the building was closed for school. The building is now being used as a community building.

BANGHAM SCHOOL REUNION - 2010

The Bangham School building was built in 1936 and classes were held there until June of 1967. It is now being used as a community center. There was a reunion for past students and their families on the 11th of September 201. For more information, call Jean Prichard at 528-3704.
