

BAXTER SEMINARY CLASS OF 1954 REUNION

Gathering for lunch in celebration of their 45th class reunion are the Baxter Seminary class of 1954. In attendance at the May 1 celebration at Ryan's Steakhouse were 29 classmates and five faculty members, along with family and friends. Reuniting are, in front from left, Jimmie Nell Russell Hearn, Nelda Ashburn Hurst, Elinor Maxwell Gauner, Ruby (Phillips) Stewart, Helen Mahan Sparks, Mable Maynard Maddux, Jackie Hogie Pettiford, Treba Stout Carter, Peggy Love Hall, Eddie L. Palmer, Clarence Huddleston Jr., and Ervin R. Herd, and in the back, Bill Cunningham, Horace Maxwell, Peggy (Keith) Stout, Clara Nell (Ashburn) Thomas, Jackie Parrish Estes, Nancy Maxwell Markham, Betty Dyer Roberts, Anna Burton Judy, Bettye Leftwich Huddleston, and Jean Roberts Alcorn. The tables were decorated with black and gold balloons and old honey pots tied with black ribbons and decorated with honey bees, the school's colors and mascot.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: Friday, 14 May 1999, pg. 13.