

1922 CITY SCHOOL GRADS, COOKEVILLE, PUTNAM CO., TN

The photo above of the 1922 graduating class of the Cookeville City School ran with only two in the picture identified. This week, thanks to Carolyn Whitson of Cookeville, TN, we're able to name all the students. They are, from left, front row, Nathen Steakley, Claron Loftis, Robert Cornwell, David Dow, Carl McDonald, Henry Frank Carlen, and Clem Allen Womack. Second row, left, Bailey Bockman, Howard Whitson, Willis Huddleston, Clyde Pennington, Homer Selby, and Charlie Way. Third row, left, Mary Summers, Velma Hill, Nannie Joe Bullock, Annie Lou Polston, Dora Dimple Wright, Alice Clouse, Ivory Lee Langford, Ruth Little, Mary Francis McDearman, Elizabeth Nichols, Johnnie Young, and Mary Ellen Rash. Top row, from left, Professor Morre, Miss Hogg, Mrs. Ada Rockwell Huddleston, Mrs. Hatfield, and Miss Cox. Ms. Whitson said a notation on the photo, this was the last class to graduate from the City School when it was a wood frame building. The structure was bricked the following year. She said the photo was made at 8 a.m. on Thursday, May 18, 1922.
