

Letter from Edith Huddleston who md Jerry Richmond
Memories of Rock Springs School,
Rock Springs, Putnam Co., TN

Picture of the Rock Springs Schoolhouse

Dear Audrey,

Some of my best childhood memories are associated with the Rock Springs community. I attended a one room schoolhouse in the Rock Springs community. When I was in the 5th grade there was 5 students including myself. I remember Mae Surran Amonette, Leonard Leftwich, Henry L. Huddleston, & Nan Denny.

Our teacher was Mrs. Clara Jared (Mr. Walter Wirt Jared's daughter in law. Walter Wirt Jared Jr. was in the 4th grad. They lived a few yards from the Rock Springs one room schoolhouse.

I (Edith Huddleston Richmond) was related to Mrs. Stella Huddleston although she married a Huddleston – “Alf” she moved down there from Algood, TN to teach school many years before. They had three children: Henry L. Anna Pearl and Frank Huddleston. This entire family has been buried at the Rock Springs Church Cemetery.

Uncle Alfs parents, Henry, and possibly their daughter, Helen are buried at the Huddleston homeplace.

One of their nearest neighbors was a Denny and further up the road was Nan Denny's family. Other neighbors were the Maddox family and some younger Denny members as well.

I regret I do not have photos since I did soon after that become and remain a camera, photo collector.

The building of the school still remains an imprint in my memory but is the school is now gone. The Rock Springs Church, across the street from where the school used to be is still there much the same as it was years ago. Mrs. Clara (Gill) Jared lives within a stones' throw, or did the last time I asked at the Welcome Station on Interstate I 40. The Welcome Station is almost a copy of the Huddleston house where my Aunt, Stella Huddleston lived.

We wish you much success as you explore your family history.

Yours,

Edith Huddleston Richmond

Rock Springs School: Built in the 1870's, the Rock Springs School in Buffalo Valley is gone today but once served a variety of functions for the community. The structure has housed a boarding school, a school of music, and the upper level was once used as a Masonic Lodge. It later became a public school but closed its doors in 1956 when attendance had dropped and it became a one teacher school with Clara Jared, who later taught at Upperman High School in Baxter serving as the last teacher there. The building and the land on which it sat was sold to former county judge Luke Medley and the structure was later torn down. It was located on the Amonette Road in Buffalo Valley near the Rock Springs Methodist Church. The church is called Faith Chapel as of 2004.
