

Store building of Walter Robinson Shanks for many years, bridge built by W.P.A. in the late 1930's on Big Indian Creek and Dry Hollow, near Buffalo Valley.

Store, Blacksmith shop & Mill owned by Walter Robinson Shanks on Big Indian Creek and Dry Hollow, near Buffalo Valley.

Walter Robinson Shanks – md Euda - children: Walter Warren – md Wanda Stout, Dorothy Ann – md Mr. Fike, Robert Anderson – md Doris Gillem & Reginald Roscoe Shanks.

On the side of the store is painted, General Merchandise – Produce & Grain.

At the bottom, same side as above is painted, Wild Goose.

The corn mill is behind the store and the blacksmith shop is across the street.

My father Tim Denny used to go to this store growing up in the valley. My brothers and I, Audrey June (Denny) Lambert, used to go to this store when we were visiting my Grandmother Audra Denny's farm.

Walter Robinson Shanks
Corn Mill

Walter Robinson Shanks
Blacksmith's Shop