The Carrs were the farmhand tenants of the Virgil Timothy

Denny farm, on Hopewell Road, Buffalo Valley, TN. The Wesley & Ina Belle (Helms) Carr family lived just up the road from the Denny farm. Wesley was 30 yrs. old and Ina Belle was 28 yrs. old when they moved there. Their children, Minnie was 9, Arah 7, Joe 6 and Ora 4yrs. old when they started to live by the Virgil Timothy Denny farm. My father, Tim Denny – s/o Virgil Timothy & Audra Camilla (Anderson) Denny, grew up with the Carr’s children and they all went to school together. They went to a one room school house called Denny’s Seminary that was pretty close to their house. On the farm the Carr family tilled the soil and grew corn, wheat, potatoes, tobacco & other crops. The Denny farm was a success because of the hard work of the Carr family. The Carr’s were the sweetest bunch of people you could ever meet. After researching family lines I found that they were cousins of my father, Tim Denny.

This picture was made in front of the house Isaac Sherman Jones had built in the early 1900's. He hired out himself and his team of mules for one dollar for himself and a dollar for mules to build the Tennessee Central railroad and also a railroad in the Sequatchie Valley. He liked to ride the railroad, and told about riding the Wabash Cannonball.
