School Girl First to Die in 1936 Traffic Accidents

The name of Miss Lola B. Loftis, a seventeen-year-old student at Du Pont High School, Old Hickory, leads the list of automobile accident victims in Davidson County for 1936.
 Miss Loftis, the first in the county to die as the result of a traffic accident, was struck down near her home in Old Hickory Wednesday night by a hit and run driver. She died at a local hospital Thursday afternoon.

Quinton Lowe Cemetery

Located west of Baxter on south side of Elmoretown Road. One good sized monument in memory of the family. There are numerous field stones – no inscriptions on them.

In Memory

Lowe, Quinton: 1806 – 1857
 Lowe, Elizabeth Williams: 1809 – 1870
 Lowe, Alfred: 1831 – 1894
 Lowe, Mary Clark: 1827 – 1890

And Families

On reverse side of stone: This monument was erected upon “The Lowe Lands” which was granted to Quinton Lowe by the governor of the State of Tennessee for his valiant and faithful services which he rendered to his country and provisions of horses and weapons.
