

(con't list; children of James Anderson & Margaret Troys)

- ...[^]David Meredith Anderson – b. ca. 1768, Cumberland, VA –
d. Rutherford Co. VA - md ca. 1788, Cumberland Co., VA, Catherine Ammon
Notes from a letter by Janet Anderson. Meredith is a long shot but I do believe he ties in the family somewhere. He appears mostly in the records of Spotsylvania County, VA and later Goochland County, VA and then I lose him. He married Catherine Ammon and had at least, Lawrence, Rhonda and Lucy Anderson.
- ...[^]Thomas Anderson – b. ca. 1766/1771, Cumberland Co., VA – md Mary
- ...[#]M. Jesse Anderson – b. ca. 1751, Cumberland Co., VA – d. ca. 1815 md ca. 1771/7, Mary Holland – (sister of Anna Holland – w/o John Anderson) -
d/o Mary (Meador) & James Holland
Little is known of Jesse and his family even though he spent most, if not all of his adult years in Cumberland, VA. He married about 1777 when he bought his first land of 200 acres from Joseph Calland.
- ...John Anderson – John grew up and disappeared, information not known.
- ...William Anderson – Was blind and never married.
- ...Lucy Anderson – Lucy married three times and had children by two men.
- Note: Marriage Records 1749 – 1840, Cumberland Co., VA, pg.10. Jesse Anderson and Mary his wife, both of Cumberland Co., VA sell to John Anderson for $300.00 all right and claim of Jesse Anderson and Mary Anderson as legatees to the estate of James Holland, deceased, late of Cumberland County, after the death of Mary Holland, widow of James Holland, who lives on the land and has a life right in the said land. Cumberland Co., Deed Book 12, pg. 1818. Deed dated 1 August 1812*
- ...[#]Lawrence Anderson – b. ca. 1747, Spotsylvania, VA – d. February 1781, Cumberland, VA - md ca. 1766, Rhoda – Lawrence left a will in Cumberland Co., VA.
*Lawrence was probably the oldest of the Anderson brothers because he appears to have received the biggest share of the 400 acres. It would appear that when he wrote his will in February of 1781 he was "sound of body and mind" yet three months later in May he was dead, probably about 35 years old. From the tone of the will I would suspect he either went off to war, knew someone was gunning for him, or there was a sickness about and he was afraid he might catch it. Anyway, apparently when he wrote his will he was fearful for his life. Rhonda his wife never married but raised her children and did some fine property wheeling and dealing. She was able at her own death in 1833 to leave her children not only their share of their grandfather's estate, but some other prime land. Her daughter Nancy never married; Fanny married her cousin John Anderson, son of William and Catherine(Shirley) Anderson, and Lawrence died shortly after his mother. * See Will of Lawrence Anderson – Will Book 2, pg. 272.*
- ...Lawrence Anderson – md Elizabeth Meador –
d/o James Lee Meador & Frances Anderson
See chapter 13, James Lee Meador - Elizabeth was married 1st to Thomas Anderson – s/o Richard Anderson & Martha "Pattie" Meador.*

...Fanny Anderson – (md her 1st cousin John Shirley Anderson, s/o Catherine Shirley & William Anderson)

...Nancy Anderson -

...#George Anderson – b. ca. 1755, Cumberland, VA –
d. ca. 1816, Cumberland Co., VA - md ca. 1782, Jane “Jenny” Bradley – d. ca. 1825, Cumberland, VA
George was a farmer and some evidence points to the fact he may also of been in politics. There was another George (from another family) who lived in Cumberland, VA at the same time and was about the same age, so for sure which George was in the House of Delegates for Virginia is difficult to determine. George had at his death an estate worth over $2,700 which included 8 slaves but most of them were children. Two of George’s sons moved to Georgia and one of his daughter’s Elizabeth Anderson married her 1st cousin Shirley Anderson – s/o Catherine (Shirley) & William Anderson.

...John Anderson – b. 30 July, 1758, Frederick Co., VA – d. 12 March 1836/38, Davidson Co., TN or d. ca. 1815 – Buried: Williamson Co., TN, by Old Glory - md 1st Anna Holland (sister of Mary Holland w/o Jesse Anderson) –
d/o Mary(Meador) & James Holland
md 2nd Ann or Nancy Ann Clark
John was quite a wealthy man, for those days, when he died having $4,641.91 which included 13 slaves. John was a farmer and brought & sold land all of his years after his first purchase, in 1779 – 50 acres. He had a very large family and his children all had large families.

Children of Anna (Holland) & John Anderson - Many of the children lived in OH.

Houston S. Gill was a retired Sheriff. He liked to drink and gamble. He got involved in a poker game one night and one of the player at the table got mad at him. They had a argument and each left their separate ways. The next day the man attacked Houston on the street with a knife. They fought each other and Houston ended up shooting the man. He died. His brother was in the county jail and heard about his brother being killed by Houston. He said "I'm gonna kill Houston when I get out of here. When he got out of jail he went looking for Houston. Houston was riding his horse down the street, unaware of the lurking danger. The man shot first Houston's horse he was riding and *then shot Houston and killed him. See Family Sheet for Preston Stewart Gill.

*Kelly Rd. in Macomb Co., MI is named after the Kelly family. There was a farm on a country road where Kenneth lived with his parents. The road was called Pumpkin Hook.
His grandfather was a Justice of the Peace and many people would seek him out. The people in the neighborhood would give directions to the farm by saying just go down to the end of Kelly Rd. to find the Justice of the Peace. The name Kelly Rd. stuck. There was a petition by George Lawroski, who successfully crusaded to have the city of East Detroit changed to Eastpointe, MI. He campaigned to change the name of Kelly Rd. to Eastpointe Boulevard, arguing that any city of distinction needs a showcase boulevard that bears its name. So far the petition has not passed and the road is still called*

Civil War: Pvt., Co. F, 25th Inf. CSA – Enlisted 31 July 1861 – Confederate soldier.
s/o Garland "Gallant" Anderson & Sarah Jones

Riley enlisted in the Confederate Army on 31 July 1861 in Co. F 25th Tennessee Infantry commanded by Col. Sidney S. Stanton. In April 1862 Riley's first cousin Prettyman Jones became commander of Co. F. At the Battle of Fishing Creek, KY on 19 January Riley was wounded. On 4 July 1863 at Cumberland Mountain, TN he deserted. After the war he purchased a farm near Boma, TN, and lived there until his death.

After the Battle of Fishing Creek, Puliski Co., KY Prettyman Jones became the Company Commander of F company. His brother, Wade, was made First Sgt. Prettyman and Wade and several others left the confederate army, and later joined the Union Army. Riley did not join the Union Army, but his brother Thomas A. Anderson did. The Jones family opposed slavery and supported the Union. Starting in 1862 large numbers of confederate soldiers started deserting. One of reasons was the plantation class had sold them on the idea that they would take care of their families and they never did. Another reason is when soldiers got into camp they saw sons of plantation owners come to camp in buggies with wagons and personal slaves and getting the best leadership positions. On the web site of Mitchell Jones he goes into detail on this subject.

Riley was buried on his farm, a few hundred feet from the families large two story log cabin near Boma, Putnam Co., TN. Riley was buried along side his young daughters, Judian "Tiny" & Mary Jane Anderson who died a day apart and were buried together in the same coffin. In the fall of 1885 there was a flux epidemic in Mine Lick Creek area of Putnam Co. that took the lives of the young girls & Riley Anderson.

Later the graves were moved to Smellage Cemetery, Boma, TN. Riley's remains stayed buried on the farm, only his tombstone was moved to Smellage Cemetery. Judian, Mary Jane & Riley share the same tombstone at Smellage Cemetery, Boma, TN.
