Thomas and Judith arrived in Jackson Co., TN sometime after July of 1806.

*Moving with them were Thomas' brother Garland and his family, Judith's parents and several of her brothers and sisters. The date into Tennessee is arrived at because Garland had a son Edward born in VA in July of 1806. They settled on Blackburn's Fork in Jackson Co. TN in 1806 on Dodson's Branch on Blackburn Fork at the mouth of Roaring River District #9 – Records: Chancery Court 1858 in settlement of Estate of T.S. Anderson Sr. Thomas Shirley received several land grants from the State of Tennessee in Jackson County. Thomas became a very wealthy farmer for his day because he gave at least three of his sons and one of his sons-in-law enough money to purchase land in the Silver Point area.
And at his death he had between 259 and 300 acres of land along with 12 Negroes. In 1850 the family was living in the 9th Civil Dist., Jackson Co., TN.*

*After the death of his father, Paul Thomas bought the Anderson farm, consisting of 1200 acres, paying $1,500.00. He continued to operate the farm until October 31, 1866. On this day he geared up the oxen's and cart, telling his wife and family he was going to the blacksmith shop in the ridge (near where the Freewill Church of Christ now stands) and would gather a cart of wood as he returned home. Two of the children, being sent by their mother, found his body near the break of the ride, overlooking Blackburn's Fork Creek, where he spent his life. His death remains a mystery. md ca. 1778, Catharine "Katy" Shirley - b. ca. 1759, Berkley Parish, Spotsylvania Co., VA – d. September 1833 - In March of 1830 Catherine wrote her will and left two thirds of her estate to son Shirley and the balance to son Caleb. By this time Catherine was near 80 years old, but she was to live another three years before her death. She died in Cumberland in 1833 and her will was probated in December of that year.

d/o John Shirley & Elizabeth, of Spotsylvania Co., VA.

William Anderson was a tailor by trade. Nothing is known of his early years except that somewhere and from someone he learned the tailoring trade. The earliest record thus far found for him was in 1769 and identifies him as a tailor. William was probably identified as a tailor in the Cumberland records because another William also lived at that time in Cumberland and this was a means of keeping the two men apart.

William made a few additional purchases of land to go with his share of his father's estate, but never was a large land owner. He apparently kept is family by his tailoring trade, although his sons probably did work the land. One of the last records found for William while he was alive is recorded in Spotsylvania County. In September of 1794 he purchased a Negro woman named Bess from his father-in-law. John Shirley was to have full use of the woman until his death and then she was to go to William or his heirs. Family tradition lists fourteen children for William and Catherine, however proof for only eleven has been found. William taught at least two of his sons the art involved in tailoring. He may have taught other young men as well as several of his brothers descendants were also tailors. Of his sons, it is known that James and William were tailors. Most of the other six boys became farmers when they were grown, and one in later years became a preacher.

It is not known if any of the Anderson children received a formal education. The records of Cumberland do not tell if there was a school where the children could attend. It is known however, that they could all read and write because of later records found. Perhaps Catherine and William served as school teachers to their young brew.

One wonders what the cause of William's death might have been. He was under Fifty yrs. of age at his death in 1795. Many illnesses were common place in the late 1700's however, and because of it few people lived into their sixties and seventies. Whatever the cause of death, William died in Cumberland between May 17 and June 22. Cumberland Co., VA, Will Book 3, pg. 62. Will Book 9, pg. 337.

Catherine continued to live on the homeplace and raise her family. At William's death at least four of his children were young enough that they required a guardian. Their older brother John played this role until at least 1805 when their mother became their guardian. John also became executor of his father's estate as William had died interstate. Cumberland Co., VA Will Book 9, pg. 84.

VA Auditors Book 1784, pg. 533 paid William for military service in Rev'l War. Aided in the Rev'l War effort. See 1810 Census, Cumberland Co., VA listing. William Anderson lived on Soke Arse Creek and so did his brothers, Lawrence and George. His brothers, Richard and Jacob, Rev'l War Veterans lived nearby.
