Rachel Palmer – b. ca. 1749 – Rachel was 18 yrs. old when she md John Jared.
John Jared took a firm stand and declared the spelling of his last name to be Jared, "Same as in the Old Testament." Family tradition tells us John said "It was Jared in the Bible. It is Jared now! We are the descendants of ancient Jared, the grandfather of Methuselah, and the next person to him in longevity."
Methuselah lived to be 969 yrs. old. His grandfather Jared lived to be 962 yrs. old. Methuselah's son was Lamech who was the father of Noah. Still some of his sons held to their own preferred spelling, so we have several ways to spell the surname, Jared; Jarred, Jarrett, Jarrell, Jarrard & Gerard, Gerrard.
References to Rev'l War service: Book of Jared, Vol. 1, pg. 18, shows notes from John Jared's account book in which he wrote: "In yr. 1781 by work done by him (William Jared) at home I went to camp." In 1782 – "By tending sawmills for me and Mr. Neilson and by guarding the prisoners at Winchester." In 1782 Cornwallis' army was held prisoner in VA. Winchester is about 15 miles from Charles Town, WV. A list of soldiers of the VA line on Continental Establishment who have received Certificates for the balances of their full pay agreeable to an Act of Assembly passed November session in 1781. It lists Math Anderson received L 900, November 2, 1787, for John Jarrott. John had moved to Bedford, VA by this time and so Math was probably acting as his power of attorney or had cashed or purchased his Certificate. History Register –VA-Rev'l by Gwathney – pg. 414 shows: John Jarrett, Jarriott, Jarrott is listed three times, with the indication that they're the same person, all in the 7th VA, Regm't of the Continental Line.

*Moses was born four months after the death of his father and as a result superstition grew up around him. It was believed that he had supernatural powers of healing and even after he was an old man, people would bring their babies to him if they had "Coated Tongue," or "Thrash," or a sore throat. They would ask him to blow in the baby's mouth to cure its ailment. William Jared – b. 18 June 1805, Putnam, TN – d. 30 September 1861, was a Methodist Minister in the days of the Circuit Riders. Camp meetings were held by preachers traveling over wide areas to economize on time and distance. preachers would advertise a series of meetings at certain points. Those not so religiously inclined would come for the social aspect of such a gathering. So a mere handful of preachers could distribute their services over a large area, and reach people who otherwise it would have been impossible to reach. William Jared" time was a restless period. Such movement as Spiritualism and Temperance came into existence. The wilderness parts of the nation were filling up. New opportunities arose on every front, and the nation became extremely individualistic. The church became highly emotionalized. Denominations found it hard to agree within their own congregation, let alone with other denominations. The nation was struggling to level itself into a strong Union on the heels of the Revolutionary War. Still seeds of the Civil War were germinating in the minds of certain ambitious politicians. Certainly at this point in our national history the role of the Minister was an important one. Book of Jared – pg. 378

*After John Jared and Elizabeth Bandy were married they lived in Bedford Co., VA, near Fincastle, about 90 miles southwest of Lynchburg. They left VA and traveled through what is now TN and then into Breckenridge Co., KY and stayed there about five years. They then came up into IL and stopped in Morgan Co. to see if the Indians were gone. Leaving Morgan County after one year, they came on to Warren County. Joel, a brother of John, settled north and west of John's place. Joel Jared married Loretta Adkisson, a sister of “Bill” Adkisson. Their father was Pleasant Adkisson. William Jared, a brother of John and Joel, settled on land where the farm home of Albert Holeman, now is. He bought an acre of John Jared's across the road where the barn stands and built a house there so he could live and vote in the same township where his brothers, John and Joel did. Elizabeth Bandy Jared died in this house in April 1879. John and Elizabeth Bandy Jared had thirteen children, eight of whom were born in VA. Ruth & John, Buried: Greenbush Cemetery, IL

John Simmons came with his parents to Morgan Co., IL in 1833, and about two years later came to Greenbush, in Warren Co. Frances (Herrington) Simmons went by the name of “Aunt Frankie”. She was a little old woman who smoked a clay pipe. When she was old and lived among her children she walked and carried her featherbed when moving from one place to another.

John was a hardy pioneer and kept a pack of trained hounds. He was a lover of deer hunting. He farmed in the spring and summer and ran a horse-powered threshing machine during the fall and winter. It was said he did more threshing than any other man in the country. He was a Democrat and a strong Christian. He died at the home of his daughter, Mary Ann Jennings in Prairie City, IL. He was a strong character, and believed it very foolish to belong to a habit such as smoking or drinking. He used to say, when he saw someone smoking, "Fire on one end – Fool on the other."

John Jared married for his third wife, Margaret Huff. Margaret had two children by her first marriage, Victoria & William Huff. Victoria's two children must have been congenial with John's ten because Victoria's daughter and namesake, Victoria Huff, married John's son Benjamin Franklin Jared when the two reached a suitable age.

John Jared is the father of fifteen children and raised two step-children. He married twice later in life but no children were born to the last two marriages. His wives were Ann Riper and Nettie Womack. Ann Riper was a widow who had two children, but John's marriage with her was not compatible and they separated after a few years.

John went to Wildwood, OK about 1889 at the time the Indian Territory was being opened up for claims. John rode a mule from the starting point nine miles north of Loyal, OK, to establish his homestead claim to 160 acres. Many of John's descendants now reside in OK. Jim L. Wearmouth of Frederick, OK has a lamp that was owned by his grandmother Edith (Davis) Jared. It was used to light their dugout in about 1845. The dugout home was common in OK about the "Year of Run." In the year 1889 one of John's sons, Charlie, came to OK with a wife and four children. They all spent the winter in their wagonbox home.

When Joseph Jared was six weeks old his mother died. One neighbor took care of the little baby while the father went back to IL to get help from his family to raise his children. When he came back for the baby the family had moved to MO and taken his little son with them. He never found the child. Joseph was nearly twenty years old when his foster mother became very ill and thought she would die. She called Joseph to her and told him his real name and that he was not her son, as he had been raised to believe. When he could make arrangements, he went to Warren Co., IL and found his father and brothers and sisters. He returned to MO and married late in life. He had no children. He is buried beside his wife at Enid, OK.

born February 29, 1892, and the twins Bertie Ensor and Gertie Ensor born January 29, 1895. From the age of the twins I think this picture was taken about 1895. Jonathan would have been about 48 years old. These are the youngest of his 13 children at the time of the picture. After this picture was taken he and Almeda continued to have five more children, giving Simon Monroe Ensor 3 brothers, 3 sisters and 6 half brothers, 5
half sisters.

Ann Miriam Shanks Gwaltney, DAR French Lick Chapter, ancestor: William Jared, VA: #776505. This coverlet was made circa 1823 in Tennessee by the owner's great grandmother, Dorcas Byrne (born 12/10/1803, married Joseph Jared 10/31/1829, died 12/20/1833 at Putnam County, TN). Photos and history of the coverlet are at the University of Maryland since 1997. The coverlet was passed from maker, to Carolyn Jared Kerr, to Naomi Tennessee Kerr /Carr Boyd, to Dona Boyd Shanks, to current owner. This quilt is pictured in the Heritage In Quilts by Tennessee Society Daughters of the American Revolution published in year 2000 p.83

The spread or "coverlid" as it was then called, is made from homegrown, and homespun flax. It is all white and beautifully embroidered with the initials D. B. for Dorcas Byrne.

A fever of patriotism swept over the nation before and during World War I. When the U. S. declared war on Germany, the county literally broke out in red, white, and blue. Brass bands blared out brave marches and patriotic hymns in every corner of the land. The studios of the nations’ photographers worked overtime making portraits of men in uniform against backdrops of flags and bunting as in this studio photograph of a young couple. This photo hangs in the Cookeville History Museum in Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN. This couple is Robert Ralph Jared & Mary Cummins Lowe on their wedding day in January 1918. Shortly after the wedding he was sent to France.
