Story of James Anderson
by Janet Anderson - 1984

James brought 400 acres of land from Anne Mayo in Cumberland Co., VA. Anne was the very land wealthy widow of Joseph Mayo, and these 400 acres were part of a 4,740 acre patent that Joseph Mayo had received in August of 1740. James paid Anne twenty-four pounds for the land. The land had a small creek running through it known as Soke Arse Creek or Run. One can only imagine how the creek received it's name but sometime in the early part of the 1800;s the creek was renamed Bonbrooke as it remains today. It is impossible to know how James' land looked in 1750 as today it is included in state forest land and is used for planting and cutting of pulp. Some of the types of trees listed in the Mayo-Andersons deed include gum, pine, white oak and Spanish oak.

Records on James and Margaret after 1750 are sparse. Records have been found that does show that James and Margaret were still in Cumberland, VA in 1761-62. At that time the couple were suing Moses Smith for talking indecently to Margaret. A suit was filed in Cumberland, VA for a "plea of trespass case ... damage one hundred pounds," and continued until May of 1762 when the case was dismissed, James and Margaret failing to prosecute. Then in 1766, from the records, it would appear that James was in debt to George Kippen and James Lyle for fifteen pounds, two shillings and six pence. According to the records James absconded from Cumberland, VA and an inventory was made of all the items he had left behind in order to satisfy his debt. Where he and Margaret and their young family went has not been discovered.

Notes for JAMES ANDERSON:

Notes from a letter by Janet Anderson - many people disagree with me about this James. They make him the son of another James Anderson famil in Cumberland County, VA. I won't go into all my reasons for putting James in our family but even in the DAR is beginning to lean my way. Anyway, this James died in 1822. He had a family of nine children with four daughters marrying Meador men. The children were: Jesse, Joseph, Nelson, James, Lucy, Polly, Frank, Sally, and Elizabeth Anderson.

William Anderson was a tailor by trade. Nothing is known of his early years except that somewhere and from someone he learned the tailoring trade. The earliest record thus far found for him was in 1769 and identifies him as a tailor. William was probably identified as a tailor in the Cumberland records because another William also lived at that time in Cumberland and this was a means of keeping the two men apart.

William made a few additional purchases of land to go with his share of his father's estate, but never was a large land owner. He apparently kept his family by his tailoring trade, although his sons probably did work the land. One of the last records found for William while he was alive is recorded in Spotsylvania County. In September of 1794 he purchased a negro woman named Bess from his father-in-law. John Shirley was to have full use of the woman until his death and then she was to go to William or his heirs. Family tradition lists fourteen children for William and Catherine, however proof for only eleven has been found. William taught at least two of his sons the art involved in tailoring. He may have taught other young men as well as several of his brothers descendants were also tailors. Of his sons, it is known that James and William were tailors. Most of the other six boys became farmers when they were grown, and one in later years became a preacher.

It is not known if any of the Anderson children received a formal education. The records of Cumberland do not tell if there was a school where the children could attend. It is known however, that they could all read and write because of later records found.

Perhaps Catherine and William served as school teachers to their young brood.

One wonders what the cause of William's death might have been. He was under fifty yrs. of age at his death in 1795. Many illnesses were common place in the late 1700's however, and because of it few people lived into their sixties and seventies. Whatever the cause of death, William died in Cumberland between May 17 and June 22.

Catherine continued to live on the homeplace and raise her family. At William's death at least four of his children were young enough that they required a guardian. Their older brother John played this role until at least 1805 when their mother became their guardian. John also became executor of his father's estate as William had died interstate.

Hits People

Cumberland Co., VA,

My third Great Grandfather, Thomas Anderson, left Cumberland County in 1806 and headed west. He travelled with two brother, Garland and Joel. The three Anderson boys had been born and raised in Cumberland, VA. They left behind several brothers and sisters and their mother Catherine Shirley Anderson. Their father, William Anderson, had died in Cumberland, VA in 1795. William had been a tailor by trade and lived on land in Cumberland, VA he had inherited from his father James Anderson. Beside William lived his two brother Lawrence and George and their families. Also, living in Cumberland were three other brothers of William - Richard, John and Jesse.

When it came time for William to marry, he picked a girl from Spotsylvania County, VA. Catherine was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Shirley and was probably one of the oldest children of her parents. She and William were married about 1770. William and Catherine, by family tradition, had fourteen children; however, records have been found for only eleven: Elizabeth, who married Jacky Tally and had many descendants, lived for many years in Cumberland, VA. John married Frances Anderson, his first cousin, and had many descendants. Joel, Thomas and Garland moved to middle Tennessee. Thomas and Garland married sister, Judith and Sarah Robinson, daughters of Edward and Anna Meador Robinson of Cumberland, VA who moved with their daughters and sons-in-laws to Tennessee.

William was a tailor as was his father. He married and lived in Cartersville, Cumberland County, VA, until his death about 1822. He had one son and three daughters. Sarah married Gross Robinson in 1809 and lived in Cumberland, VA until her husband's death. Then she and her many children moved to middle Tennessee near her brothers.

Caleb married his first cousin Rebecca Anderson and lived in Cumberland, VA. He had no children and died in Cumberland, VA in 1847.

Frances married James Meador and had children. Little is known of Frances after her marriage, however.

Shirley married twice, first to his cousin Elizabeth Anderson and then to Mary Oslin. He had one son, Willis, whose descendants still live in Cumberland,VA.

James died as a young man in Calra, Cumberland, VA. He too was a tailor, and when he died he had no wife or children. Children also recorded for William and Catherine for which no records have been found are Paul, Nancy, and Patsey.

The Anderson brothers produced a bountiful clan in the early years of Cumberland County. William, George, and Lawrence lived on Soke Arse Creek, which was later renamed Bonbrook Creek. Richard lived near by and John and Jesse lived lower in the county near the present Brown's Church. Their children married into many of the families of Cumberland including Meadors, Robinsons, Talleys, Oslins, Osbornes, Jenkins, Blantons and Trents.

Notes for CATHERINE SHIRLEY:

In March of 1830 Catherine wrote her will and left two thirds of her estate to son Shirley and the balance to son Caleb. By this time Catherine was near 80 years old, but she was to live another three years before her death. She died in Cumberland in 1833 and her will was probated in December of that year. - d/o John Shirley Jr. & Elizabeth

Notes for RICHARD ANDERSON:

Richard Anderson was a Revolutionary Solider. Richard seems to purchase his first land from Andrew Edwards in 1793, and his last from his father-in-law in 1794. Maybe because he died early, but he seemed to be the poorest of the brothers. He probably lived on the 400 acres until his own marriage but never owned any of it, although his own land was very close to his older brothers.

Notes for JESSE ANDERSON:

Little is known of Jesse and his family even though he spent most, if not all of his adult years in Cumberland, VA. He married about 1777 when he bought his first land of 200 acres from Joseph Calland.

Children of JESSE ANDERSON and MARY HOLLAND are:

- i. JOHN<sup>5</sup> ANDERSON.
- ii. WILLIAM ANDERSON.

February 1781 in Cumberland, VA. He married RHONDA.

Notes for LAWRENCE ANDERSON:

Lawrence was probably the oldest of the Anderson brothers because he appears to have received the biggest share of the 400 acres. It would appear that when he wrote his will in February of 1781 he was "sound of body and mind" yet three months later in May he was dead, probably about 35 years old. From the tone of the will I would suspect he either went off to war, knew someone was gunning for him, or there was a sickness about and he was afraid he might catch it. Anyway, apparently when he wrote his will he was fearful for his life. Rhonda his wife never married but raised her children and did some fine property wheeling and dealing. She was able at her own death in 1833 to leave her children not only their share of their grandfather's estate, but some other prime land. Her daughter Nancy never married; Fanny married her cousin John Anderson, son of William and Catherine (Shirley) Anderson, and Lawrence died shortly after his mother.

Children of LAWRENCE ANDERSON and RHONDA are:

- i. LAWRENCE<sup>5</sup> ANDERSON.
- ii. FANNY ANDERSON, m. JOHN ANDERSON.

Notes for GEORGE ANDERSON:

George was a farmer and some evidence points to the fact he may also of been in politics. There was another George (from another family) who lived in Cumberland, VA at the same time and was about the same age, so for sure which George was in the House of Delegates for Virginia is difficult to determine. George had at his death an estate worth over $2,700 which included 8 slaves but most of them were children. Two of George's sons moved to Georgia and one of his daughter's Elizabeth Anderson married her 1st cousin Shirley Anderson - s/o Catherine (Shirley) & William Anderson.

Notes for JOHN ANDERSON:

John was quite a wealthy man, for those days, when he died having $4,641.91 which included 13 slaves. John was a farmer and brought & sold land all of his years after his first purchase, in 1779 - 50 acres. He had a very large family and his children all had large families. Many of the children ended up in Ohio.

Notes for THOMAS SHIRLEY ANDERSON SR.:

Thomas and Judith arrived in Jackson Co., TN sometime after July of 1806. Moving with them were Thomas' brother Garland and his family, Judith's parents and several of her brothers and sisters. The date into Tennessee is arrived at because Garland had a son Edward born in VA in July of 1806. They settled on Blackburn's Fork in Jackson Co. TN Thomas Shirley received several land grants from the State of Tennessee in Jackson County. Thomas became a very wealthy farmer for his day because he gave at least three of his sons and one of his sons-in-law enough money to purchase land in the Silver Point area. And at his death he had between 259 and 300 acres of land along with 12 negroes.

She married WILLIAM WADE JONES October 23, 1864 in Buffalo Valley, Putnam Co., TN. He was born July 25, 1838 in Buffalo Valley, Putnam, Co. TN, and died November 11, 1907.

Notes for REBECCA PERANNAH BARTLETT:

During the Civil War, two men were passing through Buffalo Valley, Putnam County, Tennessee on their way to White County, for their families. They were going to move them to Kentucky where they had made new homes. Somewhere in the valley, they were shot and seriously wounded by two Rebel soldiers. The injured men were taken to the home of some people named Garner.

Annie Anderson Bartlett, my grandmother, heard of this and sent my mother (Rebecca Peranna Bartlett), who was about 15 years old at the time, to see if there was anything that they could do for the injured men.

The Garners lived near Thomas Anderson, Jr. and they didn't have bedsteads, just straw beds on the floor. The injured men, later identified as being named Dildine and Barclay, had been placed on two of these rough beds. As my mother entered the room, Mr. Dildine looked up and asked her for a drink of cold water. She started to the spring with a wooden bucket and a gourd dipper when the Garners told her that the Rebels had ordered them not to wait on the injured men and that any one that did would be killed. Mother hurried on and said, "Let 'em kill!"

She brought the water and gave Mr. Barclay a drink and he asked her to pour cold water on him as he was hot with the fever. Mr. Dildine had been shot in the head and by that time, was unable to talk. He died later on that first night. Mother stayed the whole night pouring cold water on Mr. Barclay. The wooden floors were old, so the water soaked right through the straw bed and went right through the floor.

The next day Mr. Barclay asked mother to write a letter to his wife. Mother wrote the letter and Mr. Barclay died that night.

About three weeks later, Mrs. Barclay came horseback with her six-month-old son to meet the people who had befriended her husband in his hour of greatest need. She was very thankful for all kindness shown her husband and told my grandmother that she would send the family a half uh-bushel of salt if they would let Rebecca go with her to bring it back. A horse was saddled for Rebecca, and she left on her long trip to get the salt. They had gotten about as far as Silver Point (about five miles), when Becky lost her courage and began crying. She just could not bear to think of going so far from home. She turned her horse home, the much needed salt was forgotten.

Forty years later, the fears and hates of the war forgotten, Mr. Barclay's son camw to Buffalo Valley to find his father's grave. He wished to remove the bones and lay them at rest beside his mother. Riley Jones, my brother, told of hearing mother tell the story of Mr. Barclay's death and that she might know where Mr. Barclay had been buried. She knew the cemetery, but not the exact grave as there were few tombstones.

That cemetery is now under the mightily Interstate Highway which dissected the valley. That cemetery, with all its occupants, except Thomas Anderson Jr. and Louisa Anderson, whose remains were removed before the road covered the cemetery.

Story of Lewis Monroe Anderson (1867 - 1935)
by his grandsons, Louis Gill & Lamar Medley

Louis Gill gives this story: "In the 1880's men would cut timber and snake the logs down to a stream, float them down to a certain spot and lash them together into a raft. Then they would ride the raft down the Cumberland River to the saw mill at Nashville. Louis Anderson was doing this one winter when he was a young man. The raft broke up and threw him into the river. After this he got rheumatism so bad that he wasn't able to do much physical labor thereafter. Some people thought he was lazy. He was about 6'4" tall, and he became very heavy in his later life. Also, he was very well liked."

Lamar Medley, describes him in the following manner:

"It would seem he had the right of leadership and executive ability, for I never saw him when he wasn't dressed up, white shirt, tie, etc.

The only manual work he ever did was robbing bees, a task he seemed to relish. He knew how to direct labor, which always seemed more appealing than doing it himself. He thereby had an excellent farm, well run and maintained with very little turnover in his labor force. His tenants liked to work for him. He subscribed to the newspapers that were available to him, the Nashville as well as the local ones, and read them with great interest. He could relate what he read in an interesting manner, and was a good story teller. This was one reason he was able to keep his help.

At the end of the days work, when the hands brought the teams and the tools back to the barn, Grandpa always greeted them cheerfully and would have them visit a while at the barn or on the porch. He would tell them the news and they were always keenly interested in hearing him.

Walter Jones officiating. Their only attendants were Miss Edith Maddux and Mr. Lafayette Nichols. The bride was lovely in her traveling dress of midnight blue serge with trimmings of white satin.
