Pg. 59 & 62: Little slowed Tarleton down, however, and his aggressive raid soon caught up with Morgan. He drove so close his men enjoyed a hastily abandoned American breakfast. Worried that the British upstart might catch him at a disadvantage, Morgan took up camp and offered him battle at the Cowpens, South Carolina, just twenty miles southwest of King’s Mountain. When Tarleton learned that his opponent was waiting in a piece of ground used to graze livestock, he ordered reveille blown early on January 17, 1781. By 3:00 a.m. his men were on the march in search of a victory. The battle ended at 8:00 a.m. It had taken Morgan but sixty minutes to inflict the worst defeat and British army would suffer on an American battlefield.

To Mr. Thomas Davis, Woodford County Kentucky

Broadfield, Spotsylvania Virginia November 6th 1792

Dear Brother and Sister,

I received your letter of Aug't 2 which gave me the agreeabel account of yourselves and family's health which I pray God may long continue you. We have lost so many of our Dear Ones in the past five years. Our Dear Mother, bro. Benj'n, little Carter and bro. James. As for myself I thank providence I am in Perfect Health. I had great thought of going out to you in the summer when Mr. Allen's family set out to Kentucky, but my heart faild me and I went over into Stafford and Westmoreland for a month. I stayed 2 weaks in Westmorland at Uncle William Smith's and a day and night with Cousen John And Elizabeth Davis. Cousin John is a bad manager and they had to sell most of the land and all the black people but 8....Grandfather Joseph Carter died in the Spring two years before I was born, that would make it April or May 1751. Grandma Carter you remember. As soon as I can I will go to see Uncle John Carter and Uncle Robert and see if they can give me the Carter record. I think Uncle John use to have the old Bible of mother's grandfather old Major Thomas Carter of Lancaster....Tel Mam' Dora, Rachel and Dick have a fine boy and they call him George Washington. We have had a number of Deaths in the last three months of a Fever and dissentery. Mr. Duvall, Mrs Nich'o Hawkins, JOHN SHIRLEY, Peter Linn and a lot of blacks. We made a pore Crop Tobo. this year, the corp of corn is pretty good. Money seems harder to get hold of than during the War. The people are all stirdup over old John Bagwel whipping his black Wench nearly to death. Such a black hearted rascal oughn't be allowed to have black people. Mr. Wyatt told me the poor things back was cut up like a piece of raw meat. Pray present my compliments to Mr. Allen's Family when you see them. I must confess Id be heartily glad to see you Bro. Tom over here next Summer if I do not set out to Kentucky. god keep and Prosper all of you.

Notes:

1. It's most likely that William Anderson & Catherine were raised & married in Berkley Parish of Spotsylvania Co., VA because her siblings were.
2. Catherine was not a witness to any of the legal documents probably because by that time she had married William Anderson and was old enough not to be included. I came across instances during this period & place which indicate that is a grown child had left home, they were for all practical purposes forgotten & left out of wills ect...

INTRODUCTION TO THE EMBREY GRANTOR INDEX FOR FREDERICKSBURG, VIRGINIA

by Alvin T. Embrey

HISTORICAL

<http://departments.umw.edu/hipr/www/Fredericksburg/embreyintro.htm>

In 1634 the Colony of Virginia was divided into eight Shires, which are to be governed as the Shires in England. The names of the Shires were JAMES CITY, HENRICO, CHARLES CITY, ELIZABETH CITY, WARWICK RIVER, WARROSQUYOAKE, CHARLES RIVER, and ACCOWMACK. (1 Hen 224)

GLOUCESTER and LANCASTER Counties first appear in 1 Hening's Statutes page 371, April 26, 1652. Their bounds are not given.

RAPPAHANNOCK County was formed from the upper part of LANCASTER County in December 1656 (1 Hen 427)

In April 1692 in the fourth year of the reign of William and Mary, RAPPAHANNOCK County was divided, that on the Northside of the RAPPAHANNOCK RIVER to be known as RICHMOND County, and that part on the Southside of the River to be known as ESSEX County, and the records of RAPPAHANNOCK County were ordered to be transferred to ESSEX County. (3 Hen 104)

SPOTSYLVANIA COUNTY was formed from ESSEX, KING WILLIAM and KING & QUEEN Counties in 1720. (4 Hen 7)

This new County of SPOTSYLVANIA extended "westward to the river beyond the mountains," which is generally believed to refer to the Shenandoah River.

ORANGE COUNTY was formed from SPOTSYLVANIA in 1734. (4 Hen 450)

By Patent dated May 2, 1671, Patent Book 6, page 343 in the Land Office of the Commonwealth of Virginia, at Richmond, a tract of land was granted unto Mr. John Buckner and Mr. Thomas Royston for two thousand acres "in the County of Rappa. on the Southside of the River in the Freshes," the said two thousand acres bounded as follows:

"Beginning at marked four branch pine the uppermost corner tree of devident of land surveyed for Mr. Laurence Smith and bounded on the same S W by S 2 degrees and W 1000 pole, thence N W 320 poles & thence N E by norley 2 degrees and E 1000 pole to the River, and finally by the River side according to its several courses to the first mentioned station."

In February 1727, (4 Hen page 234) an Act was passed for "erecting" the TOWN OF FREDERICKSBURG, and in the Act it was provided that John Robinson, Henry Willis, Augustine Smith, John Taliaferro, Harry Beverly, John Waller, and Jeremiah Clowder, Trustees, should lay out the Town from the fifty acres, parcel of the land belonging to John Royston and Robert Buckner, known as the Lease Land into half acre lots, etc.

This original Town embraced lots 1-64, both inclusive, and later, by an Act of February 1757 the Town was enlarged and extended 92 poles up the river from Lewis Street, and 120 poles down the river from Wolfe Street, and 48 poles on the back line of the Town, "to be bound by parallel lines run from the said river at the extremity of the said additional upper and lower number of poles, and another line run parallel to the back line of the said Town." (7 Hen 314)

After the Revolution the Town limits were extended to the present limits.

PERIOD COVERED BY THIS INDEX

It has been the aim that this Index, as to property within the present limits of Fredericksburg, should cover the period from the beginning of the Town in 1727 down to January 1, 1920, and with this in view, deeds recorded at Spotsylvania, when conveying Fredericksburg property, have been abstracted and shown herein. In each instance the words "Recd Spots" are at the end of the description under the column headed "PROPERTY", and the Index is brought down through DEED BOOK 52, page 257, and WILL BOOK J, page 404, in the FREDERICKSBURG Clerk's Office.

RECORDS

The Spotsylvania Records Indexed are indicated by the "Recd Spots" as stated above.

The DISTRICT COURT, April 29, 1798-October 15, 1806 and the Superior Court April 29, 1807-October 21, 1811 were contemporary with the Hustings Court and deeds recorded in the DISTRICT and SUPERIOR Courts through their books A to F are indicated by "DC" in the column under "PROPERTY". These come first and are followed by the Hustings Court April 15, 1782-August 9, 1850 and the Corporation Court September 13, 1860 current DEED and WILL Books, in regular sequence, with the Spotsylvania references interspersed chronologically, among the Hustings and Corporation Court records.

The District Court used one Will Book, which is referred to as "W-DC". The Old Circuit Court of Fredericksburg used one Will Book, which is referred to as "WA-CIR".

The HUSTINGS COURT and CORPORATION COURT DEED BOOKS begin with "A" and run through "Z", then "AA" through "OO", and following "OO", by Court Order, took numerical sequence beginning with #48.

The HUSTINGS COURT and CORPORATION COURT WILL BOOKS begin with "A" and run down in alphabetic order.

The HUSTINGS COURT was succeeded by the CORPORATION COURT, but no change was made in the designation of the books.

CHRONOLOGY

Attention is called to the early chronology. In England from the 14th Century until the Change of Style in 1752, the Legal and Ecclesiastical year began March 25, though it was not uncommon in writing to reckon the year from January.

The change from Julian to Gregorian calendar was affected in England by Act of Parliament in September 1752, September 3rd being called September 14th, and December 31, 1752 closed that year, January 1, 1753 beginning a new year.

EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS

In "Property" Column, indexing many of the trusts, will be found "DR" or "MR". "DR" stands for what is believed to be a defective marginal release, and "MR" stands for what is believed to be a proper marginal release.

The word "REFERENCE" under the "PROPERTY" column means that the deed, paper, or fact, indexed is referred to in the Book and Page indicated.

"W" before a letter in the "Book" column, like "W-A" means Will Book A.

The Deed Books are lettered and numbered without such designation, as "A" means Deed Book "A".

Under "Kind", "DT" means Deed of Trust, "PART" means partition, "M" refers to a Marriage, B & S, Bargain and Sale, etc.

In indexing FREDERICKSBURG DEVELOPMENT COMPANY deeds, it has been sought to arrange the lots and blocks in numerical sequence, both as to lots and blocks, though very few of the deeds are so written. Many of these deeds were executed by W.S. White, Trustee, but are indexed in the name of the Company.

CHURCHES

All Churches are indexed under "Churches", with sub-index referring to the particular denomination.

CHIROGRAPHIC DIFFICULTIES

The formations of many of the letters in the early days differed from modern writing, and this fact has led to difficulties.

Some of the Letters are hard to distinguish.

Voss and Vass: Billingsly and Billingsby; Edenton and Edinton, Edington, Edrington, are suggested as difficulties, and it has been sought to group them under predominating spelling of the particular families, and variations indicated by parenthesis.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This INDEX, covering the period indicated in this introduction, was prepared by Order of Judge F. W. Coleman of the Corporation Court of Fredericksburg, under the supervision of the Court Committee, members of Judge Coleman's Bar; Messrs: B. P. Willis, C. O. Conor Goolrick, William W. Butzner, and while it is not thought to be perfect, it is submitted as an effort to index the property in Fredericksburg.

WILL OF THOMAS SHIRLEY:

"I Thomas Shirley of the County of Adair and State of Kentucky being in a low state of health but perfectly in my senses do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

Item: It is my will that all my just debts be paid and if the proceeds of the crop now on land should not be enough, such property as can be best spared from off the plantation as appears in the opinion of my Executors hereafter mentioned shall be sold for that purpose.

Item: As I have disposed of some of my property to my eldest children and the younger ones have had none, I will go on to mention which of them have had and to what amount after my daughter Patsey was married to Samuel Hodges. I lent unto them a place to live on also one Negro woman named Nancy, until she the said Negro was delivered of a man child named Solomon. I then gave said Negro and child to my daughter Patsy Hodges which Negroes I rate or value to her at six hundred dollars with other property valued one hundred and fifty dollars which I gave, amounts to $755.

Item: I gave to my son, Paul Shirley, one Negro man named Ben which I rate to him at six hundred dollars and one young mare at forty five dollars and he has since remitted unto me out what I had given him, three hundred and sixty eight dollars and fifty five cents which leaves a balance which leaves him a balance given him of two hundred and seventy six dollars and forty five cents which amount is all Paul Shirley has had of my estate.

I have given unto my son, William A. Shirley, one Negro woman named Hannah which I rate or value to him at five hundred dollars and one horse and bed at one hundred and sixty dollars and seventy one cents, which leaves four hundred and thirty dollars and twenty three cents which is all William A. Shirley has had of my estate.

I have lent to my son, Thomas W. Shirley, one Negro woman I likely named Delilah for his benefit for his life and at his death it is my will that said Negro together with her increase, should there be any, descent to his children, if any he has, if none, then forsaid Negro and increase to return into my estate, as herefore I rate or value her to Thomas W. Shirley at five hundred dollars as though I had given her to him. The property I have given him, one mare and the bed and furniture valued at ninety five dollars which together with the value of the Negro loaned, amounts to five hundred dollars.

I have lent to my daughter, Frances G. Culp, one your Negro woman named Matilda for her use and benefit her live together with the increase of said Negro if any and at the death of my daughter, Frances, I give unto her children together with her increase of said Negro if any, as before mentioned. I have valued said Negro to my daughter, Frances, at five hundred dollars as though I had given her with other property given her at $67 whole Amount five hundred sixty seven dollars.

I have given unto my son, Richard W. Shirley, property to the amount of two hundred and ninety dollars the particulars of which may be seen in a memorandum book I have kept and a fate forbids my giving him as parting with any more of my negroes now having lost some and leaving children yet to be raised and educated, I have loaned him a Negro man named Daniel for five weeks or months, then said Negro is to return home. But should it at any time in the opinion of my Executors be in their power to give said R.W. Shirley help first consulting their mother, it is my will that it be so done.

It is my will that James A. Shirley, John M. Shirley, George Y. Shirley, Mary Ann Shirley, Charles Shirley, these my young children having not as yet had any property of my estate, should have each a good horse, a cow and calf and one bed and furniture as they or each of them should marry or become of age. Also that each of them last mentioned, be raised and educated out of my estate.

I do further leave to my daughter, Mary Ann Shirley, a Negro named Abba when Mary may marry or becomes of age for her benefit of her life and then to descend to the heirs of her body, if any, of the now foresaid Negro together with her increase if any, and to be immediately returned into my estate but should said Negro die before Mary should marry or become of age, then for her to obtain a proportional part of my estate as though said Negro had not been lent her and said Negro and said Negro should be valued to Mary when she receives her, agreeable to the value of the others.

I do lend unto my beloved wife, Molly Shirley, the plantation whereon I now live together with all my negroes not herein disposed of, stock of all kind of household and kitchen furniture, plantation utensils for and during the time she may remain my widow. But if should she marry, then it is my will that she receive one third of said property during her life, the balance at her marriage to be put into the hands of my estate and the said returned and the negroes hired out annually until the death of my wife, then for all my property to be sold on a credit of twelve months, negroes excepted which are to be valued and drawn for giving the preference of one a piece to the children that has had none at which drawing Uriney and the youngest she may have to go together the whole of the proceeds of my property to be divided at the death of my wife so as to make each and equal taking unto consideration what they had had, Patsy Hodges excepted who it is my will have one hundred dollars less than that of the others as either of them she having received her present portion of my estate or proceeds thereof it is my will that what money may be coming into Frances Culp be retained in the hands of my Executors and given to her or the heirs of her body as they may deem necessary.

Lastly I do constitute and appoint my two sons, Paul Shirley and William A. Shirley, my Executors to this my last will and testament given under my hand this 11th day of April 1820.
