Mrs. Lillian Lee Anderson, age 35 years, wife of Grover Anderson of Baxter died Saturday at Howard hospital, following an illness of several months. Her condition had been critical for three weeks, yet her death came as a distinct shock to her family and friends. Surrounded by loved ones who did everything that could be done by human hands, her spirit was set free from the links that bind us here, to join her father and mother who preceded her to that Better Land.

The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church on Monday by her pastor, Rev. Van Smith, assisted by Rev. B. T. Watson and Rev. Harry L. Upperman, who paid beautiful tributes to the life of the Christian mother whose going saddened the entire community. The musical numbers were appropriate and beautiful. The pall-bearers were, honorary: O. K. Holladay, D. C. Wilhite, Dr. W. A. Howard, O. D. Massa, H. S. Hargis, Walter L. Whitson, Beecher Gentry, Dr. J. T. Moore, Active: Rev. Harry L. Upperman, R. L. Richardson, E. C. Dowdy, Lawrence Grace, Will Bradford, Will Sewell, Van Nunnally, V. B. York, Dr. Freeman.

Mrs. Anderson was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Lee and was born and reared in Jackson county near Granville. She was married to Grover Anderson on July 21, 1915. Together they spent only ten years, but they were happy ones. To this union were born two sons, ages one and six years. Besides these sons and her husband she leaves four sisters and three brothers: Mrs. John Oliver of Nashville, Mrs. Charles Reagan of Cookeville, Mrs. Elbert Whitely of Gordonsville, Mrs. Oman Gwaltney of Gordonsville, John Lee and Tom Lee of Granville and Robert Lee of Nashville.

Mrs. Anderson met death cheerily without a complaint of fear, she told those about her that she was prepared to die, but she wanted so to live to rear her children.

"Why shouldst thou fear the beautiful Angel, Death, Who waits thee at the portals of the skies, Ready to kiss away thy struggling breath, Ready with gentle hand to close thine eyes."
