BATES

By Mary Jo Denton:

An Algood man was killed instantly last night when his pick-up truck slammed into a large boulder off the Mirandy Road five miles northeast of Cookeville near the Verble Mountain.

Highway patrol officials said Ercal Bates, 48, of 209 1st Ave., Algood, apparently lost control of his 1956 Dodge truck on a curve, ran off the road and hit a large limestone boulder in the roadbank.

Bates was alone in the truck.

State Trooper Joe Agee, who investigated, could not be reached today, but Algood officials said the accident may have been caused by "one of the wheels that looked like it fell off a little ways before the accident," as Mayor Jim Brown put it, referring to talk of the wreck by Algood police officers who went to the scene.

Bates was a self-employed auto mechanic.

Funeral arrangements for Bates were incomplete late this morning.

The body is at Hooper and Huddleston Funeral Home

Funeral Services for Tom Bilbrey, Lake Victim, Held Tuesday:

Funeral services for Thomas Moore “Tom” Bilbrey, 37-year-old Cookeville businessman and civic leader, who drowned in Dale Hollow Lake late Saturday afternoon was held Tuesday afternoon at the Cookeville Methodist Church.

The Rev. H. T. Fowler and the Rev. G. C. Mellwain conducted the srvice. Burial was in Algood Cemetery.

Mr. Bilbrey’s death came while he was on a week-end fishing trip with his brother, State Sen. Robert L. Bilbrey and Keith Bohannon, both of Cookeville; State Sen. Jim Cummings and Postmaster Charlie Stone, both of Woodbury, and William Stacey and Charlie Potter, Nashville businessmen.

Senator Bilbrey said he was on the opposite side of the lake from where the tragedy occurred but happened to be looking at the boat in which his brother and Stacey were fishing from shortly before sundown.

They were having trouble with the motor, Bilbrey said, and it looked as if Mr. Stacey tried to start it and the rope apparently broke, causing him to lunge into the same side with his brother. The boat capiaized and Mr. Bilbrey drowned before other boats on the lake could get to the two men. Stacey was rescued by members of the party. Mr. Bilbrey’s body was recovered by a diver from the Nashville office of the U. S. Enginners early Sunday night.

Mr. Bilbrey was though of as a “fair” swimmer, it was said, but he was known to have been subject to cramps while in water.

Some mem bers of the party think Mr. Bilbrey became entagled in his fishing line as he grabbed for the capsized motorboat. The lake was about 30 feet deep where he went down.

In addition to Senator Bilbrey, Mr. Bilbrey is survived by his widow, the former Mis Inez Isabell; a daughter, Andra Lee Bilbrey, and his mother, Mrs. W. L. Bilbrey, all of Cookeville.

Mr. Bilbrey was a member of the Cookeville Methodist Church, a Mason, and a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

ALGOOD — Mrs. Jonnie Dillon McKinley Capps, 94, of Algood, Tennessee, passed away Sunday, Dec. 23, 2018, at Signature Health Care.

Mrs. Capps was born Thursday, Feb. 14, 1924, in Algood, to the late Stanton and Ethel Poston Dillion.

She was also preceded in death by her husband, John Doak Capps; son, Michael McKinley; and granddaughter, Virginia Ann Bilbrey.

Survivors include her daughter, Suzanne McKinley Osborne of Roanoke, Virginia; sons, Mark McKinley and Patrick McKinley of Cookeville; grandchildren, Mark Osborne of Algood, and Patrick and Melissa McKinley of Cookeville; great-grandchildren, Scarlett and Cole Bilbrey, Robert and Justin Kirby and River McKinley; and great-great-grandson, Jaydin Bilbrey.

Mrs. Capps was a graduate of TTU and a retired social worker for the State of Tennessee. She had a quick wit and was gracious and charming to all she encountered. She was an amazing woman and has set the bar high for those remaining behind to cherish her memory. She will be sorely missed.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, Dec. 26, at 1 p.m. at Algood Family Event Center (formerly the Algood Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner) with Chaplain Melinda Bilbrey officiating. Interment will follow in Algood City Cemetery.

Her family will receive guests one hour before services.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to: Algood Senior Citizens (where she enjoyed many happy hours) 124 Fourth Ave. Algood, TN 38506.

Rev. W. Henry Carr

b. 24 April 1849 – d. 11 March 1910, md Mariah Bobbie (Goolsby) Carr, b. 14 January 1881, Granville, Jackson Co., TN – d. 15 October 1905, Algood, Putnam Co., TN, d/o William Franklin Goolsby (1837-1912) & Virginia Elizabeth (Goolsby) Goolsby (1840-1893).

CARR, W. H.: Bro. W. H. Carr died on the 11th inst. And was buried in the Algood cemetery on Sunday the 13th by the orders of F. & A. M. and I. O. O. F. Bro. Carr was initiated into the I. O. O. F. July 14th, 1893; he belonging to the F. & A. M. before that date, the Masons took lead, however, both orders abridged their ceremonies. The funeral was attended by a very large number of brothers and friends, perhaps the largest crowd of people that ever assembled at Algood before. The weather was very pleasant and suitable for the occasion. [Date 3/17/1910, Vol. VIII, No. 11, Page 1] Putnam County Herald, TN

Rev. W. Henry Carr (1849-1910) was for more than forty years one of the most widely known and highly esteemed Cumberland Presbyterian ministers of this section of the State. He served pastorates regularly in his presbytery from his ordination in his young manhood until his death. He served as pastor of both the Trinity and Mount Herman Cumberland Presbyterians churches for more than twenty years. For many years he was also a public school teacher and he served for several years as County Superintendent of Public Instruction of Putnam County. In 1898, he was elected County Court Clerk of Putnam County, in which office he served for four years. He did not run for re-election.

Probably no other minister in the history of this county ever performed more marriage ceremonies or conducted more funeral services than did Rev. W. H. Carr. He enjoyed, in the highest degree, the confidence and esteem of the people of Putnam County.

Except while serving as County Clerk, he was a life long resident of Algood community. His first wife was a daughter of Curtis Mills, the first Circuit Court Clerk of Putnam County after the re-establishment of the county.

His grave is in the Algood cemetery. As an evidence of the esteem in which he was held, it is said that fully fifteen hundred people representing all sections of the county, attended his funeral services, about forty years ago.

Mrs. Crofoot died Saturday, December 21, 2013, in Kindred Transitional Care and Rehabilitation — Masters.

She was born March 13, 1921, in Algood to the late Harva R. and Mattie Verble Livingston.

Mrs. Crofoot graduated from Algood High School in 1939 and then left for Nashville, where she entered the nursing program of Nashville General Hospital, graduating with her Registered Nurse degree, and began a long and successful nursing career. After the U.S. entered World War II, she and most of her former classmates volunteered to serve in the U.S. Army Nurse Corps. She served in England amid the air raids and blackouts until the end of the war. She served exceptionally well, earning numerous awards and citations.

After the war ended, Helen returned to the states and began her career as a civilian RN, but remained in the Army Reserve. She was recalled to active duty during the Korean War and again during the Berlin blockade. She completed 20 years of military service before retiring with the rank of Major. She served as a civilian nurse in several states including Tennessee, Ohio, North Carolina and Virginia. She headed the geriatric section at Baptist Hospital prior to her retirement in 1986. She then returned to Algood to be near her aging mother. She later moved to Cedar Hills Retirement Center in 2004. In August 2013, she moved to Masters Health Care Center, where she remained until her death.

Her family includes a sister, Joanna Matthews, and three brothers Leonard, Tommy and Robert Livingston.

She was preceded in death by her former husband, Warren Crofoot; two sisters, Elise Bass and June Davis, and three brothers, Cato, James and Jesse.

David Norris will officiate the services.

Name of parent, guardian, or next of kin of female: Mr. & Mrs. Wilson Phy, parents, Rt. 8, Cookeville, TN).

Horace Jeffrey "Jeff" Fleming, a cherished husband, brother, uncle, and friend, passed away peacefully on December 17, 2023, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center. Born on July 31, 1941, in Overton Co, TN, Jeff's life was marked by his loving nature, kindness, and an admirable dedication to his community and family.

Jeff's journey began as the son of Horace C. Fleming and Ruby Lucille Green Fleming, both of whom, along with his beloved niece Wanda Maxwell, sister-in-law Ann Bowman, and two brother-in-laws Harold Bowman and Bill Graham preceded him in death. His roots were grounded in the values passed down from his maternal grandparents, Ezra and Mae Green, and paternal grandparents, Frank and Lanie Fleming, all of whom left an indelible mark on his character.

Jeff was a proud 1959 graduate of Algood High School, his commitment to friends and his community was evident early on.

For over half a century, Jeff shared a beautiful and enduring love with his wife, Brenda Phy Fleming. Their marriage was a testament to devotion, having taken their vows on June 25, 1971, at Brenda's parents' house. Together, they navigated the joys and challenges of life, their bond only strengthening with each passing year.

Jeff's love extended to his sister, Gail Graham, and his brother-in-law, James Phy, and his wife Carolyn. He was a cherished uncle to his nephew, Gary Bowman, and niece, Heather Dickerson, along with her husband Tim. Jeff took great joy in the lives of his great nephews, Anthony Maxwell and Jackson Reese, and great-great niece and nephew, Tobias and Allison, delighting in their accomplishments and milestones.

Professionally, Jeff dedicated 35 years of service as a lineman with Upper Cumberland Electric, where his hard work and reliability were well-known. His commitment to his work was paralleled only by his involvement in the community, particularly as a member of the Algood Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Jeff's faith was a cornerstone of his life, providing him strength and solace throughout his years.

An avid marksman, Jeff found solace and joy in target shooting at Bend of the River. His mild-mannered demeanor was a comfort to all who knew him, and his outstanding memory often served as a bridge to the past, connecting stories and people across generations.

Jeff's inclination to help others was a trait that defined him. Whether lending a hand or a listening ear, he was always ready to support those in need. His kindness was not just an attribute but a way of life that touched countless hearts throughout his community.

Jeff's interests were a reflection of his character. He was a man who sought precision and focus in his hobbies, just as he did in his relationships and work. His mild-mannered approach to life's challenges was a testament to his strength and the quiet way he carried his profound abilities, including his remarkable memory.

Funeral services honoring Jeff will be at 1 p.m. Thursday December 21 at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. Bro Richard Bond will officiate. Interment will follow at Algood City Cemetery. His family will receive friends Thursday from 11 a.m. until service time.

W.F. Goolsby was born in Fluvanna County, Virginia, October 28, 1837, where he spent the days of his boyhood and early manhood. He obeyed the gospel in 1858 at Sycamore Church, and was baptized by Bro. Kettyrow*. He served in the Confederate Army as a private soldier from April 17, 1861 through the entire war end to its close. In October 1866 he was married to his first cousin, Virginia Elizabeth Goolsby, and in the same month moved to Granville, Jackson County, Tennessee, living in Granville and vicinity until 1895 when he moved to Dyersville, near Baxter, Tennessee. After three years he moved to Algood, where he lived until his health failed. The remainder of his days he spent with his daughter, Mrs. Albert Mofield, at Livingston, and at the age of seventy-five he, with great faith, hope and gladness, passed into the Great Beyond. At his request his body was brought to Algood for burial, and Bro. Gunn, of Sparta, conducted the funeral services.

To the end Bro. Goolsby was the cultivated, refined Virginia gentleman, and the patient, faithful Christian.

BUFORD, GA/ALGOOD, TN-Betty Carroll Walker Hash (89) awoke in the presence of her Lord, Jesus Christ, on November 13, 2022. Born to Beulah Jane Davis and William Henard Walker on July 25, 1933 in Cloyd's Landing, KY, she spent her childhood surrounded by family on her paternal grandparents' farm. The farm was bordered by the Cumberland River which she often shared memories of watching river boats traveling down. Her family moved to Tennessee when she was 12, settling in Cookeville. She attended Algood High School until her senior year, transferring to Central High School in Cookeville; which, may have had something to do with the fact that she had met Robert Hash who she would marry a little over a year later on October 25, 1951. Even at 5'2", Betty was a spunky and fierce competitor playing basketball in high school and in her church league at Briarlake Baptist Church in Decatur, GA. In the early 70's, she took up tennis where she threw herself into playing multiple leagues every season. Here she made many friends over the years while enjoying a thriving career in real estate. After moving to Duluth, Betty and Robert became members of Johns Creek Baptist Church where they joined the Durham Sunday School Class. When not playing tennis, you would usually find Betty working in her flower beds sharing her plants with neighbors and friends.

At her death she joined her parents and 5 day older brother, Albert. She leaves behind her beloved husband of over 71 years, Robert Hash; 3 children: Mike (Kim) Hash of Suwanee, GA, Vic (Karen) Hash of San Antonio, TX, and Becky (David) Bowen of Nicholson, GA; 6 grandchildren: Justin (Lupe) Hash of Loganville, GA, John Hash of Cibola, TX, Kristin (Josh) Sailors of Athens, GA, Daniel (Ashley) Bowen of Jefferson, GA, Rachel (Brian) Bounds of Riverview, FL, and Elizabeth Hash of Waco, TX; and 4 great-grandsons: Dylan and Coleman Bowen, Robert Bounds, and Levi Sailors. She also leaves her sister, Mary Reber of Snellville, GA, and brother Bill Walker of Cookeville, TN.

Visitation will be from 3 until 6 at Flanigan's Funeral Home in Buford, GA on Thursday, November 17. Betty will be laid to rest in the City of Algood Tennessee Cemetery where she will lie next to her parents and close by the Algood Community Center where she first caught the eye of a 16 year old Robert Hash as she played basketball.

Pall bearers will be Mike Hash, Vic Hash, David Bowen, Justin Hash, John Hash, Daniel Bowen, Josh Sailors and Brian Bounds. Honorary Pall bearer: Bill Walker.

A graveside service and interment will be held Saturday, November 19, 2022 at 2:00pm(CST) at Algood City Cemetery. Her family will receive friends Saturday from 1:00pm to 2:00pm at the Algood Family Event Center (124 1st Street, Algood, TN 38506).

BUFORD, GA/COOKEVILLE, TN-Mr. John "Robert" Hash, 89, left this earth to join his Savior on Saturday, March 25, 2023. Born on July 1, 1933, to Victor "Ed"ward and Jenny Kathleen "Katie" Hash in Morristown, Tennessee, the family would move to Cookeville, TN when he was in fourth grade. He had a idyllic childhood in what he always considered his hometown. He grew up in the Methodist church but began to attend Cookeville First Baptist Church when he was 12 years old. He would often ride his bike to attend services when his father was not able to take him. He graduated from Cookeville Central High School in 1951 and married his sweetheart Betty on October 25, that same year. At the end of October, he reported for duty in the United States Navy to serve his country during the Korean War. He loved Naval Air and at the end of his career was stationed in Pensacola where he and Betty had added a son to their family. The family would return to Pensacola for vacations and frequent visits to the Naval Air Station Museum throughout the years.

After the Navy, Robert, Betty and Mike returned to Cookeville where Robert used the VA bill to attend Tennessee Tech University graduating in under 3 years. Following graduation, Robert took a job with AT&T and moved to Nashville where he and Betty added a son Vic to the family. The young family then was transferred to several places in Tennessee returning to Nashville where they finished their family with the addition of a daughter, Becky. A couple of years later, the family moved to Atlanta where they would settle. Robert enjoyed volunteering with Cub/Boy Scouts, building airplane models with his children, Rotary Club, photography, and spending time with his family. His family were members of Briarlake Baptist Church in Decatur, GA. After retirement, Robert helped Betty in her real estate career and the couple moved to Duluth, GA where they became members of Johns Creek Baptist Church and the Durham Sunday School class where he volunteered helping in the memory wall and enjoyed men's breakfasts and fellowships.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a little brother, and his beloved wife of 71 years, Betty Carroll Walker Hash who died a short four and a half months ago. He is survived by children; Mike (Kim) Hash of Suwanee, GA, Vic (Karen) Hash of San Antonio, TX, and Becky (David) Bowen of Nicholson, GA.; six grandchildren, Justin (Lupe) Hash of Loganville, GA, John Hash of Cibolo, TX, Kristin (Josh) Sailors of Athens, GA, Daniel (Ashley) Bowen of Jefferson, GA, Rachel (Brian) Bounds of Riverview, FL, and Elizabeth Hash of Waco, TX.; four great-grandsons: Dylan Bowen, Coleman Bowen, Robert Bounds, and Levi Sailors; a sister, Kathy Dagnan; brother-in-law Bill Walker; sister-in-law Mary Reber, and by several nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be from 3 until 6 at Flanigan Funeral Home in Buford, GA on Thursday, March 30, 2023.

In addition, a graveside service and interment with military honors will be held Saturday, April 1st at 1pm at Algood (TN) City Cemetery. His family will receive friends Saturday from 12-12:45pm at the Algood Family Event Center (124 1st Ave, Algood, TN 38506).

Pallbearers will be Mike Hash, Vic Hash, David Bowen, Justin Hash, Daniel Bowen, Josh Sailors, Brian Bounds, and Bill Walker. Honorary pallbearers will be Robert's childhood friends, Sonny Allen and Jimmy Mackie.

Donald Byrd Holloway Jr., known affectionately by friends and family as Don, passed away peacefully on December 22, 2023, at the NHC of Cookeville. Born on November 5, 1954, in Nashville, Tennessee, Don's life was a testament to his unwavering kindness, infectious humor, and boundless love for his family and community.

Don was a proud graduate of Putnam County Senior High School, where he cultivated a lifelong passion for football, graduating in 1973. He continued his education at Tennessee Tech University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1979. During his college years, Don was an active member of the SAE fraternity, forming friendships and memories that lasted a lifetime.

Professionally, Don was the dedicated owner of Racquet Master, a beloved fitness gym in Cookeville, for over 39 years. His commitment to helping others achieve their fitness goals was more than a career; it was a calling. Don's genuine care for every individual who walked through the gym's doors made him a pillar of the community and an inspiration to many.

Don's faith played a central role in his life. He was a devoted member of Cookeville First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, where he served as an elder and Sunday School teacher for the Good News Class. His selfless nature was evident in his service to the church and its members, always ready with a helping hand or a word of encouragement.

Family was the cornerstone of Don's world. He leaves behind his loving wife, Jan Holloway, and their daughter, Kelly Gaw, along with her husband, Landon. Don's sister, Sheila Julian and her husband, Terry, and sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Gayle and Ted Loftis will miss his warmth and guidance. His mother-in-law, Amy Gentry, cherished him as a son. A devoted grandfather, known as Papa Don to his grandchildren, Bryce, Bentley, Jessie, Charlee, Shai and her husband Isaiah, Lexi, and Tori, along with great-grandchildren, Maddex and Knox. Don's nieces, nephews, an aunt, uncle, host of cousins and his beloved loyal dog, Fifi, also survive him, each holding dear the special moments they shared. Don was preceded in death by his parents, Donald Sr. and Betty Grisard Holloway; son, Don Holloway III, brother James Lynn Holloway; and father-in-law, Galen Gentry.

Those who knew Don will remember him for his loving nature, his kind spirit, and his ability to light up a room with his humor. His contagious smile could brighten the darkest of days, and his selfless actions spoke volumes of the man he was. Don's life was a living example of the words that best described him: loving, kind, and funny.

Funeral services honoring Don will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday December 27 at Cookeville First Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Rev. Christian Smith and Dr. Charles McCaskey will officiate. Interment will follow at Algood City Cemetery. Don's family will receive friends Wednesday from 11 a.m. until service time.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Cookeville First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, 565 E. 10th St. Cookeville, TN 38501, Cookeville/Putnam County Animal Shelter, 2650 Gainesboro Grade, Cookeville, TN 38501; or Parkinson's Foundation, www.parkinson.org.

Leroy Huehls Obt.

Mr. Leroy Huehls, 73, a retired engineer, died after an extended illness on May 29, 2009, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center in Cookeville, TN. Leroy's wife, Dr. Betty Huehls, was at his side when he died. The couple had been married for 52 years. His parents, Roy Edward and Eva Nofsinger Huehis, preceded him in death. Leroy grew up in Louisville, Kentucky, where he graduated from duPont Manual High School and attended Ninth and O Baptist Church. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Louisville in 1968.

Once asked what his greatest achievement was, he responded, "my marriage." Leroy possessed a great love for his wife, children, grandchildren and family as well as his church family at Algood United Methodist Church.

His interests included playing and watching sports, raising sheep for show and running in the Peachtree Road Race in Atlanta, GA. He also enjoyed collecting coal mining memorabilia from the Kentucky region where his grandfathers had worked in the mines. Even though he was a graduate of U of L, he remained an avid University of Kentucky Wildcats fan throughout his life. In retirement Leroy and Betty enjoyed antiquing, reading, listening to jazz, traveling, renewing old friendships and entertaining family and friends.

Survived by his wife, Betty Sparks Huehls; a son, Michael Lee Huehls; and daughters Stacy Lynn Koffman and Rebecca Lea Menke, as well as their respective spouses, David Koffman and Randy Menke; his sister, Genelle Wagar and husband Stan Wagar; his grandchildren, Lee Ryker Huehls, Jordan Koffman, Kyle Menke and Heidi Menke; and his Aunt Mary Jane Huehls, who was married to his late Uncle Raleigh.

A memorial service will be held at Algood United Methodist Church at 135 West Main Street, Algood, Tennessee, on Saturday, June 6. Remembrance with the family will be from 11:00 a.m. until the time of the services at 1:00 p.m. Immediately following, his cremated remains will be interred in the Memorial Garden.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Leroy's memory may be made to the Algood United Methodist Church Memorial Garden fund (931-537-6111), the Putnam County Library for large print texts (931-526-2416) or Helping Hands of Putnam County (931-526-3838).

Funeral services for Mrs. Reba Hunter, age 86 of Cookeville, will be held Friday, January 14th at 12:00 p.m. in the Cookeville chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Pastor Keith Tosh will officiate. Interment will follow in Algood City Cemetery.

Her family will receive friends Friday from 10:00 a.m. until service time at the funeral home.

Mrs. Hunter passed from this life into Glory Monday January 10, 2022 at her residence in the loving care of her family.

She was born April 1, 1935 in Jackson County, TN to the late Andrew P. and Sallie Chaffin Mirirah Gentry.

She worked at numerous places in her lifetime; Cookeville Shirt Factory, Wilson's Sporting Goods, Acme Boot, and later, she and some close friends started an alteration shop named Stitch N Sew. People came from all over for the stitchery (and the smiles). Everyone loved her, especially her family, and she loved them back with everything in her. Reba was also a sitter later in life for a dear friend in which the family came to depend on very much until she retired from all work at age 79. She enjoyed working so much for so many years but decided it was time to enjoy herself for a while.

She was beautiful inside and out. She was in the homecoming court her sophomore year of high school. She always wanted to know what was happening with the other person, their family, and how she could help someone else. She really did not realize just how special she was but everyone around her sure did.

She was a wonderful and generous Christian lady. She attended Bangham Heights Baptist Church and Vine Branch Community Church. She was selfless and devoted to her family. She was an excellent cook and cooked at least once weekly for the family. She cooked enough for an army but for the majority of her life, her servings of food were eaten out of a teacup (we could all learn from her).

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her son Gary Eugene Hunter and granddaughter, Tara Hunter, Brothers, Doyle Gentry and Everett Gentry, and nephews Alex and Michael Horn .

Reba is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Greg and Shannon Hunter of Cookeville; daughter and son-in-law, Patricia and Gary Nash of Cookeville; grandchildren, Matt Hunter (Cookeville), Trey Hunter (Cookeville), Chase (Kelsey) Hunter (Spring Hill, TN) and Samantha Hunter (Cookeville); great grandchildren, Ava and Aiden Hunter of Cookeville, Makenna and Madi Hunter of Cookeville, and Elise Hunter of Spring Hill, TN, a loving sister, Reva Johnson of Cookeville, nieces Betty Gentry Chaffin and Wanda Faye Grasty and nephews Jimmy Dale Horn, Darrell Gentry, Danny Horn, and niece, Pam Bailey.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Hyder attended Berea College School of Nursing and later attended Tennessee Tech, majoring in education and English. She was a school teacher for 30 years – two years at Livingston Elementary and 28 years at Livingston Academy – and a lifelong and faithful servant of the Lord and her community.

Considered a spiritual mother by many, she was active for most of her adult life with the First Methodist Church in Livingston, where she sang in the choir, taught Sunday school, and led prayer and Bible study groups. She warmly recalled helping to establish the Oak Street Methodist Church, where she was a pianist, Sunday school teacher and youth group leader. She particularly enjoyed leading young people to Christ, and hosted after school youth groups in her home in Henson Hills. She was a gifted researcher and writer, authoring the column “Another Line” in Overton County News and writing a series of books about her life and family history.

Mrs. Hyder was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband, Hollis Hyder, two brothers, James (Jim) Covington and William (Billy) Covington, and a sister, Helen Copeland. She is survived by her son, Ronald Hyder of Livingston, granddaughter Rhonda Hyder Moats and husband Justin of Brentwood, great-grandson, Hollis Moats, sister, Lois Lacy of Oak Ridge, brother, Dr. John Covington and wife Glenda of Hiram, GA, and many dear nieces and nephews and special friends.

Interment will be at Algood Cemetery in a private graveside service. Any memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice or to Post Oak Presbyterian Church at 1174 Post Oak Road, Cookeville, TN 38506. Written tributes or memories are welcomed via the Speck Funeral Home website.

The family wishes to express deepest gratitude to the friends and family who have supported Mrs. Hyder in recent years. To the many people who organized and participated in the “Pennies in a Jar” Celebration of Life: Please know what a precious memory you created for her and her family. To her Eight at Eight friends, who walked with her in life and carried her on their shoulders at the end: Your love and kindness will be forever remembered.

Charlie's life was one of service and commitment. As a proud Air Force veteran, he dedicated himself to his country with honor. Following his military service, he embarked on a successful career as a sales representative, where he took a genuine interest in his clients.

Married to the love of his life, Bonnie Howard Jones, on April 16, 1966, Charlie was a devoted husband for 57 years. Together, they built a family that included their children, Linda Thomas (Shannon), Charles Jones (April), Mark Barnett Sr. (Laurie), and a loving sister-in-law, Ann Howard. He was also a cherished father-in-law to Julie Jones. His legacy continued to grow with his adored grandchildren, Ondina, Mark Jr., Becky, Aleshia, Cody, Eric, Neil, Krystal, Kristopher, James, Gregory, Kelsey, Alexandria, and Mahala, and he was blessed to see the joy of seventeen great-grandchildren.

Charlie was preceded in death by his parents, Isam Gregory Jones and Naomie Cantrell Jones; his children, Lisa Charlene Jones, James Jones, Bonnie Jo-an Jones; his granddaughter, Kayla Jones; and his siblings, J.R. Jones, George Jones, Sally Jones, Willie Marvin Jones, Helen Jones, and Flossie Barker.

A man of faith, Charlie was a dedicated member of the Church of Latter Day Saints. He extended his love for cultural exchange by hosting several exchange students, forming a lifelong friendship with his first student, Silvio Varella, among others.

His interests were as diverse as they were engaging. Known for his wit and being quite the jokester, he brought laughter and light-heartedness to every gathering. Charlie was also an accomplished genealogist, taking great pride in tracing and sharing his family's history. His love for the outdoors was evident in his passion for bird hunting with his close friends, Jimmy and Shirley Rogers. Not to be overlooked was his tender care for his apple orchard, which was both a hobby and a testament to his nurturing spirit.

A funeral service honoring Charlie will be at 1 p.m. Monday January 29 at the Dyer Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Algood City Cemetery. Charlie's family will welcome friends Monday from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Daughter dies at mother's visitation
by Mary Jo Denton

ALGOOD -- A woman who was at the funeral home yesterday to receive friends after the death of her mother on Monday collapsed and died there in the chapel, family members said.

Now, the grief stricken family has rescheduled the funeral that was to have been held today for Hessie Pearl Hicks, 98, of Algood, and on Friday, a joint service will be held for her and her daughter, Brenda Jo Ledbetter, 78.

Hessie Pearl Hicks, who lived with her daughter, died Monday morning at their Algood home. She was well known in Algood due to the more than 40 years she worked as a clerk in the Algood Drug Store. Her daughter, Brenda, an Army wife who had traveled the world with her late husband, George Ledbetter Sr., had spent the last two years taking care of her beloved mother.

"We just celebrated my mother's (Brenda Ledbetter's) birthday last Friday and my grandmother was there too," said Brenda's son, Glen Ledbetter. "We're an extremely close family."

On Monday, Brenda and the rest of the family grieved the death of HESSIE Pearl Hicks and planned her funeral. The services would be Wednesday and the family would receive friends at the Algood chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner on Tuesday evening.

Brenda and other family members arrived at the funeral home chapel Tuesday evening and began receiving friends for the viewing.

"Brenda had been there about 15 minutes and had already gone up to view her mother, then sat back down and after a few minutes went up to the coffin again," said funeral director David Horner.

"Then, she just suddenly collapsed, and everybody thought she had fainted. We called 911, and the Algood Police arrived very quickly and an ambulance took her to the hospital," Horner said.

There she was pronounced dead, and doctors reportedly said it was from a massive heart attack.

"Mama had taken care of her mother for the past two years," said Brenda's son. "They were just so close."

It was already a very sad time for the family, and now it is even more so, as they plan the joint services for the two women. Their many friends are rallying to their side, hoping to bring comfort in a time of such grief and suffering.

The joint services are set for Friday at 11 a.m. at the Algood chapel of Hooper Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Burial will be in Algood Cemetery.

The family will receive friends Thursday from 5 to 8 p.m. and Friday from 9 a.m. till time for the service at the funeral home.

LIVINGSTON — Anna "Jeannine" Livingston, of Rickman, Tennessee, went to her heavenly home Friday, July 20, 2018, at her home, with her family by her side.

She was born Wednesday, Jan. 25, 1933, to the late Harshell Lee and Lucille (Bailey) Norrod, in the Hanging Limb community of Overton County, Tennessee.

Jeannine became the bride of Frank Lee Livingston on June 18, 1949, in Rossville, Georgia. She was a housewife when her sons were small and in school, also serving as an adult 4-H leader, where she was involved with many committees and activities with the 4-H. She was a member of the Livingston chapter of Eastern Star, serving in various positions, ending serving as Worthy Matron.

As her sons got older, she became a teacher's aide at Rickman School, where she enjoyed and loved working with the students. After leaving the school, she became a bank teller at Union Bank in Rickman. She loved working and serving the people who came into the bank and made many friends. She retired from the bank and became a volunteer for the ladies auxiliary at Cookeville Regional Medical Center. She enjoyed doing for others and was always doing something to brighten their day. After retiring, she spent as much time as possible with her two grandsons, who she loved with all her heart.

She is survived by her husband of 69 years, Frank Lee Livingston; two sons and a daughter-in-law, Randall and Cynthia Livingston of Rickman and Richard Livingston of Rickman; two grandsons and a granddaughter-in-law, Gerald and Kendra Livingston of Monroe and Morgan Livingston of Rickman; along with several cousins and many friends.

The death of Mr. Will McCormick of near Algood was an event causing widespread sorrow and bereavement. Although of retiring nature, Mr. McCormick made a host of friends during his life... funeral services were held last Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church in Algood.

William Luther McCormick was born in Putnam County September 6, 1867.

Except for a brief sojourn in a western state, he lived all his life in this county. In recent years he had been in declining health and was unable to survive a severe attack of influenza, followed quickly by double pneumonia.

On Friday evening at 6:30, January 30, 1931, he passed from this life.

The Rev T D McReynolds, pastor of the Algood M E Church, conducted the services.

Surviving the deceased are his wife, Mrs. Leann Walker McCormick and the following children: Bartlett of Mullins, SC; Joe P of Johnson City; Walker of Detroit; Mrs. Henrietta Buck and Notie McCormick of Algood.

Three brothers and one sister mourn his loss: John C. of Algood; James M of Cookeville; P H of Wolfe City, Texas; and Mrs. Fannie Bartlett of Cookeville.

Pendergrass Funeral Home was in charge.

James "Al" Alfred Middlebrook, 92, of Cookeville, Tennessee, passed away peacefully at his home on Sunday, July 26, 2020, after spending his last days and moments doing exactly what he loved, spending time with his family.

On Sunday, October 9, 1927, Augustus and Thelma Mae Middlebrook welcomed their son, James Alfred Middlebrook (Al) into the world. Al was born and raised in Lenawee County Michigan in the town of Clinton. He served his country in the United States Army at the end of World War II. In 1973 Al's job with Gould Industries moved him and his five children to Cookeville, Tennessee. He enjoyed roller skating, movies, and the arts. However, his favorite thing in the world was simply the company of his children and grandchildren. Al's family was always at the center of everything that he did. Hours and hours of video serve as a reminder that he always wanted to capture these special moments with them. Al was above all passionate and proud of all his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Al was the loving father of, and is survived by, his children: Larry Middlebrook, Robin (Michael) Bostic, Steve (Cindy) Middlebrook, Missy Smith, and Ron Middlebrook.

And also his grandchildren whom he adored: Tonya (Terry) Jared, Whitney (Nicholas) Cooper, Leisa Loftis, Lynda (Jeff) Webb, Cassandra Blaskis, Mollie Norman, Virginia (Caleb) Hagan, Jeremy Bostic, Nicole Bostic, Victoria Bostic, Michael Bostic Jr., Chelsea Bostic, Ashley Middlebrook, Steven Middlebrook, Jake Middlebrook, Stephanie Fields Sims, Will (Shea) Smith, Timothy Middlebrook, April Middlebrook, and Jamie Williams Craighead, who he counted as his own.

He will also be fondly remembered by his thirty great-grandchildren, other family, and friends.

Al was preceded in death by his parents Augustus and Thelma Middlebrook, sisters Louretta Schell, Sarah Socks, his brothers John Middlebrook, Leslie Middlebrook, and his two stepbrothers Raymond and Walter Noffsinger and stepsister Esther Timmerman.

Funeral Service for James "Al" Middlebrook will be held Thursday, July 30, 2020, at 3:00 pm from the chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home with Dr. Ronnie Pierce officiating. Interment will follow in the Algood City Cemetery.

Anita Wert Wall Moore, 96, died May 5, 2020, surrounded by family at her home in Cordova, TN from complications following a stroke. She was preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Dr. David Franklin Moore; her brothers Wilkes Hammock Wall, Jr. and Dr. James Thomas Wall; and her parents Neta Ozenia Williams Wall and Wilkes Hammock Wall, Sr.

Anita grew up in Cookeville, Tennessee, thriving in spite of the Great Depression and World War II. She earned a business administration degree from Tennessee Tech University. After her husband's medical training was completed, they lived in Memphis for the remainder of their lives. Anita worked for a period of time at Goldsmith's and at Memphis State University's Advisory Center. She was an active member of Mullins United Methodist Church for nearly 68 years, longer than any other current member. She sang in the choir, taught Sunday School, and helped with the youth. Her faith and her church family were of great value and a blessing to her. She was a 4 gallon blood donor—a tiny lady with a huge heart!

Anita loved and cherished her family and friends and was known not only as Anita but as Sister, Mother, Mom, Aunt Nita, Grandmother and Gigi. She made sure that her children kept up with each other and their families. She was the hub - the central station - for all things related to the family. She enthusiastically supported all of her children's, grandchildren's, and great-grandchildren's activities. People were important to her and she loved knowing them. She was always very appreciative of every kindness and saved every card, note, letter and email sent to her.

A lady with an adventurous spirit, Anita learned to fly and made her first solo flight at age 22. Mentally alert and still living at home until her stroke, she stayed active throughout her life, climbing down and back up the Grand Canyon in her 60's, hiking to the summit of Mount Le Conte in her 70's, skydiving in her 80's, and all along the way loving to swim and play in the lake - even riding an inner tube and kayaking when she was 96. She loved family gatherings, playing bridge, and attending theatre and musical performances. Traveling was a joy: Scotland, Costa Rica, Hawaii, and cruises with her children.

A loving mother, she leaves her four children, Franklin (Ann) Moore of Alpharetta, GA; Doug (Debora) Moore of Bartlett, TN; Molly (Milton) Robinson of Hot Springs, AR; and Missy (Joe) Skinner of Memphis, TN. She also leaves a brother, John Wall of Algood, TN, and a sister, Lula Bartholomew of Oak Ridge, TN; 10 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many more family and friends who loved her dearly.

Family graveside services and interment will be held Friday May 8, 2020 at Algood Cemetery in Algood, Tennessee, with Rev. Rob Wheeler officiating.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers any memorials be sent to Mullins United Methodist Church Music Program Fund, 4 No. Mendenhall Road, Memphis 38117, or BrightFocus Foundation (macular degeneration research) at www.brightfocus.org.

Dr. Jack Moore dies, services tomorrow. He, his family recognized by State House for 100 years of ‘meritorious service’ in the practice of medicine.

Tomorrow will mark the 100th year that a member of the Moore family has served the Cookeville area in the practice of medicine – and tomorrow will be the day of the funeral for the middle figure in that line of physicians.

Dr. John Thomas “Dr. Jack” Moore, who during his 48-year practice became one of the best-known and most highly-regarded doctors in the Upper Cumberland, died yesterday (April 19, 1999) at his Algood home, 113 Third Ave. South. He was 77.

Services will be at the Algood United Methodist Church on Wednesday beginning at 2 p.m. Vistation will be held at the church from 6 to 9 o'clock tonight.

A resolution has been introduced in the Tennessee House of Representatives by Rep. Jeer Hargrove of Cookeville recognizing Dr. Moore and commemorating the "meritorious service" by him and members of his family, his father, the late Dr. Tom Moore; and the sons of Dr. Jack and his wife, Jean – a period of service that spans a full century tomorrow.

Dr. Moore was born in Algood on May 21, 1922; and graduated from Algood High School. He graduated with a degree in engineering from TPI (Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, now Tennessee Tech University) and served during World War II as a second lieutenant in the US Army.

*Note: Thomas Franklin Moore Obt. (1849-1935), he is buried along with his wife Elizabeth (Fraser) Moore in the Johnson Cemetery, Mill Creek, Putnam Co., TN: The death of T F Moore of Algood at 5:15 Wednesday morning was a shock to the community. Although he had been sick for several weeks at the home of his son, Dr. J T Moore, his going away was sudden.

Mr. Moore was 84 years old. He was born and reared on the Calfkiller River in Putnam County. After living there for many years, he moved to Sparta and later to Algood, about 13 years ago, making his home with his son, Dr J T Moore. He was a farmer and merchant, and his mercantile business near Johnson Church was for many years a successful one. After moving to Sparta, he was City Judge for a number of years; secretary and treasurer of the Masonic Lodge for twenty years. When he came to Algood, he was made City Judge and has held that office for twelve years. He was a Royal Arch Mason and a member of the Methodist church.

Mr. Moore was active in civic affairs and all public interests, and a progressive man for his age. As an example of his progress and intelligent spirit, he requested that after his death a post-mortem examination should be held in order that the doctors might know the cause of his illness and death. This was done by doctor friends of Dr Moore and it was found that he had a tumor in his stomach. This request is unusual, but if more people would agree to post-mortem examinations, it would be a blessing to the medical profession....Mr. Moore was the father of nine children; two daughters dead, one living daughter, Mrs. F B Campbell of Nashville; six sons, Dr J T Moore; Fred L., Algood; J M, Oklahoma; H C and R H of Eldorado, Ok.; and H H Moore of Harriman.

The funeral services will be conducted by Dr M O Nelms at the home of Dr & Mrs J T Moore at Algood Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and burial at Johnson Church near Sparta will be conducted by the Masonic Lodges of Sparta and Cookeville.

Catherine (Moore) Walker, d/o Dr. John Thomas Moore (1876-1966) & Annice Sue Crews (1888-1986).

RICHMOND, VA — Catherine Moore Walker embraced Heaven in the arms of Jesus on Monday, Sept. 4, 2017. She was 99 years old. She is now reunited with her husband of 52 years, Lloyd Daniel Walker Sr. of Sparta; her parents, Dr. John Thomas and Annice Crews Moore; and her brother, Dr. Jack Moore Jr.; half-brother and sister, Pennock Moore and Margaret Thompson.

She is survived by her children, Dr. Lloyd Daniel Walker Jr. (Mary), Thomas Moore Walker and Catherine Walker Patterson (Mike); grandchildren, Michael Patterson Jr. (Sarah), Megan Reynolds (John), Matthew Patterson (Priscila); and four great- grandchildren; a fifth grandchild is due in March. Still living are her sister-in-law, Jean Moore; and nephews, John Moore, James Moore and Dr. Lee Moore.

Born July 9, 1918, she was raised in the farm country of Putnam County, and affectionately known as “Cacky” by her Tennessee family. She lived most of her married life in the Lakeside area of Henrico County, Virginia, known as “Katie,” and as a widow in her Westminster Canterbury home until her death.

Katie was a devoted homemaker and active in civic affairs through the League of Women Voters. She was chairman of the Henrico County Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission, which was instrumental in securing land for several of the beautiful parks we enjoy today. A devout Presbyterian, she was involved for many years in the various programs of Lakeside Presbyterian Church, including the choirs and teaching Sunday school. She took special interest in the church’s outreach to the less fortunate members of the community and was recently given prominent mention in the Richmond Times-Dispatch in connection with her dedication to prisoner visitation. Katie was also a classically trained musician, with degrees in music from Tennessee Technological University and Northwestern University. She was an accomplished vocalist and pianist, who gave concerts for local residents well into her 90s. She was an avid fan and supporter of the Richmond Symphony.

We will miss her most for the loving way she cared for others and the incredible role model she was to us as a wife, a mother, and a disciple of Christ. We will also miss the beautiful music she played on her Steinway piano. She was always a champion for the least and the last and gave generously to these causes.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Lakeside Presbyterian Pre-School, 7343 Hermitage Rd., Richmond, Va. 23228 or to the Westminster Canterbury Fellowship Fund, 1600 Westbrook Ave., Richmond, Va. 23227.

A celebration of life will be held at 11 a.m. (EDT) Friday, Sept. 29, at Westminster Canterbury, 1600 Westbrook Ave., Richmond, Virginia.

ALGOOD -- Funeral services for Paul B. Myers, 87, of Hixson, will be held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 27, from the Algood Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Interment, with military honors, will follow in Algood City Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 1 p.m. until time of services on Tuesday at the funeral home. Mr. Myers died Friday, Oct. 23, 2009, of congestive heart failure.

He was born July 7, 1922, in Cookeville to the late Harold Chapin and Laura Wright Myers. In 1928, the Myers family moved to Nashville and resided at several addresses in East Nashville, finally residing on Eastside Avenue. Mr. Myers was a 1941 graduate of East Nashville High School.

In 1942, he married Irene Griggs of Nashville. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps. During World War II, he served as a radio operator in both the Philippines and New Guinea. Returning from military service in 1946, he lived in Donelson, a suburb of Nashville.

He was employed by the Avco Corporation of Nashville for approximately 15 years. In 1962, he accepted the position as Manager of Quality Control for the Modern Maid Corporation of Chattanooga, and took up residence in East Ridge. When the Modern Maid plant closed, he retired and he and his wife, Irene, moved to Ten Mile, where he built a house on Watts Bar Lake.

After his wife, Irene, died in 1992, he continued to live in Ten Mile. In 2003, he returned to the East Nashville family home to care for his elder brother, who was in poor health. In 2006, he returned to live in Chattanooga close to his son and sister.

Paul and his wife were avid fishermen and he was a golfer. After his wife died, he gave up fishing and concentrated on playing golf. He was a member of Lakeside Golf Club in Kingston.

His family includes a son and daughter-in-law, Paul Terry and Joyce Myers of Hixson; a grandson, Gregory Bryan Myers of Raleigh, N.C.; a granddaughter and spouse, Meredith Myers and Ken Caudle of Orlando, Fla.; a sister, Sibbie Lee Vernon of Hixson; a brother and sister-in-law, Marion and Marjorie Myers of Murfreesboro; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his wife, Irene Griggs Myers, and three of his older brothers, Willie, John and Lloyd Myers.

Bruce Vernon will officiate at the services.

The family will receive friends Saturday, June 11, from 5 to 8 p.m., and Sunday, from noon until time of service at the funeral home.

Mr. Nelson passed away Friday, June 10, 2016, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center in Cookeville, Tennessee.

He was born Wednesday, July 31, 1940, in Putnam County, Tennessee to the late Jesse Ben Nelson and Emma Idell Eldridge Nelson.

Billy Paul worked various jobs over the years, drove trucks, was a salesman, owned a Shell service station, and worked as a personal assistant for the late Gladys Owen. He never met a stranger, had friends everywhere, and always wanted to lend a helping hand to anyone he saw in need. He didn't wait to be asked to help, he would just pitch in wherever he thought he could make a difference.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Reba Stupp; five brothers, Howard Nelson, Estel Nelson, Vestal Nelson, Fred Nelson, and Melvin Nelson.

He is survived by Nancy Meadows Nelson, his wife of fifty years; a sister, Shelby Jean Hunter Cooper, of Cookeville, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Pallbearers will be his nephews.

In lieu of flowers, the family request memorial contributions be made to Happy Haven Children's Home.

Ottis Hansel Phillips Jr., age 71 of Cookeville, passed away suddenly Tuesday, February 7, 2023 at his home.

He was born July 19, 1951 in Cookeville to the late Ottis Hansel Phillips Sr. and Pauline Valentine Clark Phillips.

Ottis graduated from Putnam County Senior High School in 1969 before enrolling at Tennessee Technological University in the fall of that year. As a walk-on player, Ottis earned an athletic scholarship and was a four-year letterman for the Golden Eagle football team. He received his bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1974 and his MBA in 1978.

After graduation, he worked at Fleetguard, where he won a patent award for a diesel filter that he helped to develop. In addition to working for Fleetguard, Ottis worked for the Adolf Coors Co. before accepting a position with Willow Distributors in Dallas. Eventually he returned to his hometown of Cookeville in 1990 to accept the position of general manager for SEC Distributorship.

After selling his company in 2016, Ottis joined the Board of Directors for Progressive Financial Group and Progressive Savings Bank in March 2016. Two years later he became its chairman and later in 2018 assumed the position of president and CEO of Progressive Financial Group which sold to SmartFinancial in 2019.

Ottis was passionate about his alma maters and his community, serving on the Cavalier Foundation supporting Cookeville High School, the Hall of Fame Committee for TTU Athletics, the TTU Foundation Board of Directors, and he was a past chairman of the Cookeville-Putnam County Chamber of Commerce. He served as the first chair of the TSSAA Steering Committee, which brought the BlueCross / BlueShield Bowl to Cookeville in 2008. In 2022 Ottis was inducted into the TTU Sports Hall of Fame. In 2013 he was named the Tennessee Tech Athletics Outstanding Alumnus of the Year and in 2018 he was honored with the Outstanding Philanthropy Award from Tennessee Tech's Alumni Association.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Cindy Gray Phillips; daughters, Kristie Phillips, Mary Beth (Blake) Herron, and Emily Phillips Rains all of Cookeville; sons, Parker (Shannon) Phillips of Brentwood and Hunter (Dallas) Phillips of Nashville; sister, Pat Doughty of Cookeville; grandchildren, Caden Herron, Leigha Herron, Jack Rains, Lyndon Katherine Rains, Reagan Phillips, and Emerson Phillips.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son-in-law, Steve Rains; and brother, Mike Doughty.

A celebration of Ottis' life will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, February 10 at Cookeville First Cumberland Presbyterian Church on 10th Street in Cookeville. Dr. Charles McCaskey and Rev. Christian Smith will officiate. His family will receive friends Friday from 10 a.m. until service time. Serving as honorary pallbearers will be the Cookeville High School Cavalier 1965-68 football teams and the Tennessee Tech Golden Eagle 1969-72 football teams.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to the Tennessee Tech Football Operations Center, TTU Box 5057, Cookeville, TN 38505 or the Rains Foundation, P.O. Box 127, Cookeville, TN 38503.

James T. Pointer, aged 73, died Saturday morning in his home in the 19th Civil district near Algood, after several days illness with pneumonia.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dow A Ensor at the home Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, followed by interment at Algood Cemetery.

Thus passes from this life one who, for almost half a century, had been prominently identified with the history of Putnam County and this section.

He was one of the five stalwart and splendid sons of the late Thomas Pointer, one of Putnam County's most prominent pioneer citizens. His mother was a daughter of William H Quarles, and a great-granddaughter of William P Quarles, two of the leading pioneers of this section of the state.

James T Pointer grew to manhood on his father's farm, the well known Pointer Farm 4 miles east of Cookeville, which farm is now owned by Burch Dowell, whose first wife was a sister of the deceased. His father was one of the leading farmers and stock dealers of this section.

In his youth, James T. Pointer was happily married to Miss Addie Nichols, a daughter of Henry M. Nichols, a former County Trustee. For several years after his marriage, he owned and lived upon the farm 3 miles NW of Cookeville now owned by Esq H R Shipley. About 35 years ago, he purchased and has since lived upon his splendid farm near Algood.

In 1892 he was elected County Tax Assessor of Putnam, which office he held for 4 years.

In 1902 he was elected County Trustee of Putnam and served 2 terms in this office.

He served for many years as a member of the School Board in both the 1st and the 19th districts.

He was a man of strictest integrity, and by every impulse of his nature, kind, obliging and sympathetic. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to those who needed assistance. He was one of the solid, substantial citizens of Putnam County and represented in his ancestry 2 of the leading pioneer families of Putnam County.

Of his four brothers, 3 preceded him in death; Stephen, B. Peyton and William H. his only surviving brother was George of Putnam County. Of his 4 sisters; two pre-deceased him; Mrs. Jasper Terry and Mrs.. Burch Dowell; 2 sisters survive, Mrs. Will Terry of Putnam and Mrs. William McClain of Montana. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Addie Nichols Pointer and 8 grown children; 7 sons and 1 daughter, as follows: Henry T, Charles N, Norman, Mack, Robert T, Joe, Will and Mrs. Della Williams.

Algood man killed in crash

Mary Jo Denton

Herald-Citizen Staff

Monday, May 18, 2009

ALGOOD -- A traffic crash on Highway 111 in Algood took the life of an Algood man on Sunday afternoon, according to the Tennessee Highway Patrol.

Paul Polk, 47, of the Deerhaven subdivision, died in the accident, which happened at 5:15 p.m. May 17 at the Highway 111 and Mirandy Road intersection.

Polk was driving a 2000 GMC pickup truck and was headed west on Mirandy Road. He began to cross Highway 111 and drove into the path of a truck which was southbound on Highway 111, says a report by State Trooper Eric McCormick.

The other vehicle was a 2005 Ford F150 pickup. The driver, Kyle Gaerke, 21, of Sharps Chapel, Tennessee, was not injured, the trooper's report says.

Gaerke was unable to avoid a collision with Polk's truck, which was struck in the right front and spun around, coming to final rest in the intersection, Trooper McCormick's report says.

Polk was not using a seatbelt, but Gaerke was buckled in, the report says.

Polk was the husband of Cindy Polk, the father of Tara Polk Asher, and the grandfather of Calleigh Asher.

He was the owner of the Countertops Inc. business on Boyd Farris Road in Cookeville.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete as of early this morning, according to Hooper Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home.

ALGOOD — Willie Arnold Price of Algood, Tennessee, passed away Tuesday, May 12, 2020, at the age of 76. After several months of declining health, Arnold died peacefully with his beloved wife, Frances, and their children, David Price and Shannon Price-Herron, by his side.

Arnold was born in the Timothy community of Overton County, Tennessee, on Nov. 14, 1943, to father, William Bransford Price and mother, Larue Holman Price. As the youngest of three children, Arnold didn't have the opportunity for much formal education. He helped out on his family's small farm and worked any odd jobs he could find, starting at an early age. His work ethic was evident.

Through his endeavors, he purchased a property that would later become home to his wife and family. He married Frances Beatrice Curtis on Dec. 22, 1965, after running into her that summer at Echo Valley Swimming Pool. They dated briefly and were married at the Jackson County Courthouse.

Arnold enjoyed his family, field trial hounds, and Alaskan Malamutes! He was always ready to go for a ride through the country with friends and family, especially his kids. He was a great gardener, knew how to grow the best tomatoes, and was a pretty good shot with a rifle!

He had a good, but hard, life and through it all his wife, Frances, faithfully prayed him through as did his children.

Arnold was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Thomas Austin Price; and sister, Janice Marie Loftis.

He is survived by his wife, Frances; son, David Arnold Price and wife, Cindy (Palk); daughter, Shannon Leigh Price-Herron; and grandson, Morgan Bransford Herron; in addition to a host of family and dear friends.

Memorial services for Mr. Price will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday May 14, at Trinity Algood with Mike Campbell officiating. The family will receive friends Thursday from 9:30 a.m. until service time.

Honorary pallbearers will be Cotton Bilbery, Jimmy "Red" Robinson, Morgan Herron, Greg Clark, Roy Loftis and Mark Loftis.

Arnold's family would like to convey their thanks to the staff at Signature Health Care of Putnam County for the care and attention given to Arnold and his family.

Sam A. Qualls, passed peacefully from this life Thursday, October 5th at his home surrounded by family and friends. He was born on December 20th, 1932 as the middle child of seven, to Boyd and Bonnie (Benson) Qualls. He was a lifelong resident of Algood, Tennessee.

On May 21st, 1957, Sam married the love of his life, Earline Ford Qualls, and their bond remained unbreakable for an incredible 66 years. Their marriage is a testament to the enduring power of commitment and partnership. Their life together was marked by love, a commitment to the Lord, and countless shared memories.

Sam is survived by his spouse, Earline, their three children: Marsha Pauli, Kim Randolph, and Sammy Qualls, one sister, Linda Whiteaker, grand-children, Elizabeth, Matthew, Benjamin, Lindsey, Rebekah, Noel, Samantha, and Logan, and his 13 great grand-children, All of whom adored their beloved "Pappy." He was preceded in death by his parents, his two brothers: Elwin and Lynon, his three sisters: Mary Dean, Comella, and Eulene, and his beloved Grandson, Marshall.

Along with Sam's 3 kids, 9 grand-kids, and 13 great grand-kids, he was a friend and father figure to many. The family wants to thank Steve Oakley and Jerry Greer for their dedicated friendship, kindness, and compassion.

Anyone who knew Sam knew he had a love of farming. He started working on the farm at 7 years old. He raised cattle, chickens, goats, rabbits, horses, and quail. His grandchildren would always boast that he was a real life cowboy. Sam wasn't just a farmer; he was a hero who served his country in the army from 1954-1956. He was also a dedicated Christian and member of the Algood Church of Christ. However, above all, his family was his greatest joy. He loved family meals and afternoons on the front porch. He was a pillar of strength for his family and a friend to all who knew him. He leaves behind a legacy of hard work, faith, and commitment that will be cherished for generations to come.

A celebration of Sam's life with military honors will be held on Monday, October 9th at 3pm at the Algood Family Event Center. His grandsons, Ben Pauli and Matt Suggs, will serve as officiants. The pallbearers who will lovingly carry Sam to his final resting place are Steven Oakley, Jamal Henley, Bill Copeland, Jerry Greer, Eddie Locke and Tony Whiteaker.

His family will receive friends Monday from 12pm until service time.

In honor of his love of horses, in lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made in his honor to Manna's Hana Riding Center: a nonprofit organization that teaches riding skills and horse care to individuals with special needs.

Services at Algood for Miss Velnia Riley:

Funeral services for Miss Velnia Riley, 40 were conducted Monday afternoon by the Rev. Dow A. Ensor, of Cookeville, and the Rev. C. L. Kelley, pastor of Algood Methodist Church, and the rev. W. V. Jarratt, presiding elder. Burial was in Algood cemetery.

Miss Riley died at her home in Algood Sunday morning after an illness of several months.

Born in Pickett county, near Byrdsrown, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Riley, Miss Riley had made her home in Algood since she was seven years of age. She received her education under the tutelage of Mrs. John E. Epperson and Mrs. Mattie B. Northern, and attended music schools in Nashville. She taught music in Crossville, Bradenton, FL, and returned to Algood where she continued to teach until she was appointed postmistress of the Algood postoffice, which office she held for four years.

Miss Riley had been a member of the Algood Methodist Church for fifteen years, and was active in the Woman's Missionary Society, having served as district secretary at one time and superintendent of the young people's society at another. She was a member of the Cookeville Music Club.

Her passing has brought deep regret in her home town, in which she was greatly beloved, and her loss is considered irreparable.

She is survived by her widowed mother and two sisters, Mrs. T. D. Verble and Miss Ida Riley, of Algood.

Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Dorothy Dishman, mother, Rt. 6, Cookeville, TN)

Beulah Mae Roberts, age 79, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on August 26, 2023, at Bethesda Health Care Center in Cookeville. Born on May 14, 1944, in Putnam County, TN, Beulah was the daughter of the late Clay and Dortha Swallows Dishman. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Carl and Joe Dishman, and her sister, Linda Harp.

Beulah was a woman of resilience, kindness, and profound love. She was a devoted wife to her husband of 62 years, Rev. Bobby Gene Roberts, whom she married on August 12, 1961. Their enduring love story is a testament to their shared commitment and mutual respect.

Beulah was a proud and loving mother to her son, Barry (Sherry) Roberts, and her daughter, Shannon (Denny) Wallace. She cherished her role as a grandmother to Matthew (Misha) Sparkman, Sarah (Austin) Burton, Kayla (Josh) Cook, and Kendra (Kyle) Singley. The joy of her life was her great-grandchildren, Brody and Kate Sparkman, Ellie Cook, and Cash Burton. She is also survived by her sisters, Mary Ann Allen and Goldie Reeves.

For over 20 years, she served as a substitute teacher and an elementary teacher's assistant, pouring her love and dedication into every student she encountered. She was a nurturing presence in the classroom, always ready with a kind word or a helping hand.

Beulah enjoyed gardening, cooking, canning, crafting ceramics, painting, and crochet. She found joy in the simple pleasures of life and shared this joy with those around her. Her garden was a testament to her patience and dedication, while her cooking and canning skills were renowned among her family and friends. Her hand made crafts were not just beautiful objects, but expressions of her creativity and love.

Beulah's life was characterized by her loving nature and her kindness. She was a woman who loved deeply and was deeply loved in return. She faced every hurdle with grace and courage, always putting the needs of her loved ones before her own.

Funeral services honoring Beulah will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday August 29 at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. Rev. Dow Allen and Bryant Presley will officiate. Interment will follow at Algood City Cemetery. Her family will receive friends Monday from 5 - 8 p.m. and again Tuesday from 9 a.m. until service time.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. www.stjude.org

Beulah's family would like to thank the staff at Bethesda Health Care for the excellent care and attention rendered to Beulah and her family.

b. 30 November 1849 – d. 19 June 1930, md Sarah (Bennett) Selby, b. 24 January 1847- d. 8 May 1934.

Respected Citizen Passes:

L. S. Selby died at his home in Algood June 19 at the advanced age of 80 years. Mr. Selby was born in the Sequatchie Valley November 30, 1849 and lived there until he was 12 years of age, then moved to Putnam county where he lived the remainder of his life, with the exception of some few years which he spent in Chattanooga, TN, and Birmingham, AL. Mr. Selby was loved and respected by a large circle of friends as was shown by the large crowd that attended his body to its last resting place. He has been in bad health for several years but was stricken with paralysis three weeks ago.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Bilyeu and Rev. Tudor, followed by burial in Algood cemetery. He is survived by his wife, to whom he was married Jan. 14, ___ and four children; Steve Selby of Chattanooga, W. V. Selby of Birmingham, AL, Mrs. Bessie Cumbee and Mrs. Nate Cooper of Algood. All of whom were with him at his death. He is also survived by one brother, A. B. Selby of Sparta, TN.

He was always a loving husband and father and will forever be sadly missed in the home circle. He joined the Baptist church in early manhood.

Funeral services for Anna Ruth Dillon Sevier, 93 of Baton Rouge, LA will be held Wednesday, May 11, 2022 at 1 PM in the Algood Family Event Center. Bro. Doyle Crawford will officiate.

The family will receive friends Wednesday from 10 am until service time at Algood Family Event Center.

Anna Ruth passed away Thursday, May 5, 2022 at The Woodleigh of Baton Rouge.

She was born on October 30, 1928, in Rickman, Tennessee, to the late Stanton Dillon & Ethel Esther Poston Dillon.

She was a graduate of Algood High School and a proud member of the Algood community. She was a member of the Algood Church of Christ for most of her life, where she served as a Sunday school teacher for many of those years. For many years, she was a familiar face at Algood City Hall where she served as City Recorder. From there, she went on to work as a bookkeeper for the Putnam County Highway Department for almost 20 years until her retirement. Outside of work and church, she spent most of her married life following the love of her life, Johnny Sewell Sevier, to basketball, football and especially baseball games when he was coaching. She loved sports!

She is survived by her only daughter, Teena, and her "favorite son-in-law," Steve, who live in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. She also leaves her two grandsons whom she loved more than life, Tyler Sibley (Nicki), of Lakewood Ranch, Florida, and Carter Sibley (Lindy), of Apex, North Carolina. She spent countless hours following their sporting events, spoiling them and just being an amazing "mama" to her grandsons as well as all their friends. She was blessed to live long enough to see the arrival of her four great grandchildren: Knox, Andie, Colt and Reagan. She is also survived by her dear sister-in-law, Virginia Dillon, with whom she enjoyed traveling and visiting for as long as her health permitted.

In addition to her parents and husband, Johnny, she was preceded in death by all of her siblings, Carson Lee Dillon, Jewell "Julie" Dillon King, Jonnie Dillon Capps and Norman Eugene Dillon - as well as her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Jackie and Doris Sevier.

Ms. Anna was a sweet, caring, God-fearing, Christian woman who touched many lives with her kindness. She would constantly tell the doctors and nurses at the hospital that she loved them, and the nurses fought to be able to take care of her. The staff at The Woodleigh Baton Rouge adored her and treated her like family, as she never complained and always greeted them with a smile and a thank you even on her worst days.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Ancil Leon Silvey Obt.

b. 13 June 1933 – d. 24 May 2018, md Bettye (unknown) Silvey. Ancil Leon Silvey, s/o Leonard Artell Silvey (1908-1966) & Helen Lee Riggs (1913-1987), both buried in Woodhaven Memorial Gardens, Claxton, Anderson Co., TN.

On May 24, 2018, Ancil Leon Silvey departed this life to begin rejoicing in the presence of our Heavenly Father. He was born on June 13, 1933 to the late Leonard Artell Silvey and Helen Lee Riggs Silvey in Clinton, TN. He was preceded in death by his younger brothers, Terry Silvey and Gordon Silvey. He is survived by his loving wife of 57 years. He is also survived by his son and wife, his daughter and husband and two grandchildren, as well as many beloved nieces and nephews.

Mr. Silvey graduated in 1951 from Clinton High School and earned his bachelors degree from the University of Tennessee in 1955. While there, he played in the Pride of the Southland Band and was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. After graduating, he served for two years aboard the USS Everglades in the US Navy. He had a fulfilling career in the banking industry, first as a as Director and President at First Federal Savings and Loan in Oak Ridge and thereafter retiring as a Vice President with AmSouth Bank in Fayetteville.

Mr. Silvey had a lifelong love and dedication to the church, serving in many roles which included deacon, Sunday school teacher, choir member, committee member, as well as music director. His first church home was First Baptist Church in Clinton, TN which is also where he met and married the love of his life, Bettye. Mr. Silvey gave generously of his time to support his community. He served as President of the Oak Ridge and Fayetteville Rotary Clubs, President of the Oak Ridge Chamber of Commerce, and Chairman of the East TN division of the American Heart Association. He also served on the boards of many organizations. As an avid golfer, he and Bettye spent many years enjoying time on the course together and volunteering at Henry Horton State Park, upon retirement. Vacations were traditionally spent at their family favorite, Callaway Gardens.

He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and uncle. He will be missed by all who knew him. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Lincoln Medical Hospice or the Fayetteville ARP Church.

Funeral services will be conducted on Tuesday, May 29, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at the Fayetteville ARP Church with Rev. Harold Dawkins officiating. Mrs. Stites

Rosemary Tillman Stites, James Richard (Jack) Stites and his wife Mary Alice Norris Stites and Sarah Jane Stites Davidson and her husband Donnie Davidson, 11 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren: She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, brothers and sisters in Christ. Ma was a member of the Collegeseide Church of Christ and is best remembered for her simple teaching methods of loving God with all her heart soul mind and strength and her neighbors as she loved herself: whether in church, community, nursing homes or on the farm.

Ma was born on February 2, 1926 in McEwen, Tennessee to the late Wesley P. Flatt and Oma Mae Smartt Flatt. She had one sister, the late Sue Flatt Brimm and survived by her brother in law, Bill Brimm of Madison, TN and one brother, the late Wesley P. Flatt Jr. and sister in law Mary Nell Flatt.

Upon graduation from Cookeville High School, she attended Tennessee Tech, but left school, to help John with the family business. Whatever John was involved in, Ev was right there with him as a helpmate and encourager as his Godly wife. She served as a Charter Member of the Cookeville Jaycettes: The first president of the Cookeville General Hospital Candy Strippers: Serving many years as a volunteer with the Hospital. Ev taught many classes at the Church on how to become the Godly wife and mom to teenage girls and young moms and wives. Her number one priority was her faithfulness to God and how to serve others. She spent the last twenty years, going to nursing homes, shut-ins, painting fingernails and delivering her famous banana nut bread. She loved decorating the farm entrance and roadway for all the holidays and sharing her home and farm with others. She was a great example of the Proverbs 31 woman!

John Dudley Stites, long time businessman in the Upper Cumberland region and founder of J&S

Construction Company, Inc. died peacefully at his home on Saturday, August 10, 2013 at 6:11 am on the family farm, J&S Farms. He was with his wife of 68 years, Evelyne Ruth Flatt Stites and his three children and their spouses. He is survived by his wife, three children John D Stites II and wife Rosemary Tillman Stites, James Richard (Jack) Stites and his wife Mary Alice Norris Stites and Sarah Jane Stites Davidson and her husband Donald Houston (Donnie) Davidson. Mr. Stites and his wife have 11 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren. He is also survived by his nephew James E. (Jimmy) French of Franklin, Tennessee. Mr. Stites was a member of the Collegieside Church of Christ and is best remembered for his simple teaching methods: whether in church or on the farm.

John Stites was born on August 23, 1926 in Algood, Tennessee to the late Clarence Elsworth Stites and Fannie Hampton Stites. He had one sister, the late Sarah Stites French of Nashville, TN. Upon graduation from Algood High School, he served in the US Navy at Guam during World War II. Upon his honorable discharge from the service, he attended Tennessee Tech, but left school to join the family business, Builders Supply Company, in 1947, which was started by his father, Patrick Elsworth Stites and a partner, H. T. Pointer; also of Algood. While at Builders Supply Company, John Stites designed and built the first ready mix concrete plant and introduced the first ready mix concrete trucks to the area. He introduced the first cash and carry lumber yard, initially selling lumber and building materials from railroad cars, because he had not yet constructed a building to house his inventory. In 1957 Mr. Stites founded J&S Construction Company as a small residential construction firm and the enterprise has grown to be one of the largest construction firms in the Upper Cumberland region.

Mr. Stites built and managed, with his partners, the first nursing home in the Upper Cumberland area. He and his brother-in-law, Wesley Flatt Jr. built Ironwood Golf Course, the first public 18 hole golf course in Putnam County. Always the inventor, he designed a workshop at his farm, J&S Farms, where he used lumber from the family farm to construct hope chests for his great-granddaughters and steamer trunks for his great-grandsons. He also made cedar chests for his grandchildren. Ma and PaPa Stites were perhaps best known for their July 4th pig roast that began in 1962 and occurs each year on July 4th with family and friends.

John Stites gave back to the community in many ways, including being one of the founding members of the Cookeville Country Club and the Cookeville Jaycees. He was scoutmaster of Boy Scout troop #156 for over a decade and was responsible for many young men reaching the rank of Eagle, including his two sons and one grandson, Joshua Norris Stites.

Visitation with the family is scheduled for Sunday evening at the CLC of Collegieside Church of Christ, August 11 from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm and Monday afternoon, August 12th from 1:00 pm till the time of the funeral. Funeral services for John Dudley Stites will be Monday afternoon at 3:00 pm at Collegieside Church of Christ. Brother Joe Roberts, minister at Collegieside Church of Christ will be officiating at the services. Burial will be in the Algood City Cemetery immediately following the services. Pall Bearers will be the grandchildren.

Linda Ann (Jones) Thomas, d/o Charles Monroe “Charlie” Jones (1937-2024) & Bonnie Jean Howard.

*See Charles Monroe “Charlie” Jones Obt.

Linda Ann Thomas, a cherished soul known for her boundless love and kindness, passed away at the age of 53 on March 17, 2024, following a courageous battle with cancer. She departed this world at Vanderbilt University Medical Center, surrounded by the warmth of her loving family. Born on June 6, 1970, in Searcy, Arkansas, Linda's life was a testament to her unwavering spirit and her devotion to those she held dear.

Linda's journey through life was marked by her entrepreneurial spirit and her commitment to the community. As the owner of River Road Auction House, she built not just a business, but a gathering place that reflected her outgoing and caring nature. Her work was more than a career; it was an extension of her passion for bringing people together and enjoying each other's presence.

Linda was baptized early in life in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Her outgoing personality shone through in every aspect of her life, making her a beloved figure within her community and beyond.

Linda's independence and caring nature were evident in her devotion to her children. She was a beacon of love and support, always putting their needs and dreams at the forefront.

Linda is survived by a family who adored her: her husband, Shannon Thomas; her daughter, Krystal Phillips and son-in-law, Richard; her sons, Kristopher Short and James Thomas; her mother, Bonnie Jones; her brothers, Charles Jones with his wife, April, and Mark Barnett Sr. with his wife, Laurie; and her treasured grandson, Zaian Short. Each of these individuals was a precious part of Linda's world, and she leaves behind a legacy of love and caring that will forever be their guiding light.

She was preceded in death by her father, Charles Jones; her daughter, Kayla Jones; her brother, James Jones; and her sister, Bonnie Jo-an Biden. Each of them held a special place in Linda's heart, and their memories will continue to be honored through the lives of those who loved them.

The funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. on Thursday, March 21, at Cookeville Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. Friends and family are invited to pay their respects during the visitation from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Linda will be laid to rest at Algood City Cemetery.

Linda's life was a beautiful tapestry woven with threads of love and kindness. She was the embodiment of a loving and kind spirit, touching the lives of all who knew her. Her memory will be cherished, and her presence deeply missed.

COOKEVILLE — Funeral services for Dr. James T. Wall, 85, of Cookeville, will be Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 1 p.m., from the chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Interment, with military honors, will follow in Algood City Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 11 a.m. until time of services Tuesday at the funeral home.

Dr. Wall died suddenly Saturday, Nov. 17, 2018, at his home.

He was born Sunday, Sept. 10, 1933, in Putnam County to the late Wilkes Hammock and Neta Ozenia Williams Wall Sr.

He attended the Cookeville City School and Cookeville Central High School, where he played football, basketball and American Legion baseball. He was the sports editor of both the newspaper and the annual, and a member of the Beta Club.

In 1951, Dr. Wall enrolled at Tennessee Tech, where he was a member of the track, swimming, boxing and tennis teams. He was the editor of The Oracle and sports editor of The Eagle. He graduated from Tech in 1955, with a B.S. in social science and was commissioned through the R.O.T.C. program as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army Signal Corps.

After graduation, he joined the 25th Signal Battalion and was stationed in Germany, where he spent much of his time in field maneuvers and was promoted to first lieutenant. In 1957, Dr. Wall returned to the U.S. and transferred to the Army's active reserve. He enrolled in Georgetown University's Graduate School of International Relations in Washington, D.D. While there, he also worked at the national headquarters of AMVETS, then later accepted the position of legislative aide to Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. While there, his work focused on the judiciary committee and the Tennessee Valley Authority.

After leaving Senator Kefauver's staff, he worked for the Department of State, serving in South America for four years, and received a master's degree from the University of Chile. In 1965, he resumed his doctoral studies at George Washington University. He later transferred to the University of Tennessee and received his Ph.D in Latin American history in 1974.

Dr. Wall taught a variety of courses, including Latin American history, American history, and American military history at several colleges, including Northern Virginia Community College (NOVA), Georgetown University, Edinburg University in Scotland, the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and the National University in Costa Rica. In 2004, Dr. Wall was named Faculty of the Year at NOVA and was awarded the title of Emeritus Professor upon his retirement. Dr. Wall was the author of five books and dozens of articles published in academic journals.

Dr. Wall continued his service in the U.S. Army Active Reserve. He achieved the rank of full colonel in the Civil Affairs branch of the U.S. Army and served as Civilian Aide for the State of Virginia under Secretary of the Army, Clifford Alexander, during the Carter Administration. In 1990, Dr. Wall was honored with induction into the Tennessee Tech R.O.T.C. Hall of Fame.

Dr. Wall was a life-long member of the United Methodist Church, where he sang in choirs, led Sunday school classes and was a designated lay speaker. For many years, Dr. Wall participated in the United Methodist Volunteers in Mission in North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and the United States.

He was a member of the National Eagle Scout Association, the Reserve Officers Association, the Fulbright Association, and the President's Club at Tennessee Tech.

In his career, Dr. Wall lived in seven countries on three continents, and he was in 60 countries in all.

He is survived by a brother, John Wall and his long-time friend, Dora Yates of Algood; two sisters, Anita Moore of Memphis and Lula Bartholomew of Oak Ridge; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Wilkes Hammock Wall Jr.

Dr. Martin Thielen and the Rev. Rob Wheeler will officiate at the services.

William Hollis West, known affectionately as Hollis, passed away peacefully on January 9, 2024, at Livingston Regional Hospital, surrounded by his loving family. Born on November 13, 1944, in Putnam County, TN, Hollis was a cherished member of the Algood community, a devoted family man, and a friend to many.

Hollis's life was one of dedication and service, as evidenced by his long tenure with McCord-Winn in Cookeville, where he retired after 33 years of commitment. His work ethic and loyalty were only matched by his devotion to his country, having been a proud former member of the Tennessee Army National Guard.

A devout Christian, Hollis was a member of the Circle Drive Freewill Baptist Church in Algood. His love for his church community was evident in his participation and the relationships he built within it.

Hollis's greatest joy came from being a family man. He is survived by his sons, Scott (Dawn) West and Mark (Sandy) West; sister, Jewell George; brother, Ricky West; and his cherished grandchildren, Lacie West (Maurice Freeman), Abby (Jacob) Weilenman, Tyler (Cadey) West, Taylor West, Paul (Karen) Seibers, and Kaitlin Baker. *See Eva Isabelle (Williams) White Obt.

Deuel White, a cherished pillar of the Cookeville community, passed away peacefully at his home on February 20, 2024, at the age of 88. Born on May 18, 1935, in Clay County, Tennessee, Deuel's life was marked by his unwavering faith, creative spirit, and dedication to his family.

Deuel attended and graduated from the Algood High School in 1956. His passion for capturing life's moments led him to establish Deuel's Photography in Cookeville, a business he owned and operated with distinction for 47 years. His artistic eye and warm personality made him a favorite among the residents, preserving their cherished memories through his lens.

A man of deep faith, Deuel was a long-standing member of the Algood Church of Christ, where he served as an elder for many years. His commitment to his church community was a testament to his faith-filled life, and he touched the lives of many through his spiritual leadership and guidance. Deuel's involvement in his community extended beyond the church. He was a dedicated member of the Civitan Club for many years, where he contributed to various service projects and initiatives. His leadership skills shone brightly as he served as the past president of the Southeastern Photography Association, where he mentored many and helped advance the craft he so loved.

He is survived by his loving wife, Barbara Faye Bowman White, his devoted daughter, Angie Crawford and her husband Derek, his adoring granddaughter, Stacie Rothfus and her husband Jondan, and his treasured great-grandchildren, Eden, Anna, and Isaiah Rothfus. Deuel's role as a husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather was filled with love, guidance, and the creation of countless joyful memories.

An avid traveler, Deuel enjoyed the adventures he embarked on with his camper, exploring the beauty of the country with Barbara by his side. His interest in woodworking showcased his creative talents, as he crafted beautiful pieces that were both functional and artistic. Those who knew Deuel would describe him as loving and faith-filled. His presence brought light and warmth to every room, and his legacy is one of kindness, generosity, and an unwavering commitment to his loved ones and his faith. Deuel's life was a beautiful portrait of love and service, and his memory will be cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His impact on his family, friends, and community will be felt for generations to come, and his spirit will continue to inspire those who walk the paths he once did.

As we bid farewell to Deuel White, we celebrate a life well-lived, full of purpose and joy. His journey on earth may have concluded, but the memories he created and the love he shared will endure forever.

Funeral Services for Mr. White will be held at 11:00am, Thursday, February 22, 2024 at Algood Church of Christ. John Chowning and David Dalton will officiate. Interment will follow at Algood City Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, February 21, 2024 at Hooper, Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home from 4:00-8:00pm, and again on Thursday from 9:30 until time of service at Algood Church of Christ.

Kenny Bowman, Mike Bowman, Ron Brown, Adam Swallows, William Verble and Jere Whitson will serve as Pallbearers.

Deuel's family extends their appreciation to caregiver Charlene Bellis and Gentiva Hospice for their excellent care and support.

*Note: Findagrave.com: Mary Harriett (Maxwell) Willett was born on Oct 1, 1849 in the Buffalo Valley, Putnam Co, Tenn. She died on June 10, 1951 in Denver, Colo. She was the daughter of Samuel Harvey Maxwell and Jane Reagin. She was married to John Wesley Willett (he was the son of James Ashley Willett and Sophronia Emeline "Emma" Perrion). They were the parents of: Eliza J Willett Gragg, Tolitha, Sofronia, Mary, Margie, Sarah, Addie, William Nixon Willett. After her husband died in 1919 in Algood, Tenn she eventually went to live with her daughter Eliza Gragg in Green Forest, Arkansas. She lived with them on their farm until Eliza died in 1951. She was placed on a feather bed in the back of a car and taken to Springfield Mo and put on the train to Denver Colo. She stayed there until her death in June 1951. Eliza Gragg and her husband are buried in the Glenwood Cemetery in Green forest, Arkansas.

My father and mother (Parents of Christine Hale) use to go to their farm and buy apples from them. They would talk to Mary and found out that Mary's father in law, James Ashley Willett had been married to Our Great Aunt. His second wife was Nancy Melvina Douglass. She was the daughter of Jonathan Douglass and Sally (Sarah) Douglass of Spring Creek in Overton Co. Our grandfather, John S Douglass was a brother to Nancy.

LIFE OF OLDEST ALGOOD CITIZEN REFLECTS HISTORY: A. K. Williams Will Reach His 89th Birthday Tuesday. Remembers Old Poetry, By Anna Dell McReynolds.

Amos K. Williamson, better known as and called “Uncle Amos” by his many friends, is the oldest citizen of Algood. The story of his life is an interesting one and throws light on the history of the little town. He is now living in Algood, and in spite of the fact that he reaches his 89th birthday on April 28, 1931, he possesses much vitality, and an excellent memory.

(Pictured: Amos K. Williamson).

He was born near Granville, Jackson county, Tennessee, April 28, 1842. He attended a few terms of school, three months being a full term. The only subjects taught in school then were reading, writing, arithmetic, and English grammar.

He was 19 years old when the Civil War broke out. He joined the Confederate army and served in the 17th Tennessee Regiment during the entire war. He took part in several major battles, as the Battle of Murfreesboro, and the Battle of Chickamauga, besides several other battles and many skirmishes. For a little more than the last year of the war he was held as a prisoner by the Federal forces in Fort Delaware, on an island in the Delawar Bay, sixteen miles from Philadelphia.

“Uncle Amos” moved to Algood in 1891, at which time there was no town there. The only residence was the old home place of Joel Algood, for whom the town was named. Mr. Algood was the father of Henry Algood, the well known druggist of Cookeville. There was no railroad or postoffice there at that time, and the nearest postoffice was at Jeremiah.

“Uncle Amos” was a carpenter. He helped build the shed for the spoke and handle factory soon after he came here.

The first church in Algood was organized at the home of “Uncle Amos,” in 1893. This was the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

He served eight years as a member of the County Court of Putnam county, and twelve years as a Notary Public. He has served as an elder in the Presbyterian church for many years.

“Uncle Amos” has a remarkable memory. It is interesting to note that today he can recite poems that he learned when he was only nine years old. This poem, about the presidents, was written in ‘50 or ‘51, when Millard Fillmore was president of the United States. The poem follows:

THE PRESIDENTS:

First Washington, the chieftain who conquered our foe;
Then Adams, Jefferson; after Madison, Monroe;
Next Adams, the younger, late counseling the nation;
The Jackson, Van Buren filed the president’s station;
Next Harris, Tyler, Polk, and Z. Taylor all passed
And made room for M. Fillmore, who presides as the last.

When “Uncle Amos” was about 12 years old, he learned a poem entitled, “the Earth,” which today he can recite perfectly. The poem follows:

THE EARTH:

The earth, the firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky.
Was made by God’s creative power
Six thousand years ago or more.

Man too, was formed to till the ground;

Birds, beasts and fish to move around;
The fish to swim, the birds to fly,
And all to praise the Lord most high.

This world is round, wise men declare,
And hung on nothing in the air
The moon around the earth doth run,
The earth and moon around the sun.

The earth moves on its center, too,
As wheels on toys and pulleys do.
Vast mountains rear their lofty heads,
Rivers roll down their sandy beds.

Wide lakes expand among the trees,
Great islands rise above the sea.
Peninsulas and capes project,
Straits, channels, isthmuses connect.
While all in harmony combine to praise
Almighty Power divine.

“Uncle Amos’s” memory is remarkable, at the age of 89. And his health is good. Every day he goes to town, and never misses going to church on Sunday. He should live many years yet, and enjoy life in the little city of Algood, which he has lived to see grow from one house to a population of eight hundred.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 23 April 1931.

Amos K. Williamson of Algood Dies -- Putnam county's last surviving Confederate soldier, Esq. Amos K. Williamson, 97, died on last Friday at his home in Algood. He was born and reared in Granville community and belonged to one of the well known pioneer families of Jackson county until forty-five years ago, when he moved to the then new town of Algood, where he continued to reside until his death. During the active years of his life Esq. Williamson was a farmer and carpenter. He was a man of splendid intelligence and was a Christian gentleman who enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. He served throughout the Civil War in the Confederate Army, being a soldier in Col. Sidney S. Stanton's regiment. He was a Confederate pensioner. He was twice married, but survived both his wives. He had no children. He formerly served, for several years, as a Justice of the Peace of the 19th district and was a useful and influential member of the County court. In his boyhood, he united with the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Granville, and was one of the charter members of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Algood. For the past thirty years he had been a member of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. He had served for more than fifty years as an Elder and at the time of his death, was probably the oldest Presbyterian Elder in Tennessee. Esq. William was no doubt, the oldest person in this county, a man of unquestioned honey and integrity, his influence was always exerted for the right, as he saw it, and he did well his part in life, and died "full of years and of honor."

Mrs. Williamson Dies - Mrs. A. K. Williamson, 78, died at a Nashville hospital, Sunday morning, July 13th, of heart trouble. Mrs. Williamson, better known by her many devoted friends as Aunt Sarah, had been in the hospital for the past two weeks. She had lived in Algood for many years and was endeared to the hearts of many. She was a devout Christian and had been for many years a member of the church.

She is survived by her husband, Amos K. Williamson, a sister, Mrs. Addie Bohannon, a half-brother, Doc Bilbrey, of Rickman, and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church here by pastor, Rev. S. M. Keathley, and burial took place in the Algood cemetery. The quantities of lovely flowers showed that she had many friends. Aunt Sarah was a friend to all and will be greatly missed. Among those who came from out-of-town to attend the funeral of Mrs. Williamson were: Mr. and Mrs. Hansford Maynard and Mr. and Mrs. Gallent Anderson, of Cookeville, Route 1; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Julian and daughter, Janette of Crossville; Mr. and Mrs. George Gentry, Mrs. Jonathan Rash, Mrs. Albert Matheny, Mrs. John Cornwell, of Cookeville; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Ferguson and family, of Overton county; Mr. and Mrs. Sid Willett, of Brotherton, Route 1; Mr. and Mrs. Doc Bilbrey and family, Sam Willett, Mrs. Laura Stafford and Mrs. John Matthews, of Rickman; Mr. and Mrs. Felix Bilbrey, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Deck and Mrs. Mac White, of Livingston.

ALGOOD -- Graveside services, with military honors, for Robert Lee Wright, 89, of Cleveland, formerly of Cookeville, will be held at 12:15 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 10, at Algood Cemetery. He will be laid to rest along side five generations of his family.

The family will receive friends from 11 a.m. until noon on Saturday at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Homes and Cremation Services.

Mr. Wright died Tuesday, Jan. 6, 2009, at his home.

He was educated in the public schools of Cookeville and studied engineering at Tennessee Tech. During World War II he was a flight instructor for the Army Air Force and was employed as a pilot for Chicago Southern Airlines. He was a veteran of World War II having served in the Pacific in the 6th Army and later as an engineering officer in the 8th Army during the occupation of Japan. He retired from Active Army Reserve in 1965 as a Lt. Colonel.

After World War II, he earned a LLB from Vanderbilt University College of Law and worked for several federal agencies including the Corps of Engineers. In 1956, he joined the legal department at Bowater Southern Paper Corporation. In 1970, he became general counsel and corporate secretary. He served on the board of directors of Bowater and several affiliated companies. After his retirement in 1986, he established a limited practice of law in Cleveland. He was a member of the American, Tennessee and Bradley County Bar Associations and was a former president of the local organization. He served on the advisory boards of Liberty Mutual Life Insurance Company, the Bowater Employees Credit Union and the Stonecastle Property Association.

Mr. Wright attended Broad Street Methodist Church and was a member of the Kelly Class. Other affiliations included the Elks Club, the VFW, the American Legion and the Military Officer's Association. He was a charter member of the Walden Club and a longtime member of the Cleveland Country Club, where he was an avid golfer.

His family includes a daughter, Martha Shanks Dorflinger of Knoxville; a son-in-law, John Dorflinger Jr. of Knoxville; and a grandson, John Dorflinger III of Knoxville.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Denny and Bessie Phy Wright; his beloved wife of 49 years, Lucille Hawkins Shanks Wright; and a brother, Hershel Wright.

Dr. Charles McCaskey will officiate at the services.
