Thank you for enriching her life by being her friend. She loved each of you and we love you too. The Austin family.

He was a marksman, avid computer gamer, as well as a humanitarian. His selfless disposition provoked him to choose to be an organ donor to save many lives, which he has already done since his passing and is thus a hero.

Tyler was preceded in death by his great-grandparents Ray and Reba Austin of Sparta. He left behind so many who cared for him including his mother, Myra Shipley, of Cookeville, his grandparents, Bruce and Linda Moorehead of Sparta, Tennessee, as well as Dennis Cunningham of Cookeville, great grandmother Juanita (Dita) Moorehead, and uncles, Micah Moorehead of Cookeville, and Matthew Moorehead of Sparta. He left behind numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and other friends and relatives.

Tyler made the decision to be saved and baptized on Feb.5, 2005 at Bear Cove Baptist Church. He is now with Jesus and his Great-Grandpa and Grandma Austin in heaven.

Tyler will be truly missed, but we can take comfort in knowing that he is with Jesus in all his glory, where no tear is ever shed. Until we meet again.

James Kenneth Smith Obt.

b. 2 August 1948, New Castle, Henry Co., IN – d. 17 October 2010, Rushville, Rush Co., IN, md on the 8th of August 1970, New Castle, IN to Glenda Faye (Sink) Smith. James Kenneth Smith, s/o Raymond L. Smith (1920-2012) & Mary Elizabeth Shelley (1922-2013), both buried in South Mound Cemetery, New Castle, Henry Co., IN

James Kenneth Smith was born on Aug. 2, 1948 in New Castle, Henry County, IN. His parents are Raymond and Mary (Shelley) Smith who still live in New Castle at the age of 90 and 88.

Jim died on Oct. 17, 2010, at the Rush Memorial Hospital ER of an abdominal aortic aneurysm. He was married to Glenda Faye (Sink) Smith on Aug. 8, 1970 in New Castle, IN and she was with him to the end. The staff of Dr. White, Carrie, Sheila, Jan and others were wonderful and very caring and compassionate and will undoubtedly get their reward in heaven.

Jim and Glenda had no children. Just some special dogs through the years that Jim treated as kids. Jennie was our first followed by PJ, Sasha, Rags and currently Gidget and Scooter are keeping Glenda company.

Jim worked at the Chrysler plant in New Castle through his college years as that paid for college. He graduated with a BA from Ball State University in Muncie, IN in 1970. He worked in Montpelier, IN at Sheller-Globe until he decided to go to law school. He graduated from the IUPUI Law School in Indianapolis in 1976. He worked at the Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council in Indy throughout law school and years later went back and ended his career there in Sept. 2010. He had been retired for one month. He was associated with Keaton & Keaton and Hughes & Young law firms in Rush County. He served as the Rush County Public Defender and the County Attorney for the commissioners and the council.

Jim is survived by Glenda, his wife of 40 years; his parents, Raymond and Mary; two sisters, Emily Jean Blackburn of New Castle and Mary Louise Smith of Anderson; one niece and four nephews--Kelly Fredrickson of Fort Wayne; David Lambert of Anderson; Scott, Ryan and Michael Blackburn of New Castle/Henry County, He is also survived by David, Ryan and Michael's children: Aaron Lambert; Taylor and Alexis Blackburn and Ashley, Aiden and Madison Blackburn.

Jim enjoyed reading especially about the Civil War era and pharonic Egypt; history in general and he did do some of Glenda's favorite pastime--travel. He cruised to the southern Caribbean; traveled to Tahiti and the Cook Islands as well as Hawaii. His favorite spot was Bora Bora in Tahiti and he had a picture in his office for years and now it is at home.

Jim was a quiet man with a sense of humor and rarely got angry but did worry about everything. I'm sure he was many things to different people, but to me - he was a smart, funny guy that I loved for a lot of years and will miss tremendously.
