After Sara was widowed she resided with her son Mack and his wife Willie at the farm near Hilham. She would spend eight years bedridden while Willie tended to her care. Her son Bartholomew was on his own and a drifter but would return to Mack's farm for a random stay. The cemetery on the property up the dirt drive is more than likely where she is buried though some sites aren't marked with headstones as there wouldn't have been finances to cover the cost.
