Hugh Carlen was a deputy sheriff who was killed in the line of duty. From the Feb 29, 1912 Putnam County Herald newspaper.

CARLEN, HUGH: Hugh Carlen Killed -- Last Thursday night Deputy Sheriff Hugh Carlen was killed in an affray at Silver Point. George and Lon Murdock were arrested for the murder. It appears that Carlen had an execution against George Murdock and meeting him in the store of Walter Jones asked George to pay the balance due on the execution. Some words followed and witnesses say the Murdock boys attacked Carlen with knives, while Carlen drew his pistol and tried to strike Murdock with it, but dropped it on the floor. He then grabbed George Murdock and they fell to the floor, out of sight of witnesses, behind a counter. In the scuffle the pistol was shot once and Carlen fell with a bullet through the bowels. He was taken to his home and lived until early Saturday morning. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. Mr. Carlen leaves a wife and six children. He had been a deputy sheriff for several years and had the reputation of being a good officer. The Murdock brothers were arrested by Sheriff A. L. Weeks and given a hearing on Monday before Esq. J. R. Douglass, who bound them over on bond of $5,000 each which has not been made as yet.
