MAUSOLEUM SOMETHING NEW FOR COOKEVILLE:

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: 1952

It has just been announced that final arrangements have been completed for the building of a community mausoleum in the City Cemetery here in Cookeville. Mausoleums are imposing structures built for the burial of people after death. They are constructed in such a manner as to enable burial to be made away from dirt and water, and protected by stone, steel and concrete. This has long been the method of burial among nobility, families of wealth and for national heroes such as Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, Washington, McKinley and others in our own country.

This mode of entombment has been in use for thousands of years, since the construction of the Pyramids of Egypt, which are mausoleums for the burial of kings.

Until recently the cost of this type of entombment has been of such expense that it was far beyond the reach of the average man or woman; but now when operated upon a community basis where many desire space therein it gives the protection of a private mausoleum at a cost of less than ground burial. Space for two in a mausoleum such as this is not, in most cases, as high as the cost of an average sized tombstone which is placed on a grave lot.

While mausoleums are not prominent in this immediate section of the country, they are being built in other sections of the United States and Canada, and will in time traverse the nation as a whole.

The project will lend beauty to the City Cemetery, as well as give protection to those who are placed therein.

Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 3 July 2014

Sgt. Jerry Dale Abston

COOKEVILLE — Every day for the past couple of weeks, a steady stream of police officers made their way to Cookeville Regional Medical Center where one of their own lay dying.

They came to say their goodbyes to Putnam Sheriff's Detective Sgt. Jerry Dale Abston, who was losing the brave battle he had fought against cancer for the past year or so. They were not alone, as countless other friends of the Abston family also came to visit this man who always greeted everyone with a big smile, a booming laugh, and often a funny story or two. Even in his illness, he maintained that sunny attitude.

The son of former Sheriff Jerry Abston, he was born June 11, 1965, and grew up in and around the justice system here and made it his own career at a young age, beginning as a dispatcher and working his way up to the position of detective.

He had lost one kidney to cancer when he was just 14 and then lost the other to the same disease last year at the age of 48. But he approached this hardship just as he did all of life, with a smile, a determination to keep working, and the statement that he was “too blessed to be depressed.”

With wife Kim and daughter Morgan by his side, along with his parents, Jerry Abston and Lois Bertram, as well as his parents-in-law, Eddie and Linda Thompson, and his many friends, he took it all in stride and went back to his normal life and work. His medical treatment included dialysis, a mechanical procedure that replaces some of the function of the kidneys. And though there would be a long wait to get on a list, he also had the hope of someday getting a life-saving kidney transplant.

But recently, his condition worsened and he had to be hospitalized, and before long, he and his family knew it was just a matter of a short time. Still, he smiled, gave that big-hearted laugh, and greeted everyone who came to visit with his trademark upbeat attitude.

Yesterday, with the family by his side, he died peacefully, leaving a legacy of good memories for his loved ones and all who knew him. One friend said, “This whole community is now in mourning.”

Sheriff David Andrews said, “Jerry Dale dedicated his life to law enforcement. He loved life and always tried to have fun, but he also knew when to be serious. He was like a little brother to me years ago. I met him when he was eight years old when his dad was sheriff, and he just grew up in this business. One thing I know about him as an adult is that he loved being a daddy to his daughter, and was so proud of her. He was a good guy, and we’re going to miss him.”

“He was loved by everybody,” said Sheriff’s Detective Lt. Bob Crabtree. “He was a great guy and he knew everybody. He loved talking to people. It just won’t be the same not seeing him here at work every day.”

Cookeville Police Chief Randy Evans said, “He was an extremely well respected member of the law enforcement community. He had a great ability to bring people together, even in his illness and passing. The outpouring of love and concern for him has been so great. We have lost a brother, and he will be missed.”

His last brave battle and his gracious demeanor were noted by many of his friends who described their last visits with him or their memories of his friendship on their Facebook pages.

“He was fun-loving, intelligent, truthful, and kind, and he had a smile and a good word for everyone he met,” said Carolyn Hawkins, his 9th grade English teacher.

“He was as nice a kid as you’d ever want to meet, and back then, he was always surrounded by girls,” said Hal Denton, who taught him in 8th grade.

Herald-Citizen photographer Ty Kernea recalled once being at the scene of a suicide case that Detective Abston was working.

“The guy shot himself right in front of Jerry Dale even as Jerry Dale was trying to talk him out of it,” Kernea said. “And I just remember how professional and compassionate he was in that situation.”

Tennessee Tech athletic coach Frank Harrell wrote this tribute to Abston: “You fought a great fight and lived your life in such a way that you earned the respect, admiration and love of so many people.”

Funeral services will be held Friday, July 4, 2014, at 1 p.m. at Poplar Grove Baptist Church on Poplar Grove Road.

The family will receive friends at the church today, Thursday, July 3, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. and on Friday from 7 a.m. until time for the services.

Burial will be at Cookeville City Cemetery.

Interment will follow in Cookeville City Cemetery.

The family will receive friends Friday 5:00pm to 8:00pm at Presley Funeral Home and Saturday 10:00am until service time at First Baptist.

Mr. Adams died on Monday, April 17th, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

He was born on Friday, December 6, 1929, in Lebanon, TN, to the late William V. and Elizabeth (Kemper) Adams.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his loving wife of 63 years, Joyce Adams, and his brother, Tommy Adams.

Bill met Joyce, a Cookeville native, while attending Tennessee Polytechnic Institute (now known as TTU). He left college to join the U.S. Air Force, but could not forget that pretty red-haired girl who lived on Cedar Street. He asked his life-long best buddy, Wayne “Bubby” Hodges, to check in on her. When Bubby reported back she could not forget Bill either, Bill took leave before reporting to his new assignment in France and married Joyce in December 1953. The couple made their first home in Chaumont, France, where Bill served his country proudly as a mechanic in the 494th Fighter Bomber Squadron. Following his service, Staff Sergeant (SSgt) Adams and his wife moved to Knoxville, TN, where Bill received his degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. After Bill’s graduation, they moved with the first of their children to Wichita, Kansas. They relocated back to Cookeville when Bill accepted a position with Bowser Briggs and later Keene Corporation. When Keene closed the facility in Cookeville, Bill and a partner began a manufacturing business, GIL Incorporated. Bill and Joyce raised their children on a beautiful farm in the Popular Grove Community in Putnam County where Bill lived out his dream of farming instilled in him by his grandfather Kemper.

Bill retells the story of visiting his Grandpa Kemper in West Virginia every summer, and how Bill could hear Grandpa Kemper praying fervently every evening for his grandchildren. This made a lasting impression on Bill who was a faithful Christian all his life. Bill was member of the Baptist faith; and at the time of his death, a member of Cookeville First Baptist Church. Bill truly loved the Lord with all his heart.

He was a wonderful example of living out your faith daily with all those who you come in contact. He was a generous, loving, and funny man and will be missed by all those who knew him.

His survivors include: two sons, Tim (Faith) Adams of Baxter and Daniel (Robbi) Adams of Cookeville; daughter, Elana (Steven) Thornton of Cookeville; eight grandchildren Paul Adams, Joanna (Daniel) Meadows, Mark (Morgan) Adams, Joshua (Sasha) Thornton, Amanda (Jonathan) Pryor, Luke Thornton, Jacob Adams, and Jesse Thornton; two great-grandchildren Cole Meadows and Caitlyn Adams; sister-in-law, Maureen Adams; niece, Heather Adams; two nephews, Mike and Eric Adams.

Pallbearers will be his grandsons.

Mrs. Lee K. Adcock Answers Last Call: Former Cookeville Teacher Succumbs At Nashville Hospital:

The entire community was saddened and grieved when news of the death of Mrs. Lee K. Adcock, at a Nashville hospital came to friends in Cookeville last Thursday, at the age of 68. She had entered the hospital for an operation only a few days before, optimistic of an early recovery and return to her home in West Palm Beach, FL. The remains were brought to her old home, Cookeville, where a very impressive and solemn funeral service was conducted at the Church of Christ on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. by Elders O. H. Tallman, J. Pettay Ezell, and J. D. Gunn, the latter a friend of the family during the time they lived in Sparta. The floral emblems were profuse and told in a mute way of the love and esteem in which Mrs. Adcock was held. The remains were laid to rest in that silent city of the dead, the beautiful Cookeville cemetery, there to await the resurrection of those “whose works do follow after them.”

Besides her husband, B. G. Adcock, she is survived by the following children: M. K. Adcock of West Palm Beach; Mrs. David C. Lee of Nashville; Mrs. W. L. Weir of Oklahoma City; Mrs. Thurman Whitson and Mrs. R. L. Maddux of Cookeville; and five sisters, Mrs. M. B. Payne and Mrs. L. H. Montgomery of Nashville; and Misses Nan and Lummie Kendrick of West Palm Beach.

Lee Kendrick Adcock was born in Roane county, and early in youth chose teaching as her life’s work. She had been a member of the faculty of the Sparta city schools, but her greatest work was as a teacher for twenty years or more, in the Cookeville city schools, where hundreds, now grown are proud of the fact that they were her pupils, and many are glad to count her as the moulder and developer of their lives and character to their children. She had a natural capacity to train children, as is best shown by the four splended daughters and one son left to revere her memory. She did not confine her teaching to mere text books, but exerted a wonderful influence for good on the lives of all with whom she came in contact, and her voice was always on the side of sober, righteous living.

She found time, in connection with her busy life as a teacher, to take an active part in the movement for temperance, as a member of the W.C.T.U., and organized the first Parent-Teacher chapter in Cookeville, retaining her interest in it until she moved to Florida some years ago. Her greatest devotion, however, was shown in her zeal for the church, of which she had been a consecrated member from the age of 14. Loving others as she did, it is no wonder that she was beloved by all, and her going away will leave an empty place that none can fill. Her faith in the promises of her Master was sublime, and in truth she could well say “The Lord is My Shepherd.”

It is a grand thing, to live a life of unselfish service and devotion to family, friends and even the world, like that of Lee K. Adcock. It is a consolation beyond expression that those of her family circle left behind may have in the knowledge that her life has been well spent, and they may in all sincerity exclaim, as did the prophet of old, "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Sad, yes, but it is a pleasure to be able to say a final tribute of love and respect to so great and so good a woman.

(Source: Cookeville City Cemetery Walk presented by The Cookeville Museum, Sept. 2012):

Mary Lee Kendrick Adcock was born February 2, 1863, in Roane County, Tennessee. Early in her youth, she realized that she wanted to be a school teacher. Her teaching career started as a member of the faculty of the Sparta, Tennessee city schools. Her greatest work as a teacher was in the Cookeville city schools, where she taught for over twenty years. She had a natural capacity to train children. Former students were proud to count her as a mold and developer of their young lives. "Lee" married Beauregard G. Adcock. Beauregard was a lawyer who was a member of the State Senate from the Ninth Senatorial District for one term. After moving from Smithville, he and Lee lived in Sparta for a number of years where he practiced law and she taught school. In 1905, the Adcocks moved to Cookeville. Lee continued her school teaching but did not confine her teaching to just text books. Her voice not only spoke of reading, writing and arithmetic, but also of sober and righteous living. Her life was a busy one and in addition to her classroom activities she took an active part in the temperance movement, was an active church member, and organized the first Parent/Teacher Chapter in Cookeville. Mrs. Adcock died March 26, 1931, leaving behind her husband and five children. Researchers: Linda Henderson and Pamela Philpot. Script: Museum staff. Actress: Virginia Lovellette.

(Note: Mrs. David Campbell (Tula) Lee, 72, died Sunday night at the Cookeville General Hospital following a brief illness. Saturday she suffered a coronary thrombosis attack at her apartment 259 E. 10th Street, which resulted in her death. (Tula A. Mrs. Lee, prominently connected throughout Middle Tennessee, was the former Tula Adcock, daughter of the late B. G. and Mary Lee Kendrick Adcock, and widow of David C. Lee, a native of Carthage, TN, whose death occurred in Washington in on the 19th of September, 194.

Funerals services for Mrs. Lee were Monday in the chapel of Whitson Funeral Home with Thomas Cook, minister of the Collegeside Church of Christ, of which Mrs. Lee was a member, officiating. The body was taken to Washington D. C. where interment will be Wednesday in Arlington National Cemetery, beside her husband.

A native of DeKalb County, she spent her childhood in Sparta and later with her parents came to Cookeville to live. She received her education here, Lebanon and Nashville and prior to her marriage was a home economics teacher. She had been a resident of Washington and Nashville and in the latter city held a position with the Veterans' Administration until her retirement, four years ago, when she returned to Cookeville where again she resumed her social, cultural and religious activities of former years.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Pearson Brown, two grandchildren, Marcia and David Brown, all of Washington; three sisters, Mrs. Lee Weir, Oklahoma City, OK, her twin, Mrs. Thurman Whitson, Mrs. Bob Lee Maddux, both of Cookeville; two nieces, Mrs. Lenis Dunlap, Chico, CA, Miss Jean Whitson; two nephews, Jere Whitson, David Maddux, all of Cookeville.

Henry Algood Dies Here Sunday After Lingerin Illness – Beloved Cookeville Citizen, Active Church Worker, Druggist, Passes – Service Held Monday.

Funeral services for Henry Algood, 74, who died at his home here Sunday night after a protracted illness, were conducted at the Methodist Church Monday afternoon by the Rev. Dow A. Ensor, the Rev. H. M. Jarvis, and the Rev. H. W. Seay. Burial took place in the City Cemetery.

Mr. Algood's death, although not unexpected, was a shock to his hundreds of friends in Cookeville who had seen him slowly recuperate from a slight stroke of paralysis last year, following which he retired from the drug business. Henry Algood operated a drug store on the Square for fifty years, and was one of the city's most prominent citizens.

He was born April 13, 1860, the son of Joel and Julia Patterson Algood, near the present town of Algood, Tenn., the town getting its name from the family. Henry Algood was married to Miss Frances Crutcher on October 15, 1882, and she survives him.

The Algoods moved to Cookeville about 1864 or 1865, and Henry joined the Methodist Church here when he was about seven years of age. He had been a faithful member of the church to the day of his death, and had taken an active part in church work. He served as treasurer of the Sunday school and church for about half a century.

Kindly Nature:

The church was presented with a plaque this year commemorating the service and work of Henry Algood, and he was honored at a meeting of the Wesley Brotherhood early this year. Judge O. K. Holladay, a lifelong friend of Dr. Algood, said of him at that time: “the wonderful traits of character possessed by Henry Algood and practiced by him in his daily life have benefited all those with whom he has come in contact. His truthfulness, honesty, and fair dealings have never been questioned...” His character was thus known wherever he was known.

He was a Mason and for many years was secretary of the local lodge.

His drug store was first opened in a frame building on the square, and later a brick structure was built which housed his business, on the same spot.

Active pallbearers at the funeral were Judge O. K. Holladay, Frank Collier, R. M. Greenwood, O. D. Massa, Charlie Stanton, Dr. Lex Dyer, E. H. Boyd, C. S. Jenkins, and Byrd Hudgens.

Honorary pallbearers were Dave Wilhite, Mackie Shanks, Marchbanks, Sid Shaw, T. D. Ford, John B. Dow, J. W. Richardson, John Bryan, Kenneth Sidwell, Ezra Davis, Morgan Davis, Walter Whitson, Dr. Henry Martin, Waldo Bryant, Bob Lee Maddux, Brice Wright, Dr. W. A. Howard, Paul Dietz, John Mitchell, Zeb Barnes, Eugene Jared, Sam Holleman, Walter McClain.

Services are set for later this week for Fannie Algood, widow of Dr. Henry Algood, who was Cookeville's druggist for 50 years before his death a year ago.

Mrs. Algood, a lifelong Cookevillian, died of a heart attack while visiting a sister in Atlanta. Her body is being returned by train today for burial here.

A bronze plaque bearing her name and that of her late husband was placed last year in front of Cookeville Methodist Church, honoring them for their long service to the congregation.

Accident Fatal To Bobby D. Ament, 14:

Bobby Ament, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ament, of Church Street, was killed Friday afternoon about 6:30 when the motor bike which he was riding ran into the side of an automobile driven by Thurman Bean at the intersection of Willow and Sixth Streets. The only charge placed against Bean was that of driving without a license.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church, of which he was a member, having been converted some five years ago, conducted by the Rev. N. Ramsey.

The beautiful floral gifts and one of the largest crowds ever to attend a funeral in Cookeville, attested the place Bobby had won in the hearts not only of his schoolmates, but of the entire town, with his friendly smile and disposition.

A member of the eighth grad graduating class of CitySchool, his chair was left vacant and draped in white at the commencement program, Tuesday evening. The grief-stricken class attended the funeral in a group, as honorary pallbearers. Active pallbearers were: Harold McReynolds, Charles Stout, Bobby Hunter, Don Rogers, Robert Powell Carver, Harold Dale, Ray Dale, Terry Ament, Louis Billingsley, and Manson Henderson.

Besides his parents he is survived by a brother, James Walter Ament; two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Garner and Carolyn Ament, all of Cookeville. Another brother Floyd Warren Ament, died in June 1947.

Burial was in City Cemetery.

Sallie J. Apple Obt.

b. 3 February 1877 – d. 25 March 1907, d/o Rev. William & Martha Apple.

APPLE, SALLIE: The community was shocked last Monday when word reached here from Nashville that Miss Sallie Apple was dead, and with hushed voice the sad news was given from neighbor to neighbor. Miss Apple had gone to Nashville several weeks ago, and was taken sick. About a week ago she began to improve, and it was supposed that in a short time she would be again in her usual health. Such was not to be, however, for on Monday her condition suddenly changed for the worse, and in a few hours, her pure spirit took its flight to God. Her remains were brought to this city on the Monday night shopping train and the funeral was held from the family residence on Tuesday afternoon, the services being conducted by Elder Jesse Walling, burial being at the City Cemetery. The funeral was perhaps the most largely attended in the history of the town. Miss Apple had been in charge of the millinery department at Whitson Bros, for several years and was an accomplished milliner and successful business woman. She was a truly popular young woman, possessing to an unusual degree all those feminine graces and charms men adore and women love. Hers was a most lovable character, and in consequence her friends were legion. Cookeville had lost one of its most gracious and charming daughters. She was a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William (Martha) Apple of this city, who with several sisters and one brother, W. H. Apple of Nashville, survive her. To the bereaved family the Herald extends the heartfelt (sic) sympathy of our entire population in their hour of great sorrow. APPLE -- At the home of her sister, Mrs. W. L. Lewis, in Nashville, Tenn., on Monday, March 25, 1907, Miss Sallie Apple, aged 29 years. Jesse Arnold (1847-1912) was born at Hilham on February 4, 1847. He was a son of Capt. Jesse Arnold and wife, Letitia Ann Burton Arnold. He was born on the day of this father's death. His father was a native of Rhode Island who for several years owned an American merchantmen of which he was the commander, his ship making regular voyages between Newport, RI, and Liverpool, England. When the War of 1812 came on, in which the American Navy won such brilliant laurels, he tendered his ship to the U. S. Government and entered the service as the Captain of a privateer, which he commanded until peace was established. After the close of that war, he studied medicine and qualified himself as a physician. In his youth, he had been a pupil of Moses Fisk of Dartmouth College, and he was one of the New Englanders who were induced by Moses Fisk to locate at Hilham.

In 1817, he formed a partnership in the mercantile business with William Burton, a son-in-law of Major William Quarles, at White Plains, and he subsequently married Letitia Burton, a daughter of his partner William Burton. In the meantime he purchased a farm at Hilham, whither he was attracted by the prominent New England people who had been influenced by Mose Fisk to locate there. After his marriage he moved to Hilham, and continued the mercantile business there, and also engaged in the practice of medicine, until his death in 1847. Capt. Arnold had two daughters, Ova, who married Dr. J. M. Goodpasture, and Avo, who married James M. Douglas. Both Dr. Goodpasture and James M. Rev. John Thomas Aulds Obt.

b. 3 April 1939, Downsville, Union Parish, LA – d. 14 December 2020, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, md on the 17th of June 1961, Dallas, TX to Loralee (Stolebarger) Aulds. Rev. John Thomas Aulds, s/o Ellis E. Aulds (1901-1978) & Josei E. Noble (1899-1987), both buried in Aulds Chapel Cemetery, Ouachita Parish, LA.

(Source: Texas State Marriage records (1837-1965), Dallas Co., Dallas, TX, pg. 342, #182939 – John Thomas Aulds md 17 June 1961, Dallas, TX to Miss Lorell Stolebarger).

Mr. Aulds died on Monday evening, Dec. 14, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center after being sick for a month and a more intense struggle over the past week's stay in CRMC.

He was born April 3, 1939 in Downsville, Louisiana to the late Ellis Aulds and Josie Noble Aulds. He was the youngest of 5 children born into a close, much respected, and loved family in the Eureka community.

John accepted Jesus as his Savior at an early age and answered God's call to pastor, going on to Dallas Bible Institute to study and prepare for the pastorate. While there, he met a lady who became his wife and partner in ministry. He married Loralee Stolebarger on June 17, 1961. He pastored his first church in Lincoln, Kansas. In 1965, he and his small family moved to Georgia to pastor Friendship Congregational Christian Church, beginning a lifelong time of ministry within the South Georgia Association of Congregational Christian Churches, a group of independent Congregational Christian churches spread out across rural Georgia. During his span of ministry for 50 years or more, he pastored Hebron Congregational Christian Church in Thomaston, Georgia, Sardis Congregational Christian Church in Oxford, Georgia, First Congregational Christian Church in Douglas, Georgia, and Pleasant Hill Congregational Christian Church in Roberta, Georgia. Having grown up attending a vibrant church camp in Louisiana, John had a vision for establishing a camp ministry in Georgia for the South Georgia Association of Congregational Christian Churches. The first camp was held in 1965 or 1966, beginning a ministry that continues to this day. In 1974, the first camp was held on their own campground, Camp Eunice, in Roberta, Georgia. John was honored to be director of this camping program for around 40 years, under the leadership of a board of directors. Countless lives have been impacted for eternity by God's work through this camp ministry.

In 2016, John and Loralee moved to Cookeville, Tennessee, after a brief period of time in Alabama, where they helped to care for their youngest daughter and family during her illness. They moved to Cookeville to be near their daughters and families. They were a part of Poplar Grove Baptist Church and John loved going to the church services there as long as he was able to do so.

John was a loving and kind man, who loved his family and the people who God brought across his path in life. He loved sharing the gospel, expository preaching, and will forever be remembered by his encouragement to pray, pray, pray. He had a great sense of humor, with which he made people feel at ease in his presence. He was a good leader who often brought people who were at odds to a place they could work together in the service of Christ. He was a servant leader who was willing to do the most menial of tasks, because they needed to be done, and in doing so, he could serve others.

A. P. Barnes Dies After Paralytic Stroke Thursday: Prominent Cookeville Citizen Passed Monday; Was One of First Merchants: Funeral Held Tuesday:

Suffering a siege of ill health which was climaxed last Thursday by a paralytic stroke, A. P. Barnes, 73, died at his home here early Monday afternoon.

Widely known throughout the Upper Cumberland section as "Aleck", Mr. Barnes was one of Cookeville's most prominent citizens and civic leaders. Born at Jeremiah, in Overton County, he entered the mercantile business there when a young man with Jere Whitson, and later moved to Cookeville where he owned and operated a dry goods store on the square for about 18 years.

Mr. Barnes was secretary of the Putnam county fair for about 30 years and was connected with the agricultural growth of the county, being an authority on stock-raising and through his fair creating an intense interest in farm life.

A gentleman of the old school, he was respected as a man noted for his kindness to children, his deference to women, and a subtle sense of fair play with his fellow man. The least that could be said of him was that he took life in earnest, and commanded the love and respect of all with whom he came in contact.

Mr. Barnes was mayor of Cookeville for three terms, during which time he was instrumental in the erection of the hydro-electric power plant at Burgess Falls, and the new high school and grammar school building. He was awarded a silver loving cup by the Lions Club in 1923 for doing the greatest service to Cookeville that year.

Mr. Barnes was almost a lifelong member of the Church of Christ, to which he was characteristically loyal and faithful until his death.

He was married in 1886 to Miss Fannie Terry, and to this union was born four children, two boys, James E., and Jere B.; two girls, Mrs. John Mitchell, and Mrs. Charles Darwin, all of whom survive him. Jere B., who has made his home in Electra, TX, came to be at his father's bedside Monday, too late to see him before death. He is also survived by a brother, Jere Burr Barnes, who is critically ill at his home on Cedar Street.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Christian church by Elder J. Petty Ezell, of Murfreesboro, assisted by Dr. O. H. Tallman and Rev. W. M. Oakely. Burial was in the city cemetery.

Source: A History of Putnam County Tennessee by Walter S. McClain, pg. 149: Alexander Pleas Barnes, born near Cookeville, about sixty years ago. Attended public school at Cookeville, Married Miss Fannie Terry in 1886. Mayor of Cookeville from 1921-23. During his term of office as Mayor, he built a new light plant, new school building and made many other improvements. Mr. Barnes is a Democrat, a member of the Church of Christ and a member the Lion's Club.

Mayor A. P. Barnes:

Mayor Barnes is one of Cookeville's most substantial progressive and far sighted citizens. He was born within one mile of the corporate limits of our city and has and is interested in business that are a success.

When a man lives in a territory his entire life and achieves splendid success, it must be noted that he has clear vision and fine business and acumen. He has been prominent in the growth and development of Cookeville for many years. He is a practical business man and his splendid capacity and efficiency has been brought to the service of the city with that same sense of thoroughness which characterizes his entire life.

He has been mayor for the past 15 months and during his term bonds were sold for the construction of the new light plant which was built within a period of six months after commencement of work. The plant is a model of its kind. The last word in efficiency and many people think it worth more than a half million dollars.

He was personally instrumental in having these bonds placed at advantageous prices to the city. A project that is very dear to his heart is to have Cookeville build a public school that places many times the size of our city would envy $75,000.00 worth of bonds have been sold for the construction of this building. Schools are the finest asset to any community. Many people from small towns who have not achieved a competence would want to move to Cookeville that their children might be nicely educated.

James Burr Barnes, 78, prominent in the public life of Putnam county for many years, died at his home on Cedar Street here at 1:30 Sunday morning after an illness of many years.

Funeral services were conducted at the Cookeville Church of Christ of which he had been a member for more than 50 years, by Dr O H Tallman, Pastor.

Burial was in the City Cemetery.

Mr. Barnes was born in Putnam county 1 mile south of Cookeville on November 14, 1853, the son of William and Nancy Jane Barnes, who were among the first settlers of this county. Mr. Barnes lived on the farm until 20 years ago, when he moved to Cookeville to make his home where he lived until he died.

He was married to Narcissa Pendergrass who died 13 years ago. To that union were born a family of 3 boys, Joel, Sevier Herschel Sevier Barnes) and Aleck, all of whom are dead, and 3 daughters, Mrs. H M Hughes (Maude Barnes), Mrs. Z L Shipley (Florence Justana Barnes), and Mrs. J M Hatfield (Willie May Barnes), who, with his second wife Myrtle Knight, survive him.

Mr. Barnes, in early life, began a public career that personified his life.

Under the office of Charles Bradford, from 1896 to 1900, he was a deputy sheriff. Following that he held various minor and major public offices, his most important being that of U S Commissioner, which he held for 12 years and which he resigned in 1930 on account of ill health.

He was active in forging the progress of Putnam county agriculture to its present high standard, and was a breeder of fine horses during the entire tenure of his farm life. He lived on the old Barnes farm for 40 years.

Mr. Barnes suffered a paralytic stroke in July 1930 from which he never recovered.

Shelia had a talent for pottery, gardening, goat and chicken raising, but even more so for teaching Yoga. She became an instructor and taught at Leisure Services for five or six years. The foundation for all her accomplishments was her service in the God directed 12-step recovery program.

Shelia considered her greatest honor was the performance of the Bryan Symphony Orchestra on 22 March 1994. At that time she was surprised to hear the orchestra play the melody she had written on the piano and which had been named FUR SHELIA and orchestrated by Dr. James Wattenbarger and Dr. Bob Jager.

BUT, I believe, her crowning achievements were homemaking and her biscuits.

Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Tragedy stalked the placid waters of Falling Water River Wednesday at dusk when five persons, a man and his wife, and a mother with her two children, were drowned at Burgess Falls as a motor boat sank in water 18 feet deep. Three other occupants were saved. Jeremiah Whitson, 35, and his wife, Alice Smith Whitson, 33, of Cookeville, and Mrs. Mary Whitson Barnett of Nashville and her sons, Robert, 2 and James, 5 are dead. Annie Pearl and Lucy Whitson and Beecher Cass, the other occupants, narrowly escaped.

The party had entered the boat at the hydro-electric power dam and had motored up the river for perhaps 1/2 mile. They were on an afternoon picnic outing. Most of them were standing on the front end of the boat, Mr. Cass said, and when it started sinking it went down quickly, almost before warning could be given. The boat was about 24' long and was of the cabin type, with a top, doors being located at front and rear, the sides being screened. Mr. Cass was forced to swim from the rear of the boat, where he was piloting, to the front end, a box and a barrel having blocked the rear entrance. He was pulled from the river later by Lucy Whitson.

J. Cole, resident of Burgess Falls, was fishing near the scene of the tragedy when he heard screams for help, and when he got to the scene saw Annie Pearl Whitson struggling near where the boat sank. He called instructions to her and went after her in his boat. She swam for the first time in her life.

(My name is Linda Jane Barnett & his other daughter's name is Mary Joan Barnett. Our mother passed away in 2001 & her name was Billie Jane Cummings Barnett)

News of the tragedy sent thousands hurrying to the scene. Cookeville boys, and residents of Burgess Falls worked together in recovering the bodies. the boat was lifted about 11 p.m. Wednesday night, about 4 hours after it sank. Three bodies, those of Mrs. Whitson and the 2 Barnett children, were recovered with the boat. Dr John Q Owsley made an attempt at resuscitation, but was unsuccessful.

(Pictured: James Peter Barnett and his youngest daughter born in 1945 Linda Jane Barnett Huskey Welch Pewitt. Courtesy of Linda Jane Barnett 8/15/2014 on findagrave).

Crowds of morbidly curious milled around the spot where the bodies lay as they were taken from the river, making orderly recovery work almost impossible. The scene was ghastly in the light of a full moon almost directly overhead.

Bodies of Jeremiah Whitson and Mrs. Barnett were not recovered until after midnight. Jeremiah Whitson and Mrs. Barnett were children of Judge and Mrs. H D Whitson of Cookeville. Mr. Whitson was for many years County Judge of Putnam County and later served as road supervisor. The parents are under care of physicians at their home on the Sparta Road.

Jeremiah had been an employee of the light and water department of the City of Cookeville for a number of years and his wife had been a nurse at the City hospital here. Mrs. Barnett was the wife of J P Barnett, Nashville mail carrier, and was a former teacher in the Cookeville City schools.

Tentative arrangements announced Thursday morning were that the funeral would be held at the Methodist church at 2 p.m. Friday with Rev E M Steel conducting.

After returning from Vietnam, he received his B.S. and M.S. in biology from Tennessee Technological University. He then owned and operated New Day Maintenance and Supply and attended First Baptist Church of Cookeville where he taught Sunday school, served as a deacon and worked with the singles ministry. After being diagnosed with prostate cancer, he fulfilled his lifelong ambition and wrote a book titled "Circles Around the Sun" about his experiences in the Vietnam War. During his latter years, he was an insurance salesman for Woodmen of the World.

Doug Bates' passions revolved around his desire to please and serve his heavenly Father. He was constantly looking for an opportunity to share his faith with strangers or friends. He gave back to his community through Habitat for Humanity, Rotary Club and serving as a volunteer in the Cancer Center at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

His family was also at the center of his heart. He enjoyed listening to the giggles of his five grandchildren, kisses of his beautiful wife, and the embraces of his three girls. He loved the beach and playing golf with his buddies even through the pain of his illness. He was known to say, "Cancer may take my body, but it can't take my joy."

The last seven years, as Doug bravely faced the slow deterioration of his health, he had continually blessed the medical professionals, his family and his friends with his optimism and love for life and his Lord.

Those who knew him cannot help but feel blessed that we experienced James Douglas Bates and feel the confidence that Doug is as intimate with God as he can be.

IN MEMORY

Of our little son, Lindle Benedict, who departed from us on March 31, 1944:

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead – He is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land.

And he left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you – O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return.

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead-he is just away!

By Jame Whitcomb Riley.

Newspaper Man Dies After Illness of 2 Years:

William Young Bennett, 58, well known newspaper man of this section and war correspondent of the London Times during the Boer war of South Africa, died at his home here Sunday, following two years impaired health. Mr. Bennett suffered a stroke of paralysis two years ago after which he retired as editor of the Putnam County Herald.

His newspaper work had been extensive. He began his career as editor of the Hartsville Vidette and later went to New York where he was connected with several magazines. He then went abroad and at the outbreak of the Boer war went to South Africa as correspondent for the London Times. He was wounded by a bursting shell near the close of the war and sometimes afterwards returned to the United States.

He was connected with newspapers in Florida and then returned to Tennessee and edited a Livingston paper. He came to Cookeville and was assistant postmaster here under President Wilson's administration. For six years he was editor of the Putnam County Herald. He was also editor of the Upper Cumberland news for a time.

Mr. Bennett was born in Gallatin, the son of Capt. H. A. Bennett, veteran of the Mexican war. He was educated in Hartsville. During his residence in Cookeville he was active in all civic organizations, served for years as secretary of the Lion's club, was a member of the Methodist church, a Mason and a Shriner.

In 1909 he married Miss Daisy Regan of Cookeville, who survives. Other survivors are a son, William Regan Bennett of Detroit; a daughter, May Lillian Bennett of Cookeville, and two sisters, Miss May Bennett and Mrs. B. S. Northern, of Nashville.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Methodist church. Burial was in the Cookeville city cemetery.

Other survivors are a son, William

News has been received here of the death of Thurman Bias who has lived with the Arthur Stultz family on Chestnut Lane for four years. He drove the Grassy Cove school bus until recently when he became too ill to attend to his duties. Several weeks ago he was taken to his home in Baxter where he died Saturday morning. Burial was in the Cookeville cemetery.

Crossville Chronicle April 25, 1940

*Note: James Staton Bice was married three times. First to Juliann Grubb who died in 1897. Second to Mady E. Wingham. They divorced soon after, no children. Third to Sarah Dennis. They had four known children. James died at the home of his son Tilbert Harrison Bice. James had one son who disappeared around 1911. His immediate family never knew what happened to him. They thought he had been murdered by highwaymen and buried along the side of the road. The truth was that he hadn't been murdered, he had just ran away from his first marriage. He went to Arkansas where he married again and had a son. He died shortly thereafter of pneumonia. (findagrave).

Funeral services for Mrs. Laura Copeland Bilbrey, 86, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at the Whitson Funeral home chapel, at 2:30, by the Rev. T. W. Mayhew, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Bilbrey's death occurred in Nashville, where she had been since October 1, early Monday morning. Some weeks ago she suffered injuries from a fall which resulted in her death.

Born in Overton County, she was a descendant of a prominent pioneer family. When very young, she and her father, James Copeland, came to Cookeville to reside and established a home on what is now Madison Avenue, and for several generations, "Miss Laura's" home has been a familiar landmark of Cookeville, and her passing removes from the citizenship a character of refinement, dignity and culture. In her youth she was a musician and for some years served as librarian in the City School and of the Book Lovers Club library. As long as her health would permit, she was an active member of the Presbyterian Church, and was affiliated with the local congregation for many years. In 1929, she was married to George Bilbrey, who preceded her in death some three years ago. Burial was in the City Cemetery.

Museum, Sept. 2012):

Robert Roenza Bockman was born in Putnam County, Tennessee on August 2, 1883. He was one of seven children born to Will T. and Mary J. Bockman. Most of his early life was spent in Double Springs, Tennessee. In 1911 he married Mattie Pennington and they made a home together in Double Springs where "Roe," as he was called, was farming. Eventually he moved to Cookeville and continued farming on land that was near Pilot Knob, close to where Sam's Club is today. His wife Mattie passed away and in 1928 he married Dora Allen and together they raised his four children. Dora also passed away and he then married Ada Dale Younger in 1948. When Roe's health prevented him from continuing his farming, he and Ada moved to a house on North Dixie Avenue. All but one daughter, Lucille, had moved from home and he and Ada found themselves with five extra rooms. In the late 1940's, when so many WWII veterans were taking advantage of the G.I. Bill many colleges and universities were not adequately prepared to house the large influx of students. From that time until he passed away in 1962, the Bockmans were surrogate parents to over 100 young men attending school at Tennessee Tech University. Rules were strict in the Bockman house but the "Bockman Boys" appreciated and respected their landlords. Roe Bockman loved his "boys" and considered all of them sons and many of them stayed in touch with the Bockmans years after their graduation from TTU. Some of the "Bockman Boys" established a housing scholarship at Tech in memory of Mr. Roe. Research: Museum Staff – Script: Museum Staff and Actor: Nathan Kapoor as Doug Norman. Doug Norman was one of the earliest "Bockman Boys".

COOKEVILLE — Graveside services and interment for Janice Jaquess Swack Bohannon, 72, of Cookeville, Tennessee, will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, June 19, at Cookeville City Cemetery. Rev. Tony Phipps will officiate. Special music by Will Roberts.

The family will receive friends at the Cookeville chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home Wednesday, June 19, from 11 a.m. until departure to the cemetery at 12:45 p.m.

Mrs. Bohannon passed away Monday, June 17, 2019, at her home.

She was born March 20, 1947, in Algood, Tennessee, to the late Cecil and Wilene Martin Jaquess.

Mrs. Bohannon was a member of Sand Springs Baptist Church.

Mrs. Bohannon was married to James Swack for 19 years, they had time together raising a family and many good years.

She started out working at Cookeville Regional Medical Center, many years in the banking industry with American Bank and Trust, many years at Russell Stovers, and retired to build a business with her husband. She and Harlan Bohannon ran his family farm, they raised cattle, hay and all that entails. They built a strong business hauling vehicles. Her husband entrusted her to drive all the farm equipment, the Roll Backs and preferred her over men that had been doing it for years because his Jan Jan would do it best. They worked side by side in business and in life. They spent many years at the Austin Bottom area on Center Hill Lake and made many memories with friends and family going on those special boat rides. They made friends up and down the interstate that were like family at the locations where they would pick-up vehicles.

When he passed she took on the responsibility of the kitchen for her church and she worked equally as hard feeding those in need. She had a special gift of baking and truly loved cooking.

She is survived by two daughters, Tracy Swack of Cookeville and Leanne (Rich) Talley of Mt. Juliet, Tennessee; two sisters, Elaine Clark and Wanda (Kenny) Stover of Algood, Tennessee; brother, Earl Jaquess of Algood; and grandchildren, Logan and Reed Cass, and Zoey Welch.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Harlan Bohannon; sister, Wilma Ward; grandson, Avery Swack Welch; stepson, Chris Bohannon; and her best friend in school, Gail Terry.

Pallbearers will be Zoey Welch, Reed Cass, Rich Talley, Rick Adkins, Earl Jaquess and Robert Steakley.

Memorial contributions may be made to Smith Chapel Cemetery Fund, in c/o Earl Jaquess, 301 Dry Valley Road, Cookeville, TN 38506 or a random act of kindness like sharing a Dr. Pepper in Mrs. Bohannon's memory.

Her daughters would like to say a very special thank you to Williw Avenue Church of Christ for the three meals a week they brought to her. It was a true help to us. They would also like to say a special thanks to Wanda Keagle and Caris for understanding and working with their mother's inability to see herself as a patient and for always indulging her in trying to take care of them. Also for the people who loved her unconditionally. A very special thank you to Jeff Hawkins, who was one of her very favorite gifted singers for singing her home.

After high school graduation, Dr. Bonner worked for three years in the War Ordinance Department office in Mississippi. Wanting to be a teacher, he then enrolled in Livingston State Teachers College. He was able to work full time in the business office and received his bachelor's degree in three years. They convinced him to stay, teach a few courses, and they would give him the winter quarters off to work on a master's degree at the University of Tennessee. After receiving this degree in 1953, he was convinced to stay at UT as an instructor and then take a leave to pursue a doctorate. He received the doctorate degree in 1961 from Ohio State University. summers at UT and then accepted a position at Tennessee Technological University as professor and chairman of the business education department in 1962, where he stayed 37 years until he retired in 1999. He published two textbooks, the first of which was published in 1974, and continued through 10 editions. He held leadership positions in several organizations, including president of the Southern Business Education Association and vice president of the American Business Communication Association. The awards he most coveted included one for Outstanding Professor of the Year at Tennessee Tech and four for Outstanding Professor in the College of Business. He loved his students and never had a day that he didn't want to go to school! They in turn loved him back.

He was a member of First United Methodist Church and served on various committees through the years. He delighted in spending time with his family. He enjoyed working in the yard and mowed his lawn until he was 88. Travel was important, he visited all 50 states and 24 countries.

Caroline Terry Lowe Brown died on August 14, 2022, in Cookeville, Tennessee. She was born on December 27, 1930, in the Cookeville home of her parents, the late Robert W. Lowe and Mary Alice Whitson Lowe.

She grew up in Cookeville and Nashville during her father's service as Comptroller of the Treasury for the State of Tennessee. Deeply rooted in a loving and beloved family, she nonetheless followed an insatiable drive to learn and experience new things throughout her life. Her thirst for knowledge was first fostered at the Palmer School and Ward Belmont in Nashville and at Cookeville High School before striking out as a boarding student at Dana Hall in Boston. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa and magna cum laude from Vanderbilt University, where she served as the first woman editor of the University newspaper. She earned her master's degree in American History from Harvard University and was a Ph.D. candidate at Yale University before moving to New York City to teach at Hunter College.

Her dissertation took a back seat when she met and married Henry (Harry) S. Brown, cementing her new role as a New Yorker. Harry and Caroline welcomed three children, instilling in them their own love of family, desire to learn and to serve, and strong faith. Caroline gave countless hours to her community through the World Service Council and World Mutual Service Committee of the YWCA of the City of New York; the Women's Bible Society of New York; the National Society of the Colonial Dames in the State of New York; the Daughters of the Cincinnati; and the Junior League. She took particular satisfaction in bringing school children into museum houses to bring history alive. She received the Metropolitan Historic Structures Association's Crystal Apple Award for distinguished service in historic preservation in New York City. She was a member of the Cosmopolitan Club, the National Institute of Social Sciences, the Jamestown Society, the Coserie de Lundi, and the Wednesday Club. After raising her children, she became a real estate broker. Her keen intellect, gracious manner, and regard for people as individuals made the New York real estate market better for the many clients she served. She drew pleasure from photography, a skill she learned from Harry and took to new levels as a professional. Her architectural photos were published in Period Details by Crown Press in New York and London; she won awards for her nature photography; and she delighted clients and friends alike by capturing beautiful expressions in the significant moments of life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Harry; parents, Robert and Mary Alice; eldest brother, Dr. Jere Lowe; elder sister, Cynthia Dinwiddie; and nephews Seth Lowe and Samuel Brown. She is survived by her daughter Alice Whitson Brown of Cookeville; son, James Fearon Brown of Redmond, Washington; daughter Caroline (Carrie) Brown Stefaniak and son-in-law Greg Stefaniak of Chattanooga, Tennessee; grandchildren Henry Brown, Isabella Rudd, and Juliana Brown of Seattle, Washington; elder brother Robert W. Lowe and sister-in-law Julia Lowe of Nashville; nephews Dr. Whitson Lowe, John Powell Lowe, and Dr. Robert W. Lowe III; and many other beloved nieces, nephews and cousins.

The family will receive visitors between 4:00 and 7:00 p.m. on Friday, August 19, at the Whitson Funeral Home, 30 North Dixie Avenue, in Cookeville, Tennessee, and again at noon on Saturday, August 20, at Cookeville's Collegeside Church of Christ, 252 East Ninth Street. Woman Bitten By Snake In Effort To ‘Get Holy Ghost’ At McBroom’s Branch Meet: By Samuel K. Neal.

“Holy Roller” Preacher Gets “Hot” And Calls Disciples To Altar To Prove Faith In Weird Manner, Denounces Preachers, Cigarette Smokers, Stockingless Legs:

St. Luke chapter 10, verse 13, says “Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”

Residents living near the scene of a protracted “Holy Roller” meeting – it has entered its third week, and will probably last the entire summer – at McBroom’s Branch down in the lower end of the county near Cole’s store, called the ‘bluff’ of the Benevolent One who is self-appointed medium of the Holy Ghost, and it resulted in distress for one woman.

Mrs. Cora Brown, 43, wife of Oscar Brown, 12th district Jackson county farmer, is suffering today from three wounds inflicted by the deadly poisonous fangs of a copperhead snake as she “acquired” the creed of the church Monday night.

One of the preachers conducting the meeting – there are four, if you feel curiosity creeping on – was also bitten on the hand. We tried to find his whereabouts on a jaunt to the place, but could not.

Interesting- If True:

Far be it from us to scoff at the faith of any person's religion. If a copperhead snake can get a meal off your brawny arm, why that, minister, is all right with us. Personally – very, ah, very personally – we prefer the salvation offered in simple doctrine which never includes snakes.

No snakes in our religion. No, sir.

F. C. Dover, of Chattanooga, is headman of the Holy Roller meeting down there, and he made the assertion last week that he would like to exhibit his faith by showing what could be done with a copperhead snake.

He declared that he had handled 21 copperheads and two rattlers while he had been preaching.

Oliver Grogan, a farmer living in the 18th district had captured a large copperhead and had “stored” him in an empty lard can at his home. Monday he gave the snake a new home, a half-gallon fruit jar, and Monday night he carried the jar with its hideous contents to the meeting.

He Bit A Dog:

Mr. Dover preferred a snake whose fangs were unsullied, and Mr. Grogan assured him that the copperhead had only bitten the Grogan family dog in the nose. The dog, incidentally, is suffering with a swelled head which will probably kill him.

After admonishing his followers to pray, and talk in the “unknown tongue,” the preacher gave the jar top a slight twist openward. He needed a man or woman with faith at that moment. It was many moments before he finally found one, and it came in the form of one of his “assistants’.” The snake was removed from the jar, poured like water into the “assistants” hands, and he began his fanatical gyrations with the serpent in his hands, and passed it among others who took turns handling it.

The snake probably realizing what was being done with him, must have got sore about it when Mrs. Brown's turn came.

One witness at the meeting said that he saw the snake strike her arm three times, and said “I understand she's pretty sick today.”

The weird drama was enacted under an arbor fastly secured from easy access. Church members of various denominations living in the region refused to allow use of their buildings for the meeting.

Bryant's House Burned -- Last Tuesday the house with all its contents belonging to ex-county clerk A. Bryant, which is two miles west of town, was destroyed by fire. There was no one in the house at the time but Mr. Bryant, who being a cripple was barely able to save himself. The fire originated from a defective flue. The loss will amount to about $800 with $500 insurance.

Worth Bryant, 79, Colorful Cookeville Lawyer, Dies Tuesday:

Worth Bryant, colorful Cookeville lawyer for the past 50 years, died at his home here Tuesday afternoon shortly after 5 o'clock after a long illness caused from a heart ailment.

Known as "Colonel" throughout a wide area, there are many colorful stories about his practice in the courts. He was often called upon to sit on the bench in the absence of regular judges. His last practice was in the December term of chancery court in Cookeville. He became ill in January.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Bryant, the "Colonel" was born and reared in Putnam County. He would have been 79 had he lived until July 19.

Mr. Bryant was removed from a Nashville hospital to his home Saturday. He had been in Nashville for seven weeks.

During his law practice, Mr. Bryant was in a partnership with the late Federal Judge John J. Gore, the late Wynn F. Clouse, the late Edgar Thompson, Keith Bohannon, and probably other local lawyers the Herald did not learn about.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Carver Funeral Home by members of the Cookeville Bar Association. Burial will be in the City Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife Mrs. Stella Jackson Bryant, and an adopted daughter, Barbara; a son, H. C. Bryant of Okmulgee, OK; two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Tyler, Nashville, and Miss Blanche Bryant, Cookeville; two grandchildren, Mrs. Earl C. Perry and Mrs. J. T. Price, Jr., both of Nashville; one great-grandchild, John Cleveland Perry, Nashville; two brothers, Clay V. Bryant, Nashville, and Lafayette Bryant, San Francisco, CA. A former wife was Mrs. Eva Moore Bryant, Cookeville.

Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Cookeville Bar Association, members of the Tennessee Supreme Court of Appeals.

Active pallbearers: Jim Clark, Algood; Jim and Scott Camp, Sparta; Dave Lansden and Houston Roberts, Nashville; H. G. Shealy, Keith Bohannon, Judge John A. Mitchell, Jimmie Joe Scott, Sheriff H. E. Higgenbotham and D. H. Morgan, all of Cookeville.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 3 July 1947.

(March 22, 1932: Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN) Worth Bryant, a colorful and well-known Cookeville attorney, spent a day this week in Carthage as special chancellor in the absence of the regular judge, and the Carthage newspaper wrote an article about his performance.

The newspaper reported Bryant was able, fair and industrious. He "dived" into the court docket immediately upon arriving. He was accompanied by Walter Carlen, an "affable gentleman and Clerk and Master of Putnam County."

During his busy day, Smith Countians noted what has become a trademark of Bryant here – his use of a "crock pipe with a cane stem" which he kept loaded with strong "hillside Navy tobacco."

The newspaper here commented that while Smith Countians didn't mention it, Bryant's pipe bowl is usually marked by his practice of dipping it into a bed of live coals in the fireplace to light it. It saves matches – Bryant also is known for being frugal.

COOKEVILLE -- The vans and trucks are familiar, as they are seen all over town - - featuring a buck's head with the words "Buck's Plumbing" on it. What you may not know is that the business is celebrating 50 years of serving the Upper Cumberland this year.

"My father (Lester) began the business in 1960," Jerry Buck, owner, said. "It began as Cookeville Plumbing, but when I took it over in 1968, I merged the two businesses into Buck's Plumbing." Lester was born in Jackson County and his wife, Murrel, was born in Sparta. They moved to Ohio prior to settling back in Tennessee and stayed here ever since. Jerry ran the business with Lester up until his death in 1994 at age 71. Lester had done excavation work and got into the plumbing business through his affiliation with Herbie Clouse, another plumber that was in the area at that time.

On January 9, 2024, we lost a wonderful, kind, and loving member of our family, Christel Lyn Barton Bumpus who passed away with her family by her side.

Christel (Chrissy) was always known to be the helping hand for anyone who needed anything. She enjoyed helping others and worked for several years caring for seniors at Cedar Hills Senior Living. Chris was especially devoted to her parents. She and her mom Carolyn were like sisters. She was always helping her parents in any way she could. She enjoyed arts and crafts and painting. Chris was an accomplished baker creating beautiful and elaborate cakes. When she was younger, she loved hiking, riding motorcycles, and almost anything outdoors where she always enjoyed Tennessee's beautiful scenery. Chris was the glue for our family. On any holiday or birthday, she would make sure everyone was together and everyone was celebrated. It could be something as simple as flag day on the calendar and she'd be on the phone rounding everyone up to enjoy family meals and visiting.

She is survived by her dear loving sons Shawn Keller and wife Valerie; Kevin Keller and wife Jessica, her wonderful grandchildren Lauren Keller and Isaac Keller, her loving parents Gene Sr. and Carolyn Barton, her brother "Bubby" Gene Barton, Jr., and wife Lynn. She was a loving Aunt to Chad and Lisa Barton who will carry many great memories of their teen years "hanging" at her house. Her Uncle Gary and Aunt Kathleen who will miss their visits with her.

She leaves her cousins Craig, Julie, Kurt, Patti, and their families. Her aunt Donna Hill and cousin Frank Hill and family. She leaves her dear cousin Ryan Garrett whom she always enjoyed talking with frequently on the phone. She leaves behind her (BFF) best friend forever from her early childhood - Bonnie Smith. She will be missed by her longtime friend and companion Jerry Blair, and friends Gayle, Bill, and Ryan Hicks. Many of her son's friends still call her "Mom"; this brought her much joy. TJ Veres, Jr. considered Chris to be his mom as she felt the same and loved him like a son. We mention all these loved ones because Chris would want it that way.....she would never want to leave anyone out and would want them to know that they always held a special place in her heart. Chris was an incredible person and dearly loved by so many. Her death is devastating, and our hearts are truly broken.

She was preceded in death by her husband Richard Bumpus who was a loving, dedicated, and loyal husband whom she dearly loved and always missed.

Funeral services will be held at Crest Lawn Funeral Home located at 800 West Jackson Street Cookeville, TN 38501, on Sunday, January 14, 2024, beginning at 2:00 pm with Pastor Eddie Turner officiating. Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 28 October 2011

Drowning victim identified
by Mary Jo Denton

COOKEVILLE -- The Cookeville man whose body was pulled from Center Hill Lake on Wednesday was Mineth B. "Doc" Burchett.

Burchett, 70, had left his home Wednesday morning to go fishing in the Cookeville Boat Dock area and when he did not return that evening, family members became worried.

About 6 p.m. Wednesday, a marina worker noticed a boat in the water near the boat dock and saw that no one was in it, but the motor was running.

Tennessee Wildlife Resource Agency crews, DeKalb County Rescue Squad members and Emergency Medical Services workers, along with DeKalb Sheriff Patrick Ray and his deputies began searching for the missing boater.

The body was found in water about seven to eight feet deep near the boat dock.

Investigators have not said whether the death resulted from an accident or possibly from a health-related problem.

Family members said Burchett loved to hunt and fish.

An obituary for him is being published elsewhere in today's Herald-Citizen.

Larry passed away Tuesday, November 29, 2022 at his daughter's residence.

He was born Sunday April 11, 1943 in Detroit, MI to the late Nathan and Margaret Goodwin Burgess.

A self-described "fruit man," Larry started out delivering produce to grocery stores up into Kentucky and went on to lead a team to open one of the first Save-A-Lot stores in Tennessee, eventually opening twenty-eight stores in Tennessee, Kentucky and Alabama. He was an early developer of apartments in Cookeville and also developed subdivisions throughout Putnam County, including Brookside, Riverbend, Creekwood and Heritage Green. Later, he became an owner of Cookeville Limestone.

While Larry always enjoyed making a business deal, he always made time to serve the Lord. He served as a deacon, treasurer and on the building committee of Wilhite Baptist Church. He sought in all ways to further God's kingdom and help as many people as he could. His generosity knew no bounds. He gave to the church, his family, his many friends, his business partners, and strangers he met who needed a ride to work. He shared with us his wisdom, his jokes, his kindness, his great advice, and most of all, his love for the Lord.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Evelyn Gaw Burgess (whom he married September 27, 1963 in Cookeville); three daughters, Rhonda (Bryant) Owens of Cookeville, Tammy (Mark) Werner of Chattanooga, and Kelli (Tim) Preast of Chattanooga; seven grandchildren, Abigail (Giffin) Palmer, Emilie Werner, Ellie Werner, Jonathan Werner, Kaitlin Preast, Josiah Guiles and Logan Owens.

Memorial contributions are suggested to be made to Mustard Seed Ranch, 4955 Kuykendall Rd, Cookeville, TN 38501.

Charles Burton, 84, Former Resident here, Dies in Nashville:

Charles Burton, a native of Putnam County, and for many years a resident of Cookeville, died Tuesday after a brief illness, in Nashville, where he had resided for about thirty years. His death came as a shock to his relatives and friends generally in this city and county few of whom had learned of his illness.

He was a son of Stephen D. Burton, one of Putnam county's most prominent, successful and highly respected pioneer citizens. He was born January 25, 1848, at White Plains, the ancestral home of his family. His father owned a valuable farm of about a thousand acres and was a successful farmer, merchant and business man. Before the Civil War, he was a large slave owner. His splendid old residence, still standing in good state of repair, is located about one mile from Algood, and is one of the landmarks of Putnam county. Charles Burton bor the same name as his grandfather, Charles Burton Sr., who, with his brother, William Burton, emigrated from Virginia to this county in pioneer days. These two brothers were both sons-in-law of Major William P. Quarles, an officer of the Revolutionary War, and, with their father-in-law and other relatives, they located in the county in 1814.

Charles Burton grew to manhood at historic White Plains, where, as a young man, he clerked in his father's store and assisted his father in the conduct of his large farming and business interests.

As a young man, he was a great hunter and lover of the outdoor life, having to his credit the killing of more than 75 deer in his beloved mountains of Tennessee, and gloried in relating to his latter day friends of at one time getting two deer at one shot.

In his young manhood he married Miss Josephine Crutcher, daughter of a pioneer merchant of Cookeville. They resided in Cookeville until they moved to Nashville.

While a resident of Cookeville, he was at different times engaged in the mercantile business, saw mill business and other business pursuits. In the early part of 1898, he was elected City Magistrate of Cookeville, serving until the fall of 1900, when he moved to Nashville.

Although he was nearing his 85th birthday at the time of his death, his appearance gave no indication of his advanced age. He had the appearance and carriage of a middle aged man, and his faculties were unimpaired, in fact, he always had the spirit of a young man, and enjoyed the association of young people. He was always imbued with the spirit of optimism and good cheer, and was a man of the kindest instincts and most charitable impulses, and was devoted to his friends.

His wife died several years ago, as did his oldest daughter, Mrs. Lula Burton Neely, wife of Dr. Nat Neely. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Kate Burton Ford, widow of Paty Ford, of Chicago, and four grandchildren, Mrs. Stanton Therrel, of Atlanta, Mrs. Harold Williams, Miss Kathleen Ford, and Charles H. Ford, of Chicago, and by a large number of nephews, nieces and other relatives in Cookeville and Putnam county.

The remains were brought from Nashville to the home of his niece, Mrs. J. N. Cox, in this city, where funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Hugh L. Goodpasture and Dr. W. B. Boyd.

Burial was in the family lot in the Cookeville Cemetery. The services at the grave were conducted by Mounty View Lodge, No. 179, I.O.O.F. of Cookeville, of which lodge the deceased had been a member for more than fifty years.

Active pallbearers were: D. H. Morgan, Dr. Claude Martin, Dr. Walter McClain, S. Hayden Young, Frank Finley, Jas. N. Cox, E. C. Warner. Honorary: Dr. L. R. McClain, John H. Whitson, E. H. Burton, Dr. H. C. Martin, J. H. and Charley Gracy, John D. Dow, Mike Moore, Henry Algood, G. Dyer, A. G. Maxwell, J. W. Richardson, C. K. Darwin, T. D. Ford, J. H. Carlen, J. C. Dr. A. D. Byrne Dies Suddenly December 24:

Gainesboro was suddenly cast into a gloom of sorrow on December 24th, when it was learned that Dr. A. D. Byrne, dentist, has passed away at his home here.

Dr. Byrne had been in failing health for many months, but on the morning of his death he seemed as well as usual and in the morning drove to his farm near Granville. On his return he learned of the illness of his father at Cookeville. After he had lunch he started to see his father. Near the County line he had a puncture and secured some men to fix it. It was while the tire was being repaired that he complained of being ill. One of the men got in the car and drove him home. He lived only a few minutes after arriving at home.

Arthur Dillard, son of W. J. and Anne Carter Byrne, was born June 4, 1889 near Granville. He was educated in the schools at Granville and Cookeville. He received the D. D. S. degree from Vanderbilt University in 1914. In 1915 he came to Gainesboro and began the practice of his profession.

On December 21, 1916 he was married to Miss Esther Neely, of Granville. To them was born three children.

Dr. Byrne was well known in this and surrounding counties through his profession. His kind, ever-ready to help disposition endeared he to all who knew him. An outstanding man in his profession, his work was sought by many who came from a distance.

He professed faith in Christ at an early age and united with the Methodist Church at Cookeville. He was also a Mason and member of the Eastern Star.

He is survived by his wife and three children: Arthur Byrne, Jr. Ann Byrne and Betsy Byrne of Gainesboro; his father, W. J. Byrne, Cookeville; two brothers Dr. L. H. Byrne, Deming, NM; and Charles Byrne, Brawley, CA. Besides these many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church Friday morning, December 26, by Rev. O. P. Gentry of Manchester, assisted by the pastor Rev. L. F. Haley. The song service was in charge of a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff well and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wall of Cookeville. Burial was in the City Cemetery at Cookeville.

The high esteem in which Dr. Byrne was held was evidenced by the beautiful flowers.

She was born Oct. 14, 1908, in Clifton to the late William Thomas and Carrie Keaton Cooke.

Mrs. Byrom was a member of Cookeville First Baptist Church since 1957, where she taught Sunday School, Training Union, Vacation Bible School, and GA's.

She graduated from Tennessee State Teachers College at Murfreesboro in 1938 and received her master's degree in education from Pennsylvania State University in 1957. When she was 17 years old, she began her teaching career in Clifton. She also taught in Nashville, Oak Ridge, Penn State University in State College, Pa, and Cookeville (16 years at Tech Campus School at TTU). She retired in 1971.

Mrs. Byrom's life work was teaching. She gave herself fully to that goal, both in the school system and at church, for more than 40 years. Her favorite age of children was the second grade. She said that was the molding age, when a child develops and makes life choices and builds character.

She was a member of the American Assoc. of University Women and Daughter's of the American Revolution (DAR).

Her family includes two daughters and sons-in-law, Mila and Bill Truan of Nashville, and Carolyn and Milton Smith of Brentwood; three grandchildren, Calvin Smith and wife Becky of Cookeville, Gregory Smith and wife Memry of Nashville, and Leann Smith of Madison, Wis.; and two great-grandchildren, Bradley and Lena Smith.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Marvin Byrom; two sisters, Laua Bromley and Lura Dickson; and three brothers, LaFayette, Tom and Richard Cooke.

Pallbearers will be family and friends.

Memorial donations may be made to the Dr. John Marvin Byrom Memorial Scholarship at Tennessee Tech University.

Rev. Charles Hutchison will officiate at the services.
