DOWELL, PARSETTA: Miss Parsetta Dowell departed this life on the first day of January 1906. Parsetta was a daughter of Hickman and Attaline Dowell, the eldest of a family of twelve children, and was nearing her seventy-fourth year when the summons from above said "come up higher." She was a granddaughter of Maj. Richard F. Cooke in honor of whom Cookeville was named. "Pare" by which name she was familiarly known. Very early in young womanhood she became a member of Christ's church and lived a consistent and devoted member until her death, every keeping an eye of faith on the star of Bethlehem. She had been an invalid for seven years before her death and spent many painful and lonely hours, as one brother and herself constituted the family for a number of years before her death, but, alas, the pains are over, the invalid's chair is vacant, the voice which had for so many years spoke comforting and encouraging words to the family is hushed forever; the hands which had toiled so long are folded for the last time across her pulseless breath, and the "old home on the hill" knows her no more forever. She was laid to rest in the family burying ground at Cooke graveyard, where her busy body peacefully sleeps beneath the cedars, . . . [Date 2/14/1906 0:00:00, Vol. IV, No. 2, Page 4]

It's said a person is never really gone from this earth until the last person who remembers them is gone as well. If that's the case, Mary will never truly be gone as she touched the lives of so many during her blessed life.

Mary Eva (Roberts) West, 85, of Cookeville, TN, passed away peacefully on July 9, 2023. She was born July 8, 1938, in Hawesville, KY, to the late Moncie and Hazel Roberts. Much of her early years were spent in Kentucky, eventually moving to Detroit, Michigan, where she met and married her husband of 48 years, the late Bobby Lee West. They moved to Cookeville in 1960, raising their family on Buffalo Valley Road.

She is also preceded in death by her brothers Donald Roberts, Hubert Roberts, and Dean Roberts.

She is survived by her daughters, Karen (Kevin) Jernigan and Karla West; grandchildren Bryan Jernigan and Jacob Crocker; sister-in-law Patsy Roberts-Perkins; brother-in law James West; and many nieces and nephews in Tennessee, Michigan, Florida and Arizona. She was also surrounded in love by friends Rachel Morrison, her husband, Tim, children Samuel, Sybil, and Isaac, and Rachel's mother Mary Bean.

Blessed with the gift of gab, there was nothing Mary loved more than fellowship with her friends in Christ at Westview Baptist Church, where she was a member for 48 years. A fan of the Kentucky Wildcats, UT Volunteers, Atlanta Braves, Tennessee Tech basketball, and Tennessee Titans, Mary worked at Russell Stover Candies from 1980 – 2000 and, according to her, “never got tired of eating chocolate.”

The family extends its heartfelt gratitude to the wonderful staff at NHC for the loving care they showed to Mary during her stay.

Pallbearers for the service include Bryan Jernigan, Jacob Crocker, Steve Vinson, Stan McGinniss, Samuel Morrison, and Isaac Morrison. Honorary pallbearers Kevin Jernigan, Jimmy West, Terry Savage, Danny Roberts, Todd Roberts, Billy Roberts, and David Roberts.

Funeral Service for Mary Eva West will be held Sunday, July 16, 2023, at 3:00 pm from the chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home with Bros. Ed Malone and Jimmie Simpson officiating. Interment will follow in the Cooke Cemetery.
