A – B

MEMORIAL CEMETERY PLANNED HERE:

Plans for a memorial to be located just outside the city limits on the Buffalo Valley Road are announced this week by Louis Johnson Jr., one of the incorporators.

Other coporators are: Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. E. R. Wilcox and Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Reeves. Johnson said that 18 acres of land has been purchased just west of the Benton Carr farm and they plan to develop the new cemetery over a period of years. It has been given the name Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery, he added.

He said the area will be landscaped and plans are to make it one of the most beautiful spots in this area.

Lots will be sold to interested persons in various sizes, he announced.

Donald Paul Agee Obt.

b. 3 January 1933, Detroit, Wayne Co., MI – d. 23 May 2023, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, (US Air Force), md on the 7th of October 2021 to Martha (Schulte) Agee. Donald Paul Agee, s/o Willard Bane Agee (1901-1961) & Florence E. Gase (1903-1982), both buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Detroit, Wayne Co., MI.

Donald Paul Agee, age 90, of Cookeville, TN, passed away at home surrounded by his family on May 23, 2023. Don was born on January 3, 1933 to the late Willard Agee and Florence Gase Agee in Detroit, Michigan.

He met his soul mate, Martha Schulte Agee, while serving in the USAF. He would spend many of his leaves hitchhiking back to Michigan to spend the weekend with his fiancé. They were married on September 3, 1955 and were together for 66 years until her passing on October 7, 2021. Together, they raised six children on their farm in northern Michigan.

Don was a great husband, father, brother, uncle, grandfather, and great grandfather. He was loved and respected by his ever-growing family. Besides his six children, he had 10 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. He taught his children great work ethics and that hard work and perseverance paid off. He was a man of faith and was a long-time member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Gaylord and later at Holy Redeemer in Vanderbilt, Michigan. He served on the school board at St. Mary's while his children were attending school there.

He worked for many years at Standard Products in Gaylord, then at GenCorp in Wabash Indiana. He was a skilled engineer and developed two automotive patents while employed with GenCorp. He worked hard, retired, and built his dream home on the most beautiful hillside in northern Michigan.

Donald is survived by his children, Dave (Pam) of Traverse City, MI, Daniel (Renee) of Baxter, TN, Douglas of Plainfield, IL, Karen of Gaylord, MI, and Laura Lanuti of Cookeville, TN, 10 grandchildren, 7 great grand children. He is also survived by one brother, Louis Agee of Missouri.

Don was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, Martha, his son, Mark, his parents Willard and Florence, and his brother Ken.

While we are all sad here on earth to lose our dad, brother, grampa and great grampa, we are so happy to know that he is once again reunited with Mom and Mark and all his family and friends that have gone before him. With faith and belief in Jesus Christ and His sacrifice on the cross for us, we are promised to be reunited one day with him.

A memorial service will be held on June 24, 2023 at the Presley Funeral Home, 695 Buffalo Valley Rd. Cookeville, TN 38501 beginning with visitation at 2:30 and a service to follow at 3:00 pm.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday, January 9, 2018, 4:00 PM - 7:00 PM and at Presley Funeral Home.

Cooper Allen passed away Sunday, January 7, 2018 at his home in Cookeville, Tennessee.

Cooper Allen was born Friday, April 11, 1930 in Cookeville, Tennessee to his late parents Vance Allen Sr. and Minnie Rogers Allen.

With his quick sense of humor and blowing his train whistle, he was known as the "Train Man."

Cooper was a dedicated Christian and followed the Lord for many years. He was involved in his church and cared deeply for his family and country. Cooper was a combat veteran of the Korean War, where at 21 years old, he served with honor at the battle of "Heartbreak Ridge." During this battle, he sustained wounds with lifetime injuries.

Cooper loved life, having fun, and bluegrass and gospel music. He enjoyed playing several instruments, and after holiday gatherings, playing hymns and singing with his family.

Cooper and his wife, Barbara (Gaw) Allen, were married for 63 years leaving a legacy of Christian love and commitment in marriage for many to follow.

In addition to his parents, Cooper Allen was preceded in death by: one child, William Richard Allen; his brothers, Floyd Allen, Fraizer Allen, Draper Allen, Harold Allen; his sisters Reva, and Erma.

He is survived by children, Lisa Fields of Rickman, Kathy Davis, and Pastor Ron Allen and his wife Beth, all of Cookeville. They are looking forward to their reunion with Cooper in Heaven.

Cooper leaves a legacy of joy and love to his eight grandchildren: Penny Davis, Kevin Davis, Brooke Billet, Matthew Smith, Raymond Fields, Rachel Colburn, Kristen Miller, and Amanda King, who all enjoyed the fun and laughter that their "PA" brought into their lives.

Cooper also has three surviving siblings: Vance Allen Junior, Pearl Herron, and Nina Labastida.

Cooper also loved his 17 great grandchildren and many family and friends.

Pallbearers will be Matthew Smith, Jacob Allen, Raymond Fields, Kaleb Billett, Kevin Davis, and Jeremiah Miller.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Highland Rim Home Health Nurses, Silver Angels Staff.

The Allen Family wants to give a special thank you to the Highland Rim Home Health nursing staff for all of their special care given to our loved one for the past years. Especially Carolyn Chaffin, Danita Henry, Mary Clark, and Vicky Presley.

Harold Clifford Allen, Age 80, of Cookeville, Passed away on Thursday May 16, 2013.

The Family will receive friends at the Whitson Funeral Home on Thursday from 5:00pm until 9:00pm and Friday from 5:00pm until 9:00pm and Saturday from 10:00am until time of Funeral services at 2:00pm. Burial will be in the Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

He was born on May 10, 1933 to the late Charlie B. and Lela Hardy Allen in Jackson County, Tn.

Harold was proud of being the Great -Great Grandson of William Hardy who received a 1,000 acre land grant settlement after serving in the Revolutionary War and rescued and married a Cherokee Indian Woman taken from “Trail of Tears”. He was also the Great-Grandson of Samuel Hardy who served in the 13th/25th regiment and fought at Shiloh under Nathan Bedford Forrest during the Civil War.

He was married for 60 years to Georgia Evelyn Mitchell Allen.

Harold met his wife Georgia while working at the Georgia Boot Company, Cookeville and with the draft coming for the Korean War; he chose to enlist in the United States Navy in 1952. Harold achieved P02 (Petty Officer 2nd Class) status and was with the first crew to serve on board the USS Forrestal; therefore he was a “Plank Member”.

Harold’s first child, Patricia was born the very day he took the admittance test for the Tennessee Highway Patrol. On this test, he scored the highest in the State of Tennessee. His son, Randal, was born five years later when Harold was a sergeant. Harold was later promoted to Lieutenant. He was passionate about teaching safe driving to teenagers in our schools and promoting the use of car seats for infants and children. After being promoted to Captain, he served as Director of Personnel and retired after 34 years of service. Harold was very blessed to enjoy over 23 years of retirement with his wife. They enjoyed trips together and were frequently about Cookeville having coffee and “Serious” discussions with good friends. They also enjoyed helping others.

Harold was a good man. He was baptized at age 57, was a faithful member of the Church of Christ at Holladay and was always anxious to share the gospel with others. The Church and his family was the center of his life.

Harold is survived by his wife, Georgia; two children and spouses, Patricia and Danny Hall, Randal and Cheryl Allen; three grand Children and Spouses; Stacey and Josh Wells, Andrew and Sarah Hall and Luke Hall; Three great-grand-daughters, Emma, Addy and Caroline; one dear brother Charles Ray and wife Linda Allen, niece Amy Smith and Husband Michael.

In addition to his parents and grandparents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Kathryn; nephew, Kenny and niece Sonya.

Pallbearers will be members of the Tennessee Highway Patrol. Bro. Johnny Fox, minister at the Church of Christ at Holladay will officiate at the full Military honors Service.

The family would like to express their thanks to the caregivers at NHC, Cookeville, for the loving care that was shown to Harold and his family.

Mr. Earl Keith Alred, known affectionately as Keith, passed away peacefully on December 14, 2023, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center. Born on October 27, 1943, in Cookeville, Tennessee, to the late William Herbert Alred and Myrtle Dishman Alred, Keith was a pillar of the community for eight decades.

Keith was a graduate of Cookeville Central High class of 1961, whose spirited nature and tenacity led him to a successful career in business. His work ethic started at age 9 delivering newspapers. His business acumen was groomed by working at Maddux Hardware and Institutional Wholesale, and as a manager at Sears, a position that moved him away from home to Georgia for a few years. In May of 1971, he returned and opened Appliance Mart on 749 S Jefferson Ave in Cookeville. Keith was not only a natural-born salesman with a relentless pursuit of customer satisfaction, but he also took great pride in servicing what he sold and treating his customers like family. Countless times during nights, weekends, and holidays, he provided emergency appliances to customers whose refrigerator, air conditioner, or stove unexpectedly quit working - saving many family celebrations through the decades. Appliance Mart grew to become one of the most successful and admired local companies in the area, developing a loyal, generational following that continues to sustain the business to this day. Keith was truly one of a kind. His passion for his work was paralleled only by his generous support of the Cookeville community, evidenced by his sponsorship of countless community organizations.

A family man at heart, Keith was preceded in death by his parents, his first wife Jeanette Rodgers Alred, his brother Oral Alred, and his sisters Josephine Morris and Janey Pickett. His legacy continues through his loving wife of 30 years, Lucille Bilbrey Polson Alred; his daughters, Dana (David) Plant of Greenville, SC, and Kelly (Mark) Goolsby of Cookeville; his brother, Carl (Aileene) Alred of Cookeville; his grandchildren, Justin Keith Plant, Abby Jeanette Menzies (James) Campbell, Hannah (Lucas) Ledbetter, Thomas Moore, and Sara Moore; and his great-grandchildren, Hudson and Hayden Ledbetter and James Campbell Menzies III. His stepdaughter, Sandy (Chad) Swenson of Cookeville, and brother-in-law, Richard Morris, also survive him.

Keith's interests were a reflection of a man who loved life and spending time in the great outdoors. He was an avid fisherman and hunter. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends on Center Hill Lake at Cookeville Boat Dock. His passion for sports was undeniable; he was a devoted fan and supporter of local athletics, Cookeville High School and Tennessee Tech University (TTU) sports teams. Above all, Keith adored his family and cherished every moment spent with them. His independent and self-reliant spirit was an inspiration for those who knew him - teaching by example the virtues of hard work and dedication.

Those who knew Keith described him using words such as generous, selfless, approachable, supportive, and passionate. These traits were the guiding principles of his life and the legacy he leaves behind. Keith's unwavering commitment to his family, friends, and community set a standard that will long be remembered and emulated. Keith's presence will be deeply missed, but his warmth, kindness, and zest for life will continue to inspire all who had the pleasure of knowing him. He lived a life full of love, laughter, and service, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of those he touched.

Funeral services for Mr. Earl Keith Alred, age 80 of Cookeville, will be held Monday, December 18, 2023 at 11:00 am at Washington Avenue Baptist Church. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. Pastors Hillier Duke and Mark Gaw will officiate with Roger Anderson delivering the eulogy.

Keith's family will receive friends Sunday from 4:00 pm until 8:00 pm at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home and again Monday from 9:00 am until service time at Washington Ave. Baptist Church.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Keith's family wishes to express their sincere thanks and gratitude to everyone at Cookeville Regional Medical Center for the excellent and compassionate care given to him. They also suggest memorial contributions be made to Shriners Hospitals for Children, 2900 Rocky Point Drive, Tampa, FL 33607 and/or to Cookeville Regional Medical Center Charitable Foundation 27 N Oak Ave, Cookeville, TN 38501.

Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Illa Mae (Birdwell) Anderson Obt.

b. 30 July 1931, Jackson Co., TN – d. 21 August 2023, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, md 1949 to Oliver Victor Anderson, b. 29 August 1927, Gainesboro, Jackson Co., TN – d. 18 June 2018, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, s/o Johnny Peyton Anderson (1883-1969) & Dona “Donie” Ann Ragland (1887-1961), both buried in Carter Wheeler Cemetery, Jackson Co., TN. Illa Mae (Birdwell) Anderson, d/o William Sewell Birdwell (1893-1933) & Pearlie Lou Verna Medlin (1894-1995), both buried in Rash Cemetery, Jackson Co., TN.

Illa Mae Anderson, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend passed away peacefully Monday, Aug. 21, 2023, at Heritage Pointe in Cookeville, Tennessee.

She was born July 30, 1931, in Jackson County, Tennessee, to the late William Sewell and Pearlie Medlin Birdwell.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 69 years, Oliver Anderson, who passed away in 2018.

She was also preceded in death also by her three brothers, Robert, Otis and William Birdwell; two sisters, Olar V. Fox and Nola Birdwell; and by a daughter-in-law, Samantha Anderson.

Illa Mae is survived by her one brother, Ermon C. Birdwell; and leaves behind a legacy of love in her children, Shirley (David) Flatt, of Cookeville, Linda (Charles) Crawford, of Sparta, and Stanley Anderson, of Cookeville. She was the proud grandmother and deeply loved by her grandchildren, Dana (Larry) Wilmoth, Erica (Stephen) Stafford, Elizabeth (Joseph) Kase, Sarah (Robert) Brady, Jared Anderson, Ann Marie Anderson and Sammy Anderson; and by her great-grandchildren, Riley and Colin Wilmoth, Mae and Amelia Stafford, Preston and Lorelei Kase, Arabelle, Ellington, Easley and Avelynn Brady.

Illa Mae worked in clothing retail for many years, but above all, she was a dedicated homemaker, always putting the needs of her family first. Her home was a place of warmth and love where everyone was always welcomed. She was a talented seamstress, often creating beautiful clothing for her family and friends. She was known for her good cooking, particularly her peach cobbler, fried apple hand pies, chocolate pies and chicken and dumplings.

She was a member of the Church of Christ from her teenage years. Most recently, she was a member of the Cookeville Church of Christ. Her faith was a significant part of her life and it guided her actions and beliefs. Those who knew her will recall a woman who was not only kind and loving, but also a righteous lady who was devoted to the Lord. She was known for her sweet nature, her devotion to her family and faith and her love of laughter.

Funeral services honoring Ila Mae will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Aug. 25, 2023, at the Cookeville chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. Bro. David Flatt will officiate. Interment will follow the service in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

Herald Citizen, Cookeville, TN: 10 April 2012.

COOKEVILLE -- The woman who made sure your vote was counted for over 30 years in Putnam County has died.

Emogene Andrews, who was the county's election registrar from 1960 to 1991 died Sunday at the age of 82.

Her funeral is set for 1 p.m. Wednesday at Jefferson Avenue Church of Christ, and the family will receive friends at Hooper Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home today, Tuesday, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. and on Wednesday from 11 a.m. until the funeral service at the church.

Mrs. Andrews was a well-known and well-liked figure in Putnam County government for all the years she served as coordinator of elections here, a career which dated back to the time when all votes were cast by paper ballot and had to be tallied onto long sheets of paper with hand-drawn columns.

She spent many an election night and the next day, sometimes days, working with staff and election commissioners to tally the ballots cast in many elections, often with the candidates hanging over the counter in her courthouse office anxiously awaiting the results.

When the county got its first voting machines -- those big, old clunky lever-operated machines almost the size of a phone-booth -- she hailed them as an improvement, even though the pencil and paper tallying continued in those days before computers.

Working so many years for the public and with politicians who were often friends and neighbors, but could turn into fierce competitors in the fever of an election, she skillfully navigated the tricky waters of local politics and always kept to a high standard of impartiality.

She was a keen observer of human nature and had a sense of humor that kept a smile on her face most of the time.

She knew all the good old stories from the old political days here, such as the one about the candidate who was going door-to-door to ask for votes and accidentally walked across a porch that had been freshly painted.

But fortunately for him, no one was home that day, and he simply pulled one of his opponent's election cards out of his pocket, stuck it on the door, and walked away, again leaving his footprints in the paint.

Mrs. Andrews was kind-hearted, concerned for the welfare of not only human beings, but for all living things. I personally remember a year of an icy winter here when she came to work one day talking about ducks frozen to death on a pond not far from her home, a sight which saddened her greatly.

She retired from her longtime job in 1991 and enjoyed some very good years before suffering the "long goodbye" illness called Alzheimers.

Her loving family and her many friends will miss her.

Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Ewin Palmer, father, Star Route, Baxter, TN).

Janet Uyvonne Palmer Apple passed peacefully at home in the arms of her adoring husband Ted and surrounded by her family on March 23, 2024, late in the evening, at the age of 80.

Jan was born May 14, 1943, to Ewin and Winnie Palmer of Baxter, Tennessee.

Anyone who knew Jan, knew her great love for Jesus, her husband Ted, her two kids and her grandsons. Her life was blessed with so many friends met through church, from her tight-knit group of young mothers turned lifelong friends she met during their time at Cookeville Church of God to the large groups of seniors at the ladies' Bible Study at Life Church.

She was a woman that exemplified Proverbs 31. No matter the endeavor, Jan always exuded class, from the way she dressed, the humility she showed to care for others around her, ears that listened to friends' concerns, a mouth that did not spread gossip or leak secrets, to hands that stayed productive to bless her family. She lived a life full of grace, humility and elegance.

Jan also loved to paint, and their home has been decorated for years by paintings of many scenes throughout their life. Although told soon after marriage she would not have children, she was blessed for the last 57 years of her life to be an amazing mother and grandmother. In her transition from Mom to Grammy, she also learned the fine art of spoiling and forgot the word No.

Jan knew how to shop and could always find the best deal. She was a genius at coupons and rebates. Her savviness with organization, money and numbers helped in her various jobs through the years, whether it was working at the Putnam County Register's Office, serving as Office Manager at Roses Department Store, or being a partner in all of hers and Ted's various endeavors. Their last venture was with Electric Mobility, which eventually grew into a statewide medical equipment company for the next generation based out of Cookeville.

Jan was married to her sweetheart and best friend, Teddy Milo Apple, on June 1, 1962. They remained devoted to each other for 61 years.

She is preceded in death by her parents and by her siblings, Debby Cumby and Rex Palmer.

She is survived by her husband, Ted Apple; daughter, Stephanie Price (Dana Buell); son, Jeff Apple (wife Kerri); grandsons, Chance Price (Tiffany Gearhart), Eli Apple, Cade Apple and Carter Apple; and great-grandchildren, Dawson and Myra.

Jan is also survived by her brother, Gary Palmer; sister-in-law, Sylvia Gambrell; and a host of nieces and nephews who all loved their Aunt Jan.

The Apples are extremely thankful to Jean Allen for her kindness, amazing care and constant love and help over the last few years. Also, they are thankful to Caris Hospice Care for the care and professionalism they have shown over the course of the past few weeks.

Celebration of Life for Jan Apple will be held Thursday, March 28, at 3 p.m. from the chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home with Bros. Eddie Turner, Bob Sotis and Ted Kocher officiating. Interment will follow in the Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, March 27, from 4-8 p.m. and Thursday, March 28, from 2 p.m. until the time of service at Crest Lawn Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Jan's grandsons, Chance Price, Eli Apple, Cade Apple and Carter Apple.

In the words of Ted: "She beat us to the finish line — but she is saving us a seat when we get there."

Crestlawn Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

COOKEVILLE — Funeral services for Mary Josephine Arnold, 91, of Athens, Alabama, formerly a longtime resident of Cookeville, will be held at 1 p.m., Monday, Jan. 21, from the Cookeville chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Entombment will follow at Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery in Cookeville.

Josephine passed away peacefully Wednesday, Jan. 16, 2019, after a brief illness.

The family will receive friends from noon until service time Monday at the funeral home.

Josephine was born Jan. 27, 1927, in Savannah, Tennessee, to the late Edgar and Beatrice Hodge Doran.

She graduated from Central High School in Savannah before attending a Nashville area business school and entering the workforce as a business secretary in Nashville, Tennessee, where she soon met and married her husband, Bill Arnold, in 1947.

Prior to their marriage, Bill was a recently discharged World War II Navy combat veteran, and Bill and Josephine soon found themselves moving all over the world, with Bill reentering military service in the Army. Josephine was a faithful and supportive serviceman's wife to Bill and a devoted mother to their daughter, Brenda.

Josephine eventually found herself living in Cookeville when Bill was assigned to the Tennessee Tech Army ROTC Department, and the Arnold family ultimately retired from the Army to settle in Cookeville. Josephine was employed for 20 years by the Cookeville Housing Authority while Bill served in the Cookeville Police Department and was an instructor in the Industrial Technology Department at Tennessee Tech.

While in Cookeville, Josephine and Bill were active member of First Baptist Church. She and Bill continued their life of service together beyond their military years, volunteering with Shriners transporting medical patients, and working with the Cookeville area Boy Scouts program.

Although they moved to North Alabama in 1988, to be closer to family, they often spoke of the friendships and fond memories of their 33 years as Cookeville residents.

Josephine was an avid cook, liked playing bridge with friends, enjoyed ballroom dancing, and loved time with family.

Josephine is survived by her younger sister, Geneva Smith; her sisters-in-law, Betty Doran (Billy) and Nancy Doran (Gene); a brother-in-law, Joe Hunter (Jeanette); as well as several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Brenda; her husband of 63 years, Bill; three younger brothers, Jimmy, Billy and Gene Doran; and a younger sister, Jeanette Hunter.

Rev. Mike Head will officiate at the services.

Karen Leigh (Staggs) Arseneau Obt.

b. 1 November 1942, Florence, Lauderdale Co. AL – d. 25 January 2010, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, md Dale G. Arseneau. Karen Leigh (Staggs) Arseneau, d/o William Staggs & Pearl Wright.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Karen Leigh Arseneau, 67, of Cookeville, will be held at noon on Saturday, Jan. 30, at Crest Lawn Funeral Home and Cremation Center. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 5-9 p.m. today, Friday, Jan. 29, and from 11 a.m. until time of services on Saturday at the funeral home. Mrs. Arseneau passed peacefully on Monday, Jan. 25, 2010, at her home.

She was born Nov. 1, 1942, in Florence, Ala., to the late William and Pearl Wright Staggs. Mrs. Arseneau was a member of Poplar Grove Baptist Church. She served as a loan officer at Northland Federal Credit Union prior to her retirement. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend. Karen, known as Kay, Katie, Kay Leigh, Nanny, Nanny Kay and Aunt Katie, was full of life, love and adventure. Karen was one of the first Vikeets of Hazel Park High School in Michigan and she loved her classmates. She and her classmates from the Class of 1960 in Hazel Park made a point of gathering every year from Tennessee to Michigan. Kay loved to travel. Having family all over the United States, Kay and her family traveled from California, Wyoming, Colorado, South Carolina and Alabama. Most of her adult life she lived between Cookeville and Michigan.

Living in Michigan from the early 60s to the late 70s, she was a stay-at-home mom and was very involved with the Berkley school system. Kay loved sports and she loved being a part of her children's sports activities. Their sporting activities ranged from softball, baseball, volleyball to basketball. Moving to Cookeville in the late 70s, she loved the south and remained very involved in her children's lives and activities. She and her family and friends who came to visit from the north took in all the lovely scenery in Tennessee. Some of the Tennessee scenery they enjoyed was Fall Creek Falls, Opryland, Gatlinburg and Burgess Falls. Kay loved Nashville and was a fan of country music. Some of her favorite artists were Garth Brooks and Alan Jackson.

As her children got older, she started working more. She was part of one of the first Hospice programs in Cookeville which were out of the nursing school at Tennessee Tech University. She also worked for a time at Plateau Mental Health Center in Cookeville and Fleet Guard Credit Union, also of Cookeville. Kay was blessed with her first grandchild in 1982 and loved being "Nanny." She found joy in spending time with her grandchildren and teaching them how to cook, catch bugs, read, play and enjoy life and adventure. Kay moved back to Michigan in 1986, where she has shared a life with her husband of 20 years, Dale. With the union of Kay and Dale, she gained two new daughters, sons-in-law and more grandchildren. Kay loved watching her grandchildren and great-grandchildren do gymnastics, football, T-ball, basketball, and watch her son race motorcycles. Anything they were involved in, she was a part of.

Kay's favorite sport was baseball and she loved the Detroit Tigers and was a big fan of Magglio Ordonez. Kay and her husband enjoyed watching the games and going to the games with their family. Kay loved living two blocks away from Lake Huron in Oscoda, Mich., where she spent a lot of time walking the beach, sunning, and having a big Fourth of July gathering every year that all her family and friends would attend. All the grandkids called Lake Huron "Nanny's Big Water." She enjoyed the snow in the winter that was at times as tall as she was. Kay and Dale would spend time during the spring and fall in Tennessee with her family. She loved the beautiful spring blooms and the vibrant fall colors. She enjoyed helping her daughters and granddaughters plant flowers. Kay lived her life surrounded by a great family and fantastic friends. She loved joking and laughing. She had a great love for the Lord and taught her children and grandchildren to live strong in their faith and to laugh, to love, and to give, to share and to pray. Kay's church family at Poplar Grove Baptist Church was very important and supportive to her and her family. The family extends their appreciation for their love and support. Kay was a tough, strong, loving, caring fighter to the end, where she was still surrounded and loved dearly by her family and friends.

Her family includes her husband, Dale G. Arseneau of Oscoda, Mich.; two daughters and sons-in-law, Dana L. and Randall Lafever of Baxter and Stacie J. and Ricky Barclay of Gordonsville; a son, Jeffrey A. Bullington of Oscoda; two stepdaughters and their husbands, Maribeth C. and John Ruedisueli of Troy, Mich., and Audra A. and Adam Holt of Grand Rapids, Mich.; granddaughters Candace L. Sparks of Cookeville, Madison P. Barclay of Gordonsville, Maria R. and Samantha J. Ruedisueli, both of Troy, Sydney A. Holt of Grand Rapids, Daidra Lafever of Baxter and Brandi L. Roberts and husband Jamie of Watertown; two grandsons, Cody A. Owens of Gordonsville and Josh G. Barclay and wife Keisha of Carthage; a sister, Janie E. Staggs of Bristol; a brother and sister-in-law, Ron and Alice Staggs of Wildomar, Calif.; a special friend, Mary Jane Bannerman and husband Don of Howell, Mich.; five great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society or Poplar Grove Baptist Church Building Fund. Bro. Bobby Sebastian will officiate at the services. Please visit Kay's Web site at www.mem.com and send a tribute to the family.

Jimmy Doyce Babcock Obt.

Pittman. Foy E. Babcock is buried in Leavenworth National Cemetery, Leavenworth, Leavenworth Co., KS.

Jimmy Doyce Babcock of Cookeville, TN passed away March 22, 2024 at his home with his wife Gina by his side after a brief and sudden illness.

Jim was born April 10, 1958 in Temple, Texas to Foy and Dorthy Babcock. He was proud to be a Texan and would frequently enjoy meeting fellow Texans wherever he might travel. Following high school, Jim briefly attended Texas State Technical Institute pursuing a career in mechanical engineering. Seeing that career would not meet his deep longing to serve, Jim decided to attend Whites Ferry Road School of Preaching in Monroe, LA. He later completed his bachelor's degree in Biblical Studies at Abilene Christian University. He lived in Uganda and in Kenya for eight years working as a missionary.

Upon returning to the states he continued to work part time in ministry. Jim realized while visiting the sick that he was envious of the nurses who were able to provide physical comfort to their patients. When the opportunity presented itself, Jim attended nursing school. He completed his LPN and his RN degrees. He loved working with his patients and their families. He is remembered by countless families in the Upper Cumberland as someone who took care of them and loved them during some of their most challenging times. Jim loved working with his fellow caregivers. He was a fierce team player, always supporting and encouraging his teammates. He was proud to become a member of the Nurse Honor Guard.

Even while working as a nurse, Jim continued part time in ministry preaching once a month at the Arcot church of Christ in Celina. He continued this ministry until November of 2022. His work serving others and service to Christ did not stop when he left the pulpit. He continued to look for ways to show God's love, mercy and full dependence on God's grace.

Jim loved meeting people and making friends. He loved singing, fishing and wood working. He was extremely knowledgeable about a number of various topics and was always eager to learn more. Jim and his wife were active members of Collegside church of Christ.

Jim is survived by his wife of almost 17 years, Gina; by his mother Dorthy, brothers Alan and Larry as well as half brother Randy. Jim leaves behind two children, son Daniel (Rachael) and daughter Arielle (Andrew) Roberson. He was a loving and devoted father. He was proud to be Babu to Ember and Parker. He cherished every moment he had with them.

Jim made the choice of cremation. His family will host a celebration of his life on March 28th at 5:00pm with visitation from 3p - until the time of service at Collegside church, small auditorium. Honorary pallbearers will be his coworkers from Cookeville Regional Home Health.

In lieu of flowers, it is Jim's request that you consider a donation to Mustard Seed Ranch or Happy Haven Children's Home.

Cookeville man dies in Thursday crash

Posted Thursday, May 24, 2018: Herald-Citizen, Cookeville, TN
By Paige Stanage

A Cookeville man was killed following a vehicle crash early Thursday morning in Smith County.

The report from Tennessee Highway Patrol names Matthew Baggett, 38, as the deceased. The other driver involved is named as Kelly King, 32, of Knoxville.

According to the report, both King and Baggett were travelling on I-40 westbound in the right lane near mile marker 254. King was travelling in front of Baggett.

The report states King started slowing his tractor trailer down for an upcoming construction zone. Baggett's vehicle struck the tractor trailer in the rear.

Baggett's vehicle rolled several feet and came to a stop in the right lane. He died on the scene, according to the report.

No charges or citations will be issued, the report states.

Mr. Bean passed away Wednesday, August 15, 2018 at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

He was born May 12, 1929, to Albert Lee and Vallie Myrtle Bean, in Putnam County, TN.

Mr. Bean is best known throughout the community as owner/operator of Bean's Dairy Queens, working alongside his wife Rebecca "Becky" Bean, where they are remembered as the first employer of many young people in the community. Prior to that, he worked for Acme Boot Company for 23 years, serving many of those as general superintendent for all Middle Tennessee plants. He worked as a rural-route mail carrier and was involved in multiple small business ventures.

He was inducted into the United States Army in 1952 and served during the Korean War era.

He served as commander of the Cookeville VFW Post for two consecutive terms, was a deacon at Hilldale Church of Christ, in Clarksville, TN during his time there, and an active member of both the Willow Avenue Church of Christ and Jefferson Avenue Church of Christ, in Cookeville, for many years. Mr. Bean enjoyed camping, fishing, cooking (especially grilling and smoking) and spending time with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was a legend in the family for his sausage gravy.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 67 years, Rebecca Robbins Bean, whom he married April 14, 1949, brothers Carl and J. Lee Bean of Cookeville, and a sister, Kathleen Bean Wright of Dayton, OH. He is survived by three children, daughters Lolita "Lo" (Leonard) Smith and Amy (John) Bourne, son, Bruce (Sherri) Bean; two brothers-in-law, Harold (Janie) Robbins of Cookeville, and Dolph Wright of Dayton, OH; grandchildren, Tiffany and Brandon (Becky) Smith, Shawna Kirby and Jennifer (Charles) Adcock, Ashley (Evan) Stafford and Sydney Bean, and Shannon (Kevin) Dailey and Melissa (Chris) Stone all of Cookeville; eight great-grandchildren, Makayla, Shayla, and Kennlee Kirby, Caden Smith, Nate Adcock, Krystle and Daniel Smith, and Liam Bourne; several great-great-grandchildren; a host of loving nieces and nephews; and a special family friend and loving caregiver, Tammi Young.

Pallbearers will be Leonard Smith, John Bourne, Brandon Smith, Charles Adcock, Evan Stafford, Don Wagnon, Don McDaniel, Odell Braswell, and Lynn "Smitty" Smith.

The family would like to thank the staff of Cookeville Regional Medical Center 6 East for their genuine care and concern through Mr. Bean's recent illness.

SPC Tyler Hall Bilbrey, 22 of Baxter, Tennessee passed from this life on Wednesday, September 6, 2023. He was born Wednesday, August 22, 2001 in Livingston, Tennessee to Chris Bilbrey and Teresa Griffin.

Tyler was a remarkable soul who left an indelible mark on everyone fortunate enough to know him. His infectious positivity was a beacon of light in any room, and his constant smile was a testament to his boundless happiness. Tyler had an incredible gift for spreading joy, offering warm and comforting hugs to all who crossed his path. To know him was to love him, for he possessed a heart as vast as the ocean. He was Momma's baby boy, always eager to lend a helping hand to anyone in need, and his unwavering belief in the goodness of people was truly inspiring.

Tyler was a source of immense pride for his family, the epitome of respectfulness, and an embodiment of handsome charm. As a big and little brother, he showered his siblings with love and guidance. He had a need for speed and an insatiable passion for fishing, riding 4-wheelers, gaming, eating, playing football, and shooting guns, and pursuits that brought him immense joy. Despite his impatience, Tyler was always punctual, and his motto in life was "Full send," reminding us to live every moment to the fullest. His memory lives on in the hearts of those he touched, a shining example of a life well-lived and deeply cherished.

Tyler was preceded in death by his maternal great-grandparents: Arza Grace Gunter and Junior Lee Gunter, Marie Odle, Mary Bell Griffin, and Chester Hall Griffin; paternal great-grandparents: Ray and Blanche Bilbrey, and Eugene and Laura B. Parris; Cousin, Cole Sells.

Funeral Service for Specialist Tyler Hall Bilbrey were held Saturday, September 16th from the chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home with Bro. Scott McKinney officiating. Interment followed in the Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery with full military honors.

Recovered from Wounds Suffered on Iwo Jima:

Cpl. Charles K. "Wahoo" Billings, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Billings, of Cookeville, Rout 1, of the U. S. Marines, who volunteered for service in 1943, has been on foreign duty in the Pacific area since July, 1944, and was wounded at the battle of Iwo Jima. A number of weeks he was hospitalized, but according to a recent letter, has returned to active duty and states he is now in perfect health.

In his letter of April 22 to his parents, Cpl. Billings says upon his return to his old outfit, he found a car load of mail which he was delighted to get as it has been so long since he had had news of home – the Tech Oracle and Putnam County Herald were among the collection, as were letters from Rev. B. N. Ramsey and numerous members of the Baptist church, for which he expressed sincere appreciation. He says also he had rather a bad wound but had the best of care and the prayers of those at home helped him to recover and now he is good as ever-many of his buddies were missing after this battle. The job now is to finish the war so they all can come home soon, he says.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings have another son in the service, J. R. Billings, U. S. Navy, with a medical detachment, stationed at the Great Lakes Training Center. His former station was New York City.

Bobby Charles Billingsley, 83 of Cookeville, Tennessee went to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 1, 2023, surrounded by his family.

Born Sunday, August 4, 1940 in Cookeville, Tennessee, he was the son of the late William Billingsley and the late Prietta Cravens Billingsley. He was the loving husband of Becky Fletcher Billingsley for 57 blessed years.

Bobby was born and raised on the farm he and Becky resided on. He was a lifelong tobacco and cattle farmer and enjoyed growing his own vegetable garden. He also enjoyed his trips to Pikeville to get apples from orchards. He would listen to WHUB, especially liking the gospel music. Bobby retired from TTU as a project manager for over 30 years, mentoring many work students. He had a hand in many campus renovation projects and helped build the campus to what it is today. He could out-work anyone, working until the day he was hospitalized. Bobby enjoyed watching sports, especially the Vols, Titans, and many other games and teams. He was also an avid Nascar fan. He even liked to watch eagle cams.

Bobby loved his family, especially his grandkids. They were his world, enjoying every moment with them. He loved to eat Becky's delicious home cooked foods. He so loved the Lord, a member of the Double Springs Church of Christ for over 48 years.

He is survived by wife Becky sons Chuck (Bethany) Billingsley
Michael (Rachel) Billingsley

3 grandkids Austin, Hannah, and Sarah Beth

Beloved fun uncle to many nieces and nephews, doing many things with them, along with cousins, and many friends.

COOKEVILLE — Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Coomer Billingsley, 100, of Cookeville, will be held at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, April 20, at Jefferson Avenue Church of Christ. Burial will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery in Cookeville.

The family will receive friends from 4-8 p.m. today, Tuesday, April 19, at Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home in Cookeville, and from 11 a.m. until time of services on Wednesday at the church.

Maggie left this home, for the eternal home prepared for her, on Sunday, April 17, 2016.

Maggie entered this life on Oct. 29, 1915, in Jackson County to the late Henry and Vallie Brewington Coomer.

Maggie Coomer married Leo Billingsley on July 7, 1935, in Jackson County. They raised their family in Gainesboro before moving to Oneida, Tenn., in 1964. They returned to Cookeville in 1978. Her earthly journey of 100 rich years touched many.

Surviving her and spanning five generations are her six children, Nell Johnson and husband Billy, of Hendersonville, Mai Smith and husband Herb, of Cookeville, Ruth Hale of Hendersonville, David Billingsley and wife Janie, of Goodlettsville, Patricia Spivey of Madison and Don Billingsley and wife Sylvia, of Oneida; one sister, Lola Flatt of Cookeville. “Granny B” will be missed by 12 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren (one forthcoming); and six great-great-grandchildren (one forthcoming); several nieces and nephews; her extended family of special caregivers; and her caring church family at Jefferson Avenue Church of Christ.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Leo Billingsley (died Aug. 24, 1998); a sister, Doyle Anderson; brothers, Floyd and William Coomer; and a son-in-law, Jesse Hale.

Granny cared deeply for her family. She didn’t hold back in giving honest guidance in the Christian walk, 2 Timothy 4:7-8 “I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.”

She was industrious, as she was by her husband’s side in his business endeavors. She loved quilting and gave quilts to her grandchildren as wedding presents and again when the great-grandchildren were born. She also enjoyed the time spent with church quilting groups.

Mrs. Billingsley was faithful to the Church of Christ through memberships during her life at Philadelphia, Oneida, Willow Ave. and currently at Jefferson Ave Church of Christ.

Memorials in Maggie Billingsley’s name may be left to Churches of Christ Disaster Relief Effort, 410 Allied Dr, Nashville, TN 37211, or Happy Haven, 2311 Wakefield Drive, Cookeville, TN 38501.

Bro. Jim Brown (grandson-in-law) and grandsons will conduct the services and also serve as pallbearers.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Mary Evelyn Birdwell, 75, of Cookeville will be held Tuesday, Dec. 4, at 1 p.m. from the Cookeville chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home.

Burial will be in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

Family will receive friends today, Monday, Dec. 3, from 5-8 p.m. and Tuesday, Dec. 4, from 11 a.m. until time of services at the funeral home.

Mrs. Birdwell died Saturday, Dec. 1, 2007, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

She was born May 30, 1932, in White County to the late Oscar Madison and Willie Katherine Moore Davis.

Mrs. Birdwell was a member of Willow Avenue Church of Christ. She was a retired bookkeeper in the Upper Cumberland area with several businesses, including Tellus Hale CPA in Sparta and Life of Georgia in Cookeville.

Mrs. Birdwell was a force of nature, always busy with something. She loved to read and instilled in her children a serious appreciation for the written word. Believing that idle hands were indeed the devil's workshop, she eagerly indulged in craft projects of various kinds, most recently painting in watercolors. Over decades she amassed and organized a catalog of family photographs, creating family albums that date from the 1920's to the present. She also loved to talk and would regale people with stories for as long as they were willing to listen. Mrs. Birdwell spent most of the last 10 years tending to her invalid husband and her mother until their deaths in 2005 and 2006.

Her family includes her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Michael E. and Tammy O'dell Birdwell of Cookeville; two daughters and a son-in-law, Diane and Larry Ragland of Disputanta, Va., and Brenda Birdwell of Thousand Oaks, Calif.; a brother and sister-in-law, Bob and Sue Davis of Baxter; three grandchildren, Hillary Ragland Getsy, Vanessa Ragland-Irwin and Brian Smight; and two great-grandchildren, Thomas and Dylan Getsy.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Birdwell was preceded in death by her husband, William E. Birdwell, on July 9, 2005.

Pallbearers will be John Nisbett, Charlie Phillips, Donnie King, Roger Fuqua, Monte Manus and Carl Myers.

Honorary pallbearers will be Bob Davis, Bill Smith, Don Wagnon, Elves Myers, Jack Herd, Jeff Turner and Fred Barlow.

Bro. Clarence DeLoach and Rev. Handleston will officiate the services.

COOKEVILLE - A celebration of life for Peggie Nola Birdwell will be held, Saturday, May 13, at 2 p.m. at Northeast Church of Christ with internment to follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. She will be laid to rest next to her husband in Cookeville.

Peggie passed away Nov. 19, 2016, while a resident of Rawlins House in Pendleton, Indiana.

Peggie Nola Birdwell, born July 22, 1922, in Jackson County.

After attending the Knoxville School for the Deaf she moved (o/a1944) with her cousin to Detroit, Michigan, where she soon found work with the Parson's Company in support of the war efforts. This was also the time she met and married her life-long love. Because of her deafness, life was not always easy but she didn't let it detour her goals. As a life-long Christian, she relied on her faith in God for guidance in all of life challenges.

She is truly missed by all but never will be forgotten.

Surviving are sisters, Olar V. Fox, and Ila Maie Anderson; brother, Ermon C. Birdwell, sons: Richard L. Birdwell and Albert L. Birdwell; seven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her parents, William Sewell Birdwell and Pearlie Lou Verna Birdwell; brothers, Robert B. Birdwell, James Odes Birdwell and William Wade Birdwell; and husband, Willard E. Birdwell.

Crest Lawn Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements, 526-6384.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for John R. Boling, 80, of Cookeville, will be held at noon on Thursday, May 31, at United Church of Cookeville, 502 Gould Drive, where Mr. Boling was a charter member. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 5-7 p.m. Wednesday, May 30, at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home, and from 11 a.m. until time of services on Thursday at the church.

Mr. Boling died Tuesday morning, May 22, 2012, at his home after a prolonged battle with cancer.

He was born April 7, 1932, in Appleton City, Mo., to the late James Hallbert Boling and Jeanette Swiney Boling.

He and his wife, the late JoAnn Fischer Boling, were married April 27, 1957, in Balboa, Canal Zone, where JoAnn's father was employed by the U.S. Government and where John was stationed in the U.S. Army Intelligence.

Mr. Boling separated from active duty in May 1957, and brought his new wife to Tennessee, where he completed his degree at Tennessee Tech (then TPI, where he first started in 1951). He continued to serve in the Army Reserve until 1962, when he was honorably discharged. He graduated from TPI in 1959, with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration-Industrial Management, with minors in accounting and electrical engineering. During college, he was a member of the ROTC.

He was employed for a number of years with architecture and engineering firms in Knoxville, Nashville, and Cookeville, before returning to TTU as an instructor in 1977. He earned a Master of Arts in Education from TTU in 1983, and served as an instructor in the College of Engineering until his retirement in 1996.

He sang for many years in the Mastersingers and in the choir at First Presbyterian Church, where he was also an elder.

After retirement, Mr. Boling worked actively with the Boy Scouts of America and chaired the Lions Club Kids' Sight program for Putnam County for many years. He was awarded the Boy Scouts Silver Beaver award in 2009 for long-term meritorious service to the organization; silver awards are the highest level of awards given to adult volunteers in the BSA.

Mr. Boling also served for a number of years as a docent with the Cookeville Depot Museum and was active in his church and in the Tech Garden Club. He worked diligently in whatever capacity was required, always willing to step up to the plate, and gave up his activities only due to the deterioration of his health. He was a man who acted on his convictions and his emotions, rather than just talking about them, and we will be forever grateful for his quiet, unfailing support.

His family include two daughters and a son-in-law, Melissa "Missy" Boling of Nashville and Valerie and Jim Vesper of Maryville; a granddaughter, Rachel Vesper; a brother and sister-in-law, Maxon and Joan Boling of Knoxville; an aunt and uncle, Katherine and Joe Leonard of Nashville; many cousins, nieces and nephews; close friends Joan and Handley Oswalt; and many other dear friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, JoAnn, after 53 years of marriage.

Pallbearers will be family and friends.

Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of your choice.

The family extends heartfelt appreciation to the staff of Caris Hospice and Home Instead for their loving care during the last months.

The Rev. Gene Skipworth will officiate at the services with the homily given by Melissa Boling, MDiv.

Her family will receive friends Thursday from 11:00 a.m. until service time at the funeral home.

Mrs. Boswell passed on April 4, 2022 at her home in Nashville, TN. She was born on May 14, 1932 in Jackson County, TN to the late Fred and Alma Brown. She was also preceded in death by brothers Roy Brown and Freed (Ruth) Kincaid, and niece Helen Kincaid (Ray) Dennis.

Marjorie was an active member of Crieve Hall Church of Christ, Nashville, TN. She had previously served as an elder's wife at Willow Avenue Church of Christ, Cookeville, TN and Hill Street and Westside Church of Christ, Griffin, GA.

Marjorie graduated from Jackson County Central High School in 1949. She attended Tennessee Tech University (TTU) where she received a B.S. in Education in 1952. In the TTU cafeteria she met Fred C. Boswell, they wed on September 3, 1954, and were married for 53 years. He preceded her in death in 2008. Marjorie taught shorthand, typing, and history in Monterey, TN, Knoxville, TN, and Griffin, GA.

After living briefly in Knoxville, TN and State College, PA, she resided in Griffin, GA for almost 35 years and raised her family there. After her husband's retirement, they moved back to their home state of TN and lived in Cookeville for 25 years. Marjorie then moved to Nashville in 2015 to be closer to her daughters. She was a talented seamstress and a flower and vegetable gardener. She enjoyed playing canasta, reading, working jigsaw puzzles, competing in family ping pong tournaments, and watching college football and basketball, along with other sports.

Her family includes two daughters, Elaine Boswell (Gary) King and Julia Boswell (Bill) Merry, all of Nashville; three grandchildren, Kensley (Tyler Copeland) Merry, Connor (Katelyn Tschiggfrie) Merry, and Abigail Boswell King; sister-in-law Frances Brown; cousins including Ann Fox Cantrell and Susan Dudley; and many nieces, nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be gifted to Crieve Hall Church of Christ Golden Group or Willow Avenue Church of Christ Goldenaires.

Billy Ray Bowman Obt.

b. 13 July 1943, Cookeville, TN – d. 3 October 2016, Algood, Putnam Co., TN, s/o M. W. Dutch & Beulah Mayberry.

COOKEVILLE— Funeral services for Mr. Bowman will be held Friday Oct., 7, beginning at 1 p.m. from the chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home, with Bro. Horace Burks officiating. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Thursday, Oct. 6 from 6 - 8:00 p.m., and again Friday from 11 a.m. until time of service at 1 p.m.

Billy Ray Bowman, 73, passed from this life Monday, Oct. 3, 2016, at Signature Health Care of Putnam County in Algood, Tennessee.

Mr. Bowman was born Tuesday, July 13, 1943 in Cookeville. He was the son of the late M.W. Dutch and Beulah (Mayberry) Bowman.

Mr. Bowman was loved by many family and friends. He worshipped at Sycamore Church of Christ, loved the Lord and was truly thankful for every day he had on Earth. He worked for Clarence Newman at Newman Sales for many years until health issues caused his retirement in 1986. He was known for his great positive attitude even in sickness, had a great sense of humor, loved telling jokes, and always lifted people's spirits. He had a great memory and could recount stories about people and places from many years ago. He wanted to help people as much as he could and contribute to their happiness. He made sure he really got to know the people around him and would always ask about them and their families. He loved hunting and fishing when he was able, and was never one to complain even with all the issues he had to deal with in life. Last but not least he was a big fan of the Tennessee Volunteers and was so excited when he found out his great-niece, Rebekah Bowman was going to be a student at the University of Tennessee.

He is survived by his brother, Raymond Howard Bowman of Cookeville; nephew, Michael R. and Brenda (Henley) Bowman of Cookeville; and great-niece, Rebekah Jeanine Bowman of Knoxville.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Bowman was preceded in death by his sister, Barbara Gail Bowman.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Betty June Hodges Brady, 81, of Cookeville, will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 3, at Cookeville First United Methodist Church. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 5-8 p.m. on Saturday, April 2, at Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home and from 1 p.m. until time of services on Sunday at the church.

Mrs. Brady died peacefully in her home surrounded by her family on Tuesday, March 29, 2011.

She was born June 3, 1929, in Livingston to the late Cleo (T) and Clema Hettie Brown Hodges.

After graduating from Cookeville Central High in 1947, she received her bachelor's degree from Tennessee

Polytechnic Institute (TTU) in 1951. She married her husband of 53 years, James "Pete" Brady on Dec. 28, 1951. Betty taught grade school while her husband spent 20 years stationed throughout the U.S. and completed two tours in Germany. Betty and her daughters spent two separate years living in Cookeville while Pete served in Korea and Vietnam.

In 1973, Pete retired from the military and they returned to Cookeville. Betty spent many years caring for her ailing mother and then faithfully cared for her husband at home for 14 years before he died of Parkinson's Disease in 2004.

Upon their return to Cookeville, Betty and Pete saw a need to provide clothing for the needy and started the Clothing Center in 1974. Mrs. Brady ran and worked in the center for more than 20 years.

She was a member of the American Legion since 1973. She was also an active member of the Pilot Club and served in several leadership positions. She was a member of Cookeville First United Methodist Church.

Betty will be remembered by her many good friends and family for her uplifting and caring spirit, her love of life, animals and good food.

Her family includes two daughters and a son-in-law, Sallie Brady and her fiancé, Randy Stone of Gallatin and Beth and Keith Merrell of Charlotte, N.C., and a sister and brother-in-law, Jo Ann and Wendell Mobley of Newport.

Pallbearers will be Keith Merrell, Randy Stone, Buddy King, Craig King, Danny Kilpatrick and David Brady.

Sam Brooks was the youngest son born to Allie Brummitt and Mary Erin Brown Brooks. He served in the US Navy during WWII. He was a boatswain mate 1st class aboard the USS Chicago when it was torpedoed.

He was in the water for over 8 hours waiting to be rescued. After he was discharged from the Navy, he returned home to Old Hickory, TN. He soon met Mildred Danner from Gleason, TN.

In less than one month after meeting, they were married in Hernando MS. After the birth of their first son, they both accepted Christ. They were very active in their church and a few years later, Sam felt called to the ministry. The rest of his life was spent doing God's work. He was an exceptionally smart man and God certainly did bless him with an ability to preach and teach His word. He had the ability to explain the Bible so that even a child could understand. He was a very humble and modest man that never wanted a lot of attention drawn to him. He was a very honest and fair person. He truly did live what he preached. He retired from the pastorate due to his health but never retired from preaching God's word. On Friday, before he was taken to the hospital for the last time, he made a recording for a radio broadcast. It took him most of the day due to his being unable to get his breath. Heart problems and diabetes (a Brooks trait) certainly took its toll on this wonderful man that I can so proudly say was my dad.

He and Mildred had four children:

James Walton (Helen VanHooser)

Mary Diane (Virgil Moore)

Kathy Jean (Bob Raymer)

Joe Lynn (Lisa Rymer)

Sam Brooks was referred to as a giant of a man by a lot of people. To his family he was a wonderful husband, father and papaw. We will never stop missing him!

*An elderly Putnam County man found dead at the site of a brush fire yesterday afternoon apparently died of natural causes, Putnam Sheriff Jerry Abston said.

Fred Brown, 74, who lived at 1639 West Broad, was found dead on rental property he owned near his home, the sheriff said.

Brown had been ill recently and had gone out to burn some brush and leaves at his rental property and apparently died of natural causes, falling near the small fire and receiving burns, Abston said.

Sheriff Abston and the coroner investigated, concluding Brown died of natural causes, Abston said.

The incident occurred about 3:15 p.m.

Brown was a retired farmer.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alma Brown of Cookeville; son, Roy Brown of AR; daughter, Marjorie Sue Boswell of GA; brother, Billy Brown of Gainesboro; sister, Mrs. Jene Lynn of AL; nine grandchildren; and two great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son, Freed Kincaid.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete late this morning. Dyer Funeral Home officials said.

(Source: Tennessee State Marriage record, Putnam Co., TN, pg. 329 – Raymond Howard Brown married 20 January 1945, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, age 32, address: Knoxville, TN to Mary Elizabeth Smartt, age 23, address: Cookeville, TN. Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Mrs. Clare M. Smartt, Cookeville, TN).

Mary Elizabeth Smartt Brown, age 91, died peacefully Friday, July 19, 2013, at her home in Nashville.

She is survived by her daughters and sons-in-law Betty Rhea and Mousa Sadreddini and Martha and Larry Larkin, also of Nashville

Born in Cookeville, Tennessee on July 25, 1921 to Clare M. and Mary Alma Odom Smartt, Mary Elizabeth received her elementary and secondary education in Putnam County. She was one of only 18 graduates in the 1941 class of St. Thomas School of Nursing. Following graduation from St. Thomas she returned to Cookeville to work for Dr. W. A. Howard and later for both Dr. Howard and his great nephew, Dr. W. S. Taylor, where she was employed for more than 30 years.

Returning to Cookeville after nursing school Mary Elizabeth met Raymond Brown and they married in 1945. Coach Brown then accepted the position of Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach at Milligan College in Johnson City, Tennessee where Mary Elizabeth worked as the college nurse and secretary to the President of Milligan. The Browns came back to Cookeville in 1947 where she worked as the Head Nurse at the Tennessee Tech Infirmary for a year before returning to work for Dr. Howard in his office practice. In 1978 Mary Elizabeth accepted a position as Chief Industrial Nurse and Head of the Medical Department at the Duriron Corporation that had just established a manufacturing facility in Cookeville. She worked there until her retirement in 1987.

Following her retirement, Mary Elizabeth helped organize and served as the first Chairman of the Tennessee Tech School of Nursing Foundation, a position she held for 8 years. In 1992 she received the Tennessee Tech Outstanding Service Award for her contributions to the School of Nursing and the Cookeville community after 47 years of nursing. In Cookeville she was known as “Nurse Brown” by her many patients and friends.

In 1995, Mary Elizabeth and Raymond moved to Nashville to reside at the Blakeford and be close to their two daughters.

Although a full-time working mother, Mary Elizabeth was active in the programs of the First Baptist Church in Cookeville where her mother was one of the church's founding members. She was a Girls Auxiliary leader, an active member of the Women's Missionary Union, the church Social Chairman for many years and taught Sunday School for over 45 years. Mary Elizabeth and Raymond were among the organizers of the Silver Point Mission and both taught Sunday School there for the first 10 years of the Mission's existence. Following their move to Nashville she and Raymond attended Woodmont Baptist Church.

Mary Elizabeth was a fabulous cook and she had boxes of recipes that she was always willing to share, many of which had been altered to include her special touches and ingredients. One of her greatest enjoyments was a beautifully set table full of delicious food served to family and friends. Mary Elizabeth had a generous heart and she touched many lives in her roles as a daughter, wife, mother and nurse. Mary Elizabeth is also survived by a nephew, William McClain Smartt (Susan) of San Francisco, California and a niece, Katherine Ann Strauss of Stuart, Florida. She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Clare McClain Smartt, Jr.; sister-in-law, Willodean Smartt Zensius; and her loving husband of 67 years, Raymond.

The family wishes to thank friends, neighbors and the staff at Blakeford at Green Hills and the staff of Blakeford at Home, Comfort Keepers and Alive Hospice for their loving care, friendship and support. A Celebration of Life service will be held at the First Baptist Church in Cookeville on Wednesday, July 24 at 1:00 pm. Dr. Randall Adkisson will officiate. The family will receive friends at the church from 10:30 am to 1:00 pm prior to the service. Burial will be in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

Honorary pallbearers will include family and dear friends. In lieu of flowers the family suggests remembrances be made to the Tennessee Tech School of Nursing, P.O. Box 5111, Cookeville, TN 38505, the First Baptist Church of Cookeville, 18 South Walnut Avenue, Cookeville, TN 38501 or Alive Hospice, 1718 Patterson Street, Nashville, TN 37203.

Raymond Howard “Bull” Brown died peacefully Tuesday September 18, 2012 at his home in Nashville, three days after his 100th birthday. He is survived by his wife of 67 years, the former Mary Elizabeth Smartt (whom he married January 20, 1945 in Cookeville), and daughters and sons-in-law Betty Rhea and Mousa Sadreddini and Martha and Larry Larkin, also of Nashville. A long-time resident of Cookeville, he had a distinguished career at Tennessee Technological University where he served for more than 30 years as a faculty member and coach and where he was also a highly decorated student athlete. He graduated from Tennessee Tech in 1942 and served during WWII in the U. S. Navy. When he returned from the service he enrolled in graduate school at the University of Tennessee and also accepted a coaching position on the UT football staff. After completing his Master's Degree in Health and Physical Education at UT, he was named Athletic Director and Head Basketball Coach at Milligan College. He returned to his alma mater in 1947 as a faculty member and coach and remained there until his retirement in 1980. He was known to his numerous friends as “Bull,” a nickname that he earned as a student athlete, and to the hundreds of students he coached and taught as “Coach.” During his student days at Tech, Coach Brown earned 15 athletic letters in four separate sports, more than any other student athlete in the University's history. He twice received the coveted Athletic Medal. His coaching career at Tech included eight seasons as Head Basketball Coach, Assistant Football Coach for seven years and Head Golf Coach for sixteen years. Tennessee Tech won three Ohio Valley Conference golf championships under Coach Brown's direction. He was also named OVC Golf Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Tennessee Tech University Sports Hall of Fame in 1976, the Ohio Valley Conference Hall of Fame in 1980 and the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 1983. The Raymond “Bull” Brown scholarship was established in his honor at Tennessee Tech in 1995. For a number of years, Coach Brown worked with WHUB in Cookeville as the Sports Director and host of a daily sports program. He also provided "Play by Play" commentary for the Putnam County high schools and Tennessee Tech football and basketball games.

Active in civic and community affairs, following his retirement, Coach Brown was a member of the Cookeville City Council for nine years and was elected Vice-Mayor for two council terms. He was appointed by Gov. Lamar Alexander and served as Chairman of the Tennessee Commission on Aging for eight years. As a long-time member of the First Baptist Church in Cookeville, Coach Brown served in a variety of volunteer roles and was a Sunday School teacher for over 40 years. He and his wife were among the founders of the Silver Point Mission and taught Sunday School there for the first 10 years of the Mission's existence. In 2005, Coach and Mrs. Brown moved to The Blakeford at Green Hills in Nashville to be close to their daughters and they attended Woodmont Baptist Church.

A native of Alexandria, Tennessee, he was born September 15, 1912 to the late Nick and Willie Claire Brown. He was preceded in death by his brother, Walton Brown, and his sister, Helen Maxwell Carter. In addition to his wife and daughters, Coach Brown is survived by two nephews, Ron Maxwell (Judy) and David Maxwell (Vivian) as well as three nieces, Sara Warren (Billy), Lydia Holmes (Tim) and Esther Ruth Holder (Jack) and several great nieces and nephews. The family wishes to thank neighbors and the staffs of The Blakeford and Blakeford-at-Home, the staff at Alive Hospice, and Dr. John Thompson, Dr. John Bright Cage and Dr. Heidi Rand for their friendship and their loving care. Celebration of Life services will be held at the First Baptist Church in Cookeville on Saturday, September 22, at 1 pm. Dr. Randall Adkisson will officiate. The family will receive friends at the Church from 10:30 am to 1 pm, prior to the service. Interment with military honors will follow in Crest Lawn Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Noble Cody, Ken Peterson, James Seay Brown, Wallace Prescott, Dusty Rhoden, Flavious Smith, Kenny Sidwell, LaBron Bell, Ronpo bo Maxwell, David Maxwell and Bob Olsen. In lieu of flowers the family requests contributions be made to the Raymond "Bull" Brown Scholarship at Tennessee Tech, Box 1915, Cookeville, TN 38505, or to the First Baptist Church, 18 South Walnut Ave, Cookeville, TN 38501 or a charity of your choice. Virginia Lee Fritts Brown died Monday, March 30, 2020, at the age of 101 at her daughter's home in Cleveland, TN.

Virginia Lee Fritts was born December 19, 1918, in Monterey, TN to Frank Walton Fritts and Olen Holloway Fritts. Her mother worked in the family dry goods store, Holloway & Sons, and her father was a brakeman on the Tennessee Central Railroad.

At Monterey High School Virginia Lee was a basketball player on a state championship team and was valedictorian of her class in 1937. She attended Milligan College for a year and then transferred to Tennessee Tech where she majored in Business. She was a cheerleader, named Tech Sweetheart and was president of the Tech Christian Association, and in Who's Who. In her senior year she was engaged to James Seay Brown, an engineering major who was the first Associated Student Body President at Tech. They both graduated in June of 1941 and were married that July. James Seay joined the engineering faculty at Tech; Virginia Lee worked for the Superintendent of Putnam County Schools for a year, and then taught typing and coached girls' basketball at the high school. James Seay joined the Navy in 1943, and they moved to Boston where he attended Harvard and MIT and learned how to install azimuth radar on ships. While there, their first child, Jim, was born.

By 1946 they were back in Cookeville with James Seay again on the Tennessee Tech faculty. In 1948 their second child, Rebekah, was born, and in 1950 the family spent a year in Illinois while James Seay did graduate studies in engineering there. In 1951 Virginia Lee and her close friend Margaret Prescott were allowed to share a job in the Tech library – Virginia Lee worked in the mornings and Margaret kept the children, and the reverse happened in the afternoons. Virginia Lee kept that job until 1979 when she and James Seay both retired. Very active in First Baptist Church of Cookeville, Virginia Lee taught college women for many years, staffed the clothes closet, worked in the nursery, and spent many Wednesdays at the church with international students. In the community she was involved with Tech Women's Club and the Book Club, and a regular hostess for faculty and staff at Tech.

After retirement Virginia Lee spent ten years with the Crisis Pregnancy Center as a counselor and James Seay kept the books. The two of them also spent about ten years with Habitat for Humanity. And both enjoyed their volunteer years with Cookeville Regional Hospital, wishing they had started that sooner. James Seay passed away in November of 2013, and in May of 2016, at the age of 97, Virginia Lee moved to Garden Plaza, an independent senior living complex in Cleveland TN to be near family. That was a very hard move for her, but with her typical ability to adapt, she made many new friends at Garden Plaza as well as First Baptist Church in Cleveland.

Virginia Lee is survived by her son Jim Brown (Linda), their three children Andrea (Reed Brozen), Josh (Betty), Katy Brown, and their four grandchildren Alison, Will, and Owen Brown and Isabel Brozen. She is also survived by daughter Rebekah (David Chaffin), their three children Curt (Chris) Chaffin, Rachel (Brian Scott) and Virginia (Ryan Breneman), and their nine grandchildren: Brown and Joseay Chaffin, Sarah Scott (Simeon Hinchman), Hannah and Elizabeth Scott, Andrew, Ella, Hugh and Luke Breneman.

Because of COVID-19, there will be a celebration of life at a future date.

COOKEVILLE — Funeral services for Dorothy Mai Bryant, 88, of Cookeville, will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 29, from the chapel of Whitson Funeral Home. Burial will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 5-8 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 28, and from 10 a.m. until time of services on Saturday at the funeral home.

Dorothy was the first daughter of the late William and Maude (Apple) Chaffin. She grew up in Jackson County with her brothers, Willard, Noah, JB, Mitchell and Paul, and helped raise her beloved sister, Jane.

In 1946, she met the love of her life, Mack Marion Bryant. Their son, Harold Eugene “Gene” Bryant was born in 1948. Three years later they moved to Detroit, Mich., where they spent 40 happy years.

Dorothy walked this Earth as an example of love and family devotion. She raised her son with joy, sleeping by the phone for a year waiting for her beloved Gene to come home from Vietnam. When he returned, she opened her heart to his wife and her new daughter, Claudia (Dominski) Bryant. Over the years, she provided never-ending support and love to her granddaughters, Jennifer (Bryant) Rious and Carrie (Bryant) Lewis, helping to raise and shape them into caring and joyful women.

After retirement, “Dot” and “Mack” returned to Cookeville, where they spent 20 years among family and friends, welcoming two adored great-grandchildren; Annaje, Rious and Brody Lewis.

After the death of her husband in 2005, and of her son in 2009, Dorothy’s road was much lonelier, and yet she never lost faith in God or her dedication to family. She continued to do all that she could to guide and support her granddaughters and spoil her darling “greats,” Annaje and Brody.

Dorothy will be missed, but lives on through her granddaughters, whom she taught the meaning of patience, forgiveness and motherhood. She is survived by them; her great-grandchildren; her sons-in-law, Kristopher Rious and Andy Lewis; many nieces, nephews, sisters and brothers-in-law; her niece, Shirley Upchurch, whom she lived with for the last seven months; and Pam Holloway and Jeff Chaffin, who were always there when she needed them, will especially miss her.

Memorial donations can be made in Dorothy’s name to Putnam County Library Memorial Fund, 50 E. Broad, Cookeville, TN 38501 or at pclibrary.org.

Bro. Mike Webb will officiate at the services.

COOKEVILLE — Long-time legendary WHUB Radio announcer/sportscaster Eldon Burgess, 83, of Cookeville, died Tuesday morning, Dec. 23, 2014, in NHC Cookeville after a long battle with Parkinson's Disease. Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 27, at Cookeville First Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Burial will follow in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

Family will receive friends Saturday from 11 a.m. until service time at the church.

He was born March 10, 1931, in Smith County to the late Harvey McMillan and Nellie Ann Howell Burgess.

Mr. Burgess attended school in Brush Creek and worked on his family's farm before attending TN School of Broadcasting.

His broadcast career began in January of 1956, when he moved to Cookeville to begin working at WHUB. Over the next 40+ years, he became a household voice in this area. He was among the best known names and voices on the radio in the Upper Cumberland, in particular in his long-time role as half of the "Gene and Eldon" sportscasting team. Together, they called thousands of basketball, football and baseball games over the years, traveling the nation to cover Tennessee Tech and Cookeville Cavalier Sports. Eldon and Gene were inducted into the TTU Sports Hall of Fame in 1996. Cookeville High honored him by naming the pressbox at Eddie Watson Stadium in his honor. He was inducted into the Cookeville Cavalier Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 2 of this year. He was a long-time member of the Cookeville Evening Lions Club and was once named "Lion of the Decade." His love for people, service and the community continued after retiring from WHUB. He worked at Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home for several years and greeted visitors with a warm smile.

He will be fondly remembered as a kind and thoughtful people person. He was proud of his family and was a loving husband, brother, father and grandfather. He was a member of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, where he served as an elder and Sunday school superintendent. He also loved to garden and to fish.

Mr. Burgess is survived by his wife of 55 years, Carol Gentry Burgess (whom he married Oct. 31, 1959, in Cookeville); two daughters and sons-in-law, Missy and Drew Rawlins of Nashville and Amy and Danny Crooks of Cookeville; three grandchildren, Andy Rawlins, Madison Crooks and Natalie Crooks; a sister and brother-in-law, Ann and Lee Armstrong of Nashville; a brother and sister-in-law, Bill and Linda Burgess of Brush Creek; a brother-in-law, Sidney Williams of Brush Creek; and special friend, Karen Whittaker Robinson of Cookeville.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two sisters, Wanda Williams and Helen Mabe VanStrander.

Memorial contributions are encouraged and can be made to the Cookeville First Cumberland Presbyterian Church Capital Fund, 565 East 10th St., Cookeville, TN 38501.

Lee Webb, Ron Thurman, Al Middleton, Mike Davidson, Eddie Farris, Jeff Peek, Liz Fournet, and Teresa Galey will serve as pallbearers.

Dr. Charles McCaskey will officiate the services.

Holla Burgess, former superintendent of Cookeville's water and sewer department, died Wednesday at Cookeville General Hospital where he was hospitalized earlier this week following a heart attack.

Burgess, 69, retired on Sept. 1, 1974, ending a 27-year career in city service.

Funeral services will be held at Cookeville First Methodist Church at 2 p.m. Friday.

In a Herald-Citizen interview on the eve of his retirement, Burgess said, "I am glad to have been part of such a progressive era in the history of the city."

He had worked 27 years for the City of Cookeville when he retired in 1974 and had seen the water department increase from 1,100 water customers to approximately 5,700 for the year he retired.

In the interview in 1974, Burgess said, "When I was taking water supply and sanitary engineering in college at Tennessee Tech, I did not dream that I would be concerned with it 15 years later."

Burgess' tenure in his job saw the completion of the city's water project to Center Hill, a vast improvement over the days when the city was getting its water from some springs and supplementing it with water from Falling Water River and, later, from the water system at City Lake.

Burgess once said of his "hard moments" as water department head that "about two or three weeks after I started, the six-inch water main broke under the railroad at Mill Street with around a six inch snow on the ground. We were three days locating the valves to cut the water off."

He also recalled, upon the occasion of his retirement, a time in 1950 when a leak broke around the abutment of the dam on Falling Water River and the lake had to be drained to repair the dam to stop the leak.

He had come to work for the city after working with the state highway department and Tennessee Valley authority.

He was a native of Putnam County, son of the late James P. and Cordelia Farley Burgess. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Teola Kell Burgess, and a son, Gary Burgess, both of Cookeville.

Members of the Kiwanis Club and of the Backsliders Class at First Methodist Church will serve as honorary pallbearers. Burial will be in the Crestlawn Cemetery.

The Rev. Roy J. West and the Rev. Robert H. Case will officiate at the services.

Burks was shot and killed in his pickup truck near Monterey, TN, on October 19, 1998. Burk’s political opponent, Byron Looper, allegedly shot and killed him for his seat in the state senate. Looper was arrested and charged with Burk’s murder and in August 2000, he was tried for murder and convicted, and sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. (Byron Looper died in prison on the 26th of June 2013 at Morgan County Correctional Complex in Wartburg, TN).

Tommy Burks (May 22, 1940 – October 19, 1998) was a farmer and Democratic party politician in Tennessee, United States. He served in the Tennessee House of Representatives from 1970 until 1978, and in the Tennessee State Senate from 1978 until his murder in 1998.

Born in Cookeville, Tennessee, Burks was one of the most conservative Democrats in the state legislature. He opposed the teaching of evolution in school science classes (twice introducing legislation to restrict its teaching), legal abortion, gambling, and a state lottery. However, his views seemed to have been very popular and in line with a large number of voters within his rural district.

Burks was an energetic legislator who almost never missed a floor or committee session. It is reported that he would on some occasions arrive at a session having already gotten up on his farm, delivered a load of hogs to Knoxville (approximately 90 miles east of his home) and then driven to the State Capitol in Nashville (100 miles west of his home and 190 miles west of Knoxville). Despite the 100 mile distance, and unlike most legislators from parts of the state a considerable distance from Nashville, Burks made it a practice to go home to his district and his farm almost every night, even during legislative sessions.

Burks was murdered by his Republican Party opponent Byron Looper less than a month before his likely re-election. His widow, Charlotte, ran for his seat and won, becoming the first Tennessee State Senator to win as a write-in candidate and one of very few American politicians to win as a write-in candidate ever.

Interstate 40 through Putnam and Cumberland counties is named the "Tommy Burks Memorial Highway".

COOKEVILLE — Graveside services and interment for Clarcie Edith Flatt Spivey Bush, age 97, will be held Wednesday Nov. 21, at 11 a.m. at Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. Bro. Buddy Johnson will officiate.

Her family will receive friends immediately following the service at the cemetery.

Mrs. Bush died Sunday, Nov. 18, 2018, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

She was born April 19, 1921, in Jackson County, Tennessee, to the late Walter and Daisy Dixon Flatt and was a graduate of Jackson County High School where she played basketball. Her love of sports continued through her life — she was an accomplished bowler and won first place in speed walking in the Tennessee Senior Olympics. She also enjoyed watching sports and was an avid fan of the Atlanta Braves.

Clarcie served as director of the Cookeville Senior Citizens Center for 41 years. She was a Christian and has been a member of Jefferson Ave. Church of Christ since moving to Cookeville in 1965. She loved to play cards, travel, and will be fondly remembered for her selflessness, fun and feisty nature. She was strong and loving and a true example of how we should live our lives.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by husbands, James "Tab" Spivey and Douglas Bush; son, Rick Scott Spivey; sisters, Susie Manwaring, Dezza Flatt, Allie Bass, Ruby Walker Billingsley and Winnie Williford; brothers, Garland Flatt and Cowan "Jargo" Flatt; and son-in-law, Jack Scott.

She is survived by daughter, Jane Scott; and granddaughter, Jamie and husband Micah Allison.

Memorial donations are suggested and may be made to Happy Haven Children's Home, 2311 Wakefield Drive, Cookeville, TN 38501 and/or Jefferson Ave. Church of Christ, 521 S. Jefferson Ave., Cookeville, TN 38501.

COOKEVILLE -- Funeral services for Mary Martha Bush, 86, of Cookeville, will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, April 21, at Cookeville First Presbyterian Church USA. Interment will follow in Crest Lawn Memorial Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 5-8 p.m. today, Tuesday, April 20, at the Cookeville Chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home and from 10 a.m. until time of services on Wednesday at the church.

Mrs. Bush passed away early Sunday morning, April 18, 2010, in Cookeville Regional Medical Center after an extended illness. A family member was at her side at the time of her death. She was born March 10, 1924, in Wartburg to the late James Everett and Maud Williams Tanner.

Mrs. Bush was the only daughter and had five brothers. She met her future husband while she was working at the Civilian Conservation Corps in Morgan County in 1940. They were married on July 30, 1942, right before he departed with the 947th Field Artillery Unit, heading overseas to fight in World War II. Mrs. Bush was a lifelong and very active member of Cookeville First Presbyterian Church USA. She was an accomplished pianist and enjoyed playing the piano. She was a standout basketball player in high school and a graduate of Central High School in Wartburg. Avid Tennessee Tech Golden Eagle and Eaglette fans, both she and her late husband, Ralph, had season tickets for many years until declining health prevented them from attending the games. She also enjoyed watching Tennessee Lady Vols basketball games. She was a member of Cookeville Senior Citizens and was active with the center's Meals on Wheels Program. As a volunteer, she delivered meals to senior citizens for many years. She was a homemaker and had worked a number of years for McCords General Products Division (formerly Delman). She enjoyed many family camping trips to Dale Hollow Lake and loved to swim and ski during the 1950s. In the early 1960s, after a cabin was built on Center Hill Lake, the lake recreation activities were closer to home. She was an excellent cook but the meals she prepared at the lake were always superb. Another hobby she enjoyed was growing flowers, especially roses, and had a green thumb growing them. Mrs. Bush always went out of her way to help her friends, several of whom did not have transportation available to them. She would take them to town whenever they needed to go and always enjoyed doing it for her friends. Also, she accompanied her late husband, Ralph, on his many trips with a van load of army buddies and their wives, attending the 181-947 Field Artillery Association reunions all across the United States. They also attended Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) reunions held in different state parks across Tennessee.

Her family includes three sons and two daughters-in-law, Charles Edward Bush and fiancée Betty Parnell of Nashville, Chester and Peggy Bush of Crossville and Wendell and Linda Jackson Bush of Cookeville; four grandchildren, Marcus Bush, Karen Bush, Matthew and wife Amy Bush and Daryl Bush; two great-grandchildren, Ian Preston Bush and Landon Houston Bush; two brothers, Ernest Tanner of Clarksville and Nick Tanner of Wartburg; and a sister-in-law, Lillian Tanner of Maryville. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph Houston Bush, and three brothers, John, Billy and Holman Tanner. Pallbearers will be family and friends. Memorial donations may be made to Cookeville First Presbyterian Church Building and Grounds Fund, 20 North Dixie Avenue, Cookeville, TN 38501. Revs. Pat Handlson and Ernest Robertson will officiate at the services. Please share your thoughts and memories at www.hhhfunerals.com, (931) 526-6111.
