DECORATION DAY SLATED AT DOUBLE SPRINGS CEMETERY

A lone cedar tree more than 100 years old stands on a hill in the midst of monuments dedicated to former residents of Putnam County. Some of the oldest monuments include Granville West, 1867; Fannie Barnes, 1886; Charley Bradford, 1892; and Adam Palk, confederate soldier, 1910. One of the tallest monuments is dedicated to A.M. Montgomery, 1898.

Double Springs Cemetery will hold Decoration Day for families and friends on Sunday, July 26. A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. under the open shelter at the cemetery with a business meeting to follow.

The cemetery was established around the time of the Civil War and is still used after 130 years. Many people can find several generations of their family in this cemetery.

The grounds are maintained through voluntary donations on Decoration Day and throughout the year. An elected body of trustees, including Charles Tims, June Herron, Gary Brewington and Clarence Nash report to the association each year on Decoration Day.

Trustees will be at the cemetery Saturday and Sunday to accept donations, which may also be mailed to Double Springs Cemetery Assoc., Inc., Box 366, Cookeville, TN 38503.

The cemetery is located west of Cookeville on Hwy. 70 at Double Springs.

Pistol Shot Causes Death of J. E. Bradford, 20, of Double Springs, who died instantly from a pistol wound Friday night, were conducted by the Rev. Hugh May at the Bradford home Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment was in the Double Springs Cemetery.

According to Sheriff M. T. Warren, Bradford was shot fatally at a service station in Double Springs Friday night by Joe Baldwin, a World War veteran. The sheriff said that Bradford came to the station where Baldwin was and that he had been drinking. He said that the two, who had held an old grudge against each other, became involved in a heated argument.

Warren said that the proprietor requested Baldwin to leave and that he did. About 20 minutes later, the sheriff said, Baldwin returned, stood outside the station, and fired one shot from an automatic pistol through the window at Bradford. The shot went through Bradford's heart, the sheriff reported.

At a preliminary hearing before Squire Paschall Matheny, Baldwin was released on a $2,500 bond.

Surviving Bradford are his widow, Mrs. Evelyn McBroom Bradford; his father, John Bradford; mother, Mrs. Florence Philpot, of Double Springs; four sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Clinton, of Nashville, Mrs. Ruby Morgan, Cookeville, and Mrs. Daisy Baldwin and Miss Estelle Bradford, of Double Springs, and one brother, James Bradford, U. COOKEVILLE — Funeral services for Fred Bryant, 71, of Sparta, will be held Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 1 p.m. in the chapel of Presley Funeral Home with Bro. Clayton Lee officiating. Interment will follow in Double Springs Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home today, Monday, Nov. 13, from 4-7 p.m., and Tuesday, Nov. 14, from noon until service time at 1 p.m.

Mr. Bryant passed away Thursday, Nov. 9, 2017, at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

He was born Aug. 30, 1946, in Cookeville, to the late James Henry Bryant and Ann Bryant Dunn.

Beginning in September of 1965, he started his military career in the army at Fort Gordon, Georgia. Fred continued to serve for the next three years finishing up with an honorable discharge in September 1968, at Fort Benning, Alabama. He served in the aviation unit as a crew chief for one tour of duty in Vietnam.

For the next 45 years, Fred made Dodson Branch (Jackson County) his home. He was president of the Dodson Branch Community Center for many years. His unselfish, charitable spirit brought him many friends. He enjoyed “front porch sittin” and watching his numerous hummingbird feeders flock with hummingbirds. What time he wasn’t doting on his grandkids he was spending it in the woods or on the water. He loved to hunt and the smile on his face when he “got one” was priceless. Those were happy times! He enjoyed hunting and fishing, gardening, gun collecting, western movies and football. His main joy was always spending time with his grandkids and always trying to do for them. He loved family gatherings and cooking for the holidays. He would always ask us what we wanted to eat but when we gave him our selections he would say...” this is not the Holiday Inn!” He loved to tease and make jokes. Sometimes we would laugh ‘till we cried.

Fred was always happy to lend a helping hand and was a friendly neighbor. He made some very special friends. Even during his time of sickness, he was always thinking about others. His first great-grandbaby made his debut in November. He asked every day if the baby was here yet. He wanted to see him and hold him. Fred took his final breath within hours of his first great-grandchild's birth. He loved all his grandkids and great grandbaby dearly. Even though he finished out his final days in a hospital bed we will always remember him at home, laid back in his easy chair, curled up with his beloved dog Bear watching western's or football.

His survivors include his wife of 50 years, Patricia Mae Bryant of Sparta; two sons and daughters-in-law, Kenneth James and Chasity Bryant of Cookeville, Johnny Dewayne and Martha Cheryl Bryant of Sparta; grandchildren and their spouses, Elizabeth Nicole (James) Gomez of Joint Base Lewis McChord in Tacoma, Washington, Johnathan Samuel Bryant of Sparta, Jacklynn Elizabeth Bryant of Sparta, Shelbi Lyne Bryant of Cookeville, Kenneth David Bryant of Sparta, and Christina Evelyn Dyer of Sparta; great-grandchild, Malachi Raider Gomez of Tacoma; brother, Deloy Bryant of Cookeville; sister, Wanda Bryant of Nashville; half-sister, Mary Dunn of Cookeville; special friends, Kenneth Brown of Knoxville (whom served with him in the military), Dallas Lowe of Cookeville and Chuck Frasier of Sparta.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two brothers, Douglas Bryant and Harlan Bryant.

Pallbearers will be family and friends.

CANTRELL, MILTON: Unfortunate Accident -- Monday afternoon when the train returning from Lebanon had reached Spring Creek, the engine and brakemen went in on the sidetrack to pull out a car. Milton Cantrell and Ack Meachum, two brakemen, went down to make the coupling. Mr. Cantrell thinking the draw head of the car was too low to couple, lifted it up and directed Meachum to put a rock under it. While holding the draw head, the engine was backing struck him, mashing him between the two draw heads, when the engine was signaled ahead, Cantrell dropped helpless to the ground, but was quickly assisted by his brother laborers, who placed him in the baggage car and the train made a quick run to Watertown where Dr. Blair was summoned and who accompanied Cantrell to his home at this place. Arriving here, Dr. G. W. Whitney was called in and examination made and it was found that the left hip and side were crushed and the wounded man was pronounced to be in a precarious condition. All was done that was possible to relieve his suffering, but he could not endure the injuries received. He lingered through the night amid excruciating pain, and died about 7:30 Tuesday morning. His remains were immediately taken charge of by the members of Lily Lodge, No. 91, K. P., of which he was a beloved member, some of whom were with him from the moment that he was hurt, until the last clod was thrown on his grave. . . . A special train was tendered by the N. & K. officials to convey the remains, relatives, and Knights and their families to Double Springs, where his body was buried at 7 o'clock in the afternoon with the impressive K. of P. ceremony. Milton Cantrell was a native of Putnam county, among his relatives are numbered some of the best people of this county. . . . He was married last fall to Miss Judd of Double Springs, who with his aged mother, are grief-stricken at their sudden loss. Our deepest sympathy is with them. Grand Jury To Get Draper Murder Case:

Preliminary hearing for Mrs. Eula Waldrip, Cookeville department store clerk, charged with the murder of Ben Draper, 29-year-old skating rink operator, at her home Sunday afternoon, was scheduled for one o'clock this afternoon.

The preliminary hearing was expected to mean nothing more than waiving the case to the May grand jury. Mrs. Waldrip made a $10,000 bond shortly after she notified the sheriff's office of the trouble.

Mrs. Waldrip is alleged to have stabbed Draper with a saber when, she told officers, he tried to force his way into her home on King Street. She said Draper tried to get in the front door and on finding it locked, rushed to the back door and broke the glass and was making an effort to unlock the door when the tragedy occurred.

The 36-inch saber was a Japanese souvenir send to Mrs. Waldrip by her husband.

Draper was stabbed one time near, or in the heart. Services were held for him Tuesday. Burial was in Double Springs Cemetery.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 3 April 1947.

Mrs. Waldrip Freed

Mrs. Eula Waldrip, 31-year-old department store clerk, was acquitted in Criminal Court this week for the saber-murder of Ben Draper, 29, at her home March 30 as he was entering the back door of her King Street home.

Mrs. Waldrip was freed on a plea of self defense, and the only thing the state attempted to show was that she and Draper had been intimate.

Proof in the case showed that the defendant had told Draper several times by telephone on that Sunday morning that she did not want to see him again for him not to come to her home; that he did come to her home in the afternoon and after not gaining admittance at the front door he went to the back and broke the glass from a door and was unlocking it when she stabbed him near or through the heart. She said she was attempting to stab Draper in the arm.

Mrs. Waldrip testified that Draper had his knife open at the time and was threatening to kill her when he got in.

The gunshot victim already at the hospital was later identified as Caleb Venable. He was transported to Vanderbilt University Medical Center, where he was treated and released.

Detectives have since arrested four people, including 20-year-old Issac Sides, 22-year-old Kayla Cowen, 22-year-old Caleb Venable, and 20-year-old Haleigh Watkins. All were charged with first-degree murder and have been taken to the Putnam County Jail without bond.

Cookeville mother upset over plea deals given in son's murder case

By Tori Gessner WKRN.Com 11 October 2022

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. (WKRN) — Two men charged in the December 2020 killing of 23-year-old Brent Flatt pleaded guilty to second degree murder in late September, the same day the trial for one of the accused killers was scheduled to begin.

Then 20-year-old Isaac Sides and then 22-year-old Caleb Venable both agreed to plead guilty to a lesser charge of second degree murder and serve 35 years in prison for Flatt's murder on Sept. 27, the date Sides' trial was supposed to start.

Amy Flatt, Brent's mother, said she told the district attorney she didn't believe the plea deals were a harsh enough punishment, and added she had no say in whether they would be offered.

"Then (the District Attorney's Office) said they were going to offer one, basically it wasn't my decision, it was theirs, and ultimately they thought it was a good deal, and they were going to take it," Flatt said. "I still told them I didn't agree with it, but that's what they decided to do."

Flatt's mother has spent almost two years without her son, who she described as her life.

"He was just an amazing person, funny," Flatt said. "The house is so empty now. Without him, it's just a different world."

Her world changed on Dec. 20, 2020 when Cookeville police said Sides, Venable, and then 20-year-old Haleigh Watkins and then 22-year-old Kayla Cowen lured Brent to a home on Wildwood Road in Cookeville, then robbed and shot him multiple times.

Frank Vaughn and Bro. Perry Wilmoth officiating. Burial was in the Double Springs Cemetery. Whitson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: 18 July 1955.

**Joe grew up to marry Dee Hensley. By 1920 27-year-old Joe and 25-year-old Dee were farming in Clay County, Tennessee, next door to the farm of his parents and two of his sisters. The couple continued to farm in Clay County the rest of Joe's life.

On March 5, 1946, Joe, age 53, left home to plow a field in a remote area called Poor House Ridge. He was followed to that field by two men Walter Dailey and "Little" Frank Brown. The two men erroneously thought that Joe had turned them into the police for operating an illegal moonshine still. The two men shot Joe from ambush as he was plowing and then stood over his body and shot him repeatedly. His murder was investigated by Deputy Shelby Nolan, Constable Raymond Barlow, and Sheriff Bryan Davis with the assistance of Jim Marable and his bloodhounds. The brutal murder was made famous when it was featured in an magazine entitled Headquarters Detective in an article entitled "The Farmer Went Out Into His Field To Do His Spring Plowing." Dailey and Brown pled guilty and were sentenced to 50 years in prison. The magazine article ends with the following statement, "Thus was avenged the cowardly murder of Joe Gentry, whose one fault was that he was a staunch believer in law and order."

Joe was buried in Fitzgerald Cemetery, Celina, Clay County, Tennessee. His wife Dee never remarried. She died at the age of 60 on July 17, 1953, and was buried in Double Springs Cemetery, Double Springs, Putnam County, TN.

Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Hersell Murphy, Rt. 6, Cookeville, TN).

Anna "Jewell" Herron, 102 of Baxter passed from this life Friday, March 26, 2021 at her home surrounded by her family. She was born October 22, 1918 to the late Alvin and Selina (Palk) Goolsby. Jewell was born in Medon, Tennessee but grew up in Bloomington Springs, Double Springs, and the Thomas Community.

She worked at the Cookeville Shirt Factory for a couple of years then at Acme Boot Company for 33 years. She loved her work and all the friends she made at Acme before retiring to care for her elderly mother.

Jewell was a member of the Church of Christ and attended Bethlehem Church of Christ for 78 years and then attended Sycamore Church of Christ until her death.

She was married 58 years to the late Otto Herron. Jewell and Otto always kept an open door policy and their doors were never locked. Their yard was joined to Bethlehem Church of Christ and Thomas Elementary School. There was rarely a Sunday or a day that went by when there was not a visitor in their home. Jewell always cooked for crowds and not just her family. One of the joys in her later years was cooking meals for the college students at the (SOC) Servants of Christ at Sycamore Church of Christ.

She was known by her family, church family, neighbors, and coworkers for her Christian example, her loving, kind manner, her hospitality, her cooking, and contagious laugh. She was a friend a counselor to many youth and teens throughout the neighborhood. Her door was always open for counseling, teaching, sharing wisdom, hugs, food, fun, and laughter. She referred to them as her "adopted sons and daughters"/ Jewell was known to many as "Granny Jewell."

After raising her four children, she assisted her son Jimmy in raising his three children, Jeff, Jerry, and Jill. This kept her young at heart and wise through another generation. She loved to mow grass and in addition to mowing her own yard, she maintained and mowed Double Springs Cemetery on Highway 70 and the Thomas-Herron cemetery on Water Plant Road for several years.

Jewell loved to sing Gospel songs whether at church, at home, in the garden, or riding in a pick-up-truck. Jewell and Otto were constantly attending Gospel meetings and signings. Even in her late years when her memory was fading she could still sing many of the old Gospel songs.

Her family member include 3 daughters: Joyce (L.D.) Anderson, June (Dale) Garrett, both of Baxter, and Jackie Lynn Herron (Chris) of Owensville, Indiana; son: the late Jimmy D. Herron of Baxter; brother: Joe Goolsby of Cookeville; sisters: the late Inex Bowen Thomas, the late Mary Guinn Pierce, and Liloene Styers of Kentucky; 6 grandchildren, the late Jeff Herron, the late Jerry Herron, and the late Phillip Herron, Jill Lee, Beverly Hall, Barry Anderson; 11 great-grandchildren. the late Brian Herron and the late Brandi Herron, Tavis, Toby, and Troy Lee; Andy and Adam Hall, Lauren Hall Fox; William Anderson; Jesse and Anna Herron; 16 Great-Great-Grandchildren; She had wonderful nieces, nephews, cousins, and in-laws which are dear to her heart.

Funeral Service were held Monday, March 29, 2021 from the chapel of Crest Lawn Funeral Home with Brother David Lipe, great-grandsons: Andy Hall, Adam Hall, and Toby Lee officiating. Interment followed at the Double Springs Cemetery.

Judy H Hyzer, 82 of Cookeville, Tennessee peacefully went to be with the Lord on Sunday, March 3, 2024, while being surrounded by her loved ones.

Born Monday, February 9, 1942 in Liberty, New York, she was the daughter of the late Ray Yaun and the late Hazel Yaun.

Being raised in the Catskill of northern New York, Judy was a graduate of Liberty High School. There were many family clambakes in the backyard. She helped in the area nursing home, then became a teller at the local bank. She moved to Cookeville 1981, where she's been for the last 43 years.

Judy was a very loving wife, Mom, and Grandma. She loved her children, all of them. She was a very family oriented person, having many gatherings during the holidays and whenever the kids just wanted to get together, they always went home.

Judy was the "firecracker" of the family, she was quite verbose. "Your never too old to help", Judy volunteered at the YMCA's in the "Learn to Swim" program while she was in her 70's, and always donated to St. Jude's Childrens Hospital. She would call the family in New York to keep up to date with them and would always let the Cookeville bunch know what was going on up there, even though they don't remember them. She loved everyone and everyone loved her. Judy was a Godly Woman and loved the Lord.

Her father Ray, and brother, Raymond started Yaun's Plumbing Company in New York and has now grown to a much larger company.

Judy is survived by 2 sons: Tracy (Amy Cronk) Hyzer of Cookeville & Todd Hyzer of Cookeville

Shoots Self In Hip In Attempt To Draw Pistol:

Aged Putnam And Jackson Countians Argue Over Taxes: Both Shot: May File Warrants:

Charlie Jernigan, 60, farmer, and a former Double Springs filling station operator, is suffering wounds received near his home at Double Springs last Friday afternoon when he shot himself in an effort to pull a .41 derringer pistol from his hip pocket in an alleged attempt to fire on Jim Godsey, 70.

The pistol fired while he was grouping for it, Double Springs residents said, and the bullet lodged in the center of his hip. He was brought to the City Hospital here, where he was treated. The bullet was not extricated.

Baxter Jernigan, son of the self injured man, and Jim Godsey; 70, of Jackson county, were involved in the shooting, the younger Jernigan firing a .12 gauge shotgun, supposedly at Godsey, the shot of which struck a car owned by Rufe Flatt, 40, also of Jackson county, and glanced into Godsey's back.

Mixed Report: According to information given out at Double Springs, Godsey and Jernigan had an argument over some taxes.

Sheriff Hubert Crawford, who is making an investigation of the case, declared that Godsey got mad at Jernigan after Jernigan had sued him. He went to Jernigan's home, according to the sheriff, intent on killing Jernigan.

Baxter Jernigan, who operates a garage at Double Springs, fired next, the load from his shot glancing from the Flatt roadster and striking Godsey in the back; Godsey was taken to the Millis Hospital near Baxter for treatment.

Neither of the men was seriously wounded.

Godsey had been drinking, Sheriff Crawford said. He lives in Jackson county, ten miles from Double Springs.

Sheriff Crawford said that warrants would probably be taken for the arrest of Godsey this week. He did not state on what grounds they would be based.

Jernigan, Elva: TAKES HER OWN LIFE - One of the saddest tragedies ever occurring in Putnam county happened last Friday, when Miss Elva Jernigan took her own life. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Jernigan, who live near Double Springs. Her father was away on a trip and her mother spent Friday with a neighbor. Coming home about supper time she missed Elva, but thought she was at some neighbors. The girl did not come home during the night, and early Saturday morning her dead body was found hanging in the loft of the barn at her home. The alarm was given and soon a crowd assembled. The body was taken down and an inquest held by a justice of the peace summoning a jury, whose verdict was that the girl came to her death by her own hands. The act was probably done sometime Friday afternoon or early night. There were no marks on the body or any evidence of a struggle. Elva Jernigan was about 19 years old, a lovable, sweet-natured girl, admired by all who knew her. She was planning to attend the new state school in Cookeville this fall, and apparently was in good health and the best of good spirit. No cause is known for her fatal action. The cutting off of her young life has cast a gloom over the entire section, and the people sincerely sympathize with the grief-stricken family. d. 30 May 1912, Buffalo Valley, TN – age 38

Cause of Death: Shot (shot by Myrtle (Hurst) Barnes)

Occupation: Hotel proprietor

Doctor: J. J. Allison, physician

County Court Clerk: W. O. Watson

(September 3, 1974) Myrtle Judd was interviewed this week about the heyday of Double Springs, it was the railhead for the Tennessee Central Railroad serving Gainesboro, Celina, Whitleyville and points north.

Mrs. Judd lives alone now in the rambling, two-story white frame house that was once Judd's Hotel, once one of two in Double Springs. The other, the Pippin Hotel, was torn down 50 years ago and there's only a vacant lot there today.

Mrs. Judd charged 50 cents for a room and 25 cents for meals in the hotel's glory years when several passenger trains a day stopped at Double Springs.

The community once boasted the two hotels, four stores, a school and a railway station. It was a beehive of activity, she said.

The station closed in 1960, three years after the TC discontinued passenger service. Shortly afterwards, the depot was torn down.

Mrs. Judd began working for the railroad in 1918 as a tie and timber agent. She later also added running the depot to her duties. She retired in 1962, after working at the Baxter depot her last two years.

Killing At Double Springs:

A deplorable tragedy was enacted in the Seventh Civil District of this county last Friday afternoon when Sam McBroom, a highly respected farmer living near McBroom’s Chapel was shot and mortally wounded by Bev Pippin.

McBroom was hurried to a Nashville hospital in the hope that an operation might save his life, but he died Saturday morning at 10 o’clock, about three hours after his arrival at St. Thomas Hospital. When he reached the hospital he was so near dead that no operation was attempted. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Double Springs cemetery by Elder C. L. Talley of this city, and Elder Goolsby of Double Springs, his funeral being attended by several hundred people.

The deceased was thirty-seven years old and was a son of Sam McBroom, a well-known pioneer citizen of this county. He owned his father’s old farm on which he resided with his wife and only child, Arthur McBroom, and his aged mother. He was a brother of Mrs. Houston Dyer of the Seventh district and had many other relatives in this county.

There was a dispute between McBroom and Plunkett Whitson over about one acre of ground, each of them claiming the land. First reported that Bev Pippin claims to have purchased the timber on the disputed land from Plunkett Whitson.

On Friday afternoon McBroom returned to his home from a singing school, which was being conducted at McBroom’s Chapel, and found Bev Pippin outing timber on the disputed land. Some of Pippin’s relatives were with him at the time. McBroom requested them to desist from cutting the timber, and warm words ensued between him and Pippin, which were soon followed by the difficulty in which McBroom lost his life. McBroom received three pistol shots in his body. He also fired on Pippin but Pippin did not receive any injury.

Pippin is a married man and is about forty years old. He came to Cookeville Saturday and offered to surrender to the Sheriff, but as no warrant had been sworn out against him he was not taken into custody, Pippin claims self defense.

The scene of the killing was only about 25 yards from the residence of McBrooms.

Sam McBroom was a good citizen and was never before involved in a serious difficulty.

He was known as one of the best singer's in the county and was a man of unusual intelligence and industry. He was a candidate for the democratic nomination for county Register two years ago and made a creditable race.

This unfortunate tragedy came as a great shock to the community and is deeply deplored by everyone.

Funeral services for James H. Price, 81, of Lebanon and formerly of Cookeville will be held Wednesday, September 13, 2017 at 11:30 AM in the chapel of Presley Funeral Home with Pastor Frank Rodgers officiating. Interment will follow in Double Springs Cemetery.

The family will receive friends Tuesday 3:00 PM to 7:00 PM and Wednesday 10:00 AM until service time at the funeral home.

Mr. Price passed from this life on Saturday September 9, 2017 at home in Lebanon, TN.

Jim as he was known by his family and friends was born September 24, 1935 in Grayson County, VA to the late Con & Ida Blevins Price. Jim was the 4th of 5 children and the only boy in the family.

Jim left home at the young age of 15 to move to Pennsylvania and start his working career in a saw mill.

Jim married Marion Louise Snell on January 15, 1955 in Marion, VA in the middle of a blizzard as he so often loved to tell. Jim and Marion were blessed with 4 boys and 1 girl over the next 13 years. A few years later he was employed by Bethlehem Steel Corporation where he worked for 23 years as an iron ore miner in the Grace Mine in Morgantown, PA. Jim became a skilled small engine mechanic while working a second job at Reber's Service Station in Honey Brook, PA to help raise his children and keep their mother from having to work outside the home. Jim opened Price's Lawn Mower Shop in his garage at the home he and Marion purchased in Elverson, PA in 1968. Jim worked these 2 jobs until 1977 when Bethlehem Steel closed the mine in Morgantown. Not sure he could support his family under the newly elected Jimmy Carter administration with just the lawn mower and chainsaw business that he had grown into 2 additional buildings on his property in Elverson, Jim accepted a job offer from New Jersey Zinc Mining Company in Gordonsville, TN.

At the age of 42 Jim sold everything in Pennsylvania and moved his wife and four of his children to Cookeville, TN. After a few years at New Jersey Zinc, Jim was offered a position with the federal agency MSHA as a mine safety inspector. After experiencing firsthand the bureaucracy of the federal government for which he had no patience, Jim once again turned to his love of lawn mower and chainsaws and opened Price's Garage on Buffalo Valley Road in Cookeville in 1980. Jim spent his next 23 years building his business through hard work and honest dealings until he retired in 2003 and sold the business.

Jim enjoyed his retirement with Marion his wife of over 62 years and even took a Caribbean cruise their children gave them for their 50th Wedding Anniversary. Jim and Marion moved to Lebanon, TN in August of 2015.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Conley & Ida Price; three sisters, Orpha Shumate, Mildred Kilby, and Charlotte Vogt; and one son, James Albert Price.

He is survived by his wife, Marion Price; sister, Joyce Greer of Elkin, NC; three sons, Lee Price (Cindy Apple) of Cookeville, TN, Ray (Donna) Price of Cookeville, TN, and David (Michelle) Price of Cookeville, TN; a daughter, Beth Price of Lebanon, TN; eight grandchildren, Jeremy (Rachel) Price of Apopka, FL, Andrew Price of Cookeville, TN, Jason Price of Cookeville, TN, Ryan Price of Cookeville, TN, Rachel Beechboard (Brent) of Lebanon, TN, Ethan Price of Cookeville, TN, Kayla Renee Dailey of Cookeville, TN, and Will Price of Cookeville, TN, in addition to several bonus grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Andrew Price, Bobby Beechboard, Brent Beechboard, Ethan Price, Jeremy Price, Richard Holt and Rob Hall, Ryan Price and Will Price.

Source: Some Prominent Pioneer Citizens of Putnam County and Their Record, By Ernest H. Boyd
Putnam County Herald, Cookeville, TN: Thursday, 18 June 1953.

Joseph A. Ray was one of the most prominent and active leaders in the early history of Putnam County. He was the first County Court Clerk of the county after the county was first established. He was an officer in the Mexican War. After the Civil War, he was elected Circuit Court Clerk. He was a large land owner and a large slave owner. He lived, from his young manhood until his death, five miles West of Cookeville on the Nashville road. His residence was the Double Springs, before there was a village or railroad by that name. Throughout his active life he was the proprietor of a general store, located a short distance East of his residence. For many years the Double Springs post-office was at his store. He was an active live stock trader and before the Civil War was a prosperous businessman. The Civil War freed his slaves and he lost heavily on account of debts owing him for live stock by Southern planters and traders who were rendered insolvent by the Civil War. His wife was a daughter of Daniel W. Hawes, a prominent pioneer citizen of this county, who later, for many years, was a prominent merchant of Gainesboro.

THE STAGE ROBBERY.—One day in the year 1881, as the old Nashville stage coach came lumbering down the Walton Road in the vicinity of Pond Spring (Pekin), three masked men stepped from a clump of bushes on the road side, and ordered Uncle John Rayburn, the veteran driver, to hold up his hands. The outlaws were “Bug” Hunt and two Edwards boys. After securing several hundred dollars from the passengers they disappeared in the woods.

SLAGLE, RUBY: Baby Suicides -- Ruby Slagle, six year old daughter of Filmore Slagle, of Double Springs, ended her life at her home Monday, jumping into a well. Recently the child unusually pretty and attractive, by handling a bottle of acid she had picked up, was fearfully burned about the face and hands, the burns leaving ugly scars. Greatly distressed by this the, child brooded over the scars. She is said to have declared her purpose to jump into the well. She was closely watched but yesterday while her parents thought her asleep she carried out her purpose. They were attracted by her screams as she struck the water but reached her too late.

Her family will receive friends Monday from 11 a.m. until service time.

Juanita passed away Saturday October 22, 2022 at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

She was born June 12, 1930 in Putnam County, TN to the late Johnny Buck Allen and Osia Mae Stewart Allen.

Juanita was a member of Dodson Branch Freewill Baptist Church. She was retired from F & W Vending Company in Cookeville.

She lived a long, loving and meaningful life. She was a storyteller. She traveled across the states in her younger years. She had a love for her family and knowing her ancestors and where she came from. She was a social butterfly and did not know a stranger. Her favorite holiday was Christmas because she was surrounded by those she loved. She was a wife, mother, grandmother, friend and above all a lover for Jesus.

In her early years she enjoyed raising her family and traveling. She had a taste for fashion and was always stylish in picking her wardrobes. She soon became a pillar of a small community in Dodson Branch where she enjoyed time with her grandkids, hosting large family gatherings, decorating for Christmas inside and out, and participating in community events at the Dodson Branch community center. She was a woman of faith and enjoyed singing in church.

As the years slowly passed she became more settled in and focused on the word of God, being with her family, working crossword puzzles in her easy chair, being the first to nibble on holiday feasts because she just couldn't wait (she made the best cornbread!), lounging around in her pajamas all day watching Hallmark movies and loving on her grand-dog, Bear.

92 years filled with memories, countless blessings, love and loss, joy and pain. She spent most of her time on this earth preparing for her eternal life; she ran the race, she broke the chains. I hope they love her in heaven as much as we loved her here on earth. She will be in our hearts forever and greatly missed.

She is survived by a daughter, Patricia Bryant of Cookeville; a son, Anthony (Sheila) Steele of Cookeville; a brother, Johnny Buck Allen of Michigan; eight grandchildren; 18 great grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; her grand-dog, Bear; along with a host of nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Samuel Burnell Steele; a daughter, Betty Jane Norris; two sisters; a brother; two son-in-laws; and 1 granddaughter.

Pallbearers will be Curtis Norris, Johnny Bryant, Johnathon Bryant, Kenneth Bryant, Ken Bryant, DJ Coulson and Bernie Friesel.

Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

A year has gone by without you,
Oh, how lonely we have been Without our dear Mother and Granny
And beloved friend.
Giving you up was so very hard to do,
But God said, "It's time for you to go."
And we said goodbye to some we loved so.
They day we said goodbye
Was a day filled with sadness and tears,
But we know that you have left use with a
Precious gift of love hope and strength,
That came from some one
Who made our world a brighter place.
Her life a legacy of joy, pride and pleasure.
A loving, lasting memory our saddened
Hearts will treasure.

We love and miss you
