Turn off Burgess Falls Road at Gentry's Chapel; left on first road; about 1 mi; cemetery on right. This cemetery is located south of I-40 in Cookeville. Go south on Burgess Falls Road to Gentry Chapel Church, turn right on Cane Creek Road and then turn left at Bennett Road to the first gravel road. It is located just a short distance on the right up a hill and the driveway goes around the cemetery.

This was probably started as family cemetery in 1856 when the son of William Gentry and Lucinda Conway died. Thomas L. Gentry is the oldest grave with a legible marker. There are many unmarked graves and it is said that there are many graves outside the fence. There are some markers that were moved here from farms of the different families. The decoration is in August and it is fairly well maintain throughout the year.

From a family member ... Martha "Zenie" was born April 27, 1888/7 and died on May 25, 1909 in "Shingles" (that was the name of the Post Office) White County, TN. She was 22 at the time. I found her death certificate listed as Mrs. Garfield Bumbalough. An Ancestry file stated that she was buried at the old Home place. Garfield was living with his parents in the 1910 census in Putnam County, so not sure if that is where Zenie is buried. Zenie had a least 4 children: Twin girls who were born and died around 1904 and two sons, Birch who was born on Jul 3, 1905 and died in July if 1978 and Bryd Monroe, born February 23, 1908 and died in April of 1980.

The Death Angel has visited our community and claimed for its victim John L. Gentry's wife. She had been on the bed of affliction for some time. The bereaved ones have our heartfelt sympathy. Mrs. Gentry was a true and beloved Christian, who was patient in her illness. WE know it is sad indeed, to give our loved ones up, but they have paid the debt we all will pay sooner or later. May the husband hold out faithful so he can meet his dear loving wife who is waiting at the gale for him. ... Neomia Lee. [Date: 11/9/1916, Vol. XIV, No. 45, Page 1] THE PUTNAM COUNTY HERALD
