Mr. James “Jimmy” Lee Jones , age 61 of Baxter, died Saturday August 1, 2020 at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

He was born March 24, 1959 in Barberton, OH as the youngest son of Warren G. and Lorna "Lucy" Herren Jones. He moved to Baxter in 1972 where he graduated from Upperman High School a year early in the class of 1976.

He was a member of Herren's Chapel Church of Christ where he enjoyed serving in many capacities, but preferred song leading.

For the last 30 years, he was the owner/operator of J. L. Jones Backhoe Service. What began with a single backhoe quickly expanded to a large collection of dump trucks and heavy equipment. Many of Jimmy's customers and colleagues became his dear friends.

He enjoyed working, riding motorcycles and ATVs, camping, playing guitar, and singing. He cherished spending time with his family-especially his grandkids and friends. In his own words, "Family is everything."

Jimmy married the love of his life, Kathy Pharris Jones in June 1978. Together, they raised three children, Brooke Leigh Fleenor (Jeremy), Ashley Paige Ballard (Daniel), and James Warren Jones (Bridget) all of Baxter. He was the proud Poppa of Terrance and Gracie Dedmon, Chloe Fleenor, Eli Bullock, Gunnar Ballard, Christopher, Hailey, and Allie Jones. He is also survived by his brother, Warren (Judy) Jones Jr. of Clinton, OH; sister, Sandy Welte of Baxter; and father-in-law, Sherrill Pharris of Cookeville.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Kenneth Jones; brother-in-law, Larry Welte; brother-in-law, David Pharris; and mother-in-law, Betty Pharris.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, August 4, 2020 at Herren's Chapel Church of Christ with Bro. Tommy Thomas officiating. Interment followed at G. V. Herren Cemetery.
