b. 17 April 1880, Jackson Co., TN – d. 22 June 1938, Jackson Co., TN, md on the 15th of December 1896 to William P. “Billie” Hensley, b. 29 June 1879, Jackson Co., TN – d. 9 February 1930, Jackson Co., TN, s/o Benjamin Asberry Hensley (1837-1917) & Polly Haney (1838-1927). Nancy Elizabeth “Lizzie” (Loftis) Hensley, d/o Francis Marion Loftis (1853-1937) & Mary Jane Chaffin (1856-1920).

Nancy Elizabeth Loftis Hensley is my grandmother, my father being Charlie Fowler Hensley. She died when I was two years old and after my family had moved to California, where my dad found work in the oilfields in Coalinga. My Uncle Goldia told how she died: His mother, Lizzie, was visiting at a neighbor's home and when a terrible thunderstorm came up, she rushed home and then collapsed on the porch. She died immediately. This left Goldia (17) and Lois (14), the two youngest children orphans. They went to California to live with their older sister Nola and her husband, Al

Whiteaker, in Fresno. Several of Lizzie's children and their families stayed in California, and we often visited each other. Occasionally we met together in family reunions, especially when Tennessee relatives came for visits. The picture of my grandmother's headstone was taken by myself. Story by Noram Tew findagrave.com.

Billie P Hensley is my grandfather and died when my dad, Charlie Fowler Hensley, was 14. Billie P was gone months at a time to California to work in the oil fields to help support the family. While this helped monetarily, it was very hard for the family to be without him for such long periods of time. One story is told about him baptizing a man, and from this I believe he might have been a preacher, at least part of the time. One of my aunts told me that he built coffins. And I have also heard that he ran a store in the area he lived in. Story by Noram Tew findagrave.com.
