Jared, E. H.: Prof. E. H. Jared, who lived here, died at his father's home in Rock Spring Valley Monday morning after several months confinement with consumption. Prof. Jared was an exceedingly brilliant young man about thirty years of age. He has been the principal of Cookeville High School and held other responsible positions. The duties of which he discharged with signal ability. He was an honest Christian man, an member of the M. E. Church South at this place. A few years ago he married Miss Margie Goodpasture, with whom he has lived most happily. She and a baby boy survive him. His presence we ill miss and his untimely end deplore. We can but deeply sympathize with the sorrowing family, especially the wife and little one, whom he leaves without protection. (Date: 12/19/1895, Vol. IX, No. 8, Page 8: Cookeville Press, TN).

Hon. Josiah Jared, one of the most prominent and popular citizens of Putnam County died last Wednesday night (15 September 1898) at his home in Rock Springs Valley. He grew to manhood in this county. After completing his education he was a successful teacher, but for many years he devoted his attention to management of his large farm. All his life he was a great student and reader. In 1831 he joined the Methodist Church and for sixty-eight years he lived a Christian life full of good deeds and noble virtues. In 1851 he married Frances Bennett, whom he survived for several years. Burial took place near his home at Low Gap Cemetery, TN.
JARED, JOSIAH: Hon. Josiah Jared Dead. -- Hon. Josiah Jared of Rock Spring, died at his home last Friday, at the advanced age of eighty three years. Mr. Jared was one of the oldest inhabitants of Putnam county, having been born on its soil before the county was established, where he has always lived and been one of our most honored and useful citizens. He was a man of broad intellect, and great depth of thought, and was a tower of strength to the community in which he lived. He was formerly a school teacher, but later turned his entire attention to agricultural pursuits, in which he accumulated a comfortable fortune, having laid by a sufficient store to make his declining years comfortable. He was the head of a prominent family -- his sons who survive him are all prominent in this county, and his daughters possessed much culture and refinement. Mr. Jared was a strict Jeffersonian Democrat, and rendered much service to the success of his party. He was buried in the family burial ground near his home. [Date: 2/23/1899, Vol. XIII, No. 8, Page 5]. The Cookeville Press newspaper, Cookeville, TN

Josiah and Frances Woodbury (Bennett) Jared are both buried in the Joseph Jared Cemetery, Putnam Co., TN. Located on Hwy. 70 at Low Gap west of Gentry.
