Bettie Jean (Maxwell) DeLuca Obt.

b. 18 July 1938, Baxter, Putnam Co., TN – d. 21 August 2024, Cookeville, Putnam Co., TN, md Dominic Steven DeLuca. Bettie (Maxwell) DeLuca, d/o Clifford Ralph Maxwell (1914-2004 & Agnes Elise Martin (1919-2004).

*See Clifford Ralph Maxwell, buried in Maxwell S. Cemetery.

BAXTER-Bettie Maxwell DeLuca, a cherished wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on August 21, 2024, at the age of 86 in Cookeville, TN. Born on July 18, 1938, in Baxter, TN, Bettie lived a life marked by dedication to her family, a passion for her work, and a love for the simple joys in life.

Bettie was the beloved daughter of the late Clifford Ralph and Agnes Elise Martin Maxwell. Her early years in Baxter were filled with the warmth of a close-knit community and the strong values imparted by her parents, which she carried throughout her life. She attended Bussell Church of Christ, where she developed a foundation of faith that would guide her in her many years to come.

In her professional life, Bettie was known for her sharp mind and attention to detail, which served her well in her career as an internal bank auditor. Her colleagues respected her for her integrity and her unwavering commitment to excellence in her work. Bettie's career was not just a job but a testament to her belief in the importance of trust and accountability.

Bettie's heart was always with her family. She was preceded in death by her son, Kevin Lee Ferris, whose memory she held dear.

She is survived by her loving husband, Dominic Steven DeLuca of Cookeville, with whom she shared a beautiful and enduring partnership. Her legacy continues through her daughter, Karen (Gary) Leopardi of Livonia, MI; her sister, Marilyn Kanakis of Gainesboro; her five grandchildren, Dustin (Michelle) Ferris, Ariana Leopardi, Mariesa Leopardi, Vincent Leopardi, and Laura Dobbs; and her cherished great-grandchildren, Veronica, Lauren, Madeline, Ayah and Drew, who brought her immeasurable joy.

Bettie's interests were a reflection of her appreciation for the beauty and craft of the world around her. She had a special talent for cross stitching, creating intricate designs that were as much a part of her as her gentle smile. Her garden was a testament to her patience and nurturing spirit, with every bloom and leaf tended with love.

The loss of Bettie Maxwell DeLuca will be deeply felt by all who knew her. She touched many lives with her kindness, her wisdom, and her quiet strength. Bettie's memory will be a beacon for her family, a reminder of the love and the grace that she brought into this world. Her spirit, as vibrant as the flowers she so adored, will continue to inspire and comfort those she has left behind.

Bettie's life will be celebrated in a manner that honors the fullness with which she lived and the profound impact she had on those around her. Her story is one of love, dedication, and the enduring bonds of family—a story that will be cherished and recounted for generations to come.

Funeral services will be Monday, August 26, 2024 at 1 PM at the Baxter Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home with Bro. Dwight Fuqua officiating. Interment will follow in Maxwell Cemetery South. The family will receive friends Monday 11 AM until service time at the funeral home.

Family and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Silas W. Gentry Called By Death:

Silas W. Gentry was born October 30, 1857, near Baxter, TN, departed this life January 11, 1932, age 74 years, 2 months and 13 days.

He was married to Miss Mary Robinson Maxwell on April 4, 1876. to this union was born 13 children, eight boys and five girls.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, L. C. of Paden, OK, and Albert, of Oak Hill, WV, four daughters, Mrs. Benton Wilkerson and Mrs. Joe Ramsey, of Cookeville, Mrs. C. W. Coleman and Miss Bezzie

Gentry, of Baxter. Besides the immediate family, he leaves five brothers, John, of Baxter, R. O., of Cookeville, Sterling, of McEwen, Joe, of TX, and Elmore, of Monterey; three sisters, Mrs. Joe Leftwich, Mrs. Hick Maxwell, of Baxter, and Mrs. John Duke, of Nashville, and several grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn his departure.

Silas W. Gentry was a true type of the old line citizenship. Possessing to the fullest extent a genuine hospitality he always met you with a smile and never failed to invite you into his home to spend the day or the night, as the case might be.

He was always interested in all public questions and was never too busy to chat with his friends, at the same time he has demonstrated to the world that an honest living could be made and a large family could be reared on a small, poor farm. He did not forget the great Bible question, "What would it profit a man if he gained the whole world and lost his own soul?" He obeyed the gospel and was baptized by Rev. Williams in 1905, and lived a faithful Christian life until the end. Religiously speaking as in all other principles of life, he was true to his convictions and was always to be found at his post of duty. Although he lived two miles from the meeting house in which he worshipped and in spite of the fact that he was made a cripple by a fall on an icy street in Cookeville, forced to use a crutch or crutches for the remainder of his life (about five years) he would often make the two miles along a narrow, muddy road on foot through the mud, the snow and the rain, ready to perform his duty and contribute his mite on the Lord's Day.

The family has lost a good companion and father, the State has lost a good citizen, and the church has lost a most excellent member.

Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ by Chester Patton and J. P. Watson; also O. H. Tallman was present and made a talk.

The body was laid to rest in the Gran Maxwell cemetery to await the judgment morn.

Pedestrian Killed While On Way To See Sick Father: Walter Gentry, 40, struck by auto on Highway No. 24 Saturday night. While walking to Baxter, Walter Gentry, 40, of Cleveland, TN, was instantly killed at 10:30 Saturday night when he was struck by a car driven by Roy McCawley, 20 year old son of John L. McCawley, of Gainesboro, on Highway No. 24 two miles west of Cookeville. Gentry was on his way to see his father, Cy (Silas Henry Gentry), who is believed dying. Gentry had come to Cookeville from Cleveland, and stopped at John Cornwell's filling station near the Cookeville city limit before continuing his journey. He had walked about a mile from the filling station when he met his death. McCawley with Braxton, Sadler of Jellico, on his way to Gainesboro and it was said that lights of an approaching car blinded him and he never saw Gentry. Gentry's left leg was torn off just below the knee and his skull was crushed.

Funeral services were held at the Maxwell cemetery, Sunday afternoon, Rev. B. M. Harness officiating. Gentry is survived by his wife and a number of children and his parents.

Name of parent, guardian or next of kin of female: Allie Saylor, mother, Ferguson, Cookeville, TN).

Hilda Mae Jones, age 77, died Friday evening, September 4, 2020 at Cookeville Regional Medical Center.

The daughter of Joseph Bethel and Allie Enid Saylor, she was born at home on March 10, 1943 in Baxter, Tennessee and named by her brother and sister who had a favorite teacher named Hilda.

She attended Baxter Seminary before leaving school at the age of 14 to work and help support her family.

She worked at ACME Boot where she met her first husband, J.D. They lived in Cookeville, TN and had two sons. She had a close and warm relationship with many of her nieces and nephews.

Hilda and her second husband, Jerry Jones, lived in Nashville for several years before settling back in Cookeville. He took care of her for many years as her health declined.

Her life's joy was to take care of her family and her home. She loved to iron and keep house. She was a wonderful cook. The memories of her green beans, mashed potatoes, chocolate gravy (and many other dishes) will always be cherished.

She was a member of Poplar Springs Missionary Baptist Church, although her health kept her from attending for the last several years. As a Christian, she spoke often of her relationship with Jesus and was ready to be united with him in Heaven in a body free of pain and limitations. She will be missed by her family and loved ones.

She is survived by her husband of 21 years: Jerry Jones; her two sons: Mark Medley of Ft. Wayne, IN and David (Betsy) Medley of Cookeville, TN; three grandchildren: Jonathan (Chelsey) Medley of Franklin, TN, Eric (Katie) Medley of Springfield, TN and Marisa Medley of Cookeville, TN; and 2 great grandchildren: Balin Medley and Ava Medley.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her first husband J.D. Medley, and her siblings: Lois Saylor, Mildred Roberts, and James Saylor.

Funeral services were held Monday, July 7, 2020 at the Cookeville chapel of Hooper-Huddleston & Horner Funeral Home. Private interment followed at Maxwell South Cemetery.

BAXTER-Alvin Morris Maxwell, fondly known as "Cat" by those who knew and loved him, passed away peacefully on February 20, 2024, at the age of 88, in Cookeville, Tennessee. Born on October 7, 1935, in Baxter, Tennessee, Cat was a man of humble beginnings who lived a life marked by kindness, dedication, and a love for the great outdoors.

Cat grew up in Baxter, a small town where he learned the values of hard work and community. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 62 years, Linda Pearl McBroom Maxwell, who passed away August 8, 2023, and by his parents, Roe Oliver and Bertie Ensor Maxwell. Cat was the youngest of a large and loving family, which included his sisters Ocia Maxwell, Dora Maxwell, Mattie Almeda Maxwell and Dessie Williams, and his brothers Dow, Verdie "Bill," John, Estle, James "Jim," William Clayborn, and Donald "Pee" Maxwell. He is survived by a host of nieces and nephews who will cherish his memory and continue to feel the impact of his gentle spirit.

He was a member of Cookeville Free Will Baptist Church.

Cat's life was defined by his work ethic and his ability to fix anything, from cars to lawn mowers. He took great pride in his craft as a carpenter and mechanic, and for many years, he served his community through his work as a custodian at Upperman High School. Those who worked alongside Cat knew him as a man who approached every task with care and precision, and his presence in the halls of Upperman High was a constant source of reliability and warmth.

Beyond his work, Cat was passionate about the outdoors. He had an unparalleled love for bird hunting and spent countless hours training bird dogs, a skill that he mastered with patience and a deep understanding of the animals he worked with. Deer and turkey hunting were also among his favorite pursuits, and he found peace and joy in the rolling hills and forests of Tennessee. Cat's love for nature was infectious, and he often shared his knowledge and adventures with those around him.

Kind is the word that best describes Cat. His kindness was a quiet, steady force that touched the lives of all who knew him. It could be seen in his interactions with his family, his friends, and even the animals he cared for. Cat's kind-hearted nature was evident in his willingness to lend a hand, his readiness to offer a word of encouragement, and his ever-present smile.

In his passing, Cat leaves behind a legacy of kindness and a life well-lived. His memory will be cherished and kept alive by the stories told, the lessons learned, and the moments shared with a man who was truly precious to his community. As we say goodbye to Alvin Morris Maxwell, we take comfort in knowing that his spirit will continue to inspire us to live with the same humility, kindness, and love for the natural world that he embodied so well.

A life so beautifully lived deserves to be beautifully remembered. Cat Maxwell will be deeply missed but never forgotten. As the sun sets over the hills he loved so dearly, we find solace in the memories and the indelible mark he has left on our hearts. Rest in peace, dear Cat, until we meet again.

Funeral service will be Saturday, March 23, 2024 at 1 pm in the Baxter Chapel of Hooper Huddleston and Horner Funeral Home. The family will receive friends Saturday from 11 am until service time at the funeral home. Bro. Harold Walker and Harold Ralph Maynard will officiate. Interment will follow in Maxwell Cemetery South.
